SECURITIES AND EXCHANGE COMMISSION.

[File No. 31-417]

CONSOLIDATED GAS AND ELECTRIC CO.

ORDER EXTENDING EXEMPTION

At a regular session of the Securities and Exchange Commission held at its office in the City of Philadelphia, Pennsylvania on the 26th day of July, A. D. 1943.

The Commission having heretofore on February 2, 1939, after notice and opportunity for hearing, ordered that the Islands Gas and Electric Company, Compagnie d'Eclairage Electrique des Villes de Port-au-Prince et du Cap Haitien, Compania Electrica de Santo Domingo, C. por A., Union Electrica de Canarias, S. A., Manila Gas Corporation, Gas y Electricidad, S. A., and Porto Rico Gas & Coke Company be exempted, to the extent specified, from certain provisions of the Public Utility Holding Company Act of 1935 applicable to them as subsidiary companies of Consolidated Electric and Gas Company, a registered holding company; and

The Commission, upon subsequent applications of Consolidated Electric and Gas Company, having in its order dated July 31, 1941, extended the time during which the above-named subsidiary companies were exempt, to the extent specified, to August 1, 1943; and

Consolidated Electric and Gas Company, having on May 14, 1943, filed an application pursuant to section 3 (b) of the Public Utility Holding Company Act of 1935 seeking an extension of the time during which such previous order, dated July 31, 1941, should be effective; and

The Commission having considered such application and it appearing that the circumstances upon which such original order of exemption was issued still exist with the exception of pending proceedings involving Consolidated Electric and Gas Company, et al. under section 11 of the Act, and that a further extension of the time during which such order of exemption shall be effective will not be detrimental to the public interest or the interest of investors or consumers;

It is therefore ordered, That the time during which such order of exemption shall be effective be, and hereby is, extended to the extent and subject to the conditions heretofore designated in our order of July 31, 1941, until August 1, 1944, except, however, that such exemption shall not apply to section 11 of the Act, without prejudice to the right of Consolidated Electric and Gas Company to apply for a further extension of the time during which such order shall be effective and to apply at any time for such enlargement of any provisions of such order as it may deem appropriate.

By the Commission.

Secretary.

§ 19.328 Association fees on Commissioner loans; "New money" defined. Where an association is not operating under a plan which compensates it, or is intended to compensate it, for its total operating expenses, the association may be allowed a commission of one-half of 1 percent of the full amount of new Commissioner loans closed. On Commissioner loans made to refinance outstanding Commissioner loans, bank loans, or both, this loan closing commission may be allowed only on the new money loaned. Loan closing commissions allowed associations for closing Commissioner loans shall not be collected from the borrowers but shall be paid by the Corporation. "New money", as used in these regulations, is defined as the amount of the new note or notes which represents other than principal of the outstanding loan held by the bank or the Corporation, or both, unmatured as of the date of the application.

(Secs. 33, 34, 48 Stat. 49, as amended; 12 U.S.C. 1017, 1018)

AUTHORITY: §§ 19.330 to 19.335, inclusive, issued under secs. 13 "Ninth", 17 (d), 39 Stat. 372, 375, secs. 26, 32, 48 Stat. 44, 48, as amended; 12 U.S.C. 781 "Ninth", 831 (d), 723 (e), 1016 (e).

§ 19.330 Additional loans; bank fees. In connection with applications for loans in increased amounts, whether or not additional security is offered, a fee of $10.00 should accompany the application, and if the loan is closed, the bank may deduct from the proceeds an additional fee amounting to $1.00 for each $1,000.00, or fraction thereof, by which the amount of new money loaned exceeds $5,000.00.

§ 19.331 Division of loans; bank fees. Each application for the division of an existing loan should be accompanied by a fee of $5.00. If the application results in an increased loan, the bank may deduct from the proceeds an additional fee of $1.00 for each $1,000.00, or fraction thereof, by which the amount of new money loaned exceeds $5,000.00.

§ 19.332 Loans on specialized farms; bank fees. In the case of applications for loans (or increased loans or divisions of loans) on specialized farms of certain types, such as turpentine farms, ranches, and orchards, where appraisal costs are unusually high, the banks may establish, subject to the approval of the Land Bank Commissioner, special additional fees in recognition of the higher cost of appraisal of such property.

§ 19.333 Nonresident investigations; bank fees. Where, in connection with an application for a new loan, an increased loan, or the division of an existing loan, it appears necessary for the bank to make a non-resident personal investigation, the applicant may be required to pay a fee of $7.50, such fee to be refunded in its entirety to the applicant if the investigation is not made.

§ 19.334 Applicability of bank fees. The fee schedule described in §§ 19.322, 19.326, 19.330, 19.331 and 19.332 is applicable to single Federal land bank or Land Bank Commissioner first mortgage loans; in the event the application results in a joint land bank and Land Bank Commissioner loan, the fee shall be computed upon the basis of the aggregate amount loaned.

§ 19.335 Appraisal fees. The fee deposits authorized by §§ 19.322, 19.330, 19.331, and 19.332 of these regulations should be retained by the bank if an appraisal is made of the property but in any such case where an appraisal is not made, the fee should be refunded in its entirety to the applicant. Where a reappraisal is required because of delay of the applicant or is made at his request, the applicant may be required to pay a second fee computed on the basis set forth in §§ 19.322, 19.330, 19.331, and 19.332.

§ 19.339 Partial releases; bank fees. Each application for a partial release of the mortgaged security should be accompanied by a fee of $10.00, which should be retained by the bank if an appraisal is made, but returned to the applicant in its entirety if an appraisal is not made. Provision may be made, subject to the approval of the Land Bank Commissioner, for additional fees in the case of applications for releases in connection with specialized farms.

(Secs. 13 "Ninth", 17 (d), 39 Stat. 372, 375, secs. 26, 32, 33, 34, 48 Stat. 44, 48, 49, as amended; 12 U.S.C. 781 "Ninth", 831 (d), 723 (e), 1016 (e), 1017, 1018)

§ 19.340 Release of personal liability; bank fees. Where, upon transfer of title to the mortgaged property, an application is made for release from personal liability, the bank may require a fee of $10.00 in connection with each application, such fee to be refunded in its entirety to the applicant in the event an appraisal of the property is not made.

These regulations shall become effective August 2, 1943.

Chapter III—Farm Security Administration

PART 390—FLOOD RESTORATION LOANS

Sec.
390.1 General.
390.2 Eligibility.
390.3 Loan policies and purposes.
390.4 Making of loans.
390.5 Supervision and loan servicing.
390.6 Reports.

AUTHORITY: §§ 390.1 to 390.6 inclusive issued under Pub. Law 140, 78th Cong.

§ 390.1 General. Congress has made available to the Secretary of Agriculture a fund of $15,000,000 for assistance to farmers whose property was destroyed or damaged by floods in 1943. The Secretary of Agriculture has designated the Farm Security Administration as the agency to administer a program of Flood Restoration (FR) loans.

(a) Purpose of program. The Flood Restoration Loan Program will provide assistance to farmers, in designated areas, who because of damage or destruction of property by such floods will not be in a position to continue agricultural production needed in the war unless credit is made available from this source. The general test for determining the amount of each loan is whether such amount is necessary to correct a situation which appears reasonably to have resulted from such floods and is required either (1) to enable the applicant to resume or continue agricultural production this year, or (2) to make arrangements for such production next year.

(b) Scope of program. The Flood Restoration Loan Program will be restricted to counties designated by the Secretary of Agriculture. No activity under this program will be initiated in any county until the regional director has been officially notified of designation by the Secretary.

(c) Local assistance from other agencies. Although the actual making and servicing of loans will be the responsibility of the Farm Security Administration, there will be a need, particularly at the county level, for the full cooperation and assistance of other agricultural agencies and representives. War Boards, representatives of other agricultural credit sources (federal, state and local), and other community leaders can furnish valuable advisory assistance, publicity and other services.

§ 390.2 Eligibility. Any farm owner or any farm operator (including tenants and sharecroppers) whose farm lies in a designated county and whose property was destroyed in whole or in part by floods in 1943, will be eligible to apply for an appropriate type of FR loan under this program: Provided, Such applicant is unable to obtain credit elsewhere at comparable or reasonable terms: And provided, further, That a loan is necessary to resume or continue agricultural production either in 1943 or 1944. Final determinations of eligibility will be made by county FSA committees.

§ 390.3 Loan policies and purposes. Two types of loans (see paragraphs (e) and (f) hereof) will be available to applicants under this program. These loans will be distinguished from other loans made by the Farm Security Administration. Recipients of loans under this program will be identified as Flood Restoration borrowers (FR borrowers). FSA borrowers who have suffered flood damage are eligible for FR loans within the limitations set forth in this Instruction. (Such borrowers will retain their present classification as FSA borrowers.)

(a) Refinancing. No indebtedness secured by a mortgage upon real estate will be refinanced under this program. Indebtedness other than real estate debt may be refinanced with FR loans in exceptional cases upon the approval of the Secretary of Agriculture, if such refinancing becomes necessary by reason of flood damage and is essential to the resumption or continuance of production and then, only after such debts have been properly adjusted.

(b) Debt adjustment. There will be many situations under this program where the damage or loss resulting from floods will have created circumstances that prohibit the orderly liquidation of existing debts and, therefore, necessitate a careful and thorough adjustment of debts.

(1) Real estate debts. In those situations where the existing indebtedness on real estate merits adjustment to justify the additional credit necessary to restore the land to production, efforts should be made to induce creditors to (i) reduce the amount of such indebtedness, (ii) extend the terms thereof, or (iii) otherwise, satisfactorily adjust the indebtedness to the debt-paying ability of the applicant by any combination of these or other methods.

(2) Other debts. In those situations where the adjustment of debts other than real estate debts is essential to the resumption or continuance of production, efforts should be made to induce creditors to adjust debts through reduction, extension or other appropriate methods, to within the probable debt-paying ability of the applicant. If it appears necessary to refinance such debts, the amount recommended for refinancing must not exceed the sum of a conservative estimate of the borrower's ability to repay annually, multiplied by the number of years over which repayment should be extended, (this may not, in any case, exceed 10 years), or in the case of secured debts a conservative estimate of the value of the security, whichever is the lesser.

(c) Alternative protective actions. In those situations where adjustment of debts appears desirable but may not be vitally essential to the resumption or continuance of production, alternative measures may be followed for the protection of the Government's and the applicant's interests:

(1) Subordination agreements may be obtained from secured creditors, either real estate or non-real estate, in lieu of debt reductions where it appears that ultimate repayment of the total debt could be made without serious financial injury to the applicant.

(2) Non-disturbance agreements may be obtained from either secured or unsecured creditors (real estate or non-real estate debts) in lieu of an extension of time in those instances where it appears that the applicant will be able to either repay or place himself in a safe financial position provided he is not disturbed during an ample period of time.

(d) Protective tenure improvements. There may be some situations where contract purchasers of land and mortgagors with small equities will desire to make so-called permanent improvements to real estate which are necessitated by flood damage and which appear essential to bringing about partial production of essential agricultural commodities in 1943 or full production in 1944. In passing upon these loan applications, due consideration must be given to the approximate cost of such improvements in relation to the borrower's equity in the land. If it appears that the borrower may, through foreclosure, cancelation of contract, or otherwise, fail to realize the reasonable value of the expenditure, the loan should not be made, unless the mortgagee or title owner of the real estate (1) assumes liability for the amount loaned for such improvements, or (2) agrees that the improvements may be removed in the event of foreclosure or sale of the farm to other than the contract purchaser or mortgagor, or (3) agrees to compensate the borrower for the residual value of the improvements in the event of such termination. If the applicant is a tenant the same tests must be followed, and the loan for such improvements must not be made unless the mortgagee or title owner of the real property will agree (1) to become liable for the amount loaned to make the improvements, or (2) to permit the removal of the improvements at the termination of the lease, or (3) to pay for the residual value of such improvements at the termination of the lease, or (4) to extend the period of the tenure sufficient to enable the applicant to obtain full utilization of the cost of the improvement.

(e) Production restoration loans. Loans may be made to eligible applicants, for a period of not to exceed 10 years or a shorter period consistent with the borrower's anticipated ability to repay, or the useful life of the security, at an interest rate of 5 per cent per annum for production needs including repairs or replacement of equipment, livestock, minor repairs and replacements on real estate, and other needs essential to the resumption or continuance of production. In those states in which the chattel mortgage will not be capable of extension over the entire repayment period of the loan, the installment due under the note for the year when the lien, created by a chattel mortgage, is to be terminated must be the aggregate of the normal installment for that year and the normal installments for all subsequent years. The borrower should be advised that the note will be extended to provide for payments over the desired period of the loan if the extension is justified and if a new chattel mortgage is given by the borrower immediately preceding the end of the statute period covering security adequate to justify the extension. In all cases in which the property to be purchased consists of movable property which can be made the subject of a chattel mortgage, the chattel mortgage should be obtained. The Regional Attorney should be requested to prepare instructions concerning the taking of mortgages on chattels to be affixed to the real estate. Production Restoration loans may include funds for the following purposes:

1. Purchase of feed, seed and fertilizer.
2. The repair or replacement of machinery and equipment.
3. Purchase of livestock.
4. Minor real estate repairs or replacement of buildings, fences and other farm improvements and facilities.
5. Refinancing of adjusted debts other than real estate debts.
6. Other general farm operating expenses.
7. Home operating expenses.

(f) Real estate restoration loans. Loans may be made to eligible farmers, for a period of not to exceed 20 years or a shorter period consistent with the borrower's anticipated ability to repay, or the useful life of the security, whichever is the lesser, at an interest rate of 3½ per cent per annum for major repairs or replacements to real property destroyed or damaged in whole or in part by floods. Such loans may include funds for the following purposes:

1. Leveling land or clearing of debris.
2. Major repairs or replacements of drainage, irrigation or flood control systems.
3. Major repairs or replacements of farm buildings.
4. Major repairs or replacements of fencing, orchards, windbreaks or other farm improvements and facilities.
5. Expenses incidental to the making of the loan.

§ 390.4 Making of loans. FR loans will be made under existing FSA procedures except as otherwise provided in this Instruction.

(a) Applications. (1) Applications for either type of Flood Restoration loan will be made on Form FSA 663, "Flood Restoration Loan Application." No other form of application will be required under this program.

(2) Applications will be referred by the FSA supervisor to the county FSA committee for its consideration and determination of the applicant's eligibility and for recommendations on the loan requested. In determining eligibility, the committee will be guided by FSA policies and instructions governing the Flood Restoration Loan Program.

(3) Certain applications, particularly among applications for Real Estate Restoration loans, will contemplate repairs or replacements requiring engineering services. In any such case, a request for the services of the district engineer's staff should be made through the proper channels. The office of the district engineer will provide required surveys, plans, specifications, contract documents and supervision, at appropriate times where such engineering services are determined to be necessary.

(b) Preparation and processing of loan dockets. Dockets for either type of Flood Restoration loan will be prepared on the same forms and in the same number of copies and will be processed and case numbers assigned in the same manner as standard RR loans except as follows:

(1) All forms will be prominently marked "Flood Restoration Loan."

(2) Loan Agreement, Form FSA 664, will be required for both types of Flood Restoration loans and prepared and distributed in the same manner as the loan agreement for standard RR loans.

(3) The Flood Restoration Loan Application, Form FSA 663, will be prepared in an original and three copies; the original will be included in the loan docket, and forwarded to the regional director from the finance area office upon certification of the loan voucher; one copy will be given to the applicant, one copy forwarded to the district FSA supervisor and one copy retained in the county FSA office.

(c) Loan approval. (1) Applications for loans under this program exceeding $25,000 to a borrower and applications involving refinancing will be referred to the Secretary of Agriculture with the recommendation of the Administrator. In all such cases the complete docket will be forwarded to the Administrator by the official otherwise authorized to approve the loan, with his analysis and recommendation.

(2) Loan applications under this program exceeding $10,000 to a borrower but not exceeding $25,000 will be referred to the Administrator with the recommendation of the regional director.

(3) Regional directors are hereby authorized to approve FR loans in amounts not to exceed an aggregate of $10,000 to a borrower under the FR Loan Program. This authority may be redelegated to an appropriate member of the regional director's staff.

(4) Individual district FSA supervisors and associate district FSA supervisors may be delegated authority by the regional director to approve FR loans in amounts not in excess of $5,000. The amount of authority delegated to district and associate district FSA supervisors will constitute a limitation on the aggregate amount of FR loans to a borrower that may be approved by such employees under the FR loan program.

(5) Individual FSA supervisors may be delegated authority by district FSA supervisors to approve FR loans in amounts not in excess of $2,500. The amount of delegated loan approval authority will represent the aggregate amount of FR loans for any borrower which may be approved by an FSA supervisor under the FR Loan Program.

(d) Security. Loans made under the FR Loan Program will be secured to a degree of reasonable adequacy, usually by liens on the property purchased or produced with loan funds.

(1) Real estate restoration loans. Real estate restoration loans will be secured by liens on the real estate unless other collateral security is offered which is determined to be reasonably adequate. Liens on real estate may be junior liens, provided that the outstanding indebtedness against the real estate, plus the amount of the FR loan, will not exceed the value of the realty and the total indebtedness appears to be within the debt-paying ability of the applicant and arrangements are made so that the tenure of the applicant will be reasonably secure. In all cases of loans of $1,000 or more, the title shall be approved by the Regional Attorney or a mortgage title insurance policy issued by a company approved by the Solicitor's Office shall be furnished. In cases of loans under $1,000, there shall be included in the docket an owner's affidavit, Form FSA–665, a third party affidavit, Form FSA–LE–238, or Form FSA–RP–70, "Tract date obtained from public record," completed and signed by the FSA supervisor, county recorder, county treasurer and abstractor or other appropriate person or official. The applicant must pay all costs in connection with the title insurance policy or the preparation and continuance of the abstract or other expense necessary in the furnishing of proper title evidence and the costs of recording, but the Government may advance money necessary for this purpose by including sufficient funds in the loan. It will be the responsibility of the Regional Attorney to prepare appropriate instructions for the obtaining of title evidence, the closing of loans and the obtaining of a mortgagee title insurance policy if required.

(2) Production restoration loans. Production Restoration loans will be secured by a first lien on all property purchased and the best lien obtainable on property repaired (except real estate) or crops produced with loan funds. It is anticipated that such liens will ordinarily represent reasonably adequate security, however, in those cases in which the major portion of the loan funds are advanced for items that cannot be made subject to a lien, additional security may be required by the approving official in order to establish a situation of reasonable adequacy. In cases where liens are taken on property being repaired or on property representing additional security, junior liens will be acceptable provided the borrower owns a mortgageable equity in such property.

(3) Other security. Other security, such as assignments of farm income, may be required by the approving official where it appears necessary for the protection of the Government's interests in the orderly retirement of the FR loan.

§ 390.5 Supervision and loan servicing—(a) Supervision. It is not contemplated that FR borrowers will be given the type of detailed supervision of farm and home practices and operations characteristic of the FR program. However, there may be situations where loans cannot safely be made except in anticipation of some supervision of farm and home operations. The FSA Committee, in passing upon the eligibility of each applicant, will determine whether such supervision is necessary. When any FR borrower requests supervisory assistance of the type ordinarily given under the RR program, provisions will be made for the extension of supervisory services within the limits of available personnel.

(b) Loan servicing. FR loans will be serviced under the procedures and with forms applicable to standard RR loans except as provided herein. FSA officials who are delegated similar authority with respect to RR loans are hereby authorized to do all acts necessary and incidental to the making, servicing, renewing and collecting of all FR loans, subject to monetary restrictions and other restrictions applicable to similar acts under the RR program. FSA officials who are similarly authorized to act under the RR program are likewise authorized to accept, record, release and satisfy instruments of security for all FR loans subject to monetary restrictions and other restrictions imposed under the FR-RR program (8 F.R. 7413, June 4, 1943). Specific exceptions to these general authorizations are as follows:

(1) Partial release of security may be granted only for the following purposes:

(i) Repayments on FR loans.

(ii) Exchange (including sale and repurchase) of security better suited to the future needs of the borrower.

(iii) For the protection and maintenance of remaining security.

(2) The renewal of FR loans will be accomplished on the same forms and handled under the same general procedures applicable to standard RR loans except that Real Estate Restoration loans or Production Restoration loans will not be combined with any other type of loan. Separate renewal notes will be required for each of these loan types, although such a renewal may include several loan advances of the same type.

§ 390.6 Reports. No special reports on the FR Loan Program will be required of county FSA offices. Finance area offices will prepare for the Secretary as of August 31, 1943, and monthly thereafter, reports by states of the number and amount (by loan types) of loan advances, the total amount advanced such borrowers, the amount of principal and interest repaid, and balances of principal unpaid. In addition, regional directors will prepare for the Secretary on the 10th of each month a report by states based on applications processed through the Finance area office during the preceding month, showing the number of FR loans involving advances for each of the purposes indicated in § 390.3 (e) and (f) and the total amount of advances made for each of the purposes indicated in these paragraphs.

Dated: July 24, 1943.

Acting Administrator.

TITLE 7—AGRICULTURE

ORDER AUTHORIZING FARM SECURITY ADMINISTRATION TO MAKE LOANS FOR FLOOD RELIEF

Pursuant to the authority vested in me under Title I of the "Second Deficiency Appropriation Act 1943" (Pub. Law No. 140, 78th Congress), I hereby authorize and direct the Farm Security Administration to make loans in such areas as I may designate to provide assistance to farmers whose property was destroyed or damaged, in whole or in part, by floods in 1943 where necessary to enable such farmers to resume or continue agricultural production in 1943, or to make arrangements for such production in 1944 in order to produce for the war effort.

1. Such loans may be made for the purpose of aiding any farmer, who is unable to obtain credit elsewhere at comparable or reasonable terms, to replace or repair any property so destroyed or damaged, and to finance the purchase of feed, seed, livestock, equipment and other farming supplies, materials, and operating costs and expenses necessary to carry on such farming operations.

2. No loan shall be made for a longer period than 20 years. Interest shall be charged at a rate of not greater than 5 percent nor less than 3½ percent. Different interest rates may be fixed for different classes of loans.

3. The Farm Security Administration shall have authority to do all acts necessary and incidental to the making, servicing, renewing, and collecting of such loans, except that all loans of $25,000 or more or which include funds for refinancing indebtedness shall be approved by me. Reasonably adequate security shall be taken for all loans made pursuant to this delegation of authority and for this purpose authority is hereby granted to accept, record, release and satisfy instruments of security of all kinds.

4. The Administrator of the Farm Security Administration or, in his absence, the Acting Administrator, shall exercise the authority contained herein, shall issue detailed instructions which shall be approved by me, and may delegate and authorize redelegation of this authority to subordinate officers and employees of the Farm Security Administration. (Public Law No. 140, 78th Congress)

Done at Washington, D. C., this 24th day of July, 1943. Witness my hand and the seal of the Department of Agriculture.

§ 946.0 Findings and determinations—(a) Findings upon the basis of the hearing record. Pursuant to Public Act No. 10, 73d Congress (May 12, 1933), as amended and as reenacted and amended by the Agricultural Marketing Agreement Act of 1937, as amended (hereinafter referred to as the "Act"), and the rules of practice and procedure governing proceedings to formulate marketing agreements and marketing orders (7 CFR, 1941 Supp., 900.1–900.17 7 F.R. 3350, 8 F.R. 2815), a public hearing was held upon certain proposed amendments to the tentatively approved marketing agreement, as amended, and to the order, as amended, regulating the handling of milk in the Louisville, Kentucky, marketing area. Upon the basis of the evidence introduced in such hearing and the record thereof, it is hereby found that:

(1) The order regulating the handling of milk in the said marketing area, as amended and as hereby amended, and all of the terms and conditions of said order, as amended and as hereby amended, will tend to effectuate the declared policy of the act;

(2) The prices calculated to give milk produced for sale in the said marketing area a purchasing power equivalent to the purchasing power of such milk as determined pursuant to sections 2 and 8 (e) of the act are not reasonable in view of the price of feeds, available supplies of feeds, and other economic conditions which affect market supplies of and demand for such milk, and the minimum prices specified in the said order are such prices as will reflect the aforesaid factors, insure a sufficient quantity of pure and wholesome milk, and be in the public interest;

(3) The said order, as amended and as hereby further amended, regulates the handling of milk in the same manner as and is applicable only to persons in the respective classes of industrial and commercial activity specified in the said tentatively approved marketing agreement upon which a hearing has been held; and

(4) The handling of all milk sold or disposed of in the marketing area, as defined herein, is in the current of interstate commerce, or directly burdens, obstructs, or affects interstate commerce in milk and its products.

(b) Additional finding. It is hereby found and proclaimed that the purchasing power of milk in the said marketing area for the pre-war period August 1909–July 1914 cannot be satisfactorily determined from available statistics of the Department of Agriculture but that the purchasing power of such milk for the post-war period August 1919–July 1929 can be satisfactorily determined from available statistics in the Department of Agriculture; and the post-war period August 1919–July 1929 is the base period to be used in determining the purchasing power of such milk.

(c) Determinations. It is hereby determined that handlers (excluding cooperative associations of producers who are not engaged in processing, distributing, or shipping milk covered by this order) of at least 50 percent of the volume of milk covered by this order which is marketed within the said marketing area refused or failed to sign the tentatively approved marketing agreement regulating the handling of milk in the said marketing area; and it is hereby further determined that:

(1) The refusal or failure of such handlers to sign such tentatively approved marketing agreement tends to prevent the effectuation of the declared policy of the act;

(2) The issuance of this order, as amended, is the only practical means pursuant to the declared policy of the act to advance the interests of the producers of milk which is produced for sale in the said marketing area; and

(3) The issuance of this order, as amended, is approved or favored by at least two-thirds of the producers who participated in a referendum on the question of approval of the order and who, during the month of May 1943 (which month is hereby determined to be a representative period), were engaged in the production of milk for sale in the said marketing area.

Order Relative to Handling

This definition shall be deemed to include any cooperative association with respect to the milk of any producer which it causes to be delivered to a plant from which no milk is disposed of in the marketing area, for the account of such cooperative association: Provided, That such milk is handled on a basis which will permit the market administrator to verify the utilization of such milk in the plant at which such milk is received. This definition shall not be deemed to include any person from whom emergency milk is received.

(7) Promptly verify the information contained in the reports submitted by handlers.

§ 946.3 Classification of milk—(a) Milk to be classified. Milk of a producer caused to be delivered by a cooperative association which is a handler to a plant from which no milk is disposed of in the marketing area and all milk received by each handler, including milk produced by him, if any, at plants from which milk is disposed of in the marketing area, shall be classified by the market administrator in the classes set forth in (b) of this section, subject to the provisions of (c), (d), and (e) of this section. In the classification of milk as required in (b) of this section, the responsibility of each handler shall be as follows:

(1) In establishing the classification of any milk received by a handler, the burden rests upon the handler to account for the milk and to prove to the market administrator that such milk should not be classified as Class I milk.

(2) With respect to milk, or skimmed milk, disposed of to another handler, the burden rests upon the handler who first received the milk to account for the milk, or skimmed milk, and to prove to the market administrator that such milk, or skimmed milk should not be classified as Class I milk.

(b) Classes of utilization. The classes of utilization of milk shall be as follows:

(1) Class I milk shall be all milk and skimmed milk disposed of as milk, buttermilk, and milk drinks, whether plain or flavored, and all milk not specifically accounted for as Class II milk and Class III milk.

(2) Class II milk shall be all milk disposed of as cream (for consumption as cream), including any cream product disposed of in fluid form which contains less than the minimum butterfat content required for fluid cream, and as creamed cottage cheese.

(3) Class III milk shall be all milk accounted for (i) as used to produce a milk product other than those specified in Class I milk and Class II milk, and (ii) as actual plant shrinkage, but not to exceed 2 percent of the total receipts of milk from producers, including the handler's own production.

(c) Interhandler and nonhandler transfers of milk. (1) Milk and skimmed milk disposed of by a handler to another handler or to a person who is not a handler but who distributes milk or manufactures milk products shall be Class I milk, and cream so disposed of shall be Class II milk: Provided, That if the selling handler and the purchaser, on or before the 5th day after the end of the delivery period, each furnish to the market administrator similar signed statements that such milk or cream was disposed of in another class, such milk or cream shall be classified accordingly, subject to verification by the market administrator.

(2) Milk and skimmed milk disposed of from a handler's plant to soda fountains, bakeries, restaurants, and other retail food establishments which dispose of milk for both fluid and other uses shall be Class I milk.

(3) Cream disposed of from handler's plant to soda fountains, bakeries, restaurants, and other retail food establishments which dispose of cream for both fluid and other uses shall be Class II milk: Provided, That cream disposed of in bulk from a handler's plant to any such establishment which, under the applicable health regulations, is permitted to receive cream other than of Grade A quality for nonfluid purposes shall be classified according to its ultimate use or disposition by such establishment, subject to verification by the market administrator.

(d) Computation of milk in each class. For each delivery period the market administrator shall compute for each handler the amount of milk in each class, as defined in (b) of this section, as follows:

(1) Determine the total pounds of milk received from producers (including the handler's own production), received from other handlers, received as emergency milk, and received from other sources; add together the resulting amounts.

(2) Determine the total pounds of butterfat received by multiplying by its respective average butterfat test the weight of the milk received from producers (including the handler's own production), received from other handlers, received as emergency milk, and received from other sources; add together the resulting amounts.

(3) Determine the total pounds of Class I milk as follows: (i) convert to quarts the quantity of milk and skimmed milk disposed of in the form of milk, buttermilk, and milk drinks, whether plain or flavored, and multiply by 2.15; (ii) multiply the result by the average butterfat test thereof; and (iii) if the quantity of butterfat so computed when added to the pounds of butterfat in Class II milk and Class III milk computed pursuant to (4) (ii) and (5) (ii) of this paragraph is less than the total pounds of butterfat received, computed in accordance with (2) of this paragraph, an amount equal to the difference shall be divided by 4 percent and added to the quantity of milk determined pursuant to (i) of this subparagraph.

(4) Determine the total pounds of Class II milk as follows: (i) multiply the actual weight of each of the products of Class II milk by its average butterfat test, (ii) add together the resulting amounts, and (iii) divide the result obtained in (ii) of this subparagraph by 4 percent.

(5) Determine the total pounds of Class III milk as follows: (i) multiply the actual weight of each of the several products of Class III milk by its average butterfat test; (ii) add together the resulting amounts; (iii) subtract the total pounds of butterfat in Class I milk and Class II milk computed pursuant to (3) (ii) and (4) (ii) of this paragraph and the total pounds of butterfat computed pursuant to (ii) of this subparagraph from the total pounds of butterfat computed pursuant to (2) of this paragraph, which resulting quantity shall be allowed as plant shrinkage for the purposes of this paragraph (but in no event shall such plant shrinkage allowance exceed 2 percent of the total receipts of butterfat from producers by the handler) and shall be added to the result obtained in (ii) of this subparagraph; and (iv) divide the result obtained in (ii) of this subparagraph by 4 percent.

(6) Determine the classification of milk received from producers as follows:

(i) Subtract from the total pounds of milk in each class the total pounds of milk which were received from other handlers and used in such class.

(ii) Subtract from the total pounds of milk in each class the total pounds of milk, except emergency milk, which were received from sources other than producers and handlers and used in such class.

(iii) Subtract pro rata out of the remaining milk in each class the quantity of milk of the handler's own production.

(iv) Subtract from the total pounds of milk in each class an amount which shall be computed as follows: divide the total pounds of milk in each class by the total pounds of milk in all classes and multiply the percentage for each class by the total pounds of emergency milk received. Skimmed milk or (the milk equivalent of) cream received from sources other than producers under an emergency supply permit issued by the proper health authorities shall be treated as emergency milk for the purposes of this section, if such skimmed milk or (the milk equivalent of) cream is reported to the market administrator in the manner provided for emergency milk in (2) and (3) of § 946.5 (a).

(e) Reconciliation of utilization of milk by classes with receipts of milk from producers. (1) If the total utilization of milk in the various classes for any handler, as computed pursuant to (d) of this section, is less than the receipts of milk from producers, the market administrator shall increase the total pounds of milk in Class III for such handler by an amount equal to the difference between the receipts of milk from producers and the total utilization of milk by classes for such handler.

(2) If the total utilization of milk in the various classes for any handler, as computed pursuant to (d) of this section, is greater than the receipts of milk from producers, the market administrator shall decrease the total pounds of milk in Class III for such handler by an amount equal to the difference between the receipts of milk from producers and the total utilization of milk by classes for such handler.

§ 946.4 Minimum prices—(a) Class prices. Subject to the provisions of (b), (c), and (d) of this section, each handler shall pay producers, at the time and in the manner set forth in § 946.8, not less than the following prices per hundredweight for the respective quantities of milk in each class computed pursuant to § 946.3 (d) and (e);

(1) Class I milk: The price for Class I milk shall be the price for Class III milk, plus the following amount:

Delivery period:	Amount (dollars per cwt.)
April through July	0.95
August through March	1.05

(2) Class II milk: The price for Class II milk shall be the price for Class III milk, plus the following amount:

Delivery period:	Amount (dollars per cwt.)
April through July	0.45
August through March	.50

(3) Class III milk: The price for Class III milk shall be the price resulting from the following computation by the market administrator: determine, on the basis of milk of 4 percent butterfat content, the arithmetic average of the basic, or field, prices per hundredweight reported by, and ascertained by the market administrator to have been paid by, the following concerns at the manufacturing plants or places listed herein below, for ungraded milk received during the delivery period:

Concern and location
Ewing-Von Allmen Co., Louisville, Ky.
Armour Creameries, Elizabethtown, Ky.
Armour Creameries, Springfield, Ky.
Kraft Cheese Co., Salem, Ind.
Ewing-Von Allmen Co., Corydon, Ind.
Ewing-Von Allmen Co., Madison, Ind.
Producers' Dairy Marketing Association, Orleans, Ind.

Provided, That if the price so determined is less than the price computed by the market administrator in accordance with the following formula, such formula price shall be used: to the average wholesale price per pound of 92-score butter in the Chicago market as reported by the United States Department of Agriculture (or by such other Federal agency as may hereafter be authorized to perform this price reporting function) for the delivery period during which the milk was received, add 30 percent thereof, and multiply the resulting amount by 4.

(4) The prices used in determining the average manufacturing plant price pursuant to (3) of this paragraph shall be those quoted for milk received at the respective plants, without deductions for hauling or other charges to be paid by the farm shipper.

(b) Price of Class I milk for relief distribution. For Class I milk delivered by a handler to the residence of a relief client certified by a recognized relief agency, charged to such an agency, or disposed of by a handler under a program approved by the War Food Administrator for the sale or disposition of milk to low-income consumers, including persons on relief, such handler shall pay not less than the price for Class III milk, plus 12 cents.

(c) Butterfat differential to handlers. If any handler has received from producers milk containing more or less than 4 percent of butterfat, each handler shall add or deduct, per hundredweight of milk, for each one-tenth of 1 percent of butterfat above or below 4 percent, an amount computed by the market administrator as follows: to the average wholesale price per pound of 92-score butter in the Chicago market, as reported by the United States Department of Agriculture, or by such other Federal agency as may hereafter be authorized to perform this price reporting function) for the delivery period during which the milk was received, add 20 percent, and divide the result by 10.

(d) Class volume reconciliation adjustment. For the amount of milk involved in any reconciliation of class volumes of milk, pursuant to § 946.3 (e), the handler shall be debited or credited, as the case may be, at the Class III price: Provided, That if such handler received from producers milk with an average test of butterfat of 4 percent or less and disposed of no milk as a Class III milk product, such debit or credit, as the case may be, shall be made at the Class II price.

§ 946.5 Reports of handlers—(a) Periodic reports. Each handler shall report to the market administrator, in the detail and on forms prescribed by the market administrator, as follows:

(1) On or before the 5th day after the end of each delivery period, the receipts during the delivery period of milk from producers (including milk produced by him), from handlers, and from any other source; and the utilization of all receipts of milk and cream for the delivery period.

(2) On or before the day emergency milk is received, his intention to receive such milk.

(3) On or before the 5th day after the end of each delivery period, the receipts during the delivery period of emergency milk—the quantity of such milk, the date or dates upon which such milk was received, the plant from which such milk was shipped, the price per hundredweight paid, or to be paid, for such milk, the utilization of such milk, and such other information with respect thereto as the market administrator may request.

(b) Reports as to producers. Each handler shall report to the market administrator, as soon as possible after first receiving milk from any producer, the name and address of such producer, the date upon which such milk was first received, and the plant at which such milk was received.

(c) Reports of payments to producers. Each handler shall submit to the market administrator on or before the 20th day after the end of each delivery period his producer pay roll for such delivery period which shall show for each producer the net amount of such producer's payment with the prices, deductions, and charges involved, and the total delivery of milk with the average butterfat test thereof.

(d) Verification of reports. (1) Each handler shall permit the market administrator or his agent, during the usual hours of business, to verify the information contained in reports submitted in accordance with this section, to check-weigh milk received from each producer, and to sample and test milk for butterfat.

(2) If, in the verification of the reports of any handler made pursuant to (a) of this section, it is necessary for the market administrator to examine the records of milk and cream handled in a plant of the handler from which no milk is disposed of in the marketing area, such handler shall make such records available to the market administrator. If, in the verification of the reports of any handler made pursuant to (a) of this section, the market administrator finds that, subsequent to the delivery period for which the verification is being made, any milk received during such delivery period was used in a class other than that in which it was first disposed of, such milk shall be reclassified accordingly and the adjustments necessary to reflect the reclassified value of such milk shall be made in the value of milk computed for such handler for the delivery period following such reclassification of milk.

§ 946.6 Handlers who are also producers—(a) Application of provisions. (1) No provision hereof shall apply to a handler who is also a producer and who purchases or receives no milk from producers or an association of producers other than that of his own production, except that such handler shall make reports to the market administrator at such time and in such manner as the market administrator may request and shall permit the market administrator to verify such reports.

(2) The market administrator, in computing the value of milk received by a handler operating a plant from which milk is disposed of in the marketing area, shall consider as Class III milk any milk or cream received in bulk from a handler who receives no milk from producers other than that of his own production. If such receiving handler disposes of such milk other than as Class III milk, the market administrator shall add to the total value of milk, computed pursuant to § 946.7 (a), the difference between the value of such milk at the Class III price and the value according to its actual usage.

§ 946.7 Determination of uniform prices to producers—(a) Computation of value of milk for each handler. For each delivery period the market administrator shall compute, subject to the provisions of § 946.6, the value of milk of producers disposed of by each handler, by multiplying the quantity of such milk in each class by the price applicable to such class and by adding together the resulting class values: Provided, That if such handler has received milk (or cream), except emergency milk, from sources other than producers or handlers, as referred to in § 946.3 (d) (6) (ii), there shall be added to the value of milk determined for such handler pursuant to this paragraph an amount computed as follows: multiply the hundredweight of such milk (or milk equivalent of cream) by the difference between the Class III price and the price applicable to the class in which it was disposed.

(b) Computation and announcement of uniform prices. The market administrator shall compute and announce the uniform price per hundredweight of milk for each delivery period, as follows:

(1) Combine into one total the respective values of milk, computed pursuant to (a) of this section, for each handler who made the report prescribed by § 946.5 (a) for such delivery period and who has made the payments prescribed by § 946.8 (c);

(2) Subtract, if the average butterfat content of all milk received from producers is in excess of 4 percent, or add, if such average butterfat content is less than 4 percent, the total value of the butterfat differential applicable pursuant to § 946.8 (f);

(3) Subtract for each of the delivery periods of April, May, and June an amount representing 15 cents per hundredweight of milk received from producers by the handlers whose milk values are included under (1) of this paragraph;

(4) Add for each of the delivery periods of September, October, November, and December one-fourth of the aggregate amount subtracted under (3) of this paragraph for the preceding delivery periods of April, May, and June;

(5) Add an amount representing the cash balance in the producer-settlement fund, less the amount due handlers pursuant to § 946.8 (e) and less the aggregate of the amounts held pursuant to (3) of this paragraph for addition pursuant to (4) of this paragraph;

(6) Divide the amount computed pursuant to (5) of this paragraph by the total hundredweight of milk of producers;

(7) Subtract from the figure computed pursuant to (6) of this paragraph not less than 4 cents nor more than 5 cents per hundredweight for the purpose of retaining in the producer-settlement fund a cash balance to provide against errors in reports and payments or delinquencies in payments by handlers. This result shall be known as the uniform price for such delivery period for milk of producers containing 4 percent of butterfat; and

(8) On or before the 10th day after the end of each delivery period, notify each handler and publicity announce the uniform price per hundredweight computed pursuant to (7) of this paragraph, the Class III price, and the butterfat differentials provided by § 946.4 (c) and § 946.8 (f).

§ 946.8 Payment for milk—(a) Time and method of payment. On or before the 15th day after the end of each delivery period, each handler shall pay to each producer, for milk received during the delivery period, an amount of money representing not less than the total value of such producer's milk at the uniform price per hundredweight, subject to the butterfat differential set forth in (f) of this section. Any handler may make payments to producers in addition to the minimum payments required by this paragraph: Provided, That such additional payments are made to all producers supplying such handler with milk of the same quality and grade.

(b) Producer-settlement fund. The market administrator shall establish and maintain a separate fund known as the "producer-settlement fund" into which he shall deposit all payments made by handlers pursuant to (c) and (e) of this section, and out of which he shall make all payments to handlers pursuant to (d) and (e) of this section.

(c) Payments to the producer-settlement fund. On or before the 15th day after the end of each delivery period, each handler shall pay to the market administrator the amount by which the total value of the milk received by him from producers during the delivery period is greater than the amount of the minimum payments required to be made by such handler pursuant to (a) of this section.

(d) Payments out of the producer-settlement fund. On or before the 20th day after the end of each delivery period, the market administrator shall pay to each handler for payment to producers the amount, if any, by which the total value of the milk received from producers by such handler is less than the amount of the minimum payments required to be made by such handler pursuant to (a) of this section. If at such time the balance in the producer-settlement fund is insufficient to make all payments pursuant to this paragraph, the market administrator shall reduce uniformly such payments and shall complete such payments as soon as the necessary funds are available. No handler who, on the 20th day after the end of each delivery period, has not received the balance of payment due him from the market administrator shall be deemed to be in violation of (a) of this section if he reduces his payments to producers by not more than the amount of the reduction in payment from the producer-settlement fund.

(e) Adjustments of errors in payments. Whenever verification by the market administrator of payments by any handler discloses errors made in payments to the producer-settlement fund pursuant to (c) of this section, the market administrator shall promptly bill such handler for any unpaid amount and such handler shall, within 15 days, make payment to the market administrator of the amount so billed. Whenever verification discloses that payment is due from the market administrator to any handler, pursuant to (d) of this section, the market administrator shall, within 15 days, make such payment to such handler. Whenever verification by the market administrator of the payment by a handler to any producer for milk received by such handler discloses payment of less than is required by this section, the handler shall make up such payment not later than the time of making payment to producers next following such disclosure.

(f) Butterfat differential. In making payments to each producer, pursuant to (a) of this section, each handler shall add to the uniform price not less than, or subtract from the uniform price not more than, as the case may be, for each one-tenth of 1 percent of butterfat content above or below 4 percent in milk received from such producer, the amount as shown in the schedule below for the butter price range in which falls the average wholesale price per pound of 92-score butter in the Chicago market, as reported by the United States Department of Agriculture (or by such other Federal agency as may hereafter be authorized to perform this price reporting function), for the delivery period during which such milk was received.

22.499 and less	2½

§ 946.9 Marketing services—(a) Deductions for marketing services. Except as set forth in (b) of this section, each handler shall deduct 4 cents per hundred-weight from the payments made directly to producers pursuant to § 946.8, with respect to all milk received by such handler from producers during each delivery period, and shall pay such deductions to the market administrator on or before the 15th day after the end of such delivery period. Such moneys shall be used by the market administrator to verify weights, samples, and tests of milk received by handlers from producers during the delivery period and to provide such producers with market information, such services to be performed in whole or in part by the market administrator or by an agent engaged by and responsible to him.

(b) Producers' cooperative association. In the case of producers for whom a cooperative association, which the War Food Administrator determines to be qualified under the provisions of the Act of Congress of February 18, 1922, as amended, known as the "Capper-Volstead Act," is actually performing, as determined by the War Food Administrator, the services set forth in (a) of this section, each handler shall make, in lieu of the deductions specified in (a) of this section, such deductions from the payments to be made directly to such producers pursuant to § 946.8, as are authorized by such producers, and, on or before the 15th day after the end of each delivery period, pay over such deductions to the association rendering such services.

§ 946.10 Expense of administration. As his prorata share of the expense of the administration hereof, each handler, on or before the 15th day after the end of each delivery period, shall pay to the market administrator, with respect to all milk received by him from producers or produced by him, during such delivery period, an amount not exceeding 2 cents per hundredweight, the exact amount to be determined by the market administrator, subject to review by the War Food Administrator. Each cooperative association which is a handler shall pay such prorata share of expense on only that milk of producers caused to be delivered by it to plants from which no milk is disposed of in the marketing area.

§ 946.11 Effective time, suspension, and termination—(a) Effective time. The provisions hereof, or any amendment hereto, shall become effective at such time as the War Food Administrator may declare and shall continue in force until suspended or terminated, pursuant to (b) of this section.

(b) Suspension and termination. Any or all provisions hereof, or any amendment hereto, shall be suspended or terminated as to any or all handlers after such reasonable notice as the War Food Administrator may give, and shall, in any event, terminate whenever the provisions of the act authorizing it cease to be in effect.

(c) Continuing power and duty. (1) If, upon the suspension or termination of any or all provisions hereof, there are any obligations arising hereunder the final accrual or ascertainment of which requires further acts by any handlers, by the market administrator, or by any other person, the power and duty to perform such further acts shall continue notwithstanding such suspension or termination: Provided, That any such acts required to be performed by the market administrator shall, if the War Food Administrator so directs, be performed by such other person, persons, or agency as the War Food Administrator may designate.

(2) The market administrator, or such other person as the War Food Administrator may designate shall (i) continue in such capacity until discharged, (ii) from time to time account for all receipts and disbursements and deliver all funds or property on hand, together with the books and records of the market administrator, or such person, to such person as the War Food Administrator shall direct, and (iii) if so directed by the War Food Administrator, execute such assignments or other instruments necessary or appropriate to vest in such person full title to all funds, property, and claims vested in the market administrator or such person pursuant hereto.

(d) Liquidation, after suspension or termination. Upon the suspension or termination of any or all provisions hereof, the market administrator, or such person as the War Food Administrator may designate, shall, if so directed by the War Food Administrator, liquidate the business of the market administrator's office and dispose of all funds and property then in his possession or under his control, together with claims for any funds which are unpaid and owing at the time of such suspension or termination. Any funds collected pursuant to the provisions hereof, over and above the amounts necessary to meet outstanding obligations and the expenses necessarily incurred by the market administrator or such person in liquidating and distributing such funds, shall be distributed to the contributing handlers and producers in an equitable manner.

§ 946.12 Emergency price provision. Whenever the provisions hereof require the market administrator to use a specific price (or prices) for milk or any milk product for the purpose of determining class prices or for any other purpose, the market administrator shall add to the specified price the amount of any subsidy, or other similar payment, being made by any Federal agency in connection with the milk, or product, associated with the price specified: Provided, That if for any reason the price specified is not reported or published as indicated, the market administrator shall use the applicable maximum uniform price established by regulations of any Federal agency plus the amount of any such subsidy or other similar payment: Provided further, That if the specified price is not reported or published and there is no applicable maximum uniform price, or if the specified price is not reported or published and the War Food Administrator determines that the market price is below the applicable maximum uniform price, the market administrator shall use a price determined by the War Food Administrator to be equivalent to or comparable with the price specified.

§ 946.13 Agents. The War Food Administrator may by designation in writing, name any officer or employee of the United States to act as his agent or representative in connection with any of the provisions hereof.

PART 1430—SUGAR

DISTRIBUTION OF RAW SUGAR

Food Distribution Order No. 7 (8 F.R. 904), issued by the Secretary of Agriculture on January 15, 1943, is amended to read as follows:

§ 1430.1 Importation, purchase, and acceptance of delivery of raw sugar restricted—(a) Definitions. (1) "Person" means any individual, partnership, corporation, association, or other business entity, and includes any government corporation or governmental agency.

(2) "Continental United States" means the forty-eight States of the United States and the District of Columbia.

(3) "Raw sugar" means:

(i) Any grade or type of saccharine product, without regard to the place where it is produced, which is derived from sugar beets or sugarcane, is in crystalline form, and is to be further refined, and

(ii) Any saccharine product of sugarcane in liquid form which is produced outside of the continental United States, contains non-sugar solids (excluding any foreign substance which may have been added) equal to 6 per centum or less of the total soluble solids, and is to be further refined.

(4) "Refiner" means any person who is engaged in the refining of raw sugar in the continental United States, on the effective date of this amendment.

(5) "Import" means to bring into the continental United States (including foreign trade zones established pursuant to the Foreign Trade Zone Act, 48 Stat. 998, 19 U.S.C. 1940 ed. 81a et seq.).

(6) "Director" means the Director of Food Distribution, War Food Administration, or any employee of the United States Department of Agriculture designated by such Director.

(b) Acceptance of delivery. (1) Any person shall be deemed to have accepted delivery of raw sugar upon the occurrence of any one of the following:

(i) The exercise by such person of any dominion or control over such raw sugar as the owner thereof; or

(ii) The exercise of any dominion or control by such person over such raw sugar as the vendee, under a contract of purchase and sale, without regard to whether or not legal title to such raw sugar has vested in such person.

(2) In addition to the provisions of paragraphs (b) (1) (i), and (ii) hereof, a refiner, who acquires custody or possession of raw sugar, for the purpose of refining such raw sugar, shall be deemed to have accepted delivery thereof, without regard to whether or not he has purchased or contracted to purchase such raw sugar, or has legal title thereto.

(c) Restrictions. (1) No person, other than a refiner or the agent of a refiner, or a government corporation or governmental agency, shall purchase, import, or accept delivery of, raw sugar.

(2) No refiner or his agent shall purchase, import, or accept delivery of raw sugar, except as specifically authorized by the Director.

(3) The Director is authorized to establish allotments for the purchase, importation, and acceptance of delivery of raw sugar by refiners, and to issue rules and regulations for the purchase, importation, or acceptance of delivery of raw sugar by refiners, pursuant to such allotments. No refiner or his agent shall purchase, import, or accept delivery of raw sugar in violation of any such rules and regulations, or in excess of any allotment so established by the Director. The Director may, however, authorize a refiner to accept delivery of raw sugar owned by another refiner for the purpose of refining such raw sugar for such owner, and exempt such raw sugar from being charged against the allotment of the refiner who does the refining. Raw sugar which has been charged against the allotment of one refiner but which is subsequently sold and delivered, prior to refining, to another refiner, shall be charged against the latter's allotment and a corresponding credit given to the allotment to which the raw sugar was first charged. Allotments established by the Director pursuant to this paragraph may be modified and changed from time to time by the Director. Insofar as it is practicable, having due regard for wartime conditions with respect to the marketing and transportation of sugar, specific authorizations issued by the Director to refiners shall be made in such manner that each refiner will have received, at any time during an allotment period, his pro rata share of the total available supply of raw sugar, as determined by the proportion which his allotment bears to the total available supply.

(d) Records and reports. (1) Each person participating in any transaction to which this order applies shall keep and preserve for a period of not less than two years accurate and complete records of his inventories of raw sugar and of the details of all transactions in raw sugar. Such records shall include the dates of all contracts or purchase orders accepted, the delivery dates specified in such contracts or purchase orders, the parties involved in each transaction, the dates of actual deliveries thereunder, and a description of the raw sugar covered by such contracts or purchase orders showing the area of production, weight, polarization, and value.

(2) Each refiner accepting delivery of raw sugar shall report to the Director the information now required in the administration of the Sugar Act of 1937, as amended.

(3) The Director shall also be entitled to obtain such information from, and require such reports and the keeping of such records by, any person, as may be necessary or appropriate, in his discretion, to the enforcement or administration of the provisions of this order, subject to the approval of the Bureau of the Budget, pursuant to the Federal Reports Act of 1942.

(4) The specific record-keeping and reporting requirements of this order have been approved by the Bureau of the Budget, pursuant to the Federal Reports Act of 1942.

(e) Intra-company deliveries. The provisions and restrictions of this order with respect to the acceptance of delivery of raw sugar shall apply not only to the acceptance of delivery by other persons, including affiliates and subsidiaries, but also to acceptance of delivery by one branch, division, or section of a single enterprise from another branch, division, or section of the same or any other enterprise under common ownership or control.

(f) Contracts. The restrictions of this order shall be observed without regard to contracts heretofore or hereafter entered into, or any rights accrued, or payments made thereunder.

(g) Audits and inspections. The Director shall be entitled to make such audit or inspection of the books, records and other writings, premises or stocks of raw sugar of any person, and to make such investigations, as may be necessary or appropriate, in his discretion, to the enforcement or administration of the provisions of this order.

(h) Petition for relief from hardship. Any person affected by this order who considers that compliance herewith would work an exceptional and unreasonable hardship on him may apply in writing for relief to the Director, setting forth in such petition all pertinent facts and the nature of the relief sought. The Director may thereupon take such action as he deems appropriate, which action shall be final.

(i) Violations. The War Food Administrator may, by suspension order, prohibit any person who violates any provision of this order from receiving, making any deliveries of, or using raw sugar, or any other material subject to priority or allocation control by the War Food Administrator, and may recommend that any such person be prohibited from receiving, making any deliveries of, or using materials subject to the priority or allocation control of other governmental agencies. In addition, any person who wilfully violates any provision of this order is guilty of a crime and may be prosecuted under any and all applicable laws. Further, civil action may be instituted to enforce any liability or duty created by, or to enjoin any violation of, any provision of this order.

(j) Communications to the United States Department of Agriculture. All reports required to be filed hereunder and all communications concerning this order shall, unless instructions to the contrary are issued by the Director, be addressed to the War Food Administrator, United States Department of Agriculture, Washington, D. C., Ref. FD–7.

(k) Territorial extent. This order shall apply only to the continental United States.

(l) Effective date. This amendment shall become effective on the 30th day of July, 1943, at 12:01 a. m., e. w. t. However, with respect to violations of Food Distribution Order No. 7, or rights accrued or liabilities incurred thereunder, prior to said date, said Food Distribution Order No. 7 shall be deemed in full force and effect for the purpose of sustaining any proper suit, action, or other proceeding with respect to any such violation, right or liability.

TITLE 32—NATIONAL DEFENSE

Chapter IX—War Production Board

Subchapter B—Executive Vice Chairman

PART 970—CHLORINATED HYDROCARBON REFRIGERANTS

[Interpretation 1 of Conservation Order M–28]

a. Reports of inventories. The reporting requirement of paragraph (j) (2) of Order M–28 [§ 970.1] must be complied with regardless of whether the chlorinated hydrocarbon refrigerants are being held by the owner for his own use or for resale.

The paragraph requires every person (including the owner of a refrigerating or air conditioning system) who has in his possession, on the 15th day of any calendar month (commencing with the month of July), more than 500 pounds of any type of chlorinated hydrocarbon refrigerants, or who sold more than 2,000 pounds of such a refrigerant during the preceding calendar month, to file a report on Form WPB–3054 with the War Production Board on or before the 20th day of the month.

Each "person", as defined in the order, must report the aggregate quantities in his possession (including stocks of less than 500 pounds located at various places) if the total is more than 500 pounds.

The report must include all amounts not actually being used in refrigerating or air conditioning systems. Thus the owner or operator of a system who has more than 500 pounds in his possession must report his entire supply except for the minimum operating charge actually installed in his system. Any additional amount which he may have must be reported, whether kept in cylinders, a storage receiver or other form of container. However, if a minimum operating charge is being temporarily held in a container while the system in which it had been installed is being repaired, it should not be reported.

An equipment manufacturer who has more than 500 pounds in his possession on the 15th day of any calendar month must report his entire supply except what has been actually installed as an operating or holding charge in accordance with his regular manufacturing practice.

b. Charging of equipment manufacturers. Paragraph (g) provides that no user, supplier, contract agent, or producer shall deliver, or cause to be delivered, to the owner of any system any chlorinated hydrocarbon refrigerants for use in, or for resale for use in any system of the types described on List B.

This restriction is intended to prevent charging any system of the types included on List B with chlorinated hydrocarbon refrigerants except for a person who was operating a system and had the necessary refrigerants in his possession on the effective date specified in List B. Therefore, a manufacturer may not charge any such system with chlorinated hydrocarbon refrigerants before delivery, and he may not deliver the refrigerant separately to be used in charging the system. However, he is not restricted from delivering systems which had already been charged with such a refrigerant on the effective date specified on List B.

Issued this 29th day of July, 1943.

PART 1171—ELEVATORS

[Interpretation 1 of General Conservation Order L–89 as amended]

The following interpretation is issued with respect to General Conservation Order L–89, as amended.

Paragraph (b) of Order L–89 [§ 1171.1] provides that no person shall accept a "restricted order" or commence manufacture therefor, unless the order has been authorized on Form PD–411, now WPB–1236 (the restriction not applying to deliveries to elevator manufacturers or dealers for resale).

An authorization on PD–411 is not required, under the terms of paragraph (e), for the two classes of orders for maintenance and repair parts described below:

(1) An order for spare or maintenance parts is exempt if the parts inventory of the purchaser is not increased beyond $25.00 for each elevator operated by him and if his total purchases of such parts do not exceed $50.00 for each elevator in any calendar year. This exemption includes small maintenance or replacement parts, even though there may be some change in type, if the parts are necessary to keep the elevator in sound working condition. Examples: Replacement of a worn out gate switch of an obsolete type no longer manufactured, with a gate switch of a different type; or the use of a grease fitting on a bearing to provide proper lubrication.

(2) An order for repair parts in case of an actual breakdown or suspension of operations of an elevator is exempt where the essential repair parts are not available from the owner's inventory of spare or maintenance parts. A suspension of operations may be considered to have occurred if the condition of the cables or of other parts would make it definitely dangerous to continue the operation of the elevator without making the repairs; and such condition may be assumed where the cables or other parts have been condemned pursuant to a state law or municipal ordinance, requiring suspension of operations unless replacement of cables or other parts is made within the period (normally 30 to 90 days) specified on the inspector's report. However, a possible future breakdown cannot be considered within the exemption. Nor can any parts for a change in the existing method of operation or control, or for additions to existing elevators, merely to comply with so-called "Code Requirements", be acquired without authorization on a WPB-1236 (PD-411) Form.

In order to avoid a violation of the restrictions, the seller should satisfy himself that the parts ordered are within the $25.00 and $50.00 exemptions, or are needed for immediate repair due to an actual breakdown or suspension of operations.

The $25.00 and $50.00 limitations refer to the retail sales value of the parts ordered, exclusive of the cost of labor and personal services required for the installation.

A person whose maintenance requirements cannot be adequately met under the exemption of paragraph (e) (1) of the order may submit an application on PD-411 for authorization to obtain a larger quantity of parts.

Issued this 29th day of July 1943.

WAR PRODUCTION BOARD,

PART 3022—SILVER

[Conservation Order M-199 as Amended July 29, 1943]

Section 3022.1 Conservation Order M-199 is hereby amended to read as follows:

§ 3022.1 Conservation Order M-199—(a) Definitions. For the purposes of this order:

(1) "Silver" means silver bullion, semi-fabricated forms of silver, silver scrap and other secondary forms of silver, and any alloy, compound, salt, or mixture containing more than one-half of one percent of silver by weight. The term does not include alloyed gold produced in accordance with U. S. Commerce Standards CS 51-35 and CS 67-38. The term also does not include finished silver products, the value of which is more than twice the value of the silver contained therein. The term includes, however, brazing alloys and solders containing more than one-half of one percent of silver by weight.

(2) "Domestic silver" means any silver which has been produced since July 1, 1939, from mines situated inside of the territorial limits of the United States, its territories and possessions.

(3) "Treasury silver" means any silver which has been held or owned by the United States and has been sold pursuant to the provisions of Public Law 137, approved July 12, 1943.

(4) "Foreign silver" means any silver except that which is either domestic silver or Treasury silver. Scrap generated by manufacturers from the processing of domestic silver or Treasury silver shall also be considered to be foreign silver if it does not remain in the ownership of the manufacturer whose processing operations produced it; Provided, however, That domestic silver scrap or Treasury silver scrap produced by suppliers in semi-fabricating operations may be sold by such suppliers to manufacturers as domestic silver casting metal or Treasury silver casting metal.

(5) "Inventory" of a person includes the inventory of affiliates and subsidiaries of such person, and the inventory of others where such inventory is under the control of or under common control with or available for the use of such person.

(6) "Manufacturer" means any person who uses silver by incorporating it physically in the finished products or parts thereof which he manufactures or who uses or consumes silver in any manufacturing, testing, laboratory, plating, or repairing process.

(7) "Supplier" means any person regularly engaged in the business of importing, smelting, or refining silver, or in the business of selling silver to manufacturers and other suppliers. The term includes any person who may import, smelt, or refine silver for his own use as a manufacturer.

(8) "Put into process" means the first change by the manufacturer in the form of the material from that form in which it was received by him. Putting into process does not include minor initial operations such as marking and does not include any alloying, shearing, cutting, trimming, or other operation unless such initial operations are part of a continuous fabricating or assembling operation. Nor does it include operations such as inspection and testing, nor segregation or earmarking for a specific job or operation. The term also does not include the reclaiming and reforming of scrap.

(9) "Process" means cut, draw, machine, stamp, melt, mix, compound, cast, forge, roll, turn, spin, or otherwise shape or change in form or chemical composition. It also means assemble. The term does not include sand-bobbing, buffing, or polishing an assembled article.

(10) The term "assemble" shall not be deemed to include the putting together of an article after delivery to a sales outlet or consumer in knock-down form pursuant to an established custom. The term "assemble" shall also not be deemed to include adding finished parts to an otherwise finished article when the placing of one or more finished parts or the size or type of one or more finished parts is determined by the use to which the ultimate consumer is to put the article. In all other cases, the term "assemble" shall be deemed to include adding parts, whether of silver or of any other material, to an article of silver, where such article is not deemed complete and ready for immediate sale or use until such parts have been added, including adding gems, stones, or glass jewels or beads to articles or parts of silver, and adding brushes, combs, knives, forks, or other utensils to backs or handles of silver.

(11) The term "deliver" shall not be deemed to include a redelivery of silver to the owner thereof, who is a manufacturer, by a person to whom such owner delivered such silver to be alloyed or processed and returned to such owner for further processing; nor does it include the delivery under the same circumstances by the owner to the person who alloys or processes the silver for the owner.

(12) The term "accept delivery" shall not be deemed to include acceptance of delivery of silver by the owner thereof, who is a manufacturer, from a person to whom such owner delivered such silver to be alloyed or processed and returned to such owner for further processing; nor does it include acceptance of delivery under the same circumstances from the owner by the person who alloys or processes the silver for the owner.

(b) Restrictions upon sale or delivery of silver by suppliers. (1) No supplier shall sell or deliver any kind of silver (foreign, Treasury, or domestic) except to

(i) Another supplier; or
(ii) A manufacturer; or
(iii) The United States; or
(iv) Metals Reserve Company or any other corporation organized under section (5) (d) of the Reconstruction Finance Corporation Act as amended.

(2) No supplier shall sell or deliver foreign silver to a manufacturer except to fill orders for uses on List A.

(3) No supplier shall sell or deliver Treasury silver to a manufacturer except to fill orders for uses on List C.

(4) No supplier shall sell or deliver any kind of silver (foreign, Treasury, or domestic) to any person if he knows or has reason to believe such silver is to be received or used in violation of the terms of this order.

(c) Restrictions upon sale or delivery of silver by manufacturers. No manufacturer shall sell or deliver any kind of silver (foreign, Treasury, or domestic) except to:

(1) A supplier; or

(2) The United States; or

(3) Metals Reserve Company or any other corporation organized under section (5) (d) of the Reconstruction Finance Corporation Act as amended.

(d) Restrictions upon purchase, acceptance of delivery, and processing of foreign silver by manufacturers.

(1) Uses on List A. On and after July 29, 1943, no manufacturer shall purchase, accept delivery of, put into process, or process any foreign silver for any use other than a use on List A.

(2) Temporary exception. Notwithstanding the foregoing provisions of this paragraph (d), a manufacturer may continue the processing of any foreign silver which on July 29, 1943, he had already put into process for any use on List B to fill orders rated A–1–a or higher; also, a manufacturer may put into process and process to completion for a List C use any foreign silver owned by him on July 29, 1943, and he may complete the processing of any foreign silver already put into process by him on such date for any such use.

(e) Restrictions upon purchase, acceptance of delivery, and processing of Treasury silver by manufacturers. No manufacturer shall purchase, accept delivery of, put into process, or process Treasury silver except for a use on List C.

(f) Authorization to purchase Treasury silver from the United States. Purchases of Treasury silver from the United States pursuant to Public Law 137, approved July 12, 1943, shall be made only upon specific authorization of the War Production Board. Any supplier or manufacturer desiring such authorization may apply by letter to the War Production Board, Miscellaneous Minerals Division, Washington 25, D. C., Reference: M–199, not later than the 15th day of the month preceding the month in which delivery of the Treasury silver is desired. In such letter the applicant, in addition to other pertinent information, shall state the nature of his business and the intended use of the silver in terms of the uses specified on List C.

(g) Restrictions upon the purchase, acceptance of delivery, and processing of domestic silver for List B uses. In any calendar quarter after July 1, 1943, until further notice, no manufacturer shall purchase, accept delivery of, or put into process domestic silver for uses on List B in excess of ⅙ of the aggregate amount by weight of all silver (foreign and domestic), computed on the basis of the fine silver content thereof in troy ounces, put into process by such manufacturer for List B uses during the calendar year 1941 or the calendar year 1942, whichever year is the greater: Provided, however, That such manufacturer, in computing his quota of domestic silver under the foregoing provision, shall deduct from the said aggregate amount put into process by him for List B uses for the year 1941 or 1942, as the case may be, the aggregate amount by weight of silver (fine silver content, troy ounces) put into process by him in such year for List B uses to fill orders rated A–3 or higher, and the aggregate amount by weight (fine silver content, troy ounces) of sales made by him in such year of silver scrap or silver waste material resulting from the processing of silver for List B uses, exclusive of orders rated A–3 or higher. In any case where prior to January 1, 1943, a manufacturer furnished silver to another manufacturer under toll agreement to be processed and returned, only the manufacturer who did the actual processing shall be entitled to claim that he put the silver into process for the purpose of computation of domestic silver quotas under the provisions of this paragraph. However, in any case after January 1, 1943, where a manufacturer furnishes silver to another manufacturer under toll agreement to be processed and returned, both the manufacturer who furnishes the silver and the manufacturer who processes it shall be deemed to have put the silver into process for the purposes of this paragraph.

(h) Special exception as to domestic silver. The restrictions of this order as to the purchase, acceptance of delivery, and processing of domestic silver for List B uses shall not apply to any manufacturer:

(1) Who manufactures jewelry by the use of hand tools exclusively (that is, without the use of dies, jigs, or molds or any mechanical apparatus whatsoever, such as mechanically operated spinning or turning wheels, or lathes, presses, grinders, or cutters, whether operated by hand, foot, or other power); or

(2) Who meets each and all of the following requirements:

(i) He was engaged in the silver manufacturing business throughout the year 1941;

(ii) His gross receipts in the year 1941 from the sale of silver products did not exceed $25,000;

(iii) He continues to engage in the silver manufacturing business, and to have at all times not more than five persons at one time, excluding all clerical employees, working in such business, each of which persons is either over the age of 50 years or is physically incapacitated from performing ordinary factory labor; and

(iv) His gross sales of silver products for the calendar year 1943 and for each calendar year thereafter do not exceed $35,000 per year.

For a manufacturer to be engaged in the "silver manufacturing business" as the term is used in paragraph (h) (2), at least 75% of the gross receipts of such manufacturer in the year 1941 and succeeding years from products of all kinds sold by him (including products sold but not manufactured by him) shall have been derived from the sale of silver products manufactured by him. A silver product is one in which silver is physically incorporated and in which the amount of contained silver is greater either in weight or in value than any other single material, excluding precious or semi-precious stones, contained in such products.

(i) Special directions as to distribution of foreign, Treasury, and domestic silver. From time to time the War Production Board may issue special directions to individual suppliers and manufacturers, specifying the sources, destinations, and amounts of silver (foreign, Treasury, or domestic) to be delivered or acquired by them.

(j) Restrictions on holding of scrap silver. (1) No manufacturer shall purchase or accept delivery of silver of any kind (foreign, domestic, or Treasury) if he has on hand more than a thirty days' accumulation of scrap silver, exclusive of wastes, such as mirror wastes, polishings, and sweepings, whether foreign, Treasury, or domestic, or any combination thereof, unless such accumulation aggregates less than 1,000 ounces, fine silver content.

(2) No manufacturer shall have scrap melted, reformed, and redelivered to him under toll agreement if by such redelivery his inventory of silver will be in excess of a minimum practicable working inventory, taking into consideration the orders on his books requiring use of silver and the limitations placed upon the use of silver by this order.

(k) Fungibility of silver stocks recognized. Although this order deals with three kinds of silver (foreign, Treasury, and domestic) which are separately defined, and imposes restrictions which vary in their application as among these kinds of silver, it is recognized that all three kinds of silver are physically identical. Accordingly, nothing in this order shall be deemed to require any person holding two or more kinds of silver to keep the various kinds physically segregated. It is also understood that a person who holds only one kind of silver at a particular moment may be called upon to deliver or to use another kind of silver. In such cases, the person holding the one kind of silver may change part or all of his stock of such silver to silver of another kind simply by selling part of his stock to a supplier, ordering an equivalent amount, silver content, of the different kind of silver required for his purposes and paying or receiving the difference in price. For the purposes of this order, physical delivery to the supplier of the silver being sold and physical delivery by the supplier of the different kind of silver being purchased are not required in order to change the character of the silver involved from the kind in stock to the kind being purchased.

The form of the silver can also be disregarded. For example, a manufacturer with partially processed stocks of foreign silver which he cannot finish for List B uses under the restrictions of the order, can purchase domestic silver bars having a silver content equal to the silver content of the partially processed silver, sell those same bars back to the supplier as foreign silver, pay the difference in price, and then consider that the partially processed silver is domestic silver and may be further processed for List B uses as permitted by the order. Any purchasing or processing of domestic silver under the provisions of this paragraph for uses on List B must, however, be within the quota limitations of paragraph (g) hereof. Furthermore, at no time shall any person sell silver of any kind in excess of the amount of silver of that kind, fine silver content, owned by him.

(l) Use certificate. No supplier shall deliver any silver (foreign, Treasury, or domestic) to any manufacturer, and no manufacturer shall accept delivery of any silver from any supplier, unless the manufacturer shall have furnished the supplier with a certificate specifying the end use of such silver in terms of the uses specified on List A, List B, and List C. Such certificate may be placed on or attached to the purchase order, and shall be in substantially the following form, signed manually or as provided in Priorities Regulation No. 7:

Pursuant to Conservation Order M–199, the undersigned hereby certifies to the supplier and the War Production Board that the silver covered by the accompanying order (and all silver purchased from the supplier under orders placed in the future) shall be used solely for the following purposes: ----------

(Name of purchaser)

Date---------- By----------

(Signature and title of duly authorized officer)

In appropriate cases one certificate may cover the use of silver to be delivered under orders to be placed with such supplier in the future. Such certificate shall constitute a representation to, but shall not be filed with, the War Production Board. The supplier shall be entitled to rely on such representation, unless he knows or has reason to believe it to be false.

(m) Exceptions—(1) United States Government. None of the restrictions in this order as to sale, purchase, delivery, acceptance of delivery, or use of silver shall be applicable to the United States Government or any of its departments or agencies; provided, however, this exception shall not be deemed to extend to a manufacturer who manufactures items for delivery to or for the account of the United States Government or any of its departments or agencies. An item is not deemed removed from the list of restricted uses simply because it is to be manufactured for delivery to or for the account of the United States Government or any of its departments or agencies.

(2) Repair. The restrictions of this order as to the putting into process and the processing of foreign, Treasury, or domestic silver shall not apply to a person repairing a used article on or off the premises of the owner, if the person making the repair does not use silver weighing in the aggregate more than 3 ounces and if any putting into process or processing done by such person is for the purpose of making the specific repair. The term "repair" as used in this paragraph shall include the replating of used articles, provided the article was originally made of silver or silver-plated material.

(n) Limitations of inventories. No manufacturer shall accept delivery of silver, in the form of raw materials, semi-processed materials, finished parts, or sub-assemblies, nor shall he put into process any raw material, in quantities which in either case shall result in an inventory of raw, semi-processed, or finished material in excess of a minimum practicable working inventory, taking into consideration the limitations placed upon the use of silver by this order.

(o) Reports. Each supplier and each manufacturer and every other person affected by this order shall file such reports as may be requested from time to time by the War Production Board, subject to the approval of the Bureau of the Budget, pursuant to the Federal Reports Act of 1942.

(p) Miscellaneous provisions.—(1) Appeals. Any appeal from the provisions of this order shall be made by filing a letter in triplicate, referring to the particular provisions appealed from, and stating fully the grounds of the appeal.

(2) Applicability of order. The prohibitions and restrictions contained in this order as to foreign silver shall apply to the use of such material in all items manufactured after July 29, 1942, irrespective of whether such items are manufactured pursuant to a contract made prior or subsequent to July 29, 1942. The prohibitions and restrictions contained in this order as to domestic silver shall apply to the use of such material in all items manufactured after February 25, 1943, irrespective of whether such items are manufactured pursuant to a contract made prior or subsequent to February 25, 1943. The prohibitions and restrictions contained in this order as to Treasury silver shall apply to the use of such material in all items manufactured on or after July 29, 1943, irrespective of whether such items are manufactured pursuant to a contract made prior or subsequent to July 29, 1943. In so far as any other order of the War Production Board may have the effect of limiting or curtailing to a greater extent than herein provided, the use of foreign, Treasury, or domestic silver in the production of any item, the limitations of such other order shall be observed.

(3) Applicability of regulations. This order and all transactions affected hereby are subject to all applicable provisions of War Production Board regulations as amended from time to time.

(4) Communications to War Production Board. All reports required to be filed hereunder, and all communications concerning this order, shall, unless otherwise directed, be addressed to: War Production Board, Miscellaneous Minerals Division, Washington 25, D. C. Ref: M–199.

(5) Violations. Any person who wilfully violates any provision of this order, or who, in connection with this order, wilfully conceals a material fact or furnishes false information to any department or agency of the United States is guilty of a crime, and upon conviction may be punished by fine or imprisonment. In addition, any such person may be prohibited from making or obtaining further deliveries of, or from processing or using, material under priority control and may be deprived of priorities assistance.

Issued this 29th day of July 1943.

INTERPRETATION 1

Conservation Order M-199 imposes certain quota limitations upon the amount of domestic silver which a manufacturer may put into process for restricted uses. In many silver manufacturing processes, a manufacturer starts with a certain amount of silver in primary shapes and ends the operation with a large part of such silver in the form of scrap. It is customary for the manufacturer in these cases to have this scrap melted, rolled, or otherwise processed so as to return it to a primary shape in which it can again be subjected to manufacturing processes. This reforming of the silver scrap in some instances is done by the manufacturer himself, in other instances the work is done by others under toll agreement. The question has been presented as to whether the processing of this reformed scrap must be considered as coming within this meaning of the term "put into process" or whether such processing of reformed scrap shall be considered as only the continuation of a processing operation which began when the manufacturer processed for the first time in any form for a restricted use the specific amount of silver from which such scrap was produced.

It is hereby determined that for the purposes of the quota limitations of Order M-199, the term "put into process" shall be deemed to cover only the manufacturer's first processing for a restricted use of a given amount of silver. It shall not be deemed to cover the subsequent processing of reformed scrap produced therefrom, whether such reforming is done by the manufacturer himself or by others for him under toll agreement. The term shall be deemed to cover, however, the first processing for a restricted use of reformed scrap which was produced in a manufacturing operation which is not restricted under the order.

Domestic silver scrap produced in filling an order rated A-1-a or higher for a restricted use is considered as having been produced in a manufacturing operation which is not restricted under the order. Hence such scrap when reformed can be processed for a restricted use only if within the manufacturer's quota limitations or to fill an order rated A-1-a or higher.

This interpretation supersedes Interpretation 1 of Conservation Order M-199 issued September 1, 1942. (Issued May 10, 1943.)

PART 3090—X-RAY EQUIPMENT

[Interpretation 1 of General Limitation Order L-206 as Amended]

The following interpretation is issued with respect to General Limitation Order L-206, as amended.

In Schedule A attached to Order L-206 [§ 3090.1] permitted types of X-ray units are set forth and described. Maximum milliamperages are specified in the descriptions. When a maximum milliamperage is specified for a particular unit, it means that the unit must be one designed to operate at a milliamperage no higher than the figure specified. A unit designed to operate at a higher milliamperage than the specified maximum but which is brought down to the specified maximum by removing certain parts (such as valves) therefrom, will still be regarded as a unit having the milliamperage at which it was originally designed to operate.

This interpretation applies to any transaction taking place under Order L-206, including authorizations on Form PD-556. For example, if a person is granted authority on Form PD-556 to receive a 100 milliampere power unit, his supplier may deliver only a unit designed to operate at a maximum milliamperage of 100 milliamperes and may not deliver a unit designed to operate at 200 milliamperes but which has been brought down to a maximum milliamperage of 100 milliamperes by removing the valves from it.

PART 3175—REGULATIONS APPLICABLE TO THE CONTROLLED MATERIALS PLAN

[Interpretation 9 to CMP Regulation 5]

RELATIONSHIP BETWEEN CMP REGULATION NO. 5 AND CONSERVATION ORDER L-41

The following interpretation is issued with respect to CMP Regulation 5.

(a) Order L-41 requires War Production Board authorization before beginning any construction work except in those cases where the order expressly states that authorization is not necessary.

(b) CMP Regulation No. 5 (§ 3175.5) may not be used to get materials or products for any construction work of the type which requires authorization under Order L-41, unless the authorization specifically says that CMP Regulation No. 5 may be used.

(c) In those cases where specific War Production Board authorization is not required before beginning construction, and where the materials needed for the construction cost no more than $500, CMP Regulation No. 5 may be used to buy materials and products needed for the construction.

Issued this 29th day of July 1943.

PART 3274—MACHINE TOOLS AND INDUSTRIAL SPECIALTIES

MANUFACTURED CRUDE ABRASIVE AND ABRASIVE GRAIN

The fulfillment of requirements for the defense of the United States has created a shortage in the supply of manufactured crude abrasive and abrasive grain for defense, for private account, and for export; and the following order is deemed necessary and appropriate in the public interest and to promote the national defense.

§ 3274.91 Conservation Order M-319—(a) Definitions. For the purpose of this order:

(1) "Manufactured crude abrasive" means silicon carbide or fused aluminum oxide. Unfused or levigated alumina, and natural abrasives such as emery, garnet, corundum, and flint are not subject to this order.

(2) "Silicon carbide" means that product which results from combining silica and coke in a resistance-type electric furnace.

(3) "Fused aluminum oxide" means that product resulting from the fusion of alumina, or the fusion and purification of bauxite in an electric furnace, reduced by sledging or crushing to ungraded lumps or fine particles.

(4) "Abrasive grain" means:

(i) Any manufactured crude abrasive which has been classified as to particle size by mechanical, hydraulic, pneumatic, or other methods, and

(ii) Abrasive optical finishing powders, abrasive flours, blasting grain, reclaimed grain, refractory grain, firesand, and other manufactured abrasive and refractory grain specialties, whether or not classified as to particle size.

(5) "Abrasive optical finishing powders" means abrasive grain classified in standard sizes containing a maximum concentration of particles of a particular size within the over all range of 22½ to 4 microns inclusive, which produces a uniform grain depth pattern or mat finish on glass so that successive operations with rouge produce an optical finish.

(6) "Reclaimed grain" means:

(i) Any abrasive grain recovered from wheel stubs or other baked or fired abrasive or refractory stock, including lathe room turnings and dressings. The term does not include green shavings,

(ii) Any abrasive grain recovered from coated abrasive products,

(iii) Any abrasive grain previously used in grain form or on wheels, in blasting, grinding, or polishing operations.

(7) "Producer" means any person who produces manufactured crude abrasive or abrasive grain.

(8) "Importer" means any person who imports manufactured crude abrasive or abrasive grain from sources outside the United States.

(9) "Branch outlet" means any branch store, branch warehouse, or other direct agent of a producer or importer, used for purposes of distributing manufactured crude abrasive or abrasive grain.

(10) "Distributor" means any purchaser of manufactured crude abrasive or abrasive grain for purposes of resale without further processing.

(11) "Ultimate consumer" means any purchaser of manufactured crude abrasive or abrasive grain other than a distributor.

(12) "Period of authorization" means the period in which any producer or importer is authorized to use, and any person is authorized to accept delivery of manufactured crude abrasive or abrasive grain pursuant to authorization on Form WPB 2779 [Form PD 888] (manufactured crude abrasive), or Form WPB 2781 [PD 886] (abrasive grain). Each period of authorization shall be of two calendar months' duration. The first period of authorization shall be for the months of July and August 1943; the second period shall be for the months of September and October, 1943, etc.

(b) Restrictions on use and delivery of manufactured crude abrasive and abrasive grain. (1) Except as permitted by paragraph (d) of this order on and after July 1, 1943, notwithstanding any contract, agreement or preference rating to the contrary:

(i) No producer or importer shall himself use, and no producer, importer, branch outlet, or distributor shall deliver to any person any manufactured crude abrasive or abrasive grain except pursuant to specific authorization granted by the War Production Board on Form WPB 2779 [Form PD 888] (manufactured crude abrasive), or Form WPB 2781 [PD 886] (abrasive grain); and

(ii) No person shall accept delivery of any manufactured crude abrasive or abrasive grain, except pursuant to specific authorization granted by the War Production Board on Form WPB 2779 [Form PD 888] (manufactured crude abrasive), or Form WPB 2781 [PD 886] (abrasive grain).

(2) An order which has been authorized by the War Production Board on Form WPB 2779 [Form PD-888] (manufactured crude abrasive) or Form WPB-2781 [PD-886] (abrasive grain) must be accepted by the producer, importer, branch outlet, or distributor, and the producer, importer, branch outlet, or distributor must make delivery under it unless it does not meet his regularly established prices and terms (in accordance with Priorities Regulation No. 1): Provided, however, That within any given two-month period of authorization, delivery of orders for manufactured crude abrasive or abrasive grain may be scheduled without regard to preference ratings in the sequence best suited to maximum production and customers' needs. For the purposes of this order, delivery shall be deemed to have been made when the bill of lading covering the particular shipment has been signed by the carrier.

(3) No producer or importer authorized to use, and no person authorized to accept delivery of abrasive grain by an authorization on Form WPB-2781 [Form PD-886] shall use such abrasive grain for any purposes other than the purposes authorized on said Form WPB-2781 [Form PD-886] except as otherwise specifically directed by the War Production Board.

(4) Notwithstanding any other provisions of this order, on and after July 1, 1943, no person shall purchase or accept delivery of any abrasive grain manufactured from fused aluminum oxide (other than reclaimed grain) of any grit size 80 or coarser for use as loose grain for any of the purposes listed on Schedule A hereto attached, nor shall any person sell, transfer, or deliver any such abrasive grain which he knows or has reason to believe is intended for use as loose grain for any of the purposes listed on said Schedule A.

(c) Applications for authorization. (1) Any producer or importer who desires to use, and any person who desires to accept delivery of, manufactured crude abrasive during the months of July and August, 1943 (which constitute the first period of authorization) shall apply on or before June 15, 1943, for authorization to use or accept delivery of that quantity of manufactured crude abrasive which will be required by the applicant during the months of July and August, 1943. Thereafter, on or before August 10, 1943, and on or before the 10th day of the month preceding each subsequent two-month period of authorization, any producer or importer who desires to use, and any person who desires to accept delivery of manufactured crude abrasive during such subsequent two-month period of authorization, shall apply for authorization to use or accept delivery of that quantity of manufactured crude abrasive which will be required by the applicant during such subsequent two-month period of authorization. All applications for authorization to use or accept delivery of manufactured crude abrasive shall be made on Form WPB 2779 (Form PD 888) in the manner prescribed therein. Copies of Form WPB 2779 (Form PD 888) may be obtained at local Field Offices of the War Production Board.

(2) Except as provided in paragraphs (c) (3), (d) (1), and (d) (2) of this order, any producer or importer who desires to use, and any person who desires to accept delivery of, abrasive grain during the months of July and August, 1943 (which constitute the first period of authorization) shall apply on or before June 10, 1943, for authorization to use or accept delivery of that quantity of abrasive grain which will be required by the applicant during the months of July and August, 1943. Thereafter, except as provided in paragraphs (c) (3), (d) (1), and (d) (2) of this order, on or before August 1, 1943, and on or before the 1st day of the month preceding each subsequent two-month period of authorization, any producer or importer who desires to use, and any person who desires to accept delivery of, abrasive grain during such subsequent two-month period of authorization, shall apply for authorization to use or accept delivery of that quantity of abrasive grain which will be required by the applicant during such subsequent period of authorization. All applications for authorization to use, or accept delivery of, abrasive grain shall be made on Form WPB 2781 (Form PD 886) in the manner prescribed therein. Copies of Form WPB 2781 (Form PD 886) may be obtained at local Field Offices of the War Production Board.

(3) In the event that an ultimate consumer desires to buy abrasive grain from a distributor or branch outlet during any period of authorization, the ultimate consumer shall apply on or before the first day of the month preceding the period of authorization in which delivery is required in the manner prescribed in Form WPB 2781 [Form PD 886]. No further application by the distributor or branch outlet shall be required for such abrasive grain, but the War Production Board, when acting on such ultimate consumer's application, will simultaneously grant or deny to such distributor or branch outlet authorization to accept delivery for, and to redeliver to, such ultimate consumer.

(4) Failure by any person to file an application pursuant to the provisions of this paragraph (c) may be construed as notice to the War Production Board that such person does not desire authorization to use, or accept delivery of, manufactured crude abrasive or abrasive grain, as the case may be, in the period of authorization for which such application is required.

(5) Whenever any order for manufactured crude abrasive or abrasive grain, previously authorized on Form WPB 2779 [Form PD-888] (manufacturer crude abrasive), or Form WPB 2781 [PD 886] (abrasive grain), is cancelled, the producer, importer, branch outlet, or distributor, with whom such order was placed, shall immediately notify the War Production Board of such cancellation.

(d) Small grain order exemptions. (1) Any producer or importer who has not been specifically authorized on Form WPB 2781 [Form PD 886] to use, and any ultimate consumer who has not been specifically authorized on Form WPB 2781 [Form PD 886] to accept delivery of, abrasive grain during any given two-month period of authorization may use or accept delivery of a small quantity of abrasive grain during such two-month period of authorization without specific authorization on Form WPB 2781 [Form PD 886]: Provided, however, That in no event shall the total quantity of abrasive grain used by such producer or importer, or accepted by such ultimate consumer from all sources during such two-month period of authorization without authorization on Form WPB 2781 [Form PD 886], exceed the following maximum amounts:

(i) A quantity of abrasive grain manufactured from silicon carbide (other than abrasive optical finishing powders) having a value of $350 list price; and/or

(ii) A quantity of abrasive grain manufactured from fused aluminum oxide (other than abrasive optical finishing powders) having a value of $225 list price, and/or

(iii) A quantity of abrasive optical finishing powders manufactured from silicon carbide or fused aluminum oxide having a value of $100 list price.

(2) Subject to the inventory limitations contained in paragraph (f) of this order, any branch outlet or distributor may accept delivery of abrasive grain for stock to fill small orders therefor, pursuant to paragraph (d) (1) of this order. No specific authorization on Form WPB 2781 [Form PD 886] shall be required for such branch outlet or distributor to accept delivery of such abrasive grain, but each order for such abrasive grain placed by a branch outlet or distributor with a producer, importer, or another branch outlet, must be accompanied by a certification by such branch outlet or distributor, signed manually, or as provided by Priorities Regulation No. 7, substantially as follows:

The abrasive grain specified on this purchase order is required by the undersigned for stock to fill small orders pursuant to paragraph (d) (1) of Conservation Order M-319, with the terms of which the undersigned is familiar. Delivery of this order will not increase the undersigned's inventory of the specified sizes and types of abrasive grain beyond a supply required under the undersigned's current practices for resale on such small orders during a period of sixty days.

(Authorized signature)

(3) Any producer, importer, branch outlet, or distributor, may deliver a quantity of abrasive grain manufactured from silicon carbide, other than abrasive optical finishing powders, not to exceed $350 list price in value, and/or a quantity of abrasive grain manufactured from fused aluminum oxide, other than abrasive optical finishing powders, not to exceed $225 list price in value, and/or a quantity of abrasive optical finishing powders manufactured from silicon carbide or fused aluminum oxide not to exceed $100 in value, to any person without specific authorization on Form WPB–2781 [Form PD–886], and any producer, importer, or branch outlet may deliver to any branch outlet or distributor abrasive grain on orders placed pursuant to paragraph (d) (2) of this order and accompanied by the certification required by said paragraph: Provided, That:

(i) The total quantity of abrasive grain (other than abrasive optical finishing powders), delivered by any producer or importer without specific authorization pursuant to this paragraph (d) (3) during any two-month period of authorization, shall not exceed 5 per cent of such producer's or importer's estimated total tonnage production and/or purchases of such abrasive grain for such period, and

(ii) The total quantity of abrasive optical finishing powders manufactured from silicon carbide or fused aluminum oxide delivered by any producer or importer without specific authorization pursuant to this paragraph (d) (3), during any two-month period of authorization, shall not exceed 5 per cent of such producer's or importer's estimated total tonnage production and/or purchases of such abrasive optical finishing powders for such period.

The percentage limitations established above may be applied by any producer or importer on a size by size or an overall basis at his election.

(e) [Revoked July 1, 1943]

(f) Limitation on inventories. On and after June 1, 1943, no person other than a producer or importer shall purchase or accept delivery of any size and type of abrasive grain if his inventory thereof is, or will by virtue of such purchase or acceptance become, greater than the quantity of such size and type of abrasive grain which will be required under his current practices for use or resale during a period of sixty days: Provided, however, That the delivery of abrasive grain pursuant to the following designated types of purchase orders shall be permitted to effect such an increase;

(1) Purchase orders placed by any procurement agency of the United States pursuant to the Act of March 11, 1941, entitled, "An Act to Promote the Defense of the United States" (Lend-Lease Act).

(2) Purchase orders placed by the Army, Navy, or Maritime Commission for abrasive grain required for bases or supply depots outside the continental United States, or for bases or supply depots within the continental United States which are maintained for emergency purposes, or to supply such bases or supply depots outside the continental United States.

(3) Any other purchase order specifically excepted from this restriction by the War Production Board.

(g) Proposed production and importation schedule to be filed. On or before June 15, 1943, and bi-monthly thereafter on or before the 10th day of each alternate succeeding calendar month, each producer or importer shall file with the War Production Board his proposed schedule of production and importation of manufactured crude abrasive and/or abrasive grain for the next succeeding two calendar months. Proposed schedules for the production and importation of abrasive grain shall be filed on Form WPB 2782 (Form PD 885) in the manner prescribed therein. Proposed schedules for the production and importation of abrasive grain shall be filed on Form WPB 2780 (Form PD 887) in the manner prescribed therein.

(h) Other allocation and scheduling directions. Notwithstanding any other provisions of this order, the War Production Board may at any time:

(1) Direct the return or cancellation of any order for manufactured crude abrasive or abrasive grain;

(2) Direct or change any schedule of production or delivery of manufactured crude abrasive or abrasive grain;

(3) Allocate orders for manufactured crude abrasive or abrasive grain placed with one person to another person;

(5) Take such other action as it deems necessary with respect to the placing of orders for, or the production, use, or delivery of, manufactured crude abrasive or abrasive grain.

(i) Intra-company deliveries. The prohibitions and restrictions of this order with respect to deliveries of manufactured crude abrasive and abrasive grain shall apply not only to deliveries to other persons, including affiliates and subsidiaries, but also to deliveries from one branch, division, or section, of a single integrated enterprise to another branch, division, or section of the same or any other enterprise under common ownership or control.

(j) Notification to customers. Each producer, importer, branch outlet, or distributor shall, as soon as practicable, notify each of his regular customers of the requirements of this order, but failure to give or receive such notice shall not excuse any such person from complying with the terms hereof. All applications required by this order shall be filed by the dates specified herein notwithstanding the dates mentioned on the application forms.

(k) Reports. All producers, importers, branch outlets, or distributors, affected by this order shall execute and file with the War Production Board such reports and questionnaires as the War Production Board shall from time to time request, subject to the approval of the Bureau of the Budget, pursuant to the Federal Reports Act of 1942.

(l) Applicability of regulations. All transactions affected by this order are subject to applicable provisions of the regulations of the War Production Board as amended from time to time.

(m) Violations. Any person who willfully violates any provision of this order, or who, in connection with this order, willfully conceals a material fact or furnishes false information to any department or agency of the United States, is guilty of a crime, and upon conviction may be punished by fine or imprisonment. In addition, any such person may be prohibited from making or obtaining further deliveries of, or from processing or using material under priorities control, and may be deprived of priorities assistance.

(n) Appeals. Any appeal from the provisions of this order shall be made by filing a letter in triplicate, referring to the particular provisions appealed from, and stating fully the grounds of the appeal.

(g) Applicability of priorities regulations. All persons and transactions affected by this order are subject to all applicable provisions of the priorities regulations of the War Production Board, as amended from time to time.

(h) Applicability of other orders. Insofar as any other orders heretofore or hereafter issued by the War Production Board limits the use of any material in the production of domestic cooking appliances or domestic heating stoves to a greater extent than the restrictions imposed by this order, the restrictions of such other order shall govern, unless otherwise specified therein.

(i) Appeals. Any appeal from the provisions of this order shall be filed on Form WPB–1477 (formerly PD–500) with the field office of the War Production Board for the district in which is located the plant or branch of the appellant to which the appeal relates.

(j) Communications. All communications concerning this order, except appeals, shall, unless otherwise directed, be addressed to the War Production Board, Plumbing and Heating Division, Washington, D. C., Ref.: L–23–c.

In addition, any such person may be prohibited from making or obtaining further deliveries of, or from processing or using, material under priority control and may be deprived of priorities assistance.

(2) "Class A dyestuffs" means the anthraquinone vat dyes appearing on List A attached hereto.

(3) "Class B dyestuffs" means all anthraquinone vat dyes other than those appearing on said List A. The term includes Fast Red A. L. Salt, which shall be considered an anthraquinone vat dye of single strength.

(4) "Class C dyestuffs" means all anthraquinone dyes other than anthraquinone vat dyes.

(5) "Class D dyestuffs" means all other dyestuffs, except:

(i) Those derived from vegetable or animal sources;

(ii) Lithol Red CI 189, Azo Bordeaux CI 88, Alphanaphthylamine Maroon CI 82 or Pigment Green B; or

(iii) Dyestuffs certified under the provisions of the Federal Food, Drug and Cosmetic Act (Ch. 9, Title 21, U. S. Code) and sold and used exclusively for use in food, drugs and cosmetics, as defined in said Act.

(6) "Value" means the dollar value computed from the domestic consumer's contract sales price as of January 1, 1943.

(7) "United States" means the 48 States, the District of Columbia and the Territory of Alaska.

(b) Restrictions on delivery—(1) Class A. No person shall deliver or accept delivery of any Class A dyestuffs, except for export within the limitations prescribed in paragraph (c) (Restrictions on export) and except as provided in paragraph (d) (General exceptions).

(2) Class B, C and D quotas. Except as provided in paragraph (d) (General exceptions), no person shall, in any calendar quarter, deliver or accept delivery of any Class B, C or D dyestuffs for use in the United States or Canada, in excess of the quantities specified in the following schedule:

[1] Formerly Part 1162, § 1162.1.

	May deliver	May accept delivery
Class B	15% of combined amount of Class A and B dyestuffs delivered to all persons in 1941.	15% of combined amount of Class A and B dyestuffs received from all sources in 1941.
	(For the purpose of Class B quota, calculate in pounds of equivalent single strength Anthraquinone vat dyes. The poundage may be increased to equal 25 or a multiple thereof.)
Class C	15% of value of Class C dyestuffs delivered to all persons in 1941.	$100, or 15% of value of Class C dyestuffs received from all sources in 1941, whichever is higher.
Class D	15% of value of Class D dyestuffs delivered to all persons in 1941.	$100, or 15% of value of Class D dyestuffs received from all sources in 1941, whichever is higher.
	(For the purpose of Class D quota, in determining the value of dry and wet dispersions of organic pigments, only the organic pigment content for such dispersions shall be considered and it shall be based on the value of a comparable dry pigment.)

(3) Quota adjustments. For the purpose of the Class B, C and D quotas, referred to in the above schedule:

(i) Use by producer. Amounts of dyestuffs which are or have been used by a producer in any calendar quarter or in 1941, shall be considered as having been delivered to such person in such quarter or in 1941, as the case may be.

(ii) Credit for returned dyestuffs. Amounts of dyestuffs returned to a vendor prior to the 22nd day after the end of the calendar quarter in which they were delivered, shall not be charged as delivered or accepted.

(iii) Carry-over of undelivered quota. Amounts of dyestuffs which a person may deliver or accept which have not been delivered or accepted in any calendar quarter, may be delivered or accepted prior to the 22nd day after the end of such quarter.

(c) Restrictions on exports—(1) General restrictions. No producer shall export or deliver for export from the United States to any place other than Canada any dyestuffs produced by him, except either upon orders accompanied by individual export licenses issued by the Office of Economic Warfare (the applications for which show thereon the corresponding current domestic sales price of such dyestuffs) or upon orders from an agency of the United States for delivery pursuant to the Act of March 11, 1941, as amended, entitled "An Act to promote the Defense of the United States" (Lend-Lease Act). The total value, exclusive of the exceptions provided in paragraph (d), of dyestuffs so exported or delivered in any quarter shall not exceed:

(i) ¾ of 1% of the total value of all dyestuffs delivered by him in 1941 plus

(ii) 15% of the total value of dyestuffs exported or delivered for export by him from the United States to all places other than Canada in 1941.

(2) Further restrictions on Class A, B and C. The amount of dyestuffs, exclusive of the exceptions provided in paragraph (d), produced by him which a producer may export or deliver for export from the United States to all places other than Canada in any calendar quarter, shall not exceed:

(i) As to Class A dyestuffs, ¾ of 1% of the total value of all Class A dyestuffs delivered by him in 1941;

(ii) As to a total of Class A, B and C dyestuffs, 2% of the total value of all Class A, B and C dyestuffs delivered by him in 1941.

(3) Carry-over of undelivered portion of export quota. Amounts of any dyestuffs which a producer may export or deliver for export from the United States to all places other than Canada in any calendar quarter and which are not exported or delivered in such quarter, may be carried over to the following quarter and increase to that extent the quota for such class in the subsequent quarter. For the purposes of this subparagraph (3), all dyestuffs, other than Class A, B or C, shall be considered one class.

(d) General exceptions. The restrictions in subparagraphs (1) and (2) of paragraph (b) (Restrictions on delivery) and the restrictions in paragraph (c) (Restrictions on export) shall not apply to the delivery or acceptance of delivery of dyestuffs—

(10) To replace in inventory amounts which, although not acquired for any of the uses referred to in any of the subparagraphs of this paragraph (d), were nevertheless used for one or more of such purposes.

Provided, That all deliveries of dyestuffs exempted from the restrictions of said paragraphs (b) and (c) by subparagraphs (2), (3), (4), (5), (6), (7), (8) or (10) of this paragraph (d) shall be made only upon the receipt by the vendor from the purchaser of a certificate signed by such purchaser, or by a person authorized to sign in his behalf, in substantially the following form:

> The undersigned hereby certifies to his vendor and to the War Production Board that the dyestuffs to be delivered on the annexed purchase order will be used for one or more of the purposes specified in paragraph (d) of Conservation Order M–103, or will replace inventory so used.

(e) Treatment of mixtures. In the case of physical mixtures of different classes of dyestuffs containing a component or components of one class to the extent of at least 90% of the value of such mixture, such mixtures shall be considered as belonging to the class to which said component or components belong. (g) Restrictions on inventory. In addition to the restrictions on inventory contained in Priorities Regulation No. 1 (§ 944.14), no person shall accept delivery of any Class A dyestuffs which will increase his inventory thereof beyond an amount which, to the best of his knowledge and belief, will be used by him in the next 45 days.

(h) General prohibitions. No person shall deliver or accept delivery of any dyestuffs, if he knows, or has reason to believe, such material is to be used or is to be delivered or accepted in violation of the terms of this order.

PART 1408—GLASS AND GLASS CONTAINERS

[MPR 382,[1] Amdt. 2]

WIDE MOUTH GLASS CONTAINERS

A statement of considerations involved in the issuance of this amendment, issued simultaneously herewith, has been filed with the Division of the Federal Register.*

Maximum Price Regulation No. 382 is amended in the following respects:

Section 1.10 (d) and (e) is added to read as follows:

(d) Application for classification as a new producer of wide mouth glass containers—(1) When appropriate. Whenever it has been certified by the War Production Board or the War Foods Administration or other responsible governmental agency that a shortage exists or threatens to exist in the essential supply of wide mouth glass containers, and when it appears that production of such containers can be secured to alleviate that shortage, and that such production would be the output of productive capacity not ordinarily employed in the production of wide mouth glass containers, the Office of Price Administration may, either on application for adjustment in accordance with the provisions of Revised Procedural Regulation No. 1 or on its own motion, adjust the maximum prices of the output of such new productive capacity as stated below.

(2) Submission of applications. Every application submitted under this paragraph shall include evidence demonstrating the following:

(i) That no wide mouth glass containers were manufactured in the plant for which relief is requested under this paragraph in the six-month period July 1 through December 31, 1942;

(ii) That the total cost to manufacture and sell wide mouth glass containers in that plant will exceed the applicable maximum prices set forth in sections 5.1 (a) and (b) and 5.2 (a) and (b) of this regulation;

(iii) That the excess of the maximum prices applied for by that plant over the applicable maximum prices set forth in

[1] 8 F.R. 7334, 9019.
[2] 8 F.R. 7322, 9020.

*Copies may be obtained from the Office of Price Administration.
[1] 8 F. R. 6275, 8839.

sections 5.1 (a) and (b) and 5.2 (a) and (b) of this regulation will not be passed on to purchasers in the first sale of any commodity as packaged in the container and that the requested increase, if granted, will not be made the basis of an application to the Office of Price Administration by the seller of such packaged commodity to increase his selling price. The applicant shall submit a statement from the buyer certifying to those facts.

(iv) That reports will be made by the applicant plant to the Office of Price Administration at such intervals and containing such data as may be specified in the order granting relief under this paragraph.

(3) Relief. The following shall be the maximum relief granted under this paragraph:

(i) Where it appears to the Price Administrator that the reasonably estimated total cost to manufacture and sell wide mouth glass containers in a plant duly authorized under this paragraph exceeds the applicable prices set forth in sections 5.1 (a) and (b) and 5.2 (a) and (b) of this regulation, the maximum relief granted shall be to allow that plant to use such costs as its maximum price, but such price shall not exceed the applicable prices in sections 5.1 (a) and (b) and 5.2 (a) and (b) of this regulation by more than 15 percent of those applicable prices.

The "total cost to manufacture and sell" wide mouth glass containers, for the purpose of this paragraph, shall include the costs of batch materials, fuel, power, direct and indirect labor, cartons, royalties, depreciation charges, maintenance and repairs expense, taxes (not including Federal and state income taxes), other factory overhead, freight from plant to purchasers' destination and the general, administrative, and selling expenses allocated to plant operations.

(ii) Where it appears to the Price Administrator that the aggregate of the reasonably estimated factory cost of production in that plant and the actual freight to the destination from that plant is equal to or greater than an amount 15 percent more than the applicable prices set forth in sections 5.1 (a) and (b) and 5.2 (a) and (b) of this regulation, the maximum relief granted shall be to permit that plant to use as its maximum prices the aggregate of such factory cost of production and actual freight charge.

The "factory cost of production," for the purpose of this paragraph, shall include the costs of batch materials, fuel, power, direct and indirect labor, cartons, royalties, depreciation charges, maintenance and repairs expense, taxes (not including Federal and State income taxes), and other factory overhead.

Classification may be had under this paragraph only on a specific and express authorization by the Price Administrator. This authorization will state the extent to which relief has been granted and will specify what information must be submitted by the applicant plant in reports to be submitted by it to the Office of Price Administration at the intervals specified in the authorizing order. The maximum prices granted under this paragraph are subject to revocation, readjustment and charge (not to apply retroactively) by the Office of Price Administration.

(e) Application for special shipping consideration to the Western Area—(1) When appropriate. Whenever it has been certified by the War Production Board or the War Foods Administration or other responsible governmental authority that a shortage exists or threatens to exist in the essential supply of wide mouth glass containers in the Western Area and that this shortage might be relieved by shipments from a point or points in the Eastern Area from a specified seller to a specified purchaser within a stated period of time, without the creation thereby of a similar shortage in the area from which shipment is made, but that such shipment is prevented by the prospective shipper's inability to absorb transportation charges to the extent required under other provisions of this regulation, the Office of Price Administration may, either on its own motion or on application filed in accordance with Revised Procedural Regulation No. 1, authorize relief in the manner and to the extent indicated below.

(2) Submission of applications. Every application submitted under this paragraph shall include at least the following information:

(i) Sufficient data to identify the item in question and the prospective seller and purchaser, and to demonstrate that an actual shortage exists which will be relieved by the proposed shipment.

(ii) Information sufficient to establish the fact that the making of the proposed shipment will not in turn cause or tend to cause the existence of a shortage in any locality in the Eastern Area;

(iii) Information showing adequately why the proposed shipment cannot be made without the issuance of special authorization under this paragraph;

(iv) A statement that the manufacturer making the application did not, between January 1 and July 31, 1941, make any shipment of wide mouth glass containers to the Western Area at prices at or below those now applicable on shipments to that destination under section 5.2 (a) and (b) of this regulation;

(v) A statement that the applicant manufacturer does not maintain producing or warehousing facilities in the Western Area;

(vi) A statement of the price which is requested for this sale, and a statement of the quantity and time requested to be covered by an authorization under this paragraph;

(vii) A statement from the buyer, submitted by applicant, that the excess of the maximum prices applied for by that plant over the applicable maximum prices set forth in section 5.2 (a) and (b) of this regulation will not be passed on to purchasers in the first sale of any commodity as packaged in the container, and that the requested increase, if granted, will not be made the basis of an application to the Office of Price Administration by the seller of such commodity to increase his selling price;

(viii) A statement that the maximum prices requested have been computed in accordance with section 4.8 of this regulation, in that the customary price differentials, whether published or unpublished, which were or would have been allowed in the Eastern Area by that plant on July 1, 1941, to purchasers in contract or greater quantities, or to any other class of purchaser who resells the containers as such, have been maintained;

(ix) A statement of the maximum freight allowance (including the tax of 3 percent levied by section 620 of the Revenue Act of 1942 on the transportation of property for hire, in accordance with Supplementary Order No. 31 issued by the Office of Price Administration) regularly made by the manufacturer during the period January 1 to July 31, 1941. The maximum freight allowance made by the applicant in the period January 1 to July 31, 1941 is defined for the purpose of this section as the average of the three highest freight rates that were allowed by the manufacturer to purchasers of wide mouth glass containers in contract or greater quantities on shipments to destination within the price zone in which the applicant plant is located.

(3) Relief available. Relief will be granted under this paragraph only on specific and express authorization by the Price Administrator and will conform to the terms of the authorizing order. The maximum relief granted shall be to authorize the applicant plant, notwithstanding other provisions of this regulation, to use as its maximum prices for the items and time authorized in the order an amount in each case no greater than that reached by the following computation:

From the maximum price for the item concerned in the zone from which shipment is proposed to be made, as provided in Articles I through IV and section 5.1 (a) and (b) of this regulation, deduct the plant's maximum freight allowance as computed under subparagraph 2 (ix), immediately above, and to the resulting figure add the lowest actual rail rate (including also the tax of 3 percent levied by section 620 of the Revenue Act of 1942 on the transportation of property for hire, in accordance with Supplementary Order No. 31 issued by the Office of Price Administration) from the proposed shipping point to the proposed destination on an identical shipment to that for which this authorization is requested.

The authorizing order will state to what extent relief has been granted and will specify what information must be submitted by the applicant plant in reports to be submitted by it to the Office of Price Administration in accordance with the authorizing order. The maximum prices and allowances granted under this paragraph are subject to revocation, readjustment, and change (not to apply retroactively) by the Office of Price Administration.

This amendment shall become effective July 28, 1943.

NOTE: The reporting requirements of this amendment have been approved by the Bureau of the Budget in accordance with the Federal Reports Act of 1942.

(a) Area open to hunting. The following-described lands of the United States in the Hart Mountain National Antelope Refuge, Oregon, shall be open to the hunting of deer: That part of the refuge that drains into Warner Valley along the western boundary, having as its northern limit, with slight deviation, the new road from the Hart Mountain CCC camp site to the refuge headquarters and having as its southern limit the southern boundary of the refuge, all as indicated by appropriate posting on the ground by the officer in charge.

(b) Compliance with State laws and regulations. Any person who hunts on the refuge shall be in possession of a valid hunting license issued by the State of Oregon authorizing him to hunt deer and a permit, if required. Said license and permit shall serve as a Federal permit for hunting deer on the refuge and must be carried on the person of the licensee while so hunting. (f) Forfeiture of privileges. Failure of any person hunting on the refuge to comply with any of the provisions, conditions, restrictions, or requirements of the regulations in this section or the violation by him of any of the provisions of State or Federal laws or regulations applicable to hunting on the refuge not only will render such person liable to prosecution under the law but also will be sufficient cause for removing him from the refuge and for refusing him further hunting privileges on the refuge.

(g) State cooperation in management of the shooting area. The provisions of the regulations in this section shall be incorporated in and deemed to be a part of any cooperative agreement between the Director of the Fish and Wildlife Service and the State Game Commission of Oregon for the regulation, management, and operation of the shooting area established hereunder, the details of which shall be mutually agreed upon between said Director and Commission.

ORDER SUSPENDING LICENSES AND DIRECTING THEIR SURRENDER

To: Suckow Borax Mines Consolidated, Inc., and all its officers, agents and employees, including Otto A. Friedrich, 38–40 St. James Park, Los Angeles, California.

In the matter of licensees Suckow Borax Mines Consolidated, Inc., Otto A. Friedrich, et al.

Having reason to believe on the grounds of facts of which I have knowledge or reliable information that Paul Otto Tobeler (or Toebler) of Los Angeles, California, is disloyal or hostile to the United States, that he is Secretary and Treasurer and controls the operations of the Suckow Borax Mines Consolidated, Inc., a licensee under the Federal Explosives Act, that it is likewise disloyal or hostile to the United States, and that Otto A. Friedrich and other licensees under the Federal Explosives Act have been in charge of explosives for the Suckow Borax Mines Consolidated, Inc.,

Now, therefore, by virtue of the authority vested in me by the Federal Explosives Act and the regulations thereunder, I, R. R. Sayers, Director of the Bureau of Mines, hereby Order, That all licenses issued to the Suckow Borax Mines Consolidated, Inc., and to any of its officers, agents, and employees, including Otto A. That none of the licensees whose licenses are suspended by this order shall engage in any transactions in or operations involving explosives or ingredients of explosives as defined in section 2 of the regulations under the Federal Explosives Act except under the direct supervision and with the written approval of one of my authorized representatives; and that this order shall likewise apply to explosives and ingredients of explosives on hand and to explosives and ingredients of explosives heretofore purchased by, although not yet delivered to, the licensees;

That this order will become effective at 12.01 a. m. on July 26, 1943. The licenses hereby suspended will be permanently revoked unless within 20 days from the effective date of this order the licensees or any of them file with me a request for an opportunity to show cause why such license or licenses should not be permanently revoked. If such request is received, the licensees will be given an opportunity to present evidence to me at the offices of the Bureau of Mines, Department of the Interior, Washington, D. C. at a time of which the licensees will be given reasonable notice.

Failure to comply with any of the provisions of this order will constitute a violation of the Federal Explosives Act, punishable by a fine of not more than $5,000 or by imprisonment for not more than one year, or both by such fine and imprisonment. Moreover, any violation of the Federal Explosives Act or of the regulations thereunder would by itself be cause for revoking all licenses issued under the act to the offender.

Dated at Washington, D. C., this 22d day of July 1943.

Bureau of Reclamation.

YAKIMA PROJECT, WASH.

RECOMMENDATIONS OF BUREAU OF RECLAMATION WAGE BOARD TO SECRETARY OF THE INTERIOR

Pursuant to the order of the Secretary of the Interior dated June 23, 1943, and entitled "Wage Fixing Procedures, Field Employees, Bureau of Reclamation, Department of the Interior," the Bureau of Reclamation Wage Board has determined prevailing wage rates for operation and maintenance employees of the Bureau of Reclamation on the Yakima Project. The Board has considered rates currently being paid by private employers, predeterminations by the Secretary of Labor under the Davis-Bacon Act, rates paid by other Government agencies, and rates established by collective agreement.

The Bureau of Reclamation Wage Board finds that the hourly wage rates listed below are prevailing for similar work in the vicinity of the Yakima Project and recommends them for your adoption:

Refer to 40-hour week Act (Sec. 23, Act of March 28, 1934; 48 Stat., 522).

The Wage Board further understands that the wage rates for the group of employees specified below are not in the several recognized trades or occupations referred to in section 23 of the Act of March 28, 1934, (48 Stat., 522), and incumbents of these positions will be paid straight time wage rates for work in excess of forty hours a week. The Wage Board finds that the hourly wage rates listed below do not exceed current rates of pay for similar employment in the vicinity of the Yakima Project and recommends them for your adoption:

Reclamation Maintenance Laborer, Leadman	.80	.80

No reduction in current rates. The Wage Board recommends that no present employee of the Bureau of Reclamation suffer a reduction in his basic hourly wage rate as a result of the promulgation of these recommendations.

The Wage Board recommends that all field employees of the Bureau of Reclamation on the Yakima Project, except those allocated to grade, be classified or reclassified in accordance with the foregoing schedule, effective as of the beginning of business on May 1, 1943. The Board further recommends that all positions not allocated to grade and for which job titles are not listed above be abolished.

FEDERAL TRADE COMMISSION.

[Docket No. 5017]

THE RUBEROID COMPANY

COMPLAINT AND NOTICE

Complaint

The Federal Trade Commission, having reason to believe that the party respondent named in the caption hereof and hereinafter more particularly designated and described, has been since June 19, 1936, and is now violating the provisions of subsection (a) of section 2 of the Clayton Act (U. S. C., Title 15, Sec. 13), as amended by the Robinson-Patman Act approved June 19, 1936, hereby issues its complaint, stating its charge with respect thereto as follows:

PARAGRAPH 1. Respondent, The Ruberoid Company, is a corporation organized and existing under and by virtue of the laws of the State of New Jersey, with its principal office and place of business located at 500 Fifth Avenue, New York, New York. Respondent corporation is now and has been since June 19, 1936, engaged in the business of processing, manufacturing, offering for sale, selling and distributing asbestos and asphalt roofing, insulating materials and allied products in all parts of the United States.

The respondent is one of the largest manufacturers and distributors of asbestos and asphalt roofing, insulating materials and allied products in the United States. It maintains and operates branch warehouses and sales offices at Baltimore, Maryland; Mobile, Alabama; Erie, Pennsylvania; Millis, Massachusetts and Chicago, Illinois. The respondent sells its products directly to wholesalers, retailers, and "applicators". The term "applicators" herein used applies to corporations, individuals, partnerships and firms known as building or roofing contractors who apply the products purchased from the respondent to buildings. The "applicators" usually sell the respondent's products to consumers on a contract basis, charging the consumer for the materials used and the labor employed in connection with the applying of the asbestos and asphalt roofing and insulating materials to buildings.

PAR. 2. Respondent sells and distributes its products in commerce between and among the various states of the United States and in the District of Columbia and preliminary to or as a result of such sales, causes such products to be shipped and transported from the place of production or origin of the shipment to the purchasers thereof who are located in various states of the United States and in the District of Columbia other than the state of origin of the shipment and there is and has been at all times herein mentioned a continuous current of trade and commerce in said products across state lines between respondent's plants, factories or warehouses and the purchasers of such products. Said products are then sold and distributed for use and resale within the various states of the United States and within the District of Columbia.

PAR. 3. In the course and conduct of its business, as aforesaid, respondent has been and is now in substantial competition in commerce with other manufacturers and sellers of asbestos and asphalt roofing and insulating materials and allied products and who for many years prior hereto have been and are now engaged in manufacturing, selling and shipping such products in commerce across state lines to purchasers thereof located in the various states of the United States.

Many of respondent's customers are competitively engaged with each other and with the customers of respondent's competitors in the resale of said products within the several trade areas in which respondent's said customers respectively offer for sale and sell the said products purchased from respondent.

PAR. 4. In the course and conduct of its said business, since June 19, 1936, respondent has been and is now discriminating in price between different purchasers buying said products, by selling them to some of its customers at higher prices than it sells products of like grade and quality to other customers who are competitively engaged in the resale of said products within the United States with customers receiving the lower prices.

The respondent grants and allows to all of its customers a cash discount of 2% if the invoice is paid within a specified time.

PAR. 5. The respondent has discriminated in price by the use of a so-called trade discount schedule whereby it has sold to some customers at higher prices than it has sold goods of like grade and quality to other customers who are in competition with them in the resale of said products within the United States. The so-called trade discount schedule includes two types of discounts, one known as a "distributor commission" and the other known as a "wholesaler discount". The trade discount schedule used by the respondent is more particularly described as follows:

(a) The respondent grants to some of its customers who are engaged in the resale of asphalt roofing products of like grade and quality in competition with other of respondent's customers, a "distributor commission" ranging from 5% to 10% to be deducted from the invoice price and a "wholesaler discount" of 5% off the invoice price. The "wholesaler discount" of 5% allowed by the respondent to its favored customers is in addition to the "distributor commission" ranging from 5% to 10% granted and allowed to the same customers.

(b) The respondent grants to some of its customers who are engaged in the resale of asbestos shingles and siding of like grade and quality in competition with other of respondent's customers, a "distributor commission" of 5%, and in some instances 6%, to be deducted from the invoice price and a "wholesaler discount" of 6% off of the invoice price. The "wholesaler discount" of 6% allowed by the respondent to its favored customers is in addition to the "distributor commission" of 5%, and in some instances 6% granted and allowed to the same customers.

The "distributor commission" and "wholesaler discount" herein referred to are allowed to some and withheld from other customers of the respondent who purchase from the respondent asphalt roofing products and asbestos shingles and siding and allied products and who are in competition with each other.

PAR. 6. The effect of the discrimination in price generally alleged in Paragraph Four hereof and of the discriminations specifically set forth in Paragraph Five hereof has been, or may be, substantially to lessen competition in the line of commerce in which the purchasers receiving and those denied the benefits of such discriminatory prices are engaged and to injure, destroy or prevent competition between purchasers receiving the benefit of said discriminatory prices and those from whom they are withheld. The effect also has been or may be to tend to create a monopoly in those purchasers receiving the benefit of said discriminatory prices in the said line of commerce in the various localities or trade areas in the United States where said favored customers and their disfavored competitors are engaged in business.

Such discriminations in price by respondent between different purchasers of commodities of like grade and quality in interstate commerce in the manner and form aforesaid are in violation of the provisions of subsection 2 (a) of section 1 of said Act of Congress approved June 19, 1936, entitled "An Act to Amend section 2 of an Act Entitled, 'An Act to Supplement Existing Laws Against Unlawful Restraints and Monopolies and for Other Purposes' Approved October 15, 1914 as amended, U. S. C. Title 15, section 13 and for Other Purposes."

Wherefore, the premises considered, the Federal Trade Commission on this 26th day of July, A. D., 1943, issues its complaint against said respondent.

Notice

Notice is hereby given you, The Ruberoid Company, a corporation, respondent herein, that the 3d day of September, A. D., 1943, at 2 o'clock in the afternoon, is hereby fixed as the time, and the offices of the Federal Trade Commission in the City of Washington, D. C., as the place, when and where a hearing will be had

You are notified and required, on or before the twentieth day after service upon you of this complaint, to file with the Commission an answer to the complaint. If answer is filed and if your appearance at the place and on the date above stated be not required, due notice to that effect will be given you. The Rules of Practice adopted by the Commission with respect to answers or failure to appear or answer (Rule IX) provide as follows:

In case of desire to contest the proceeding the respondent shall, within twenty (20) days from the service of the complaint, file with the Commission an answer to the complaint. Such answer shall contain a concise statement of the facts which constitute the ground of defense. Respondent shall specifically admit or deny or explain each of the facts alleged in the complaint, unless respondent is without knowledge, in which case respondent shall so state.

* * * * *

Failure of the respondent to file answer within the time above provided and failure to appear at the time and place fixed for hearing shall be deemed to authorize the Commission, without further notice to respondent, to proceed in regular course on the charges set forth in the complaint.

If respondent desires to waive hearing on the allegations of fact set forth in the complant and not to contest the facts, the answer may consist of a statement that respondent admits all the material allegations of fact charged in the complant to be true. Respondent by such answer shall be deemed to have waived a hearing on the allegations of fact set forth in said complant and to have authorized the Commission, without further evidence, or other intervening procedure, to find such facts to be true.

Contemporaneously with the filing of such answer the respondent may give notice in writing that he desires to be heard on the question as to whether the admitted facts constitute the violation of law charged in the complant. Pursuant to such notice, the respondent may file a brief, directed solely to that question, in accordance with Rule XXIII.

In witness whereof, the Federal Trade Commission has caused this, its complaint, to be signed by its Secretary, and its official seal to be hereto affixed, at Washington, D. C., this 26th day of July, A. D., 1943.

OFFICE OF DEFENSE TRANSPORTATION.

DELIVERY AND DISTRIBUTION OF MILK IN WATERTOWN, N. Y.

RECOMMENDATION OF JOINT ACTION PLAN

Pursuant to a provision of a general order issued by the Office of Defense Transportation for the purpose, among others, of conserving and providently utilizing motor vehicles and vital equipment, materials and supplies, (General Order ODT 17, as amended, 7 F.R. 5678, 7694, 9623; 8 F.R. 8278, 8377), the private carriers named in the appendix hereof have filed with the Office of Defense Transportation for approval a joint action relating to the transportation and delivery of milk by motor vehicle in the Watertown Milk Marketing Area, New York.

The participants have agreed that all retail delivery and distribution of milk in such area shall be on an every-other-day basis. They have agreed to trade "outlying customers" on their wholesale routes in order to reduce the mileage operated by motor trucks, and to suspend delivery service to such customers when adequate supplies of milk can be obtained from other sources.

It appearing that the proposed joint action plan is in conformity with General Order ODT 17, as amended, and that the effectuation thereof will accomplish substantial conservation and efficient utilization of motor trucks and vital materials and supplies, the attainment of which purposes is essential to the successful prosecution of the war, I have approved the plan and recommend that the Chairman of the War Production Board find and certify under section 12 of Public Law No. 603, 77th Congress (56 Stat. 357), that the doing of any act or thing, or the omission to do any act or thing, by any person in compliance with said joint action plan, is requisite to the prosecution of the war.

Issued at Washington, D. C., this 28th day of July 1943.

JOSEPH B. EASTMAN,
Director, Office of Defense Transportation.

OFFICE OF PRICE ADMINISTRATION.

Regional, State, and District Office Orders.

[Region III Order G–1 Under MPR 376]

CERTAIN FRESH FRUITS AND VEGETABLES IN IND. (EXCEPT LAKE COUNTY), KY., MICH., OHIO, AND W. VA.

Order No. G–1 under Maximum Price Regulation No. 376. Certain fresh fruits and vegetables.

For the reasons set forth in an opinion issued simultaneously herewith and under the authority vested in the Regional Administrator of Region III of the Office of Price Administration by section 4 of Maximum Price Regulation No. 376, It is hereby ordered:

(a) Purpose. On and after April 30, 1943, the maximum wholesale prices of terminal sellers, carlot receivers, commission sellers on consignment, cash and carry or retail-owned cooperative wholesalers and service wholesalers for sales on either an f. o. b. or delivered basis, of all kinds and varieties of tomatoes, snap beans, carrots, cabbage, green peas, lettuce and spinach, hereinafter referred to as "listed comodities," within the States of Indiana (except the county of Lake), Kentucky, Michigan, Ohio and West Virginia, shall be determined under the provisions of this order.

(b) Terminal base prices. Schedule A, attached hereto and made a part hereof, establishes in one of two methods a "terminal base price" for the various kinds and varieties of the "listed commodities". In cases where provision is made for "formula pricing" in Schedule A, the "terminal base price" is defined to mean the price paid to the country shipper f. o. b. country shipping point plus actual carload freight and icing costs to the terminal. Charges for local trucking and unloading may not be included and in no case may the country shipper's price be in excess of the maximum price established for him by any order of the Office of Price Administration. In those portions of Schedule A where prices are set in dollars and cents, the "terminal base price" is defined to mean such dollars and cents figure for the applicable commodity.

(c) Terminal sellers, carlot receivers and commission sellers on consignment—(1) Sales in unbroken carload or truckload lots. Where "terminal base prices" for "listed commodities" are established in Schedule A by dollars and cents figures, a terminal seller, carlot receiver or commission seller on consignment may sell or deliver such "listed commodities" in unbroken carload or truckload lots at a price not to exceed such "terminal base prices". Where, however, the "terminal base price" of a listed commodity is permitted by this order to be calculated on a country shipper's price plus carload freight and icing costs, a terminal seller, carlot receiver or commission seller on consignment may sell such commodity in unbroken carload or trucking lots at a price not to exceed such "terminal base price" multiplied by 1.035.

(2) Sales in broken carload or truckload lots. Where a terminal seller, carlot receiver, or commission seller on consignment handles a "listed commodity" by breaking carload or truckload lots and by selling in less than carload or truckload lots, his maximum price for such sale shall be determined by multiplying the applicable "terminal base price" for such commodity by 1.095.

(3) Sales to bonafide retailers. Where a terminal seller, carlot receiver or commission seller on consignment sells in less than carload or truckload lots to a bonafide retailer and provides in such sale the usual and customary services of a service wholesaler, his maximum price for such sale shall be determined by multiplying the applicable "terminal base price" for such commodity by 1,175.

(d) Cash and carry or retailer-owned cooperative wholesalers—(1) In general. Where a cash and carry or retailer-owned cooperative wholesaler purchases a "listed commodity" in carload lots from a country shipper, terminal seller, carlot receiver or commission seller on consignment, his maximum price for such "listed commodity" shall be determined by multiplying the applicable "terminal base price" for such commodity by 1.095.

(2) Where commodity is purchased from another wholesaler. Where a cash and carry or retailer-owned cooperative wholesaler has purchased a "listed commodity" in less than carload lots from another wholesaler, terminal seller, carlot receiver or commission seller on consignment, his maximum price for such "listed commodity" shall be determined by multiplying the applicable "terminal base price" for such commodity by 1.20.

(e) Service wholesalers—(1) In general. Where a service wholesaler purchases a "listed commodity" in carload or truckload lots from a country shipper, terminal seller, carlot receiver, or commission seller on consignment, his maximum price for such listed commodity shall be determined by multiplying the applicable "terminal base price" for such commodity by 1.175.

(2) Where commodity is purchased from another wholesaler. Where a service wholesaler has purchased a "listed commodity" in less than carload lots from another wholesaler, terminal seller, carlot receiver, or commission seller on consignment, his maximum price for such "listed commodity" shall be determined by multiplying the applicable "terminal base price" for such commodity by 1.29.

(f) Calculation of prices. (1) The maximum prices of all wholesalers other than country shippers, terminal sellers, carlot receivers and carload sellers on consignment shall be computed on Wednesday of each week before making any sales and shall be based on the "terminal base price" of the largest single purchase of each kind and variety of the "listed commodity" during the seven preceding days. The applicable maximum price thus determined shall be the effective maximum price for the ensuing week for all sales by such wholesaler for each kind and variety of the "listed commodities".

(2) Where a wholesaler, other than a terminal seller, carlot receiver or commission seller or consignment, purchases a "listed commodity" from a country shipper in carload or truckload lots, for the purposes of resale of such "listed commodity", he shall be deemed to be a terminal seller, and shall be governed by the prices permitted terminal sellers by this order. Such prices shall not be subject to weekly recomputation under this section.

(g) Invoices. All wholesalers shall accompany each sale with an invoice which shall show the date of purchase, name of the seller, the name and the address of the purchaser, a complete description of the "listed commodity" sold, the quantity, and the selling price. All invoices of sales made by one wholesaler, terminal seller, carlot receiver, or commission seller on consignment, to another wholesaler, terminal seller, carlot receiver, or commission seller on consignment, shall indicate the "terminal base price" for the "listed commodity" sold.

(h) Records. Any person selling a "listed commodity" who is subject to the terms of this General Order shall keep and maintain all records necessary for the determination of any maximum price, "terminal base price", or "largest single purchase".

(i) Prohibitions. For the duration of this order, no person shall sell or deliver any "listed commodity" at a price in excess of the Maximum Price established herein and no person in the course of trade or business shall buy or receive a "listed commodity" at a price higher than the maximum price provided in this order. Lower prices than the maximum price may be charged, demanded, paid, or offered.

No person shall defeat or attempt to defeat the purposes of this Order by the use of any tying agreement or other similar device or procedure.

(j) Exempt sales. Section 5 of Maximum Price Regulation No. 376 applying to exempt sales is incorporated and made a part of this order.

(k) Revocation or former order. Order No. G–1 under Temporary Maximum Price Regulations Nos. 28 and 29 (formerly General Order No. 2) adjusting maximum wholesale prices of certain fresh vegetables in Region III, together with amendments 1, 2, and 3 thereto, is hereby revoked, replaced, and superseded by this order, which further supersedes and replaces all orders and adjustments heretofore issued by any District or State office of Region III of the Office of Price Administration by virtue of a delegation of authority granted such officer under the provisions of Temporary Maximum Price Regulations No. 28 and No. 29.

(l) Definitions. (1) A "commission seller" is defined to mean a seller who receives "listed commodities" on consignment from a shipper and who sells for the account of the shipper.

(2) A "carlot receiver or terminal seller" is defined to mean a seller who buys "listed commodities" directly from a shipper, and who customarily sells to wholesalers or to chain store warehouses.

(3) A "retailer-owned cooperative wholesaler" is defined to mean either a non-profit organization or a corporation of which 51% or more of the stock is owned by its retailer customers and which distributes "listed commodities" for resale.

(4) A "cash and carry wholesaler" is defined to mean a wholesaler, other than a retailer-owned cooperative wholesaler, who distributes "listed commodities" for resale or to commercial, industrial or institutional users and who does not customarily deliver to purchaser.

(5) A "service wholesaler" is defined to mean a wholesaler, other than a retailer-owned cooperative wholesaler, who distributes "listed commodities" for resale or to commercial, industrial, or institutional users and who delivers to the purchaser's place of business.

(6) "Largest single purchase" means the purchase of the greatest quantity which was received by the wholesaler at this customary receiving point during the seven days before the day of the week on which the maximum price must be calculated.

(m) Geographical applicability. This order shall apply to all sales and deliveries of the "listed commodities", pursuant to which the buyer receives physical delivery, or whose customary receiving point is within the States of Indiana (except the County of Lake), Kentucky, Michigan, Ohio and West Virginia.

This Order No. G–1 under Maximum Price Regulation No. 376 shall become effective April 30, 1943, and shall remain in effect until modified, revoked or amended by the Regional Administrator or Region III of the Office of Price Administration.

(b) Form and contents of application. The application shall be entitled "Application for Exemption Order" and in addition to the specific relief requested, shall contain a list of the persons upon whom notice of the filing thereof was or is being served, and facts relied upon to establish that the enforcement of the matter from which exemption is sought is or would be an undue burden upon the applicant by reason of the limited extent of, or unusual circumstances affecting, the operations of such applicant and is not in the public interest. An executed original and nine copies of such application with a copy of the notice attached to each shall be filed with the Board.

(c) Additional service of notice. Action on the application may be withheld by the Board, in its discretion, pending proof of such additional service of notice by the applicant as the Board may direct.

PART 1010—SUSPENSION ORDERS

STANDARD MOTOR COMPANY

Standard Motor Company, 1300 Glenarm Street, Denver, Colorado, is a partnership composed of Sol L. Gertz and Nathan Gertz. Since 1931 it has been engaged in Denver, Colorado, in the business of selling automotive trucks as a dealer or sales agent. On or about July 22, 1942, it sold and delivered to Ready Mixed Concrete Company three new 1½-ton trucks for the aggregate price and for the value of $5,841.32 without obtaining the proper certificate of transfer or government exemption permit as provided for and required by Conservation Order M-100. This sale constituted a wilful and significant violation of Conservation Order M-100, with which Sol L. Gertz and Nathan Gertz were familiar.

This violation of Conservation Order M-100 has hampered and impeded the war effort of the United States. In view of the foregoing facts, It is hereby ordered, That, § 1010.371 Suspension Order S-371. (a) Sol L. Gertz and Nathan Gertz, doing business as Standard Motor Company, or otherwise, their successors and assigns, shall not purchase, sell, deal in, deliver, or otherwise transfer any new commercial motor vehicles as defined in Conservation Order M-100, or any component part thereof, except with the written approval of the Regional Director of the Denver Regional Office of the War Production Board. Authority is hereby delegated to said Regional Director to pass upon applications of the respondent for exceptions to this order.

(b) Nothing contained in this order shall be deemed to relieve Sol L. Gertz and Nathan Gertz, doing business as Standard Motor Company, their successors or assigns, from any restriction, prohibition, or provision contained in any other order or regulation of the War Production Board, except insofar as the same may be inconsistent with the provisions hereof.

(c) This order shall take effect on July 30, 1943, and shall expire on September 30, 1943, at which time the restrictions contained in this order shall be of no further effect.

Issued this 23d day of July 1943.

PART 1349—ELECTRICAL, GENERATION, TRANSMISSION, CONVERSION AND DISTRIBUTION APPARATUS

[RPS 82,[1] Amdt. 4]

WIRE, CABLE AND CABLE ACCESSORIES

A statement of the considerations involved in the issuance of this amendment, issued simultaneously herewith, has been filed with the Division of the Federal Register.*

Revised Price Schedule 82 is amended in the following respects:

1. Section 1349.1 (g) is revoked.

2. Section 1349.1a is added to read as follows:

§ 1349.1a Adjustable pricing. Any person may agree to sell at a price which can be increased up to the maximum price in effect at the time of delivery; but no person may, except in accordance with § 1349.10a in the case of an application for adjustment and unless authorized by the Office of Price Administration in the case of a petition for amendment, deliver or agree to deliver at prices to be adjusted upward in accordance with action taken by the Office of Price Administration after delivery. Such authorization, in the case of a petition for amendment, may be given when a request for a change in the applicable maximum price is pending, but only if the authorization is necessary to promote distribution or production and if it will not interefere with the purposes of the Emergency Price Control Act of 1942, as amended. The authorization may be given by the Price Administrator or by any official of the Office of Price Administration to whom the authority to grant such authorization has been delegated. The authorization will be given by order.

3. Section 1349.10a is added to read as follows:

§ 1349.10a Adjustments—(a) Application by a seller of wire, cable or cable accessories—(1) Who may receive an adjustment. The maximum price for wire, cable or cable accessories established by this regulation may be adjusted only in the case of an essential supplier of an essential commodity. An "essential commodity" is one which contributes to the effective prosecution of the war. An "essential supplier" is one whose output or supply cannot be reasonably expected to be replaced at prices lower than the proposed adjusted maximum price. In addition, any person who has entered into or proposes to enter into a war contract (as defined in subparagraph (5)) or a subcontract thereunder is an essential supplier of an essential item of wire, cable or cable accessories.

(2) When adjustment may be granted—(i) In general. The Office of Price Administration, any regional office, or such other offices as may be authorized by order issued by the appropriate regional office, may adjust the maximum price in the case of an essential supplier of an essential commodity upon the basis of information submitted by the supplier or of other information. It may make that adjustment whenever it finds that the maximum price of an item of wire, cable or cable accessories is at such a level that (taking into account the cost thereof, the profits position of the supplier and the nature of his business) production or supply of the commodity is impeded or threatened.

(ii) Factors which may be considered. The following factors are relevant to the consideration of the adjustment:

(a) Whether, and by what amount, the maximum price is below or above (1) the total unit costs less selling and administrative expenses properly allocable to the internal management of the business in the case of a manufacturer and (2) the current price being charged the seller in the case of a seller other than a manufacturer.

(b) Whether, and by what amount, the maximum price is above total unit costs.

(c) Whether, and by what amount, the seller's current over-all profits before income and excess profits taxes are greater or less than his average over-all profits during the normal base period, increased by 7% of the additional capital investment contributed entirely by the seller, or its stockholders, since the normal base period. Capital investment will be construed as including accumulated profits.

(d) Whether the proposed price is higher than the price prevailing in the industry.

(e) Whether the seller's sales of the commodity represent only a very small part of his total sales.

(f) Whether the seller previously sold the same type of commodity at a price which was below its total unit costs.

(3) How the seller proceeds in applying for an adjustment—(i) In general. An application for adjustment under this paragraph (a) shall be filed in accordance with Revised Procedural Regulation No. 1 and shall be made on a copy of Form OPA 694:395, set out in Appendix E, incorporated as § 1349.21 of this regulation. Copies of the amendment which contains this form and of the instructions for completing it may be obtained from any district, state or regional office of the Office of Price Administration. If the seller's total sales in the calendar year 1942, or in the fiscal year ending in 1942, exceeded $500,000, the application shall be filed with the Office of Price Administration in Washington, D. C. If the seller's total sales during that period did not exceed $500,000, the application shall be filed with the nearest regional office of the Office of Price Administration.

(ii) Application based on proposed wage or salary increase to be authorized by the National War Labor Board. A seller who believes that the conditions for an adjustment set forth in this paragraph (a), would exist if the National War Labor Board should grant a pending application for wage or salary increase may file an application for adjustment under this paragraph. Applications for adjustment of maximum prices based on wage or salary increases requiring the approval of the National War Labor Board must also comply with Supplementary Order No. 28, which requires, among other things, that an application for adjustment in such case be filed within 15 days after an application for a wage or salary adjustment has been filed with the National War Labor Board, or, in a disputed wage proceeding, within 15 days after the employer receives notification that the National War Labor Board has taken jurisdiction of the dispute.

(4) Prices for deliveries made pending disposition of the application. A seller who has filed an application under this paragraph (a) may contract or agree that deliveries made during the pendency of the application shall be at a specific price which is higher than the existing maximum price which the seller wants to have adjusted. But no payment in excess of that existing maximum price may be received until the application is finally disposed of, and at that time the price received may not exceed the maximum price as determined by the Office of Price Administration.

A seller who wishes to enter into such an arrangement must specifically state to the buyer the following:

(i) The maximum price for the commodity.

(ii) The fact that an appropriate application for an adjustment of that maximum price has been filed with the Office of Price Administration; and

(iii) The fact that the specific price quoted by the seller is subject to the approval of the Office of Price Administration.

(5) Definitions—(i) Normal base period. The term "normal base period" means the period 1936–1939. If the seller shall demonstrate to the satisfaction of the Office of Price Administration either (a) that his entire industry was operating during the greater part of such period at an unusually depressed level or (b) that because of unusual conditions prevailing during that period, the seller was operating during that period at an unusually depressed level in comparison to other sellers in the industry, and in addition that some other period prior to January 1, 1941, represents a proper "normal base period", such other period may be considered. The mere fact that the rate of production or supply has increased since 1936–1939 will not be deemed evidence that the seller was operating at an "unusually depressed level" during that period. If the seller was not in business prior to January 1, 1941, he shall state that fact in his application.

(ii) Over-all profits. The term "over-all profits" means net profit resulting from the operation of all divisions of the seller, before the creation of any reserves, except ordinary reserves for depreciation and bad debts, and before income and excess profit taxes. In the case of a subsidiary wholly owned by a parent corporation, the term "over-all profits" means the consolidated net profit before the creation of any reserves, except ordinary reserves for depreciation and bad debts, and before income and excess profit taxes.

(iii) Subcontract. The term "subcontract" means any purchase, order or agreement to perform all or any part of the work, or to make or furnish any commodity, required for the performance of another contract or subcontract.

(iv) Total unit costs. (a) In the case of a manufacturer, the term "total unit costs" means the direct unit cost of labor, materials, and subcontracted services, plus a proportion of factory overhead, administrative and other expenses, based on actual operating experience, properly allocable to the production of the commodity, but does not include provisions for income or excess profit taxes. In evaluating total unit costs, the Office of Price Administration will determine whether the allocation of factory overhead, administrative and other expenses is based on a representative period of continuous, normal production.

(b) In the case of a seller, other than a manufacturer, "total unit costs" means the current price the seller is paying for the commodity plus the handling and administrative expense, normally applicable to the handling of the commodity, properly allocable to the seller's total cost of doing business, but does not include provisions for income or excess profits taxes. In evaluating total unit costs, the Office of Price Administration will determine whether the allocation of administrative and other expenses is based on a representative period of continuous, normal production.

(v) War contract. The term "war contract" means any contract with the United States, or any agency thereof, or with the government, or any agency thereof, of any country whose defense the President deems vital to the defense of the United States, under the terms of the Lend-Lease Act, for the sale of a commodity purchased (a) for the ultimate use of the armed forces of the United States or for lend-lease purposes, or (b) by any government (or agency thereof) of any country whose defense the President deems vital to the defense of the United States under the terms of the Lend-Lease Act, or (c) for use in the production or manufacture of any commodity described in (a) or (b).

(b) Application by a seller based upon an appropriate decreasc of other prices—(1) Who may receive an adjustment. Adjustments under this paragraph (b) will be granted only to an essential supplier of an essential commodity. The meaning of these terms is explained in paragraph (a) (1) of this section.

(2) When adjustment may be granted. The Office of Price Administration, any regional office, or such other offices as may be authorized by order issued by the appropriate regional office, may make an adjustment of the maximum price in any case in which the seller agrees to make and (simultaneously with any increase in the maximum price that may be authorized under this paragraph (b)) makes a reduction in the selling price of other commodities which will equal or exceed the total dollar amount of the adjustment granted under this paragraph.

(3) What an application under this paragraph must show. An application for price adjustment under this paragraph (b) shall contain information indicating that the applicant is an essential supplier of an essential commodity and that if the proposed adjustment is granted, the gross dollar amount of sales of the commodities affected by the adjustment will not be greater than it would have been in the absence of the adjustment. In any case where such an adjustment is granted, the Office of Price Administration will require appropriate reports relating to the commodities affected.

(4) How the seller proceeds in applying for an adjustment. An application for adjustment under this paragraph (b) shall be filed in accordance with Revised Procedural Regulation No. 1. If the seller's total sales of all commodities for the calendar year 1942, or for the fiscal year ending in 1942, exceeded $500,000, the application shall be filed with the Office of Price Administration in Washington, D. C. If the seller's total sales of all commodities during that period did not exceed $500,000, the application shall be filed with the regional office of the Office of Price Administration located in the same region in which the seller's business is located.

(c) Application by a seller under a combination of both paragraphs (a) and (b). A seller who desires to apply for an adjustment under paragraph (b) may, at the time he applies under that paragraph, also apply under paragraph (a), if the facts of his case entitle him to do so. In such cases, the office considering his application will give the adjustment available under paragraph (a) before applying paragraph (b).

(d) No application for adjustment filed under Procedural Regulation No. 6 after August 4, 1943, with respect to commodities covered by this regulation will be granted.

INSTRUCTIONS FOR THE USE OF ADJUSTMENT APPLICATION FORM FOR WIRE, CABLE, AND CABLE ACCESSORIES

Schedule C entitled "Unit Price and Cost Information" is subject to the following explanation:

1. Price data:

(a) 1. (List) (Gross) Price:

Please indicate whether the price is a list price or a gross price by crossing out the term that does not apply.

(b) Use a sufficient number of months prior to the date of the application to give an adequate understanding of the situation. Name the period in the allotted space and fill in commission rates or discounts.

2. Unit cost data:

In presenting unit cost data be sure to include only costs actually incurred. In the case of a seller other than a manufacturer submit information only on the applicable items of cost.

Material cost must represent actual cost. State separately any charges added to costs of materials. In the case of a seller other than a manufacturer direct material means the price at which the seller purchased the commodity.

Where standard costs are used, adjust costs for over- or under-absorption during the period to which the costs apply, if possible.

If the commodity or commodities covered by the application were not manufactured on October 15, 1941, the cost data for those commodities must be computed in accordance with the procedure outlined in the applicable section of the regulation for determining your maximum price. Under items (f), (g) and (h) include only costs borne by the seller and not billed separately to the buyer.

If any difficulty is experienced in completing this form, it may be taken to the nearest OPA district accountant, who will give his assistance in its preparation.

This amendment shall become effective August 4, 1943.

NOTE: All report and record-keeping requirements of this regulation have been approved by the Bureau of the Budget in accordance with the Federal Reports Act of 1942.

Only men's uniforms on the following list which are made of a principal fabric of cotton, rayon, mohair, a combination of these fibers, or of these principal fibers in combination with other fibers are covered by this regulation:

PART 1390—MACHINERY AND TRANSPORTATION EQUIPMENT

[MPR 136 as Amended,[1] Amdt. 96]

MACHINES AND PARTS AND MACHINERY SERVICES

A statement of the considerations involved in the issuance of this amendment, issued simultaneously herewith, has been filed with the Division of the Federal Register.*

Maximum Price Regulation No. 136, as amended, is amended, in the following respects:

1. In § 1390.2 (f) the first sentence is amended to read as follows:

(f) Any sale or delivery at retail of a machine or part by a person other than the manufacturer thereof, except that the sale or delivery at retail of automotive trucks, trailers and busses as described in § 1390.33 (c) shall not be excluded from, but shall be covered by, this regulation.

2. Section 1390.11 (c) is amended to read as follows:

(c) Maximum prices; secondhand machines or parts sold when new on delivered or installed price basis only—(1) Sold when new on delivered price basis only. Notwithstanding any other provision of this section, if the maximum price for any secondhand machine or part established by this regulation when such machine or part is sold new, is on a delivered price basis only, the new base price upon the sale of such machine or part shall be the highest maximum price to any class of purchasers for the nearest equivalent machine or part when new, delivered to the point where such secondhand machine or part is located at the time of purchase by the seller.

(2) Sold when new on installed price basis only. Notwithstanding any other provision of this section, if the maximum price for any secondhand machine or part established by this regulation when such machine or part is sold when new, is on an installed price basis only (that is, a lump sum covering the cost of the machine or part, the cost of transportation, and the cost of installation), the new base price upon the sale of such machine or part shall be the price for the same machine or part when new, installed at the point of original installation.

3. Section 1390.20 (a) is amended by adding to the end thereof a sentence to read as follows:

It shall also be a violation of this regulation for any person to pay, in connection with the purchase or rental of any machine or part, whether new or used, or the purchase of any machinery service, any fees, commissions, or other compensation, whether for broker's, agent's or finder's services, or otherwise, which, when added to the amount paid by such person for the purchase or rental of such machine or part or the purchase of such machinery service would result in a total sum exceeding the applicable maximum price established by this regulation.

4. In § 1390.33 (c) a new item is added to read as follows:

New automotive trucks, trailers, and busses, originally designed for use as private or commercial motor vehicles, which are manufactured on or after August 12, 1943, when sold by any person. The foregoing does not include automotive trucks, trailers, and busses specially designed for use as military vehicles; nor does it include cars and trucks covered by § 1390.32 (g) as "Material Handling Equipment."

5. In § 1390.33 (c) the item: "Gears, pinion, sprockets and speed reducers specially designed for use in vehicles, aircraft or equipment used primarily for military purposes" is amended to read as follows:

Gears, pinions, sprockets and speed reducers, except automotive or tractor transmissions, transfer cases, power take-offs, differentials or axle assemblies, specially designed for use in vehicles, aircraft or equipment used primarily for military purposes.

This amendment shall become effective August 12, 1943.

PART 1390—MACHINERY AND TRANSPORTATION EQUIPMENT

[MPR 351,[1] Amdt. 4]

FERROUS FORGINGS

A statement of the considerations involved in the issuance of this amendment, issued simultaneously herewith, has been filed with the Division of the Federal Register.*

Maximum Price Regulation 351 is amended in the following respects:

1. Section 1390.218 is amended to read as follows:

§ 1390.218 Petitions for amendment. Any person seeking an amendment of any provision of this regulation, may file a petition for amendment in accordance with the provisions of Revised Procedural Regulation No. 1 issued by the Office of Price Administration.

2. Section 1390.218a is added to read as follows:

§ 1390.218a Adjustments—(a) Application by a manufacturer of a ferrous forging—(1) Who may receive an adjustment. The manufacturers' maximum price for a ferrous forging established by this regulation may be adjusted only in the case of an essential producer of an essential ferrous forging. An "essential ferrous forging" is one which contributes to the effective prosecution of the war. An "essential producer" is one whose output of a ferrous forging cannot be reasonably expected to be replaced at prices lower than the proposed adjusted maximum price. In addition, any person who has entered into, or proposes to enter into, a war contract (as defined in subparagraph (5)), or a subcontract thereunder, is an essential producer of a ferrous forging.

(2) When adjustment may be granted—(i) In general. The Office of Price Administration, any regional office, or such other offices as may be authorized by order issued by the appropriate regional office, may adjust the maximum price in the case of an essential producer of an essential ferrous forging upon the basis of information submitted by the manufacturer or of other information. It may make that adjustment whenever it finds that the maximum price of a ferrous forging is at such a level that (taking into account the cost thereof, the profits position of the manufacturer and the nature of his business) production of the ferrous forging is impeded or threatened and that the adjustment would not cause an increase in the cost of living.

(ii) Factors which may be considered. (a) The following factors are relevant to the consideration of whether production of the ferrous forging is impeded or threatened:

(1) Whether and by what amount, the maximum price is below or above (i) the current total unit costs, less selling and administrative expense properly allocable to the internal management of the business, and (ii) the current total unit costs, of the ferrous forging.

(2) Whether, and by what amount, the manufacturer's current over-all profits, before income and excess profit taxes, are greater or less than his average over-all profits during the normal base period, increased by 7% of the additional capital investment contributed entirely by the manufacturer, or its stockholders, since the normal base period. Capital investment will be construed as including accumulated profits.

(3) Whether the proposed price is higher than the price prevailing in the industry.

(4) Whether the manufacturer's sales of the ferrous forging represent only a very small part of his total sales.

(5) Whether the manufacturer previously sold the ferrous forging at a price which was below its total unit costs.

(b) The following factors are relevant to the consideration of whether the adjustment would cause an increase in the cost of living:

(1) Whether the ferrous forging or a commodity in the production of which it is used is of a type sold to civilian consumers other than industrial consumers.

(2) If such is the case, whether the increase in price allowed by the adjustment would be absorbed prior to sale to a nonindustrial consumer.

(3) Whether, if the applicant did not produce the ferrous forging, his output would be replaced by the same or a substitute commodity at prices equal to or higher than the proposed adjusted maximum price.

(3) How the manufacturer proceeds in applying for an adjustment—(i) In general. An application for adjustment under this paragraph (a) shall be filed in accordance with Revised Procedural Regulation No. 1 [2] and shall be made on a copy of Form OPA 694:411 set out in Appendix A, incorporated as § 1390.221 of this regulation. Copies of this form and of the instructions for completing it may be obtained from any district, state or regional office of the Office of Price Administration. If the manufacturer's total sales in the calendar year 1942, or in the fiscal year ending in 1942, exceeded $500,000 the application shall be filed with the Office of Price Administration, Washington, D. C. If the manufacturer's total sales during that period did not exceed $500,000 the application shall be filed with the regional office of the Office of Price Administration located in the same region that the manufacturer's business is located.

(ii) Application based on proposed wage or salary increase to be authorized by the National War Labor Board. A manufacturer who believes that the conditions for an adjustment set forth in this paragraph (a), would exist if the National War Labor Board should grant a pending application for wage or salary increase may file an application for adjustment under this paragraph. Applications for adjustment of maximum prices based on wage or salary increases requiring the approval of the National War Labor Board must also comply with Supplementary Order No. 28,[3] which requires, among other things, that an application for adjustment in such case be filed within 15 days after an application for a wage or salary adjustment has been filed with the National War Labor Board, or, in a disputed wage proceeding, within 15 days after the employer receives notification that the National War Labor Board has taken jurisdiction of the dispute.

(4) Prices for deliveries made pending disposition of the application. A manufacturer who has filed an application under this paragraph (a) may contract or agree that deliveries made during the pendency of the application shall be at a specific price which is higher than the existing maximum price which the manufacturer wants to have adjusted. But no payment in excess of that existing maximum price may be received until the application is finally disposed of, and at that time the price received may not exceed the maximum price as determined by the Office of Price Administration.

A manufacturer who wishes to enter into such an arrangement must specifically state to the buyer the following:

(i) The maximum price for the ferrous forging;

(ii) The fact that an appropriate application for an adjustment of that maximum price has been filed with the Office of Price Administration; and

(iii) The fact that the specific price quoted by the manufacturer is subject to the approval of the Office of Price Administration.

(5) Definitions—(i) Normal base period. The term "normal base period" means the period 1936–1939. If the manufacturer shall demonstrate to the satisfaction of the Office of Price Administration either (a) that his entire industry was operating during the greater part of such period at an unusually depressed level or (b) that because of unusual conditions prevailing during that period, the manufacturer's plant was operating during that period at an unusually depressed level in comparison to other plants in the industry, and in addition that some other period prior to January 1, 1941, represents a proper "normal base period", such other period may be considered. The mere fact that the rate of production has increased since 1936–1939 will not be deemed evidence that production during that period was at an "unusually depressed level". If the manufacturer was not in business prior to January 1, 1941, he shall state that fact in his application.

(ii) Over-all profits. The term "over-all profits" means net profit resulting from the operation of all divisions of the manufacturer, before the creation of any reserves, except ordinary reserves for depreciation and bad debts, and before income and excess profit taxes. In the case of a subsidiary wholly owned by a parent corporation, the term "over-all profits" means the consolidated net profit before the creation of any reserves, except ordinary reserves for depreciation and bad debts, and before income and excess profit taxes.

(iii) Subcontract. The term "subcontract" means any purchase, order or agreement to perform all or any part of the work, or to make or furnish any commodity, required for the performance of another contract or subcontract.

(iv) Total unit costs. The term "total unit costs" means the direct unit cost of labor, materials, and subcontracted services, plus a proportion of factory overhead, administrative and other expenses, based on actual operating experience, properly allocable to the production of the ferrous forging, but does not include provisions for income or excess profit taxes. In evaluating total unit costs, the Office of Price Administration will determine whether the allocation of factory overhead, administrative and other expenses is based on a representative period of continuous, normal production.

(v) War contract. The term "war contract" means any contract with the United States, or any agency thereof, or with the government, or any agency thereof, of any country whose defense the President deems vital to the defense of the United States, under the terms of the Lend-Lease Act, for the sale of a ferrous forging (a) for the ultimate use of the armed forces of the United States or for lend-lease purposes, or (b) by any government (or agency thereof) of any country whose defense the President deems vital to the defense of the United States under the terms of the Lend-Lease Act, or (c) for use in the production or manufacture of any commodity described in (a) or (b).

(b) Application by a manufacturer based upon an appropriate decrease of other prices—(1) Who may receive an adjustment under this paragraph. Adjustments under this paragraph will be granted only in the case of an essential producer of an essential ferrous forging. The meaning of these terms is explained in paragraph (a) (1) of this section.

(2) When adjustment may be granted. The Office of Price Administration, any regional office, or such other offices as may be authorized by order issued by the appropriate regional office, may make an adjustment of the maximum price in any case in which the manufacturer agrees to make and (simultaneously with any increase in the maximum price that may be authorized under this paragraph (b)) makes a reduction in the selling price of other commodities which will equal or exceed the total dollar amount of the adjustment granted under this paragraph.

(3) What an application under this paragraph must show. An application for price adjustment under this paragraph (b) shall contain information indicating that the manufacturer is an essential producer of an essential ferrous forging and that if the proposed adjustment is granted, the gross dollar amount of sales of the commodities affected by the adjustment will not be greater than it would have been in the absence of the adjustment. In any case where such an adjustment is granted, the Office of Price Administration will require appropriate reports relating to the commodities affected.

(4) How the manufacturer proceeds in applying for an adjustment.[1] An application for adjustment under this paragraph (b) shall be filed in accordance with Revised Procedural Regulation No. 1. If the manufacturer's total sales for the calendar year 1942, or for the fiscal year ending in 1942, exceeded $500,000, the application shall be filed with the Office of Price Administration in Washington, D. C. If the manufacturer's total sales during that period did not exceed $500,000 the application shall be filed with the regional office of the Office of Price Administration located in the same region that the applicant's business is located.

(c) Application by a manufacturer under a combination of both paragraphs (a) and (b). A manufacturer who desires to apply for an adjustment under paragraph (b) may, at the time he applies under that paragraph, also apply under paragraph (a), if the facts of his case entitle him to do so. In such case, the office considering his application will give the adjustment available under paragraph (a) before applying paragraph (b).

(d) Procedural Regulation No. 6[1] suspended. (b) No application for adjustment filed after August 4, 1943, under Procedural Regulation No. 6 with respect to ferrous forgings will be granted.

(e) Adjustments for sellers other than manufacturers. The maximum prices for sales of ferrous forgings by persons, other than manufacturers, may be adjusted in an order issued under this section.

3. Section 1390.221 is added to read as follows:

Deduct trade discounts at the average rate of discounts prevailing in your company for the product covered by the application.

(b) Use a sufficient number of months prior to the date of the application to give an adequate understanding of the situation. Name the period in the allotted space and fill in commission rates or discounts.

2. Unit cost data:

In presenting unit cost data be sure to include only actual cost.

Material cost must represent actual cost. State separately any charges added to costs of materials.

Where standard costs are used, adjust costs for over- and under-absorption during the period to which the costs apply.

The cost data for the ceiling date may be recomputed if the product covered by the application was not manufactured on or about that date. In the recomputation apply the wage rates prevailing in your plant on the ceiling date and material cost of the same date.

Under items (f), (g) and (h) include only costs borne by the manufacturer and not billed separately to the buyer.

PART 1427—MAGNESIUM

[MPR 314,[1] Amdt. 3]

MAGNESIUM AND MAGNESIUM ALLOY INGOT

A statement of the considerations involved in the issuance of this amendment, issued simultaneously herewith, has been filed with the Division of the Federal Register.*

Maximum Price Regulation No. 314 is amended in the following respects:

1. Section 1427.51 (b) (1) is amended to read as follows:

(1) Special shapes and sizes. If magnesium or magnesium alloy ingot is sold in nonstandard shapes or sizes a premium of 1 cent per pound may be added to the applicable maximum base price provided the purchaser specifically requests magnesium or magnesium alloy ingot in that particular shape. In such cases the premium charge must be shown as a separate item on the invoice required by § 1427.56, paragraph (a). Examples of such nonstandard shapes or sizes are the three-pound ingot and the round ingot (4" diameter x 16") weighing approximately twelve pounds.

Any seller of magnesium or magnesium alloy ingot who cannot produce a particular shape or size so requested by the buyer at the above premium of 1 cent per pound may apply in writing to the Non-Ferrous Metals Branch, Office of Price Administration, Washington, D. C., for approval of a larger premium. Such application shall state:

(i) The name and address of the purchaser.

(ii) The purpose for which the purchaser will use the material he desires to purchase.

(iii) The quantity of specially prepared material requested by the purchaser.

(iv) The date of issuance of the War Production Board authority permitting the purchaser to purchase magnesium.

(v) A description of the manner in which the material is to be specially prepared.

(vi) An itemized statement of the estimated additional expense to the seller in preparing the material for the purchaser's use.

(vii) The proposed price, setting forth the disposition to be made of transportation charges.

The price approved by the Office of Price Administration shall be a price in line with the general level of prices established by this Maximum Price Regulation No. 314 taking into account the purchaser's special requirements and the additional cost to the seller involved in preparing material to meet the purchaser's requirements.

The application may be filed before any sale is made and must be filed within five days after a sale at a higher than one cent premium. Pending approval by the Office of Price Administration, any seller may deliver, and the buyer may receive any such special shape or size of magnesium or magnesium alloy ingot at the price submitted for approval. If, however, the price submitted is disapproved, the contract price shall be revised downward to the maximum price which shall be approved, and if any payment has been made at a price higher than that so approved the seller shall refund the excess to the buyer: Provided, however, That the premium submitted by the seller for approval shall be deemed to be approved unless the Price Executive of the Non-Ferrous Metals Branch, Office of Price Administration, Washington, D. C., specifically disapproves such price and establishes an approved price within fifteen days from the date on which the application is received by the Office of Price Administration, or if further information is requested from the seller within such fifteen day period, then within fifteen days from the date on which all such information is received by the Office of Price Administration.

2. Section 1427.54 is amended to read as follows:

§ 1427.54 Adjustable pricing. Any person may agree to sell at a price which can be increased up to the maximum price in effect at the time of delivery; but no person may, unless authorized by the Office of Price Administration, deliver or agree to deliver at prices to be adjusted upward in accordance with action taken by the Office of Price Administration after delivery. Such authorization may be given when a request for a change in the applicable maximum price is pending, but only if the authorization is necessary to promote distribution or production and if it will not interfere with the purposes of the Emergency Price Control Act of 1942, as amended. The authorization may be given by the Administrator or by any official of the Office of Price Administration to whom the authority to grant such authorization has been delegated. The authorization will be given by order, except that it may be given by letter or telegram when the contemplated revision will be the granting of an individual application for adjustment.

This amendment shall become effective August 4, 1943.

PART 1448—EATING AND DRINKING ESTABLISHMENTS

[Restaurant MPR 3-1, Amdt. 2]

FOOD AND DRINK SOLD FOR IMMEDIATE CONSUMPTION IN JEFFERSON COUNTY, KENTUCKY

A statement of the considerations involved in the issuance of this Amendment No. 2 to Restaurant Maximum Price Regulation No. 3-1 has been issued simultaneously herewith and filed with the Division of the Federal Register.*

Maximum Price Regulation No. 3-1 is amended in the following respects:

(1) The table of contents is amended as follows: As contained in the table of contents, section 17, "Provision for amendments," is amended to read section 17, "Provision for amendments and adjustments."

(2) Section 17 is amended to read as follows:

SEC. 17. Provision for amendments and adjustments—(a) Amendments. The provisions of this regulation to the contrary notwithstanding, the Office of Price Administration may from time to time issue special orders providing for the reduction of the maximum price of any food item or items or meal or meals sold or offered for sale by any seller or sellers when, in the judgment of the Administrator, such action is necessary or desirable to prevent excessive charges, to prevent inflation, to stabilize prices affecting the cost of living, or to carry out the purposes of the Emergency Price Control Act of 1942, as amended, and Executive Orders 9250 and 9328.

(b) Adjustments. (1) The Office of Price Administration may adjust the maximum prices for any eating or drinking establishment under the following circumstances:

(i) The establishment will be forced to discontinue operations unless it is granted an adjustment of the maximum prices established by this regulation.

(ii) Such discontinuance will result in serious inconvenience to consumers in that they will either be deprived of all restaurant service or will have to turn to other establishments that present substantial difficulties as to distance, hours of service, selection of meals or food items offered, capacity, or transportation.

(iii) By reason of such discontinuance, the same meals or food items will cost the customers of the eating establishment as much or more than the proposed adjusted prices.

(2) If you are the proprietor of an eating establishment which satisfies the requirements specified above, you may apply for an adjustment of your maximum prices by submitting to your Office of Price Administration District Office an application in duplicate. The application should contain the following information:

(i) Your name and address.

(ii) A description of your eating establishment, including the type of service rendered, such as cafeteria, table service, etc.; classes of meals offered, such as breakfast, lunch and dinner; number of persons served per day during the most recent thirty-day period, (in counting the number of persons served, anyone who was served more than once is to be counted separately for each occasion he was served); and such other information that may be useful in classifying your establishment.

(iii) The reasons why your customers will be seriously inconvenienced if you discontinue operations.

(iv) The names and addresses of the three nearest eating places of the same type as yours.

(v) A list showing your present maximum prices and requested adjusted prices.

(vi) A profit and loss statement for your restaurant business for the most recent three-month accounting period, and a copy of your last income tax return if one was filed separately for your restaurant business.

Applications for adjustment under this section may be acted upon by the Regional Administrator or by any District Director who has been authorized to do so by order of the Regional Administrator.

This amendment shall become effective July 16, 1943.

PART 1499—COMMODITIES AND SERVICES

[Rev. SR 14, to GMPR,[1] Amdt. 6]

CERTAIN FOOD AND BEVERAGE SPECIALTY PRODUCTS

A statement of the considerations involved in the issuance of this amendment has been issued simultaneously herewith and filed with the Division of the Federal Register.*

Section 1.15 is amended to read as follows:

SEC. 1.15 Certain food and beverage specialty products—(a) Applicability. (1) The provisions of this section shall apply only to the commodities listed in paragraph (i) and only in those cases where there has been a change in formula and where the volume of the end-product of the new formula product is fairly equivalent to the volume of the end-product made from the original formula product.

(2) The particular maximum prices which manufacturers are required to determine under the provisions of this section shall become effective respectively as follows:

(i) Where the formula change was made prior to March 27, 1943, the maximum price figured for the new formula product shall take effect as of April 12, 1943.

(ii) Where a formula change is made on or after March 27, 1943, the maximum price figured for the new formula product shall take effect as of April 12, 1943, or the date of first delivery of the new formula product, whichever is later.

(b) Method of determining maximum prices. On and after August 4, 1943, every manufacturer of a listed specialty product who has changed or who shall change his original formula for the manufacture of any flavor or size of such product either by the substitution, elimination or reduction of one or more of its ingredients shall determine the maximum price of his new product for that flavor or size as follows: He shall

(1) Calculate the current ingredient costs per his customary selling unit of all ingredients according to his original formula.

(2) Calculate the current ingredient costs per his customary selling unit of all ingredients of his new formula for the product which he is pricing.

(3) Determine the percentage relationship of the new formula ingredient costs to the original formula ingredient costs, ((2) divided by (1)), and

(4) Apply the result determined in (3) to the following percentage table to determine his maximum price per his customary unit for his new formula product:

Current cost of ingredients in original formula	Current cost of ingredients in new formula as related to original formula	Requirement to reduce original maximum price
100%	Not less than 95%	None.
100%	Less than 95% but not less than 90%	5% of current original formula ingredient cost.
100%	Less than 90% but not less than 85%	10% of current original formula ingredient cost.
100%	Less than 85% but not less than 80%	15% of current original formula ingredient cost.
100%	Less than 80% but not less than 75%	20% of current original formula ingredient cost.
100%	Less than 75% but not less than 70% etc.	25% of current original formula ingredient cost.

Fractions of one-half cent or more per customary selling unit may be increased to the next higher cent and fractions of less than one-half cent shall be decreased to the next lower cent.

(c) Examples of calculations. (1) A manufacturer of a 3 ounce package of chocolate dessert preparation has a maximum price of $1.40 per case established under the General Maximum Price Regulation for his original formula product. This price is his original maximum price. The current cost of ingredients in the formula used to manufacture the product for which his price was originally established under the General Maximum Price Regulation, called herein the original formula, is 60¢ per case. The current cost of ingredients in the new formula is 56¢ per case. The relation of current costs as between original formula and new formula being 93.3%, the original maximum price must be reduced by 5% of the current original formula cost, or 3¢. The manufacturer's new maximum price is $1.37 per case.

(2) The same manufacturer later changes his formula again so that at that time the current cost of ingredients in the original formula is 61¢ per case and the current cost of the ingredients of the new formula which he is pricing is 54¢ per case. The relation of current costs as between original formula and new formula being 88.5%, the original maximum price must be reduced by 10% of the current original formula cost, or 6.1¢. The manufacturer's new maximum price is $1.34 per case.

(3) The same manufacturer later changes his formula again so that at that time the current cost of ingredients of the original formula is 62¢ per case and the current cost of the ingredients of the new formula which is being priced is 59¢ per case. The relation of current costs as between original formula and new formula being 95.1%, the manufacturer's original maximum price need not be reduced. The manufacturer's maximum price for this new formula product is now $1.40 per case.

(d) Price lines. In the case where a manufacturer customarily sold more than one listed specialty product, or different flavor combinations of a listed specialty product, and such products were in a price line, and as such have an established maximum price which is the same for all, shall be permitted to use weighted averages based upon the 1942 sales volume of each unit as follows:

The weighted average ingredient cost for the old formula products and the new formula products in the price line shall be obtained as follows:

(1) Determine the percentage of sales volume for the year 1942 for each item in the price line.

(2) Determine current ingredient cost of original formula per customary selling unit for each item in the line.

(3) Multiply ingredient costs for each item (2) by the percentage figure for that item (1). Add the total of all computations. The weighted average figure thereby obtained is to be used as 100% of current ingredient costs of the price line.

(4) Determine current ingredient cost of new formula per customary selling unit for each item in the price line.

(5) Multiply (4) by (1) using identical percentage figures for each item, as in (3). Add the total of all computations.

(6) Apply the figure determined in (5) to the figure determined in (3) to arrive at the percentage relationship of weighted average new formula ingredient costs to old formula ingredient costs.

The table in paragraph (b) (4) shall then be used to determine the amount of reduction required in the maximum selling price of the entire price line.

NOTE: When no formula change is made in one or more items in the price line, the ingredient costs for that item as determined in (2) and (4) will obviously be identical.

(e) Manufacturers having more than one factory. In the case of those manufacturers producing the listed specialty products at more than one factory, the ingredient costs per unit may be averaged for all factories in determining the new formula cost. This provision applies only when the maximum selling price for the article is the same for shipments from all factories.

(f) Relation to original maximum price. No maximum price for any new formula product calculated under the provisions of this section shall ever exceed the maximum price established under the General Maximum Price Regulation for the original formula product.

(g) Discounts and allowances. Discounts, allowances and terms, whether based on quantity, class of purchaser, or any other cause, shall be no less favorable to any purchaser of a new formula product of a listed specialty product than those in effect with respect to the original formula product.

(h) Distributors. In case the manufacturer's maximum price for any item is lowered under this section, all distributors of the item shall make a corresponding reduction in their maximum prices in accordance with the notification which the manufacturer is required to give under paragraph (i).

(i) Notification. Whenever a formula change is made and a new maximum selling price is determined under the provisions of this section, the manufacturer making such change shall before or at the time of first delivery to each purchaser supply him with the appropriate written notice set forth below. And for a period of 90 days thereafter the manufacturer shall include with the smallest shipping unit a written notice to retailers. If this retailer notice is enclosed in a shipping unit, a legend shall be affixed outside of such unit to read, "Retailer's Notice Enclosed." The written notices, except for the proper insertions to be made by the manufacturer, shall read as follows:

NOTICES TO WHOLESALERS AND RETAILERS

The Office of Price Administration has authorized us to inform you that if you are a wholesaler or retailer pricing this item under Maximum Price Regulations Nos. 421, 422, or 423, you must refigure your ceiling price for this item in accordance with the applicable provisions of those regulations (See section 6 in each case). You must refigure your new ceiling price on the first delivery of this item to you on or after August 5, 1943.

NOTICE TO DISTRIBUTORS OTHER THAN WHOLESALERS AND RETAILERS

3. A new § 1412.117 is added to read as follows:

§ 1412.117 Appendix B: Maximum prices for dibutyl phthalate—(a) Base maximum prices for sales of ordnance or commercial grade dibutyl phthalate. These maximum prices are per pound, f. o. b. works, for sales by a producer of dibutyl phthalate which he himself has produced from butyl alcohol and phthalic anhydride:

	Sales by integrated producers	Sales by non-integrated producers
Tank cars	$.195	$.205
Drum carloads (drums included)	.205	.215
Drums l. c. l. (drums included)	.210	.220

(b) Differentials for fluctuations in average cost per pound of butyl alcohol. For every increase or decrease of $.01 per pound in the computed average cost of butyl alcohol delivered at the works from a base average cost of $.15 per pound, the maximum prices for dibutyl phthalate set forth in paragraph (a) above shall be increased or decreased, as the case may be, by $.0057 per pound.

(c) Method of computation of average cost of the butyl alcohol and reporting—(1) For the period July 29 until and including August 9, 1943. The computed average cost of butyl alcohol of each seller of dibutyl phthalate for the period July 29 to and including August 9, 1943 shall be the weighted average cost of the butyl alcohol to be delivered to the plant according to the allocation of butyl alcohol to that seller by the War Production Board for the month of July. In the case of an integrated producer who produces butyl alcohol, his own butyl alcohol shall be included in the computation at the maximum tank car price for July 1943 as determined by him under Appendix A of this regulation. Within five days after July 29, 1943, each seller of dibutyl phthalate making sales for which maximum prices are established by this section shall report to the Office of Price Administration his maximum prices for dibutyl phthalate for the period July 29 to and including August 9, 1943 and a detailed statement of his computed average cost for butyl alcohol delivered to his plant, showing the sources of supply, the amounts, and the prices of the butyl alcohol allocated to him during the month of July 1943.

(2) For each monthly period beginning with August 10, 1943 and ending on the ninth day of the succeeding month. The computed average cost of butyl alcohol of each seller of dibutyl phthalate for each such period shall be the average delivered cost of the butyl alcohol inventory on hand at the beginning of the current calendar month and the butyl alcohol allocated at the beginning of that month by the War Production Board for delivery to him during the month. In the case of an integrated producer who produces butyl alcohol, his own butyl alcohol shall be included in the computation at the maximum tank car price for the current calendar month as determined by him under Appendix A of this regulation. On or before the fifteenth day of each current calendar month, each seller of dibutyl phthalate making sales for which maximum prices are established by this section shall report to the Office of Price Administration his maximum prices for dibutyl phthalate for each period, and a detailed statement of his computed average cost for butyl alcohol delivered to his plant, showing the sources of supply, the amounts, and the prices of the butyl alcohol allocated to him during that current calendar month by the War Production Board.

(d) Sales by a producer of dibutyl phthalate acquired by him from another producer. The maximum price for sales by a producer of dibutyl phthalate which he has acquired from another producer shall be the maximum price determined under paragraphs (a), (b) and (c) of this Appendix for sales of his own production of dibutyl phthalate, or the maximum price determined under paragraphs (a), (b) and (c) of this Appendix by the producer from whom he obtained such dibutyl phthalate, whichever is lower.

This amendment shall become effective July 29, 1943.

NOTE: The reporting requirement of this amendment has been approved by the Bureau of the Budget in accordance with the Federal Reports Act of 1942.

TITLE 33—NAVIGATION AND NAVIGABLE WATERS

DISPOSAL OF WATER BALLAST

Pursuant to the provisions of section 3 of the Oil Pollution Act, 1924 (43 Stat. 605; 33 U.S.C. 433), the following regulations governing the discharge of water ballast from vessels into the coastal waters of the United States are hereby prescribed.

§ 207.1 Coastal waters of the United States; discharge of water ballast—(a) General. Oil-free ballast water may be discharged into harbors at all times.

(b) Disposal at sea. It will be expected that vessels will dispose of all their ballast, or as much ballast as is practicable, before arrival in port—preferably about 100 or more miles offshore—except as otherwise ordered by Naval authorities.

(c) Disposal in port—(1) Tanks cleaned before ballasting. Tank vessels, in clean or dirty service, may pump their ballast overboard into harbors at any time whenever the tanks containing the ballast have been cleaned before the vessel was ballasted, provided this fact has been set forth by an entry in the log book. (This will apply to those vessels whose tanks have been cleaned prior to drydocking.)

(2) Tanks not cleaned before ballasting. Whenever owners or agents of tank vessels whose tanks have not been cleaned prior to ballasting are unable to secure barge or shore facilities to receive oil-contaminated ballast water, such owners or agents shall communicate with the enforcing agency named in paragraph (d) below.

Such information shall be furnished on the depth of water in ballast tanks and the nature of the oils to enable a decision by the enforcing agency as to whether and to what extent discharge of ballast water into the harbor will be permissible.

The remainder of the ballast water shall be disposed of as directed by the enforcing agency.

(d) These regulations will be enforced by the Supervisor of New York Harbor in the New York area and by the Captain of the Port at other United States ports and unless previously modified or rescinded shall remain in effect only for the duration of the war. CERTAIN ORIGINAL PETITIONS

ORDER OF DISMISSAL

In the matter of certain petitions filed under section 4 II (d) of the Bituminous Coal Act of 1937.

Original petitions, pursuant to section 4 II (d) of the Bituminous Coal Act of 1937, were duly filed with this Division.

Since the Bituminous Coal Act of 1937 will cease to be in effect at 12:01 a. m. August 24, 1943 and since insufficient time remains prior to August 24, 1943, within which to hold hearings for the purpose of making a proper disposition of the said dockets and to action necessary to complete a determination in each of them, it appears appropriate that each of said petitions herein should be dismissed.

Now, therefore, it is ordered, That each of the petitions in the above-mentioned dockets be, and the same hereby is, dismissed.

[Order No. 358]

PETITIONS BY DISTRICT BOARDS OR CODE MEMBERS

ORDER CONCERNING EXPIRATION OF COAL ACT, FILING OF PETITIONS AND NEW CODE MEMBER ACCEPTANTS

An order concerning the expiration of the Coal Act and the filing of petitions for the revision or establishment of price classifications and minimum prices and concerning new code member acceptants.

Inquiries have been received by the Division concerning the filing of petitions by either District Boards or Code members seeking (1) the revision of established price classifications or minimum prices, (2) the establishment of price classifications and minimum prices for coal produced by code members in existing size groups or use classifications or for shipments by new methods of transportation or from new shipping points, and (3) the establishment of price classifications and minimum prices for the coals produced by new acceptants of the Bituminous Coal Code.

Some question as to the proper action to be taken with regard to the filing of petitions such as described above is occasioned by the Order dated April 5, 1943, in General Docket No. 19; Order No. 303, dated September 26, 1940, and by the fact that the Bituminous Coal Act will cease to be in effect at 12:01 a. m., August 24, 1943. The administrative problems involved in processing all petitions prior to 12:01 a. m. August 24, 1943, make it necessary to revise procedures heretofore followed.

Inasmuch as disposition of the petitions categorized as (1) involves matters which for the most part require extensive investigation, public hearings, findings of fact and time for exceptions, arguments and the filing of briefs, and since sufficient time does not remain prior to August 24, 1943, when the Bituminous Coal Act ceases to be in effect, to consider and weigh all factors necessary to a proper disposition of such petitions, it is deemed necessary to put all interested persons on notice that such petitions, if received on or after 12:01 a. m., July 15, 1943, will not be accepted for filing.

The same considerations are present with regard to the petitions categorized as (2) except that hearings may not be required, but investigations must nevertheless be had in each case. Likewise, under existing rules, new acceptances of Code membership are not effective until thirty days after the filing thereof, except as provided in Order No. 303, and it is not administratively practical to process these acceptances in the usual manner. Accordingly, it is deemed advisable to establish a date beyond which formal action on such petitions and new Code acceptances will not be taken. As previously set out in Statement of the Director No. 101, that date is July 15, 1943. In order, however, that all producers and the District Boards may know what action to take, the following procedure will be adopted:

All new acceptances of the Bituminous Coal Code filed between 12:01 a. m., July 15, 1943, and August 24, 1943, shall be deemed to be effective from and after such filing with the Bituminous Coal Division. Code members and producers whose acceptances become automatically effective upon filing, pursuant to this order, may sell coal produced by them at prices which are not less than the minimum prices previously established by the Division for comparable and analogous coals from the nearest mine in the same seam or substantially similar seam.

The same procedure as set forth above is applicable to Code members who, pursuant to the provisions hereof are precluded from filing petitions for the establishment of classifications or prices for unpriced coal produced from new mines or for unpriced coals in existing size groups or use classifications produced from mines presently operating or for shipments by new methods of transportation or from new shipping points.

Now, therefore, it is ordered, That:

1. Any new petition received by the Bituminous Coal Division after 12:01 a. m., July 15, 1943, which requests a revision of established price classifications or minimum prices or the establishment of price classifications and minimum prices for coals produced by Code members in existing size groups or use classifications which have not heretofore been established or for shipments by new methods of transportation or from new shipping points shall not be accepted for filing and shall be promptly returned to the petitioner together with a copy of this order.

2. All Code acceptances filed with the Bituminous Coal Division between 12:01 a. m., July 15, 1943, and 12:01 a. m., August 24, 1943, shall be deemed to be effective immediately as of the time of filing with the Bituminous Coal Division.

3. Producers of bituminous coal who have filed Code acceptances between 12:01 a. m., July 15, 1943, and 12:01 a. m., August 24, 1943, may sell bituminous coal produced by them without further approval by this Division at not less than the minimum prices previously established by this Division for comparable and analogous coal produced from the nearest mine in the same seam or substantially similar seam.

4. Code members who, pursuant to the provisions of paragraph 1 hereof, are precluded from filing petitions for the establishment of classifications or prices for unpriced coal from new mines or for unpriced coals in existing size groups or use classifications produced from mines presently operating or for shipments by new methods of transportation or for new shipping points may sell such coals produced by them without further approval of this Division at not less than the minimum prices previously established by this Division for comparable and analogous coal produced from the nearest mine in the same seam or substantially similar seam.

5. This order shall supersede any provision of any previous order, rule or regulation of the Division which may be in conflict with the terms hereof.

6. Any person desiring an opportunity to be heard concerning the subject matter of this order shall file a written request on or before August 7, 1943.

This order shall be effective forthwith.

[Region VI Order G–5 Under Rev. MPR 122]

SOLID FUELS IN TWIN CITIES AREAS, MINN.

Order No. G–5 under Revised Maximum Price Regulation No. 122—Solid Fuels Sold and Delivered by Dealers. Maximum prices for solid fuels sold in the Twin Cities Area.

Pursuant to the authority vested in the Regional Administrator of Region VI by § 1340.260 of Revised Maximum Price Regulation No. 122, and for reasons stated in the opinion issued herewith, It is ordered:

(a) What this order does. This order establishes maximum prices for sales of specified solid fuels made in the Twin Cities Area. These are the highest prices that any dealer may charge when he delivers any of such fuel at or to a point in the Twin Cities Area or from a coal yard within such area; they are also the highest prices that any buyer in the course of trade or business may pay for such solid fuels.

(b) What this order prohibits. Regardless of any obligation, no person shall:

(1) Sell or, in the course of trade or business, buy solid fuels at prices higher that the maximum prices set by this Order No. G–5; but less than the maximum prices may at any time be charged, paid, or offered.

(2) Obtain a higher than maximum price by

(i) Charging for a service unless expressly requested by the buyer and unless specifically authorized to do so by this Order.

(ii) Charging a price higher than the schedule price for a service.

(iii) Making a charge higher than the schedule charge authorized for the extension of credit.

(iv) Using any tying agreement or requiring that the buyer purchase anything in addition to the fuel requested by him, or

(v) Using any other device by which a higher than maximum price is obtained, directly or indirectly.

(c) Price schedule. (1) Immediately below and as part of this paragraph (c) is a schedule which sets forth maximum prices for sales by direct delivery of specified sizes, kinds and quantities of sold fuels. Column 1 describes the coal for which prices are established; columns 2 and 3 show maximum prices at which sales of domestic coal may be made by the dealer; columns 4 and 5 show the maximum prices for sales of steam coal and columns 6 and 7 show the maximum prices for yard sales to other dealers for resale. All sales shall be on a net ton basis.

To the above prices there may be added for sacking the coal the sum of $4.00 per ton.

(2) The prices provided for in the above schedule shall apply to all sales of all-rail coal and to the dock coal therein described which has been rescreened at the dock. The maximum prices for all sales by dealers for each size and kind of dock-run coal shall be $.50 per net ton lower than the maximum prices set forth in the above schedule for the same size and kind of coal which has been rescreened at the dock.

(3) The maximum prices for all sales by dealers of solid fuel not provided for by the above schedule shall be the maximum prices applicable for such sales under Revised Maximum Price Regulation No. 122, as amended, plus $.40 per ton for domestic coal and $.20 per ton for steam coal.

(d) Service charges. Immediately below and as a part of this paragraph (d) is a Schedule which sets forth maximum prices which a dealer may charge for special services rendered in connection with all sales under paragraph (c). These charges may be made only if the buyer requests such service of the dealer and only when the dealer renders the service. Such service charge shall be separately stated in the dealer's invoice.

Trimming, per hour	$0.80
Carrying from curb, per ton	.75
Labor, per hour	.80
Carrying up or down stairs, per flight, per ton	.25

(e) Cash discounts. (1) If payment is made by the buyer not later than the 15th day of the month following the date of receipt of the fuel, the maximum prices set forth in the Schedule in paragraph (c) for sales of domestic coal shall be reduced by 50¢ per ton or by 25¢ per half ton, which reduction may be termed a "cash discount".

(2) On all sales made under any budget or installment plan, the maximum prices set forth in the Schedule in paragraph (c) shall be reduced by 50¢ per ton or by 25¢ per half ton, if all payments are made on time under such budget or installment plan.

(f) Sales of less than specified tonnages. For a sale of less than a ton, the maximum prices shall be computed as follows:

(1) From the per ton price set forth in the schedule in paragraph (c) deduct $1.50 as a "cartage factor";

(2) Adjust the balance in proportion to the tonnage sold;

(3) Add back the "cartage factor" of $1.50. All other variations from prices or specified quantities shall be proportionately adjusted in a similar way so that no more than the applicable and proportionate maximum price is obtained.

(g) The transportation tax. The transportation tax imposed by section 620 of the Revenue Act of 1942 may be collected in addition to the maximum prices set by this order, provided the dealer states it separately from the price on his invoice or statement. But no part of that tax may be collected in addition to the maximum price on sales of quarter-ton or lesser quantities, or on sales of any quantity of sacked coal.

(h) Addition of increases in supplier's price prohibited. Notwithstanding the provisions of Revised Maximum Price Regulation No. 122, the maximum prices set by this order may not be increased and need not be decreased by a dealer to reflect increases or decreases in purchase costs or in his supplier's maximum prices occurring after the effective date hereof; but increases or decreases in the maximum prices set hereby, to reflect such changes, are within the discretion of the Regional Administrator.

(i) Petitions for amendments. This order may be revoked, amended or modified at any time. Any dealer may at any time file with the Twin Cities District Office of the Office of Price Administration a petition for amendment to this order in accordance with the provisions of Revised Procedural Regulation No. 1.

(j) Records. Every dealer subject to this order shall preserve, keep, and make available for examination by the Office of Price Administration, the same records he was required to preserve and keep under § 1340.262 (a) and (b) of Revised Maximum Price Regulation No. 122.

(k) Posting of maximum prices: sales slips and receipts. (1) Each dealer subject to this order shall post all the maximum prices set by it for all his types of sales. He shall post his prices in his place of business in a manner plainly visible to and understandable by the purchasing public. He shall also keep a copy of this order available for examination by any person inquiring as to his prices for solid fuel. No report of the maximum prices established by this order need be made by any dealer under § 1340.262 (c) of Revised Maximum Price Regulation No. 122.

(2) Every dealer selling solid fuel for sales of which a maximum price is set by this order shall, within thirty days after the date of delivery of the fuel, give to the buyer a statement showing: the date of the sale, the name and address of the dealer and of the buyer, the kind, size and quantity of the solid fuel sold, the price charged, and separately stating any transportation tax or service charge. This paragraph (k) (2) shall not apply to sales of quantities of less than one-quarter ton unless the dealer customarily gave such a statement on such sales.

(3) In the case of all other sales, every dealer who, during December 1941, customarily gave buyers sales slips or receipts shall continue to do so. Every dealer must, on request of a purchaser, provide a receipt containing the information required in the preceeding paragraph (k) (2).

FLUID MILK IN MT. VERNON, ILL.

Order No. G–11 under Supplementary Regulation No. 14 to the General Maximum Price Regulation. Adjustment of Fluid Milk Prices in Mt. Vernon, Illinois, (Formerly Order No. 11.)

The Regional Administrator has determined on his own action after investigation that (1) the price paid to producers by manufacturers of butter, cheese, condensed and evaporated milk, or milk powder for milk produced within the milk shed on which Mt. Vernon, Illinois depends for their supply of fluid milk has increased 41¢ or more per cwt. since March 1942; (2) distributors of fluid milk in said locality, which has a population of less than 100,000, in order to obtain the supply of milk for fluid use necessary to satisfy the normal requirements of the locality, are paying producers of such milk at least 41¢ more per cwt. than they paid in March 1942, and (3) notwithstanding the savings that have been effected or which may be effected as the result of the adoption of all practicable measures designed to reduce distribution costs, such distributors cannot fairly be expected to continue to distribute fluid milk in the locality hereinafter designated at the maximum prices established for them under section 1499.2 of the General Maximum Price Regulation.

Accordingly, for the reasons more fully set forth in the accompanying opinion and pursuant to Emergency Price Control Act of 1942, § 1499.73 (a) (1) (vi) of Supplementary Regulation No. 14 to the General Maximum Price Regulation: It is ordered:

1. The maximum prices established for sellers of milk at wholesale and retail by § 1499.2 of the General Maximum Price Regulation are hereby increased as follows:

Ordinary milk	½ gallon	Quart	Pint	½ pint
Wholesale	$0.02	$0.01	$0.005	$0.0025
Retail	.02	.01	.005	None

Cremelac	Gallon	Quart
Wholesale	$0.02	$0.005
Retail	.02	.005

2. Every person selling milk in bottles or paper containers to a seller at retail shall furnish to each such purchaser of milk a statement which may be substantially in the following form:

The prices for milk have been increased in the amounts indicated below pursuant to permission of the Office of Price Administration. You are permitted to increase your prices by the same amount.

	Price increase
Gallon	------
Quart	------
Pint	------

3. This order shall apply to sales and deliveries of milk within the city limits of the City of Mt. Vernon, Illinois, and an area within one mile of such city limits.

4. Milk shall mean cow's milk produced, processed, distributed and sold for consumption in fluid form as whole milk. Sales at wholesale or retail shall include all sales whether by producer, distributor or other person of milk in bottles or paper containers.

5. All sellers of milk who purchase milk directly from the producers thereof shall file with the Illinois State Office of the Office of Price Administration a statement on the 20th day of each month beginning with December 1942 of the prices paid by them to producers of milk for milk purchased during the preceding month.

6. This order shall be effective from the date hereof. It is subject to revocation or amendment by Regional Administrator at any time hereafter upon a finding that butterfat prices have decreased to the point where no diversion of fluid milk is threatened or for other reasons. This order is further subject to revocation by any price regulation issued hereafter, or by any supplement or amendment hereafter issued as to any price regulation the provisions of which may be contrary hereto.

7. All sellers of milk at retail shall immediately change the posting of ceiling prices for cost of living commodities and the records provided for by section 11 (b) of the General Maximum Price Regulation so as to reflect their changes in maximum prices.

8. Copy of this order shall be mailed to every known distributor of milk within the City of Mt. Vernon. A copy thereof shall be filed with the local War Price and Rationing Board and insofar as practicable publicity shall be given to this order by means of the press serving Mt. Vernon, Illinois, and otherwise.

Said joint application-declaration further contains requests that the Commission enter its order reciting in substance that certain conveyances, transfers and the issuance of certain securities in connection with the transactions above referred to are necessary or appropriate to effectuate the provisions of section 11 (b) of the Act;

On such date the hearing room clerk in room 318 will advise as to the room in which such hearing will be held;

It is further ordered, That William W. Swift, or any other officer or officers of the Commission designated by it for that purpose, shall preside at the hearings in such matters. The officer so designated to preside at such hearing is hereby authorized to exercise all powers granted to the Commission under section 18 (c) of said Act and to a trial examiner under the Commission's Rules of Practice;

The right of the stockholders to subscribe to the additional stock under the warrants will expire at 3:00 p. m., on the 21st day after the date of mailing them to the stockholders. The proceeds from the sale will be used solely by Suburban Gas and Electric Company to pay its indebtedness to North Boston Lighting Properties in the aggregate amount of $785,000, represented by promissory notes maturing July 30, 1943, and bearing interest at 3% per annum. The Massachusetts Department of Public Utilities has approved the issuance of said shares at $31.25 per share, the issuance of appropriate subscription rights therefor and the application of the proceeds by Suburban Gas and Electric Company, and has ordered that if any shares remain unsubscribed for by the stockholders entitled thereto, all of such shares shall be offered for sale at public auction.

The amount of cash necessary to be pledged will be the difference between $785,000 face amount of notes to be released and the cost of the additional shares pledged. The amount of cash necessary will not exceed $19,562.50; and

Said application and declaration having been filed on June 30th, 1943, and notice of said filing having been duly given in the form and manner prescribed by Rule U-23 promulgated pursuant to said Act, and the last amendment thereto having been filed on July 22, 1943, and the applicants having requested acceleration of the Commission's action, and the Commission not having received a request for hearing with respect to said application and declaration within the period prescribed in said notice, or otherwise, and not having ordered a hearing thereon; and

The Commission finding that the requirements of Sections 6, 10 and 12 of the Act and Rules U-42, U-43, U-44 and U-50 of the Commission are satisfied, and that no adverse findings are necessary thereunder; and deeming it appropriate in the public interest and in the interest of investors and consumers to grant said application, as amended, and to permit said declaration, as amended, to become effective;

It is hereby ordered, pursuant to Rule U-23 and the applicable provisions of said Act and subject to the terms and conditions prescribed in Rule U-24 that the aforesaid application as amended, be and hereby is granted forthwith and that the aforesaid declaration, as amended, be and is hereby permitted to become effective forthwith.

NOTICE OF FILING OF APPLICATION AND AN AMENDMENT THERETO AND ORDER FOR HEARING

At a regular session of the Securities and Exchange Commission held at its office in the City of Philadelphia, Pa., on the 29th day of July 1943.

The Commission on December 30, 1941 having entered an order pursuant to section 11 (b) (2) of the Public Utility Holding Company Act of 1935 directing that North American Light & Power Company, a registered holding company and a subsidiary of The North American Company, also a registered holding company, shall be liquidated and its existence terminated, and further directing that North American Light & Power Company and The North American Company shall proceed with due diligence to submit to this Commission a plan or plans for the prompt liquidation of North American Light & Power Company in a manner consistent with the provisions of the Public Utility Holding Company Act of 1935 (see File No. 59-39); and said order having provided that before said companies take any step or action for the purpose of enabling North American Light & Power Company to comply with the provisions of said order such step or action shall be the subject of an application or applications to this Commission for the entry of necessary or appropriate orders;

Illinois Traction Company proposes to sell to North American Light & Power Company 1,500 shares, par value $100 per share, of the common capital stock of its subsidiary, Western Illinois Ice Company, a non-utility company, for $93,000 in cash. The application alleges that Illinois Traction Company proposes ultimately to use the proceeds of said sale to the extent necessary to retire its outstanding preferred stock at par and accumulated dividends thereon, and upon the dissolution of Illinois Traction Company to distribute the remainder of said proceeds to North American Light & Power Company.

North American Light & Power Company proposes to sell the stock of Western Illinois Ice Company thus acquired to Union Service Corporation for $93,000 in cash. Western Illinois Ice Company proposes to pay North American Light & Power Company a sum equal to the amount of cash on hand or on deposit on June 1, 1943, amounting to between $45,000 and $50,000 which amount will be credited on its income note, dated November 1, 1937, payable to North American Light & Power Company, on which the present balance due is $425,000 and accrued interest. North American Light & Power Company proposes to surrender said note, and to make a capital contribution in the amount of the balance remaining due thereon.

Notice is further given that said joint application states that the transactions therein proposed are part of the general plan of liquidating and dissolving North American Light & Power Company and of integrating its holding company system.

It appearing to the Commission that it is appropriate in the public interest and in the interest of investors and consumers that a hearing be held for the purpose of considering said joint application;

It is ordered, That a hearing be held at the offices of the Securities and Exchange Commission, 18th and Locust Streets, Philadelphia, Pennsylvania, on the 13th day of August, 1943, at 10:00 a. m. in such room as may be designated on such date by the hearing room clerk. All interested persons are referred to said joint application which is on file in the office of said Commission for a full statement of the transactions therein proposed.

All persons desiring to be heard or otherwise wishing to participate should notify the Commission in the manner provided in Rule XVII of the Commission's Rules of Practice on or before August 11, 1943.

It is further ordered, That Robert P. Reeder or any other officer or officers of the Commission designated by it for that purpose shall preside at the hearing ordered herein. The officer so designated to preside at any such hearing is hereby authorized to exercise all powers granted to the Commission under section 18 (c) of said Act and to a Trial Examiner under the Commission's Rules of Practice.

It is further ordered, That the Secretary of this Commission shall serve notice of this order by mailing a copy thereof by registered mail to Illinois Traction Company and North American Light & Power Company and that notice shall be given to all other persons by publication thereof in the FEDERAL REGISTER.

It is further ordered, That without limiting the scope of the issues presented by said joint application, particular attention shall be directed at said hearing to the following matters and questions:

(1) Whether the capital contribution by North American Light & Power Company to Western Illinois Ice Company is necessary or appropriate in the public interest or for the protection of investors.

(2) Whether the proposed transactions are necessary to effectuate the provisions of subsection (b) of section 11 of the Act and are fair and equitable.

(3) Whether it is necessary or appropriate to impose terms or conditions in the public interest or for the protection of investors, with particular attention to all accounting entries in connection with the proposed transactions and the proposal of Illinois Traction Company to utilize a portion of the proceeds for the redemption of its outstanding preferred stock.

(4) Generally, whether, in any respect, the proposed transactions are detrimental to the public interest or to the interests of investors or consumers or will tend to circumvent any provisions of the Act or the Rules, Regulations or Order promulgated thereunder.

PEOPLES LIGHT AND POWER CO., ET AL.

NOTICE OF FILING OF AMENDED PLAN AND ORDER RECONVENING HEARING

At a regular session of the Securities and Exchange Commission, held at its office in the City of Philadelphia, Pa., on the 29th day of July 1943.

In the matter of Peoples Light and Power Company and subsidiary companies, applicants, File No. 54-67; Peoples Light and Power Company, California Public Service Company, Texas Public Service Company, Texas Public Service Farm Company, West Coast Power Company, Western States Utilities Company, respondents, File No. 59-64.

The Commission having, on March 9, 1943 (Holding Company Act Release No. 4159), instituted proceedings under sections 11 (b) (1) and 11 (b) (2) of the Public Utility Holding Company Act of 1935 in the matter of Peoples Light and Power Company ("Peoples"), a registered holding company, and its subsidiaries; and the said proceedings having been consolidated for the purpose of hearing with an application heretofore filed by Peoples pursuant to section 11 (e) of said Act for approval of a Plan for compliance with sections 11 (b) (1) and 11 (b) (2) of said Act; hearings having been held in respect of such consolidated proceedings and having been adjourned subject to call of the Trial Examiner;

Notice is hereby given that declarations or applications (or both) have been filed with this Commission pursuant to the said Act by Peoples in the form of an amendment designated as Amendment No. 10 to the aforementioned application for approval of a Plan. All interested persons are referred to said document, which is on file in the office of the Commission for a full statement of the transactions therein proposed, which are summarized as follows:

1. West Coast Power Company ("West Coast"), a corporation organized under the laws of the State of Delaware, will be merged into California Public Service Company ("California") which is a corporation organized under the laws of the State of California. Both companies are subsidiaries of Peoples which owns all of their outstanding capital stocks. Such merger will be pursuant to the merger and consolidation laws of the States of California and Delaware and will be subject to the approval of the regulatory commissions in the States of California and Oregon. As a part of the merger agreement (a) California will acquire the assets and will assume the liabilities of West Coast, and (b) California will issue to Peoples 291,909 shares of Capital Stock of a par value later to be determined and to be supplied by further amendment.

2. Texas Public Service Company, a subsidiary of Peoples, will amend its charter to change or reclassify its no par value Capital Stock into 291,909 shares of Capital Stock of a par value later to be determined and to be supplied by further amendment. Texas Public will thereafter deliver to Peoples, which holds all of the outstanding Capital Stock of Texas Public, stock certificates representing the said 291,909 shares of Capital Stock in exchange for the certificates representing the 11,500 no par value shares presently outstanding.

3. The presently outstanding securities of Peoples are:

62,520 shares Class A Common Stock, $1 par value;

83,201 shares Class B Common Stock, $1 par value.

Peoples, upon receipt of the shares of Capital Stocks of California (after merger with West Coast) and Texas Public as aforementioned, will make a distribution of such stocks to its stockholders on the following basis:

Holders of the present prefered stock of Peoples will receive 3½ shares of the Capital Stocks of California and of Texas Public for each share of preferred stock held, or a total of 95% of such Capital Stocks. Holders of the present Class A and Class B common stocks of Peoples will receive one share of the Capital Stocks of California and of Texas Public for every 10 shares of common stock held. Through the proposed exchanges, holders of Class A and Class B common stocks of Peoples will receive 2.1% and 2.9%, respectively, of the Capital Stocks of California and of Texas Public.

In lieu of fractional shares, Scrip will be issued, which, in combination with other Scrip, will be exchangeable into full shares of California and Texas Public. Scrip not so exchanged within two years will become void. All shares of Capital Stock of California and Texas Public remaining unclaimed as of the expiration date of such Scrip will be disposed of either at a public or private sale and there will be distributed to the Scrip holders, upon surrender of their Scrip, their pro rata portion of the net proceeds of such sale plus any other cash from dividends or distributions which may be applicable to the shares of the Capital Stocks so sold.

4. Peoples will dispose of its investment in Texas Public Service Farm Company or distribute the Capital Stock of such company to the stockholders of Peoples on a basis whereby such stockholders will receive the same relative interest in Texas Public Service Farm Company (or in the proceeds from the sale of Peoples' investment therein) as they will have in California and Texas Public after the distribution described in paragraph 3.

5. Holders of the presently issued Purchase Warrants of Peoples will not participate in the Plan.

6. Peoples will thereupon be dissolved in accordance with the Laws of the State of Delaware.

The consummation of the above program is declared to be contingent upon the Commission's approval of the transactions proposed in Amendments Nos. 5 and 6 to the application for approval of a Plan. Such amendments are described in Holding Company Act Releases Nos. 4355 and 4385. In brief, they relate to a refinancing of West Coast, the declaration of a dividend of $754,400 from West Coast to Peoples, the contribution of $1,000,000 by Peoples to Texas Public, the acquisition by Texas Public of the common stock of the Peoples Gas Company of Port Arthur, and the sale by Peoples of the common stock of the Western States Utilities Company, one of its subsidiaries.

If the Commission approves the proposed plan, Peoples proposes, as soon as practicable, to send to its stockholders a copy of the findings and order of the Commission in respect of such approval. Peoples further proposes to request that the Commission apply to a Federal Court to enforce and carry out the terms and provisions of the Plan without the necessity for approval thereof by the stockholders of Peoples. Peoples also proposes to send to its stockholders a copy of the notice of the hearing before the Court.

In the event that the Court shall approve the Plan and enter a decree enforcing it, the distribution proposed in the Plan will be made in accordance therewith commencing on or about the 30th day following the date on which the decree of such Court approving the Plan becomes final and no longer subject to judicial review.

It appearing to the Commission that it is appropriate in the public interest and in the interest of investors and consumers that a hearing be held in respect of such matters; and that said declarations shall not become effective nor said applications be granted except pursuant to further order of this Commission; and

It further appearing to the Commission that the hearings herein should be reconvened;

It is ordered, That such hearings be reconvened on the 19th day of August, 1943 at 10:00 a. m., e. w. t. at the offices of the Securities and Exchange Commission, 18th and Locust Streets, Philadelphia, Pennsylvania. On such day the Hearing Room Clerk in Room 318 will advise as to the room in which such hearing will be held.

It is further ordered, That William W. Swift, or any other officer or officers designated by the Commission to preside at such hearing, shall exercise all powers granted to the Commission under section 18 (c) of the Act and to a trial examiner under the Commission's Rules of Practice.

It is further ordered, That, without limiting the scope of the issues presented by these proceedings, attention will be directed at the reconvened hearing to a consideration of the following matters and questions:

1. Whether the transactions involved in the proposed amended Plan filed pursuant to section 11 (e) comply with all the requirements of the applicable provisions of the Act and the Rules promulgated thereunder.

2. Whether such proposed amended plan is necessary to effectuate the provisions of section 11 (b) of the Act, whether such plan is fair and equitable to the persons affected thereby, and whether such plan should be approved.

3. Whether the proposed merger will serve the public interest by tending toward the economical and efficient development of an integrated public-utility system, whether it is detrimental to the carrying out of the provisions of section 11 of the Act, and generally, whether it complies with the standards and requirements of sections 9, 10 and 12 of the Act.

4. Whether the proposed securities of California and Texas Public comply with the standards of section 7 of the Act.

5. Whether the proposed acquisition of securities by Peoples from California and Texas Public, and any proposed reacquisition and retirement of securities by California, Texas Public and West Coast meet the requirements of sections 9 and 10 of the Act and any Rules and Regulations promulgated thereunder, and whether any sales of such securities are in compliance with section 12 of the Act and any Rules and Regulations promulgated thereunder.

It is further ordered, That any person desiring to be heard in connection with these proceedings or to intervene therein shall, on or before the 18th day of August 1943, file with the Secretary of the Commission his written request or application, as required by Rule XVII of the Rules of Practice of the Commission.

It is further ordered, That the Secretary of the Commission shall serve notice of the hearing aforesaid by mailing a copy of this Order to Peoples and its various subsidiaries, to the Public Utility Commissions of the States of Idaho, Nevada, Oregon, and Wyoming, and the Railroad Commissions of California and Texas, not less than 15 days prior to the date hereinbefore fixed as the date of the hearing; and that notice of said hearing is hereby given to Peoples and its subsidiaries, to their security holders, and to all consumers of Peoples' subsidiary companies, to all states, municipalities, and political subdivisions of states within which are located any of the physical assets of said companies or under the laws of which any of said companies is incorporated, all State Commissions, State Securities Commissions, and all agencies, authorities and instrumentalities of one or more states, municipalities, or other political subdivisions having jurisdiction over Peoples or its subsidiaries or any of the businesses, affairs or operations of any of them; that such notice shall be given further by a general release of the Commission, distributed to the press and mailed to the mailing list for releases issued under the Public Utility Holding Company Act of 1935; and that further notice be given to all persons by publication of this Order in the FEDERAL REGISTER not later than ten days prior to the date hereinbefore fixed as the date of the hearing.

It is further ordered, That jurisdiction be and is hereby reserved to separate, whether for hearing, in whole or in part, or for disposition, in whole or in part, any of the issues, questions or matters hereinbefore set forth or which may arise in this proceeding, or to consolidate with these proceedings other filings or matters pertaining to the subject matter of this proceeding, or to take such other action as may appear conducive to an orderly, prompt and economical disposition of the matters involved.

By the Commission.

3. The Secretary of War shall (a) provide and maintain for the use of the Secretary of the Interior at the Denison Dam Project adequate station space and equipment, including such switches, switchboards, instruments, and dispatching facilities as may be required by the Secretary of the Interior for proper reception, handling, and dispatch of the electric energy generated at the Project, together with transformers and other equipment required by the Secretary of the Interior for the transmission of such energy from that place at suitable voltage to the markets which the Secretary of the Interior desires to serve; (b) deliver to the Secretary of the Interior the electric energy generated at the Denison Dam Project and not required for the operation thereof; and (c) schedule the operations of the electric generating unit or units and appurtenant equipment of the Denison Dam Project in accordance with the requirements of the Secretary of the Interior, so far as those requirements are consistent with requirements for the storage or discharge of water for improving navigation, regulating the flow of the Red River, controlling floods, and for other beneficial uses.

4. The Secretary of the Interior, acting for and on behalf of the United States, through such person or persons as he may designate, is hereby authorized and directed (a) to sell and dispose of electric energy generated at the Denison Dam Project to war plants and establishments, public bodies and cooperatives, and other persons, in that order of preference, at such rates as may be approved by the Federal Power Commission; and (b) to construct such facilities and to make such other arrangements as he deems necessary to interconnect the Denison Dam Project with other utility systems in the area and interchange electric energy with and purchase electric energy from such systems, and to sell and distribute electric energy, in accordance with the provisions of this order.

5. Being satisfied that the fulfilment of the military requirements of the United States will result in a shortage in the supply of copper and other materials and facilities for the transmission and distribution of electric energy required for the prosecution of the war, I hereby further authorize and direct the Secretary of the Interior to allocate transmission and distribution lines and appurtenant facilities in the area for the purpose of transmitting and distributing electric energy generated at the Denison Dam Project, to such extent as, in the judgment of the Secretary of the Interior, will not substantially interfere with the other uses of such lines and facilities, and upon such terms as the owners thereof and the Secretary of the Interior may thereafter agree upon or, in the absence of such agreement, as may be fixed by the Federal Power Commission.

6. All receipts from the sale and disposition of the electric energy generated at the Denison Dam Project shall be covered into the Treasury of the United States to the credit of "Miscellaneous Receipts".

7. The Secretary of the Interior may employ such personnel, without compliance with the requirements of the Civil Service Rules, and take such other steps, as may be necessary to carry out the provisions of this Order.

II. 1. Subject to the limitations and restrictions contained therein, all authority and power vested in the Federal Works Administrator by Executive Order No. 8944 of November 19, 1941 [1] with respect to the Grand River Dam Authority, Vinita, Oklahoma, Project No. 1494 (Pensacola Project) are hereby transferred to the Secretary of the Interior, to be exercised through such person or persons as he may designate.

3. All property, personnel, records, contracts, funds, and accounts used by the Federal Works Administrator in the administration of the functions transferred by this Order are hereby transferred to the Secretary of the Interior for use in the administration of such functions.

This Order shall become effective September 1, 1943.

Chapter III—Claims and Accounts

PART 30—SERVICEMEN'S DEPENDENTS ALLOWANCE

JOINT REGULATIONS UNDER SERVICEMEN'S DEPENDENTS ALLOWANCE ACT OF 1942

§ 30.1 Period of entitlement and payment of family allowances. Under provisions of the Servicemen's Dependents Allowance Act of 1942, approved June 23, 1942, the Secretary of War and the Secretary of the Navy prescribe jointly the following regulations to fix the dates of commencement and termination of monthly allowances and for related action.

(a) Payments of monthly family allowances shall be for periods of full calendar months.

(b) The period of entitlement and payment of family allowances, including increases therein, shall begin the first day of the calendar month during which application is filed unless otherwise hereinafter provided:

(1) The period of entitlement and payment shall not begin prior to the first day of the calenda rmonth during which the enlisted man enters upon active service in a pay status.

(2) The period of entitlement and payment in any case of an enlisted man who was in active service on June 23, 1942, shall begin the first day of June 1942 if he was in active service on June 1, 1942, and otherwise shall begin the first day of July 1942; provided application is filed within such period as the Secretary of the department concerned approves in the special case.

(3) The period of entitlement and payment of a Class B family allowance shall begin the first day of any calendar month later than that hereinbefore prescribed when requested by the enlisted man or when so determined by the Secretary of the department concerned in any case in which it is impracticable for the enlisted man to request the payment.

(4) The period of entitlement and payment in the case of a dependent acquired after a man enters in active service in a pay status shall not begin prior to the first day of the calendar month following the month in which such dependent was acquired. Any increase in entitlement and payment shall similarly not begin prior to the first day of the calendar month following the month in which the dependent becomes eligible to such increase.

(5) The increased Government's contribution incident to the birth of a legitimate child shall be effective with the first day of the calendar month following the birth of such child.

(6) The period of entitlement and payment in the case of a dependent where an enlisted man is reduced to the fourth or lower pay grade shall be effective with the first day of the month in which such reduction occurs, except that in the case of a dependent acquired after the effective date of such reduction, the period of entitlement and payment shall not begin prior to the first day of the calendar month following the month in which such dependent was acquired.

(c) The period of entitlement and payment of family allowances shall terminate or entitlement and payment shall be decreased as follows:

(1) The period of entitlement and payment in any case of death, discharge, or change of status of the enlisted man which makes his dependents ineligible to receive family allowances, shall terminate the end of the calendar month during which notice of such death, discharge or change of status is received by the disbursing officer paying the allowances.

(2) In any case of death, change in the status of a dependent or other circumstance which terminates the eligibility of such dependent to receive a family allowance or reduces the amount thereof, the period of entitlement shall cease with the calendar month in which such death, change or other circumstance occurs. Payment shall be terminated or appropriately reduced at the end of the period of entitlement above prescribed when practicable; otherwise not later than the end of a subsequent calendar month during which the disbursing officer paying the allowance receives notice of such death, change or other circumstance.

(3) The period of entitlement and payment shall terminate as of the end of the calendar month during which any written request submitted by an enlisted man for termination of a family allowance to his Class B dependent or dependents is received by the disbursing officer paying the allowance unless the enlisted man's request is for termination at the end of a subsequent calendar month.

(d) Making or not making deductions from or charges against the pay of the enlisted man shall not operate to modify or abrogate the prescribed period of entitlement and payment of family allowances.

(56 Stat. 383, 747; 37 U.S.C. Sup. 207)

TITLE 26—INTERNAL REVENUE

Chapter I—Bureau of Internal Revenue

[T. D. 5288]

PART 19—INCOME TAX UNDER THE INTERNAL REVENUE CODE

RECOVERY OF BAD DEBTS, PRIOR TAXES, AND DELINQUENCY AMOUNTS

In order to conform Regulations 103 [Part 19, Title 26, Code of Federal Regulations, 1940 Sup.] to section 116 of the Revenue Act of 1942 (Public Law 753, 77th Congress), approved October 21, 1942, such regulations are amended as follows:

PARAGRAPH 1. There is inserted immediately preceding section 22 (b) (13) the following:

SEC. 116. RECOVERY OF BAD DEBTS, PRIOR TAXES, AND DELINQUENCY AMOUNTS. (Revenue Act of 1942, Title I.)

(a) Exclusion from income. Section 22 (b) (relating to exclusions from gross income) is amended by adding at the end thereof the following new pargaraph:

(12) Recovery of bad debts, prior taxes, and delinquency amounts. Income attributable to the recovery during the taxable year of a bad debt, prior tax, or delinquency amount, to the extent of the amount of the recovery exclusion with respect to such debt, tax, or amount. For the purposes of this paragraph:

(A) Definition of bad debt. The term "bad debt" means a debt on account of worthlessness or partial worthlessness of which a deduction was allowed for a prior taxable year.

(B) Definition of prior tax. The term "prior tax" means a tax on account of which a deduction or credit was allowed for a prior taxable year.

(C) Definition of delinquency amount. The term "delinquency amount" means an amount paid or accrued on account of which a deduction or credit was allowed for a prior taxable year and which is attributable to failure to file return with respect to a tax, or pay a tax, within the time required by the law under which the tax is imposed, or to failure to file return with respect to a tax or pay a tax.

(D) Definition of recovery exclusion. The term "recovery exclusion", with respect to a bad debt, prior tax, or delinquency amount, means the amount, determined in accordance with regulations prescribed by the Commissioner with the approval of the Secretary, of the deductions or credits allowed, on account of such bad debt, prior tax, or delinquency amount, which did not result in a reduction of the taxpayer's tax under this chapter (not including the tax under section 102) or corresponding provisions of prior revenue laws, reduced by the amount excludible in previous taxable years with respect to such debt, tax, or amount under this paragraph.

(E) Special rules in case of section 102 tax and personal holding company tax. In the application of subparagraphs (A), (B), (C), and (D) in determining the tax under section 102 or Subchapter A of Chapter 2, a recovery exclusion allowed for the purposes of Chapter 1 shall be allowed for the purpose of such section or subchapter whether or not the bad debt, prior tax, or delinquency amount resulted in a reduction of the section 102 tax or Subchapter A tax for the prior taxable year; and in the case of a bad debt, prior tax, or delinquency amount not allowable as a deduction or credit for the prior taxable year under Chapter 1 (except section 102) but allowable for the same taxable year under such section or subchapter a recovery exclusion shall be allowable for the purposes of such section or subchapter if such bad debt, prior tax, or delinquency amount did not result in a reduction of the tax under such section 102 or such Subchapter A. As used in this subparagraph references to Chapter 1, section 102, and Subchapter A in the case of taxable years not subject to the Internal Revenue Code, shall be held to be made to corresponding provisions of prior revenue Acts.

(b) Effective date of amendments under the Internal Revenue Code. The amendments made by this section shall be applicable with respect to taxable years beginning after December 31, 1938.

§ 19.22 (b) (12)-1 Recovery of bad debts, prior taxes and delinquency amounts—(a) In general. Section 22 (b) (12) provides that income attributable to the recovery during any taxable year of bad debts, prior taxes, and delinquency amounts shall be excluded from gross income to the extent of the "recovery exclusion" with respect to such items. In substance, the recovery exclusion is an amount equal to the portion of such items which, when deducted or credited for a prior taxable year, did not result in a reduction of any tax of the taxpayer under chapter 1 of the Internal Revenue Code (other than a tax under section 102) or under corresponding provisions of prior revenue laws.

(1) Section 22 (b) (12) items. Bad debts, prior taxes, and delinquency amounts are defined in section 22 (b) (12) (A), (B), and (C), respectively. A typical example of a delinquency amount described in that section is interest upon delinquent taxes. The bad debts, prior taxes, and delinquency amounts referred to in that section, called "section 22 (b) (12) items" in this section, are only those for which a deduction or credit was allowed for a prior taxable year. Thus, if a bad debt was previously charged against a reserve by a taxpayer on the reserve method of treating bad debts, it was not deducted, and it is therefore not considered a section 22 (b) (12) item.

(2) Definition of "recovery". Recoveries result from the receipt of amounts in respect of the previously deducted or credited items described in section 22 (b) (12), such as from the collection or sale of a bad debt, refund or credit of taxes paid, or cancellation of taxes accrued. Care should be taken in the case of bad debts which were treated as only partially worthless in prior years to distinguish between the item described in section 22 (b) (12), that is, the part of such debt which was deducted, and the part not previously deducted, which is not a section 22 (b) (12) item and is considered the first part collected. The collection of the part not deducted is not considered a "recovery". Furthermore, the term "recovery" does not include the gain resulting from the receipt of an amount on account of a section 22 (b) (12) item which, together with previous such receipts, exceeds the deduction or credit previously allowed for such item. For instance, a $100 corporate bond purchased for $40 and later deducted as worthless is subsequently collected to the extent of $50. The $10 gain (excess of $50 collection over $40 cost) is not a recovery of a section 22 (b) (12) item. Such gain is in no case excluded from gross income under section 22 (b) (12), regardless of whether the $40 recovery is or is not excluded.

(3) Treatment of debt deducted in more than one year by reason of partial worthlessness. In the case of a bad debt deducted in part for two or more prior years, each such deduction of a part of the debt is considered a separate section 22 (b) (12) item. A recovery with respect to such debt is considered first a recovery of those items (or portions thereof), resulting from such debt, for which there are recovery exclusions. If there are recovery exclusions for two or more items resulting from the same bad debt, such items are considered recovered in the order of the taxable years for which they were deducted, beginning with the latest. The recovery exclusion for any such item is determined by considering the recovery exclusion with respect to the prior year for which such item was deducted as being first used to offset all other applicable recoveries in the year in which the bad debt is recovered.

(4) Special provisions as to worthless bonds, etc., which are treated as capital losses. For taxable years beginning on or after January 1, 1938, bad debts on account of certain worthless securities and, for taxable years beginning on or after January 1, 1943, certain nonbusiness bad debts are treated as losses from the sale or exchange of capital assets. See section 23 (k) of the Code, and section 23 (k) of the Revenue Act of 1938. The amount of the deductions allowed for any year under section 117 (d) on account of such losses for such year is considered to be section 22 (b) (12) items. Any part of such losses which, under section 117 (d), is a deduction for a subsequent year through the capital loss carryover (any later receipt of an amount with respect to such deducted loss is a recovery) is considered a section 22 (b) (12) item for the year in which such loss was sustained. Bad debts are considered the last capital losses deducted under section 117 (d) or carried over under section 117 (e).

(b) Computation of recovery exclusion—(1) Amount of recovery exclusion allowable for year of recovery. For the year of any recovery, the section 22 (b) (12) items which were deducted or credited for one prior year are considered as a group and the recovery thereon is considered separately from recoveries of any items which were deducted or credited for other years. This recovery is excluded from gross income to the extent of the recovery exclusion with respect to this group of items as (i) determined for the original year for which such items were deducted or credited (see (2) below of this subparagraph) and (ii) reduced by the recoveries in intervening years on account of all section 22 (b) (12) items for such original year. A taxpayer claiming a recovery exclusion shall submit, at the time the exclusion is claimed, the computation of the recovery exclusion claimed for the original year for which the items were deducted or credited, and computations showing the amount recovered in intervening years on account of the section 22 (b) (12) items deducted or credited for the original year.

(2) Determination of recovery exclusion for original year for which items were deducted or credited. The recovery exclusion for the taxable year for which section 22 (b) (12) items were deducted or credited (that is, the "original taxable year") is the portion of the aggregate amount of such deductions and credits which could be disallowed without causing an increase in any tax of the taxpayer imposed under chapter 1 of the Code (such as the normal tax, surtax, and victory tax), other than the tax imposed on corporations by section 102 for the improper accumulation of surplus, or in any tax imposed under corresponding provisions of prior revenue laws. For this purpose, consideration must be given to the effect of net operating loss carry-overs and carry-backs or capital loss carry-overs.

The preceding paragraph shall be applied by determining the recovery exclusion as the aggregate amount of the section 22 (b) (12) items for the original year for which such items were deducted or credited reduced by whichever of the following amounts is the greatest:

(i) The difference between (a) the income subject to normal tax (net income reduced by credits allowable for normal tax purposes) for such original year and (b) the income subject to normal tax computed without regard to the section 22 (b) (12) items for such original year.

(ii) The difference between (a) the surtax net income for such original year and (b) the surtax net income computed without regard to the section 22 (b) (12) items for such original year.

(iii) For taxable years beginning on or after January 1, 1942, in the case of taxpayers other than corporations, the difference between (a) the income subject to victory tax (the victory tax net income reduced by the specific exemption) for such original year and (b) the income subject to victory tax computed without regard to the section 22 (b) (12) items for such original year.

(iv) In the case of a taxpayer subject to any income tax in lieu of normal tax or surtax or both (except the alternative tax on capital gains imposed by section 117 (c), which is disregarded), the difference between (a) the income subject to such tax for such original year and (b) the income subject to such tax computed without regard to the section 22 (b) (12) items for such original year.

(Neither the amount determined under (a) nor the amount under (b) of (i), (ii), (iii), or (iv) above shall in any case be considered less than zero.) For this determination of the recovery exclusion, the aggregate of the section 22 (b) (12) items must be further decreased by the portion thereof which caused a reduction in tax in preceding or succeeding taxable years through any net operating loss carry-overs or carry-backs or capital loss carry-overs affected by such items. This decrease is the aggregate of the largest amount determined for each of such preceding and succeeding years under (i), (ii), (iii), and (iv) above, the computation of each carry-over or carry-back to the preceding or succeeding year being made under clause (a) of (i), (ii), (iii), and (iv) with regard to the section 22 (b) (12) items for the original year, and such computation being made under clause (b) without regard to such items. For the purposes of the preceding sentence, the computations under both clause (a) and clause (b) shall be made without regard to any section 22 (b) (12) items for such preceding or succeeding year and the carry-overs and carry-backs to such year shall be determined without regard to any section 22 (b) (12) items for years subsequent to the original year.

Example. A single individual, who has no dependents, has for 1942 $2,800 gross income, $2,000 business expenses, and a deduction of $900 for bad debts and of $700 for property taxes. His income and deductions for 1941 are set out below. His recovery exclusion on account of the section 22 (b) (12) items for 1942 (the debts and taxes) is $500, determined as follows:

The $1,600 aggregate of the section 22 (b) (12) items is reduced by the $300 difference between the surtax net income for 1942 computed with and without regard to such aggregate, since this difference is greater than such difference between the incomes subject to normal tax, ascertained as follows:

	With deduction of section 22 (b) (12) items	Without deduction of section 22 (b) (12) items
Gross income	$2,800	$2,800
Less: Business expenses	2,000	2,000
Remainder	800	800
Less: Bad debts and taxes	1,600
Net income or (loss)	(800)	800
Personal exemption	500	500
Surtax net income	0	300
Earned income credit	0	80
Net income subject to normal tax	0	220
Difference between surtax net incomes ($300−$0)		300
Difference between incomes subject to normal tax ($270−$0)		220

The taxpayer had no items which would cause section 122 (d) adjustments for 1942 or 1941. For 1941 he had $6,000 gross income, and his only deduction was a net operating loss deduction of $800 based on his loss for 1942. There would be no net operating loss deduction for 1941 if the carry-back to 1941 was computed without regard to the section 22 (b) (12) items for 1942. Accordingly, $800 of such items for 1942 resulted, by way of carry-back to 1941, in a reduction of tax for 1941, since net income subject to normal tax and surtax net income for 1941 were reduced to the extent of the carry-back (computed in the manner set forth in the preceding paragraph). The $1,600 aggregate of the section 22 (b) (12) items for 1942 is further reduced by the $800 which caused a reduction in tax through the carry-back. Therefore, the recovery exclusion for the items for 1942 is $500, that is, the $1,600 aggregate of such items reduced by the $300 and by the $800.

In 1946 the taxpayer recovefs $400 of the property taxes. All of this recovery is excluded from income by reason of the recovery exclusion of $500 determined for the original year 1942. In 1947, he recovers all of the bad debt of $900, of which $100 is excluded from gross income. That is, the recovery exclusion of $500 determined for the original year 1942 is reduced by the $400 recovery in 1946 on account of the section 22 (b) (12) items deducted for such original year.

(c) Provisions as to taxes imposed by section 102 and subchapter A of chapter 2. Section 22 (b) (12) (E) provides special rules for determining the recovery exclusion in the case of the tax imposed on corporations by section 102 for the improper accumulation of surplus and the tax imposed on personal holding companies by subchapter A of chapter 2 of the Code. Such taxpayers have, for the purposes of such taxes, the recovery exclusion described in the preceding paragraphs of this section. This recovery exclusion is used for the purposes of the taxes imposed by section 102 and subchapter A of chapter 2 regardless of what particular effect the section 22 (b) (12) items had on such taxes, that is, regardless of whether the section 22 (b) (12) items did or did not cause a reduction of such taxes. Furthermore, a recovery exclusion is granted for certain other items which are described in section 22 (b) (12) (E). The recovery exclusion on account of such other items shall be determined under the principles set forth in this section with respect to section 22 (b) (12) items.

Prior Income Tax Regulations

PAR. 2. Subsection (c) of section 116 of the Revenue Act of 1942 (Public Law 753, 77th Congress) provides as follows:

(c) Under prior revenue acts. For the purposes of the Revenue Act of 1938 or any prior revenue act, the amendments made to the Internal Revenue Code by subsection (a) of this section shall be effective as if they were a part of each such revenue act on the date of its enactment.

Pursuant to the above provision of law, the amendments to Regulations 103 (covering taxable years beginning after December 31, 1938) set forth in this Treasury decision are hereby made applicable to taxable years beginning prior to January 1, 1939 (such years being covered by Regulations 101, 94, 86, 77, 74, 69, 65, 62, 45, and 33).

(Sec. 62 of the Internal Revenue Code (53 Stat. 32; 26 U.S.C., 1940 ed., 62), corresponding provisions of prior internal revenue laws, and sec. 116 of the Revenue Act of 1942 (Pub. Law 753, 77th Cong.))

TITLE 30—MINERAL RESOURCES

Chapter III—Bituminous Coal Division

PART 327—MINIMUM PRICE SCHEDULE, DISTRICT NO. 7

ORDER GRANTING RELIEF

Order amending order granting temporary relief and order granting temporary relief and conditionally providing for final relief in the matter of the petition of District Board No. 7 for the establishment of certain price classifications and minimum prices for the coals of Peerless Coal & Coke Company, Peerless Mine No. 4, Mine Index No. 248.

An order granting temporary relief was issued in the above entitled matter on July 6, 1943, 8 F. R. 9427, establishing price classifications and minimum prices for the coal of Peerless No. 4 Mine, Mine Index No. 248, of Peerless Coal & Coke Company located in District No. 7.

In the past the coals of the Peerless No. 4 Mine were prepared over a temporary ramp tipple and dumped into railroad cars without cleaning. On that basis price classifications were established by the Division by order issued in Docket No. A-1072, Part II. A petition filed in the above designated docket alleges that Peerless Coal & Coke Company is presently installing Joy loading machines and shuttle cars at Peerless No. 4 Mine and that most of the coal from this mine will be mechanically cleaned and sized over the tipple of Mine Index No. 137 by means of modern preparation facilities. It is further alleged that the Peerless No. 4 Mine coals will be of a substantially higher quality than the same coal when loaded over the temporary ramp tipple. Petitioner requested therefore that two sets of minimum prices be established, dependent upon the method of preparation. However, it is contrary to the established policy of the Division to establish different minimum prices for the same coals and, accordingly, a hearing had been scheduled to determine the precise details of the matter and temporary relief had been established by the assignment of the present price classifications for the coals of the Peerless No. 4 Mine even though most of such coal was to be prepared in modern preparation facilities. In view of the fact that the Bituminous Coal Act will cease to be in effect on August 24, 1943 which makes impossible the completion of any hearing, it is now necessary to re-examine this matter.

It does appear that higher price classifications should be established for the coals of Peerless No. 4 Mine when cleaned and prepared over the tipple of Mine Index No. 137, and it also appears that the lower price classifications established for unprepared coals are no longer necessary in view of the fact that most of the coal will be prepared and, therefore, the present price classifications should be revoked.

It appearing that a reasonable showing of necessity has been made for the granting of temporary relief in the manner hereinafter set forth; and

No petitions of intervention having been filed with the Division in the above-entitled matter; and

The following action being deemed necessary in order to effectuate the purposes of the Act;

Now, therefore, It is ordered, That the order issued in Docket No. A-1072, Part II, and the order granting temporary relief, dated July 6, 1943, 8 F.R. 9427, in the above-entitled matter be, and they hereby are, amended by revoking the price classifications established therein for the coals of Peerless Mine No. 4, Mine Index No. 248, of Peerless Coal & Coke Company; and

It is further ordered, That pending further order in the above-entitled matter, temporary relief is granted as follows: Commencing forthwith, § 327.11 (Low volatile coals: Alphabetical list of code members) in the Schedule of Effective Minimum Prices for District No. 7 for All Shipments Except Truck is supplemented to include the following price classifications in the following size groups for the coals produced at Peerless Mine No. 4, Mine Index No. 248, located in District No. 7, of the Peerless Coal & Coke Company;

Size groups and price classifications: 1, B; 2, B; 3, A; 4, A; 5, A; 6, B; 7, B; 8, D; 9, D; 10, D.

It is further ordered, That pleading in opposition to the original petition in the above-entitled matter and applications to stay, terminate or modify the temporary relief herein granted may be filed with the Division on or before August 7, 1943, pursuant to the rules and regulations governing practice and procedure before the Bituminous Coal Division in proceedings instituted pursuant to section 4 II (d) of the Bituminous Coal Act of 1937.

It is further ordered, That the relief herein granted shall become final on August 10, 1943, unless it shall otherwise be ordered.

The petition requests the establishment of a "C" price classification in Size Group 1. It appears that the Peerless No. 4 Mine is operating in the Pocahontas No. 4 Seam, and on the basis of comparable, analogous coals produced in this seam, a "B" price classification is established herein for the Peerless No. 4 Mine.

Dated: July 31, 1943.

Director.

[Docket No. A-1849]

PART 328—MINIMUM PRICE SCHEDULE, DISTRICT NO. 8

ORDER GRANTING RELIEF

Order of the Director in the matter of the petition of District Board No. 8 for the establishment of price classifications and minimum prices, and for changes in shipping points and freight origin group numbers for the coals of certain mines in District No. 8.

Upon the findings of fact and conclusions of law set forth in the opinion of the Director, filed simultaneously herewith, wherein it appears that a special price exception should be established to permit the sale of Size Group 16 (Mine Run) coal produced by the Shrewsbury Mine (Mine Index No. 575) of L. A. Wilson (Wilson Coal Co.) in Kanawha County, West Virginia, in Subdistrict 4 of District 8, to Cedar Grove Collieries, Inc., for preparation at its tipple in mixture with the coal produced by the Cedar Grove Mine (Mine Index No. 96), and resale thereof by Cedar Grove Collieries, Inc., at the minimum prices applicable to the coal produced by the Cedar Grove Mine, and pursuant to Section 4 II (d) of the Bituminous Coal Act of 1937;

It is hereby ordered, That effective as of the date hereof, § 328.1 (Price instructions and exceptions—(b) Price exceptions) in the Schedules of Effective Minimum Prices for District No. 8 for All Shipments Except Truck Shipments be amended by the addition of a Special Price Exception as follows:

Size Group 16 coals produced by the Shrewsbury Mine, (Mine Index No. 575) of L. A. Wilson (Wilson Coal Co.) may be sold to Cedar Grove Collieries, Inc., for loading into barges or other floating equipment (either as Size Group 16 coals or as screened into other sizes) at the tipple of Cedar Grove Collieries, Inc., located at Cedar Grove, West Virginia, in mixture with coals produced by the Cedar Grove Mine (Mine Index No. 96), at not less than the minimum price applicable to the sale of Size Group 16 coals produced by the Cedar Grove Mine for free alongside deliveries; and Cedar Grove Collieries, Inc., may resell such coals (either as Size Group 16 coals or as screened into other sizes) at not less than the minimum prices applicable to the same shipment of coals of the same size produced by the Cedar Grove Mine, as if such coals purchased from L. A. Wilson (Wilson Coal Co.) were produced by the Cedar Grove Mine: Provided, That when such mixture is sold, the invoices shall properly identify the coal.

Director.

Chapter VIII—Coal Mines Administration

PART 801—REGULATIONS FOR THE OPERATION OF COAL MINES UNDER GOVERNMENT CONTROL

The "Regulations for the Operation of Coal Mines under Government Control" issued by the Secretary of the Interior on May 19, 1943 (8 F.R. 6655), previously designated §§ 603.1 to 603.40, inclusive of Chapter VI are redesignated §§ 801.1 to 801.40, inclusive of Chapter VIII and are amended, as follows:

1. Subparagraph (3) of § 801.6 is amended to read as follows:

(3) The term "Coal Mines Administrator" means the Administrator of the Coal Mine Administration of the Department of the Interior.

2. Section 801.10 is amended to read as follows:

§ 801.10 Supervision and direction. (a) The power, authority, and discretion of the Secretary of the Interior with respect to the operation of coal mines may, under the authority of Order No. 1847 of the Secretary of the Interior, dated July 27, 1943, be exercised by the Coal Mines Administrator (hereinafter referred to as the Administrator) and, subject to his supervision, by the Deputy Coal Mines Administrator (hereinafter referred to as the Deputy Administrator) to the same extent and with the same effect as such power, authority, and discretion may be exercised by the Secretary of the Interior. The power, authority, and discretion of the Administrator and Deputy Administrator may be exercised by them through such personnel of the Coal Mines Administration and the Department of the Interior and in such manner as the Administrator or Deputy Administrator may determine.

(b) The "Regulations for the Operation of Coal Mines under Government Control" issued by the Secretary of the Interior on May 19, 1943 (8 F.R. 6655) are adopted and continued in effect except as amended, amplified and added to from time to time.

3. Paragraph (b) of § 801.17 is amended by changing the period at the end thereof to a comma and adding thereto the following:

• • • as hereinabove and hereinafter specified. No Operating Manager for the United States of any mining company is authorized or shall be regarded as having authority, express or implied, to bind or impose any liability on the United States or any of its officials or agents in the absence of a specific direction or order by the Administrator to that effect. Nor shall any operations of any mine property in the possession and control of the Government, or the proceeds, earnings or liabilities of such mine property in any event be, or be regarded as being, for the account or at the risk or expense of the Government except as a specific written direction or order to that effect shall have been given by the Administrator.

4. Section 801.40 is amended to read as follows:

Termination of Government Control

§ 801.40 Method of termination. Government possession and control of any property affected by these regulations will be terminated by the Administrator upon a determination by him that the requirements for the termination of such possession and control specified in the War Labor Disputes Act of June 25, 1943, have been fulfilled. After the termination of Government possession and control, and for the purpose of ascertaining the existence and amount of any claims against the United States so that the administration of the provisions of Executive Order No. 9340 may be concluded in an orderly manner, the Administrator may require the submission by any mining company of information relating to operations during the period of Government possession and control as hereinafter provided.

The Operating Manager for the United States of each mining company with respect to which the United States Government has taken possession and control shall advise the Administrator when, in his opinion, such requirements for the termination of such possession and control have been fulfilled, specifying the date of declared restoration of productive efficiency, and furnishing to the Administrator the factual evidence supporting his opinion.

Forthwith upon the termination of such possession and control by the Administrator, the mining company may elect to execute and deliver to the Administrator one of the two instruments described in paragraphs 1 and 2 below:

Either:

1. The mining company, by a duly authorized officer or agent, not later than ten days subsequent to such termination, unless such period is extended by the Administrator for good cause shown, shall execute and deliver to the Administrator an instrument of ratification (in the form to be prescribed by the Administrator) by which the mining company adopts and ratifies all acts performed by, and omissions of, the Operating Manager for the United States in the operation of the coal mines of the company during the period of Government control, and covenants and agrees that the Government of the United States and its officials shall not be subject to any claims by the mining company or others by reason of the possession and control of the coal mines of the mining company.

The execution and delivery to the Administrator of such an instrument (hereinafter called Instrument No. 1) shall be deemed to constitute a waiver by the Government of all rights which it may have to an accounting with respect to all operations during the period of Government possession and control, and a discharge of the Operating Manager for the United States from any liability to the Government with respect to all actions taken by him as such.

Or:

2. The mining company, by a duly authorized officer or agent, not later than ten days subsequent to such termination, unless such period is extended by the Administrator for good cause shown, shall execute and deliver to the Administrator an instrument which specifically reserves to the mining company the right to assert a claim for damage alleged to have been suffered by it during the period of Government possession and control as the direct result of a specific direction or order of the Administrator, or his duly authorized agent, but which in all other respects is the same as Instrument No. 1.

Such instrument shall:

a. Specify the particular direction or order of the Administrator which the mining company asserts directly resulted in damage to the mining company,

b. Specify the particular action taken pursuant to such direction or order, which action would not have been taken except for such direction or order, and which action, it is claimed resulted in damage to the mining company, and

c. Specify the nature of the damage asserted to have been so caused and the amount thereof.

The execution and delivery to the Administrator of such an instrument (hereinafter called Instrument No. 2), provided such instrument is in conformity with the above prescribed requirements, shall be deemed to constitute a waiver by the Government of all rights which it may have to an accounting with respect to all operations during the period of Government possession and control, expressly reserving the right, however, to assert by way of offset to any such claimed liability, benefits resulting to the mining company from Government possession and control and any other defense against such asserted liability.

The mining company shall specify to the Administrator such further detailed information with respect to items a, b and c, above, as shall be requested or directed by the Administrator.

If, however, within ten days after the termination of possession and control by the Government, unless such period is extended by the Administrator for good cause shown, the mining company shall not execute and deliver to the Administrator either Instrument No. 1 or Instrument No. 2, as above provided, then the Administrator may assume that the mining company claims, or reserves the right to claim, that all operations during the period of Government possession and control of the property have been for the account of the Government, and accordingly that the Operating Manager for the United States and the mining company are accountable to the Government for their custodianship and disposition of proceeds from operations accruing during the period of Government possession and control. Pending the completion of such an accounting, the appointment of the Operating Manager for the United States shall continue in force for the purposes of such an accounting and appropriate determinations with respect thereto.

Accordingly, in such an event the Operating Manager for the United States and the mining company shall forthwith cause to be prepared, and shall promptly furnish to the Administrator, the following:

1. A detailed Comparative Balance Sheet as of the date of the termination of Government possession and control and as of the date of the beginning of such period.

2. A detailed Statement of Income and Profit and Loss for the period of Government possession and control.

3. A physical inventory to be taken at the close of such period, for all items normally subject to inventory.

4. A Cost and Tonnage Statement for the period in the form to be prescribed by the Administrator.

5. A detailed analysis of all changes in Current Assets, Investments, Reserves, Fixed Assets and Deferred Charges accounts occurring during the period.

6. A detailed statement of all charges to Bad Debts or against Reserves therefor.

7. An explanation of the basis of charges for Depreciation, Depletion and Amortization for the period.

8. A detailed analysis of all changes in amounts due to or from affiliated companies.

Statements required under items 1 and 2 are to be certified by an independent Certified Public Accountant unless otherwise directed by the Administrator on the application for good cause shown by the mining company. Statements required under items 3 through 8 are to be certified by an authorized officer of the company.

In addition to the foregoing, the Operating Manager for the United States and the mining company shall furnish to the Administrator such additional data and information as the Administrator shall request or direct pertaining to the period of operation under Government possession and control and a fair evaluation of the results thereof.

For the purposes of checking any inventories, accountings or other information submitted under this section 40, accountants and other agents of the Government shall be given reasonable access to all books, papers and inventories of the mining company pertinent thereto.

The books and records of the mining company covering operations during the period of Government possession and control shall be maintained intact pending the completion by accountants or other agents of the Government of such inspection thereof as may be deemed necessary by the Administrator. The books and records of the mining company pertaining to operations subsequent to the termination of Government possession and control, and pending such inspection, shall be maintained in such fashion that the effect of such operations upon the condition of the company as of the end of the period of Government possession and control will be readily ascertainable.

None of the provisions of this section 40, and no action that shall be taken pursuant to any of them, shall be deemed to constitute acquiescence by the Administrator in any claim that operations during the period of Government possession and control were for the financial account of the Government, or acquiescence in any other claim that the Government is subject to any liability to the mining company or any other person or persons with respect to any such action, or otherwise. None of the provisions of this section, nor any action taken pursuant to any of them shall be deemed to constitute a waiver by the mining company of any right which it may have to assert a claim against the United States, except as waived by the execution and delivery of Instrument No. 1 or of Instrument No. 2.

Dated: July 29, 1943.

HAROLD L. ICKES,

DORNOIL PRODUCTS CO.

Pending the determination of the appeal by Dornoil Products Company from the provisions of Suspension Order No. S-302, issued June 22, 1943, the Chief Compliance Commissioner directed a stay of execution of the terms of Order S-302 from June 24 until July 1, 1943. Having denied the appeal of Dornoil Products Company, the Chief Compliance Commissioner has directed that Suspension Order S-302 be amended so as to extend the expiration date thereof by the time that the stay of execution was in effect.

In view of the foregoing, It is hereby ordered, That paragraph (c) of § 1010.302 Suspension Order S-302 be amended to read as follows:

(c) This order shall take effect on June 24, 1943 and shall expire on October 1, 1943, at which time the restrictions contained in this order shall be of no further effect.

PART 1010—SUSPENSION ORDERS

EAST NEW YORK SAVINGS BANK

East New York Savings Bank is a New York banking corporation owning and maintaining a branch bank at 1117 Eastern Parkway, Brooklyn, New York. After September 7, 1942, the bank began construction of a refrigerated fur-storage vault at these premises. The estimated cost of this construction at the time of its commencement was $3,750, which amount exceeded the $200 permissible under the order as amended. It is now expected that the total cost of the project, if completed, would be $4600. Responsible officials of the bank were aware that there existed a War Production Board order restricting construction prior to the issuance of the amendment on September 2, 1942, and were informed that the order would be so amended. They made no effort to examine the terms of the order itself or otherwise to ascertain its actual provisions, but continued construction until the project was 75 per cent. complete, when the bank was directed to cease construction by the War Production Board.

Construction of this cold storage fur vault by the bank was a violation of Conservation Order L–41, and it was done with such gross negligence that it must be deemed wilful.

These acts of the respondent were in wilful violation of Conservation Order L–41, and were of such significance as to require the imposition of an administrative penalty. In view of the foregoing: It is hereby ordered, That:

§ 1010.355 Suspension Order No. S–355. (a) Neither East New York Savings Bank, its successors or assigns, nor any other person shall order, purchase, accept delivery of, withdraw from inventory, or in any other manner secure or use any material or construction plant in order to continue or complete any "construction" (as "construction" is defined in Conservation Order L–41, as amended) on the buildings and premises located at 1117 Eastern Parkway, Brooklyn, New York, unless hereafter specifically authorized in writing by the War Production Board.

(b) Nothing contained in this order shall be deemed to relieve East New York Savings Bank of Brooklyn, New York, its successors or assigns, from any restriction, prohibition, or provision contained in any other order or regulation of the War Production Board except in so far as the same may be inconsistent with the provisions hereof.

(c) This order shall take effect July 31, 1943.

ATLANTIC MANUFACTURING CO.

Atlantic Manufacturing Company of Wilmington, Delaware, is a corporation engaged in the manufacture of rubber and leather products. During the period from April 1, 1942, to August 25, 1942, it used 319 pounds of crude rubber in the manufacture of belting, without prior approval of the War Production Board, and in the manufacture of shoe soles, hand pads, coal bags and tarpaulins. Subsequent to August 25, 1942 it consumed additional quantities of crude rubber in such manufacture. During the period from March 20, 1942, to August 25, 1942, it consumed 597 pounds of re-claimed rubber in the manufacture of coal bags, hand pads and tarpaulins, and subsequent to the latter date it consumed additional quantities of re-claimed rubber in the manufacture of belting, shoe soles, coal bags and hand pads, without authorization from the Director General for Operations, and in the manufacture of tarpaulins. These acts constituted violations of Supplementary Order M–15–b. Subsequent to July 31, 1942, it used rubber cement for treating fabrics or materials, without authority from the Director General for Operations, in violation of Supplementary Order M–15–f. During the foregoing periods responsible officers of the company knew that the use of rubber was restricted by orders of the War Production Board, and depended upon the advice of a minor employee, who failed to apprise them of the applicable restrictions. The failure of the officers of the company to independently ascertain the exact nature of the restrictions regarding their business constituted gross negligence, which makes these violations wilful.

These violations of Supplementary Orders M–15–b and M–15–f have hampered and impeded the war effort of the United States by diverting scarce materials to uses not authorized by the War Production Board. In view of the foregoing, It is hereby ordered, That:

§ 1010.370 Suspension Order No. S–370. (a) Atlantic Manufacturing Company, its successors and assigns, are hereby prohibited from consuming any crude rubber or re-claimed rubber in their manufacturing processes, unless hereafter specifically authorized in writing by the War Production Board.

(b) Nothing contained in this order shall be deemed to relieve Atlantic Manufacturing Company, its successors or assigns, from any restriction, prohibition, or provision contained in any other order or regulation of the War Production Board, except insofar as the same may be inconsistent with the provisions hereof.

(c) This order shall take effect on July 31, 1943, and shall terminate on October 31, 1943, after which latter date it shall have no further force or effect.

Issued this 24th day of July 1943.

SHARP CONSTRUCTION CO.

Sharp Construction Company, 210 North Fifth Street, Reading, Pennsylvania, is a corporation engaged in building construction. Subsequent to September 7, 1942, the effective date of Conservation Order L–41 as amended, the company began construction on the remodeling of a residence at an estimated cost in excess of $1,500, and began construction by the remodeling of another residence at an estimated cost in excess of $7,500 without having obtained authority from the War Production Board in either case. These acts constituted violations of Conservation Order L–41, as amended September 2, 1942. At the time these constructions were begun, the respondent had knowledge that there were governmental restrictions on construction work, and its failure to ascertain the nature of these restrictions was so negligent as to render its violations wilful.

These violations of Conservation Order L–41 have diverted scarce materials to uses not authorized by the War Production Board and have hampered and impeded the war effort of the United States. In view of the foregoing facts, It is hereby ordered, That:

§ 1010.379 Suspension Order No. S–379. (a) Deliveries of material to Sharp Construction Company, its successors or assigns, shall not be accorded priority over deliveries under any other contract or order and no preference ratings shall be assigned, applied, or extended to such deliveries by means of preference rating certificates, preference rating orders, general preference orders or any other orders or regulations of the War Production Board.

(b) No allocation or allotment of materials or products shall be made to Sharp Construction Company, its successors or assigns, of any material or product the supply or distribution of which is covered by any order of the War Production Board, unless hereafter specifically authorized in writing by the War Production Board.

(c) Nothing contained in this order shall be deemed to relieve Sharp Construction Company of any restriction, prohibition, or provision contained in any other order or regulation of the War Production Board, except in so far as the same may be inconsistent with the provisions hereof.

(d) The terms of this order shall not apply to contracts or orders bearing a rating of AA–3 or higher.

(e) This order shall take effect on July 31, 1943, and shall expire on September 31, 1943.

Issued this 24th day of July 1943.

(ii) The foregoing restrictions may be exceeded only in the manufacture of insulation padding for airplanes to be delivered to or for the account of the Army or Navy of the United States when a higher percentage of kapok or use of a Java grade is specifically required by the specifications of the prime contract involved or its use is hereafter specifically directed in writing by the Army or Navy contracting officer of the prime contract involved.

(h) Violations. Any person who wilfully violates any provision of this order, or who, in connection with this order, wilfully conceals a material fact or furnishes false information to any department or agency of the United States, is guilty of a crime, and upon conviction may be punished by fine or imprisonment. In addition, any such person may be prohibited from making or obtaining further deliveries of, or from processing or using, material under priority control and may be deprived of priorities assistance.

(i) Reports. On or before the 15th day of each calendar month all owners of kapok shall file two copies of Form WPB–642 with the United States Tariff Commission, 7th and E Streets, N. W., Washington, D. C.

(3) The limits in this order on use of paper and paperboard during any calendar quarter apply to the quarter beginning July 1, 1943 and to each calendar quarter after that.

(e) Alternate method of calculating quotas. As an alternate method of calculating quarterly quotas for any converted product, any person may, after the filing of a notice in writing with the War Production Board, elect to apply the percentages established by paragraphs (c) and (d) (2) of this order to one fourth of his total yearly consumption of pulp, paper and paperboard in such product during 1942. When such election has been made and the required notice in writing has been given to the War Production Board, the method of determining quotas may not thereafter be changed.

The War Production Board may of its own motion in any case, by telegram or letter, issue a specific ruling determining whether or not a particular product of a particular converter is so included.

(g) Inventory restrictions. No person shall knowingly deliver to any converter, and no converter shall accept delivery of, any quantity of pulp, paper or paperboard for the manufacture or assembly of any converted product included in this order if the inventory in the hands of the converter intended for such converted product, is, or will by virtue of such acceptance become, either in excess of two car loads or if in excess of two car loads greater than 45 days' supply, on the basis of either the converter's average rate of consumption for such converted product for the preceding quarter or his average rate of consumption for such converted product as projected for the then current quarter.

(h) Applicability of regulations. This order and all transactions affected thereby are subject to all applicable regulations of the War Production Board, as amended from time to time.

(i) Appeals. Any appeal from the provisions of this order shall be made by filing a letter in triplicate, referring to the particular provision appealed from and stating fully the grounds of the appeal.

PART 1010—SUSPENSION ORDERS

NATIONAL MANUFACTURE AND STORES, CORP.

The National Manufacture and Stores Corporation, a corporation with its main office in Atlanta, Georgia, is engaged in the retail furniture business; and owns and operates a number of branch offices or stores under various trade names, in different localities. Subsequent to September 1, 1942 the corporation, through four of its said branch offices or stores, namely, Lawrence Furniture Company of Memphis, Tennessee, Myers-Dickson Furniture Company of Atlanta, Georgia, Chatham Furniture Stores of Savannah, Georgia and Lawrence Furniture Company of Atlanta, Georgia, sold and delivered new metal heating equipment, consisting of more than 50 percent metal by weight, although the orders therefor bore no preference ratings, and had no certificates endorsed thereon, as required by Limitation Order L-79. At the time of the aforesaid transactions the corporation through its officers and employees in its home office, and also through the respective managers of these four stores, had knowledge of the existence of said Limitation Order L-79, and its amendments. The company's actions, as above described, constituted wilful violations of Limitation Order L-79.

These violations of Limitation Order L-79 have hampered and impeded the war effort of the United States by diverting scarce material to uses not authorized by the War Production Board. In view of the foregoing, It is hereby ordered, That:

§ 1010.386 Suspension Order S-386. (a) The four stores or branches of National Manufacture and Stores Corporation, described below, their successors and assigns, are hereby prohibited from buying, receiving, selling, delivering or otherwise dealing in new metal heating equipment, complete or in the form of parts, as defined in Limitation Order L-79, unless hereafter specifically authorized in writing by the War Production Board.

Lawrence Furniture Company, Memphis, Tennessee.

Myers-Dickson Furniture Company, Atlanta, Georgia.

Chatham Furniture Stores, Savannah, Georgia.

Lawrence Furniture Company, Atlanta, Georgia.

(b) Nothing contained in this order shall be deemed to relieve National Manufacture and Stores Corporation, operating Lawrence Furniture Company in Memphis, Tennessee, Myers-Dickson Furniture Company in Atlanta, Georgia, Chatham Furniture Stores in Savannah, Georgia, Lawrence Furniture Company in Atlanta, Georgia, or the aforesaid branches or stores respectively, their successors or assigns, from any restriction, prohibition or provision contained in any other order or regulation of the War Production Board, except in so far as the same may be inconsistent with the provisions hereof.

(c) This order shall take effect on August 1, 1943 and shall expire on October 31, 1943.

The Regional Director of the San Francisco Regional Office of the War Produc-

LOUIS H. WEINER OF NEW HAVEN, INC.

Louis H. Weiner of New Haven, Inc., is engaged in the automotive supply business in New Haven, Connecticut. On February 25, 1943, it received from a customer an order for six gross of flashlight batteries, carrying a preference rating of AA-2x. On the following day, in violation of Priorities Regulation No. 3, it extended the same rating on purchase orders for over sixty-one gross of flashlight batteries, certifying at the time that the extensions were in accordance with Priorities Regulation No. 3 with which it was familiar. These improper extensions of a preference rating were wilful.

This conduct of Louis H. Weiner of New Haven, Inc., has hampered and impeded the war effort of the United States. In view of the foregoing, It is hereby ordered, That:

§ 1010.383 Suspension Order No. S-383. (a) Louis H. Weiner of New Haven, Inc., its officers, agents, successors or assigns, shall not apply or extend any preference ratings whatsoever, and shall not receive any deliveries on preference rated orders during the term of this order.

(b) Nothing contained in this order shall be deemed to relieve Louis H. Weiner of New Haven, Inc., its officers, agents, successors or assigns, from any restriction, prohibition, or provision contained in any other order or regulation of the War Production Board except in so far as the same may be inconsistent with the provisions hereof.

(c) This order shall take effect on August 1, 1943, and shall expire on November 1, 1943.

PART 3036—COMMERCIAL COOKING AND FOOD AND PLATE WARMING EQUIPMENT

[Limitation Order L-182, as Amended August 2, 1943]

The fulfillment of requirements for the defense of the United States has created a shortage in the supply of certain critical materials used in the production of commercial cooking and food and plate warming equipment for defense, for private account and for export; and the following order is deemed necessary and appropriate in the public interest and to promote the national defense:

§ 3036.1 General Limitation Order L-182—(a) Definitions. For the purposes of this order:

(1) "Commercial cooking and food and plate warming equipment" means:

(i) Equipment (except equipment specially designed to use electricity as the heating agent) designed for the heating of kitchen utensils or plates, or for the cooking or baking of food for consumption or sale on the premises in which the equipment is located. It includes, but is not limited to, such items as bakers, broilers, fryers, griddles, grills, hot plates, ovens (except built-in types), ranges, roasters, steamers, toasters, urns and warmers, but does not include cooking appliances for household use.

(ii) Steam-jacketed kettles, regardless of any use to which they may be put, which are designed to use steam at working pressures of less than 90 pounds per square inch.

(2) "Ultimate consumer" means any person who uses commercial cooking and food and plate warming equipment for the heating of kitchen utensils or plates, or for the cooking or baking of food for consumption or sale.

(3) "New commercial cooking and food and plate warming equipment" means any commercial cooking and food and plate warming equipment that has never been used by an ultimate consumer.

(4) "Used commercial cooking and food and plate warming equipment" means any commercial cooking and food and plate warming equipment that has been used by an ultimate consumer.

(b) Restrictions on manufacture. (1) From and after October 1, 1942, no manufacturer of commercial cooking and food and plate warming equipment shall put into process in the manufacture of such equipment, including finished units and parts thereof, during any calendar quarter, any iron and steel in excess of 6¼% of the iron and steel put into process in the manufacture of finished units of such equipment by him during the calendar year, 1941, except that in addition to the quotas set forth in this paragraph, any manufacturer may put any iron or steel into the process of manufacture of any such equipment for delivery to or for the account of the Army, Navy, the Maritime Commission, the War Shipping Administration of the United States or the Defense Plant Corporation.

(2) No iron or steel may be used in the manufacture of any equipment listed on Schedule I, except in the manufacture of repair and replacement parts thereof as limited in paragraph (b) (1).

(c) Restrictions on delivery. Regardless of the terms of any contract, sale, other commitment or any preference rating, no person shall make or accept physical delivery of any new or used commercial cooking and food and plate warming equipment, except that:

(1) Any person may make or accept physical delivery of any such equipment on a specific contract or subcontract for delivery to or for the account of the Army, the Navy, the Maritime Commission, the War Shipping Administration of the United States, or the Defense Plant Corporation.

(2) Any person may make or accept physical delivery of any such equipment pursuant to specific authorization of the War Production Board on Form WPB-1529 (formerly PD-638A). Applications under this order and Order L-248 may be made on a single Form WPB-1529 (Formerly PD-638A).

(3) Any manufacturer may make physical delivery of any such equipment to any dealer or distributor of such equipment, or to any ultimate consumer, from whom he has received a written order or contract which bears a certification substantially as follows, signed by an authorized official, either manually or as provided in Priorities Regulation No. 7; and any such dealer, distributor or ultimate consumer may accept such delivery:

I certify that I have received specific authority from the War Production Board to accept delivery of the equipment listed hereon; that I have knowledge of and am in compliance with Limitation Orders L-182 and/or L-248; and, further, that authorization was received by me on the following Form(s) WPB-1529 (formerly PD-638A):

(List number or numbers)

Firm name

Signature and title of officer

Such certification shall constitute a representation to the War Production Board, as well as to the manufacturer, of the facts certified therein.

No manufacturer shall make delivery under this order who has reason to believe that the purchaser has furnished a false certification; and no person shall falsely furnish the certification specified above.

Any manufacturer may rely upon the facts furnished in the above mentioned certification and shall not be responsible for any action taken by him under this order in reliance upon inaccurate or untrue statements therein, unless he has reason to believe that such statements are inaccurate or untrue.

(4) Any ultimate consumer may make physical delivery of any such equipment to any manufacturer, dealer or distributor of such equipment, and such manufacturer, dealer, or distributor may accept such delivery; and

(5) Any such equipment actually in transit on September 30, 1942, may be delivered to its immediate destination.

(d) Delivery of repair and replacement parts. Nothing in this order shall prevent the delivery of repair or replacement parts for commercial cooking and food and plate warming equipment.

(e) Reports. Every manufacturer, dealer and distributor of any commercial cooking and food and plate warming equipment shall execute and file with the War Production Board on or before the tenth day of each calendar quarter a report on Form WPB-1509 (formerly PD-638), which may be obtained from the nearest field office of the War Production Board. Reports under this order and Order L-248 may be made on a single Form WPB-1509 (formerly PD-638).

(f) Applicability of priorities regulations. This order and all transactions affected thereby are subject to all applicable provisions of all the Priorities Regulations of the War Production Board, as amended from time to time.

(g) Applicability of other orders. Insofar as any other order issued, or to be issued after September 30, 1942, limits the production or delivery of commercial cooking and food and plate warming equipment to a greater extent than the limits imposed by this order, the restrictions in such other order shall govern unless otherwise specified therein. After September 30, 1942, General Limitation Orders No. L-79 and No. L-83 shall not apply to commercial cooking and food and plate warming equipment.

(h) Appeals. Any person affected by this order who considers that compliance therewith would work an exceptional and unreasonable hardship upon him, may appeal by letter to the War Production Board, setting forth the pertinent facts and the reasons he considers he is entitled to relief. The War Production Board may thereupon take such action as it deems appropriate.

(i) Communications to War Production Board. All reports required to be filed hereunder, and all communications concerning this order, shall, unless otherwise directed, be addressed to the War Production Board, Plumbing and Heating Division, Washington 25, D. C., Ref: L-182.

(j) Violations. Any person who willfully violates any provision of this order or who, in connection with this order, willfully conceals a material fact or furnishes false information to any department or agency of the United States, is guilty of a crime, and upon conviction may be punished by fine or imprisonment or both. In addition, any such person may be prohibited from making or obtaining further deliveries of, or from processing and using materials under priority control and may be deprived of priorities assistance.

Issued this 2d day of August 1943.

INTERPRETATION 1

Paragraph (c) (1) of General Limitation Order L-182 (Commercial Cooking and Food and Plate Warming Equipment) reads as follows:

(1) Any person may make or accept physical delivery of any such equipment on a specific contract or subcontract for delivery to or for the account of the Army, the Navy, the Maritime Commission, the War Shipping Administration of the United States, or the Defense Plant Corporation;

Question has been raised as to whether purchase by the Army Pre-Flight Training Schools is within the exception stated in this subparagraph or whether such schools desiring to purchase this equipment must apply on Form WPB 1529 (formerly PD-638A) for authorization.

The exception referred to applies only to specific contracts or subcontracts for deliveries to or for the account of the agencies named. It does not include equipment which will be owned by the training schools and not by the Army, even though it is intended that the equipment will for the present be used solely for the benefit of the personnel assigned to the school. Such a delivery is not made on a specific contract or subcontract for delivery to or for the account of the Army within the meaning of the provision quoted above. Accordingly, any training school desiring to purchase this equipment under these circumstances must apply on Form WPB-1529 (formerly PD-638A) for authorization. (Issued May 8, 1943.)

PART 3175—REGULATIONS APPLICABLE TO THE CONTROLLED MATERIALS PLAN

[Direction 23 to CMP Reg. 1]

ACCEPTANCE OF ORDERS FOR ALUMINUM BY ALUMINUM PRODUCERS AND THE EFFECT OF DELAYS IN PRODUCTION

The following direction issued pursuant to CMP Regulation No. 1 (§ 3175.1) applies to all orders placed with producers of aluminum calling for delivery of aluminum in the form of controlled material, except ingot. Deliveries of ingot are controlled by a directive issued to producers and smelters May 31, 1943.

(a) The term "aluminum product" as used in this direction means aluminum and aluminum alloy products in the form of controlled material as described in Schedule 1 of CMP Regulation No. 1 except ingot. The term "order" as used in this direction means not only an authorized controlled material order but also an order covered by an AM authorization number.

(b) Each producer must refuse any order for delivery of any aluminum product unless he expects to be able to make delivery in the calendar month specified in the order.

(c) Each producer must refuse any order for any aluminum product covered by his production directive when his total orders for such product scheduled for delivery in that month equal 110% of the amount of such product he is authorized to produce by his production directive; and he must refuse any order for any aluminum product not covered by his production directive when his total orders for the product scheduled for delivery in that month equal 105% of his expected production for that month. In determining whether or not an order may be accepted for delivery, the producer must include in the 110% or 105% all orders already accepted by him (i) which either call for delivery in the same calendar month as the delivery month specified on the order under consideration, or (ii) which call for delivery in any earlier month and which he anticipates he will not be able to fill before the beginning of the delivery month specified.

(d) If, after accepting an order for any aluminum product, a producer finds that he cannot make delivery during the calendar month in which delivery is requested but that he will be able to make such delivery during any subsequent month up to and including the first month of the quarter following the quarter in which delivery was requested, he may fill the order at any such time without reporting to the War Production Board or requiring any other allotment number, even though the month in which delivery is actually made under this paragraph falls in another quarter.

(e) If, after accepting an order for aluminum products, a producer finds that he cannot make delivery before the end of the month following the quarter in which delivery is requested, he must, by the last day of the quarter for which the order was accepted (or by August 15, 1943, in the case of second quarter orders not shipped by July 31, 1943), notify the Aluminum and Magnesium Division in writing, stating the allotment number, the name of the customer, the material covered by the order and when he can schedule the order for delivery. He may fill an order for aluminum products after the first month of the quarter following the quarter in which delivery was requested on the basis of the allotment number originally extended, irrespective of the quarter for which the allotment number or symbol was issued.

(f) If a producer finds that he cannot make delivery of any aluminum product during the calendar month in which delivery is requested, the order must, nevertheless, be given a position on his production schedule and be filled ahead of all orders requesting delivery in any month after the quested delivery month shown on the order, unless otherwise directed by the War Production Board or the customer. In addition, the producer must notify his customer as soon as he reschedules the order, stating the approximate date when the producer expects to make delivery.

(g) The provisions of paragraphs (d), (e) and (f) hereof supersede the provisions of paragraph (t) (5) of CMP Regulation No. 1.

(h) Nothing in this direction affects the right of a customer to cancel his order for failure to deliver on time.

Issued this 31st day of July 1943.

Recording Secretary.

PART 3270—CONTAINERS[1]

[Conservation Order M-313 as amended August 2, 1943]

FIBRE DRUMS

The fulfillment of requirements for the defense of the United States has created a shortage in the supply of fibre drums for defense, for private account and for export; and the following order is deemed necessary and appropriate in the public interest and to promote the national defense:

§ 3270.3[1] Conservation Order M-313—(a) Definitions. For the purposes of this order:

Definitions

(1) "Manufacturer" means any person who manufactures fibre drums for sale or for his own use.

(2) "Fibre drums" means any cylindrical shipping container which (i) is of the types known in the container industry as "fibre drums" and "fibre pails," (ii) is made with a body of paperboard and ends of paperboard, steel (28 gauge or heavier), wood, or any combination thereof, (iii) has a capacity of one gallon or more, and (iv) is of the types which, upon conforming with any applicable Consolidated Freight Classification rule[2] and Interstate Commerce Commission regulation,[3] are acceptable for shipment without covering containers. This does not include cylindrical containers, of similar construction, known in the container industry as "cans" and "tubes."

(3) "Qualified order" means any purchase order for fibre drums which specifies the following information as to each type and size of drum ordered: (i) the specific products to be packed in such drums, (ii) the number of drums desired for each such product, and (iii) the desired receiving date or dates for such drums.

Restrictions

(b) Restrictions on manufacturers—(1) Shipping restriction. Notwithstanding any preference rating received, no manufacturer shall ship fibre drums to any purchaser except as specifically authorized on Form WPB–2700 (PD–881) or Form GA–255.

(2) Use restriction. On and after September 1, 1943, no manufacturer shall use any fibre drums, manufactured by him, for packing any product, except as specifically authorized by the War Production Board on Form WPB–2700 (PD–881) or Form GA–255.

(3) Reporting requirements. On or before the 3rd day of August 1943, and of each second month thereafter (October–December, etc.), every manufacturer shall forward a report on Form WPB–2700 (PD–881) for the next succeeding 2-month period (September–October, November–December, etc.). Except in the case of any manufacturer who manufactures fibre drums for his own use, the report shall include, among other required data, a listing of "qualified orders" which were on hand at the end of the preceding month and which require shipment during the period being reported. Any manufacturer who manufactures fibre drums for his own use shall complete only the portions of Form WPB–2700 (PD–881) designated thereon as being applicable to him.[4]

(c) Restrictions on purchasers—(1) Acceptance restriction. No purchaser shall accept delivery of any fibre drum shipped on or after June 16, 1943, if he has reason to believe that the shipping of such drum was not authorized pursuant to paragraph (b) (1) above.

(2) Inventory limitation. No person shall order any quantity of any type of fibre drum for delivery to him or for his account on any date if receipt thereof on that date would increase his estimated inventory of that type of drum to more than his requirements therefor for the 60-day period commencing on that date.

Miscellaneous Provisions

(d) Applicability of other regulations. This order and all transactions affected thereby are subject to all applicable regulations of the War Production Board as same may be amended from time to time.

If the person making the sale retains an invoice or a duplicate copy of an invoice containing this information in his files for the specified period he will have complied with the requirements of this paragraph (a).

(b) Every person who after February 2, 1942 and prior to August 5, 1943 was required to keep records under § 1335.604 of Revised Price Schedule No. 79 shall preserve such records for inspection by the Office of Price Administration for so long as the Emergency Price Control Act of 1942, as amended, remains in effect.

(c) Every person blending carbon tetrachloride with petroleum fractions shall preserve for inspection by the Office of Price Administration for so long as the Emergency Price Control Act of 1942, as amended, remains in effect, complete and accurate records showing the cost to him of the petroleum fractions used in such blending and the charges included on account of such petroleum fractions in computing his maximum prices for blends of carbon tetrachloride with petroleum fractions, and the percentage of carbon tetrachloride contained in such blends.

(d) Every person subject to this regulation shall, subject to the approval of the Bureau of the Budget pursuant to the Federal Reports Act of 1942, keep such other records and submit such reports as the Office of Price Administration may from time to time require.

SEC. 7. Evasion. The price limitations set forth in this regulation shall not be evaded either by direct or indirect methods, in connection with any offer, solicitation, agreement, sale, delivery, purchase, or receipt of, or relating to carbon tetrachoride or blends thereof for which maximum prices are established by this regulation, alone or in conjunction with any other commodity or by way of commission, service, transportation, or other charge, or discount, premium or other privilege, or by tying agreement, or other trade understanding, or by transactions with or through the agency of subsidiaries or affiliates or otherwise.

SEC. 8. Enforcement and licensing.—(a) Enforcement. Persons violating any provision of this regulation are subject to the criminal penalties, civil enforcement actions, license suspension proceedings and suits for treble damages provided for by the Emergency Price Control Act of 1942, as amended.

(b) Licensing. (1) Supplementary Order No. 11 (§ 1305.15) licenses all sellers under this regulation who are distributors as the term "distributor" is defined in the order. This order, in effect, provides that a license is necessary for resellers other than at retail who receive carbon tetrachloride or a blend thereof and resell the same without substantially changing its form. Merely blending carbon tetrachloride to form a blend thereof is not considered a substantial change in form. A license is automatically granted to these sellers. It is not necessary to apply specially for the license, but a registration may later be required. The Emergency Price Control Act of 1942, as amended, and Supplementary Order No. 11 describe the circumstances under which licenses may be suspended.

(2) The registration and licensing provisions of §§ 1499.15 and 1499.16 of the General Maximum Price Regulation are applicable to every person selling at retail carbon tetrachloride or blends thereof for which maximum prices are established by this regulation. The term "selling at retail" shall have the meaning given it by § 1499.20 of the General Maximum Price Regulation.

SEC. 9. Definitions. (a) When used in this regulation, the term:

(1) "Person" includes an individual, corporation, partnership, association, or any other organized group of persons, or legal successor or representative of any of the foregoing, and includes the United States or any agency thereof, or any other government, or any of its political subdivisions, or any agency of any of the foregoing.

(2) "Carbon tetrachloride" refers to all grades of carbon tetrachloride except the C. P., Reagent, and U. S. P. grades.

(3) "Manufacturer" means a person who produces carbon tetrachloride.

(4) "Reseller" means a person who sells carbon tetrachloride produced by another and includes a person other than a manufacturer who adds other matcrials to carbon tetrachloride to form blends thereof.

(5) "Seller's shipping point" means the point of manufacture or other point of distribution maintained by a manufacturer or seller.

(6) "Transportation costs" or "freight charges" shall be deemed to include the tax imposed by section 620 of the Revenue Act of 1942 (Pub. Law 753, 77th Cong.; approved October 21, 1942) as if it were a like increase in the rate or the amount charged by the carrier for the transportation in question.

(7) "Carload lot" means the smallest quantity which, under applicable tariffs of railroad carriers, would move from the point of shipment to the point of destination at a railroad carload rate rather than a railroad less-than-carload rate because a lower transportation charge is thus incurred.

(8) "Zone 1" means the States of Connecticut, Delaware, Illinois, Indiana, Iowa, Kentucky, Maine, Maryland, Massachusetts, Michigan, Minnesota, Missouri, New Hampshire, New Jersey, New York, North Carolina, Ohio, Pennsylvania, Rhode Island, Tennessee, Vermont, Virginia, West Virginia, and Wisconsin; the District of Columbia; and the cities of Omaha, Nebraska and Kansas City, Kansas.

(9) "Zone 2" means the States of Alabama, Arkansas, Florida, Georgia, Kansas, Louisiana, Mississippi, Nebraska, North Dakota, Oklahoma, South Carolina, and South Dakota, excepting the cities of Omaha, Nebraska, and Kansas City, Kansas.

(10) "Zone 3" means the States of Colorado, New Mexico, Texas, Wyoming, and that part of Montana east of but not including the following counties: Toole, Pondera, Teton, Lewis and Clark, Broadwater and Gallatin.

(11) "Zone 4" means the States of Arizona, California, Idaho, Nevada, Oregon, Utah, Washington, and that part of Montana west of and including those counties mentioned above.

(b) Unless the context otherwise requires, the definitions set forth in section 302 of the Emergency Price Control Act of 1942, as amended, shall apply to other terms used in this regulation.

SEC. 11. Maximum prices for carbon tetrachloride and certain blends thereof in containers of 5 gallons or more. The following maximum prices are established for carbon tetrachloride and certain blends thereof in containers of 5 gallons or more. Such maximum prices apply to deliveries in the respective zones, regardless of the zone from which shipment is made.

(a) Carbon tetrachloride—(1) Tank cars and listed containers.

	Zone 1	Zone 2	Zone 3	Zone 4
Tank cars	Price per pound $.0525	Price per pound $.0575	Price per pound $.0675	Price per pound $.06
Carload lots:	Price per gallon	Price per gallon	Price per gallon	Price per gallon
50–55 gallon containers	$.73	$.80	$.94	$.83
5 and 10 gallon containers	.97	1.04	1.17	1.07
Less than carload lots:
50–55 gallon containers	.80	.87	1.00	.90
5 and 10 gallon containers	1.07	1.14	1.27	1.17

(2) Sales in other containers. For sales in containers not listed above, except containers of less than 5 gallon capacity, the maximum price per gallon shall be the price per gallon established in subparagraph (1) above for sales in the next larger container or, if there is no next larger container, in the largest container listed.

(b) Blends of carbon tetrachloride with other chlorinated hydrocarbons. The maximum prices for blends of carbon tetrachloride and other chlorinated hydrocarbons containing at least 85 percent carbon tetrachloride by volume, but not more than 5 percent chloroform by volume, shall be the same as those established for sales of carbon tetrachloride in like amounts and like containers by paragraph (a) above, except that blends of carbon tetrachloride conforming to the requirements of Federal Specification O–F380 of July 22, 1930 for fire-extinguishing-liquid, shall not be subject to this regulation.

(c) Blends of carbon tetrachloride with petroleum fractions. (1) Maximum prices for blends of carbon tetrachloride with petroleum fractions containing at least 50 percent of carbon tetrachloride by volume shall be prices computed as follows:

(i) Sales in 50–55 gallon containers in carload lots. To determine the maximum price for sales of such blends in 50–55 gallon containers in carload lots:

(b) Add thereto 118 percent of the "cost of the petroleum fractions" in the mixture to the blender.

The "cost of the petroleum fractions" means the net cost delivered to the blender's plant, less all discounts other than cash discounts, but shall not include any payment or charge in excess of the applicable maximum price established by the Office of Price Administration. Where such person is also the producer of the petroleum fractions used, his maximum price for such petroleum fractions in that quantity and to that class of purchasers which results in his lowest maximum price shall be considered to be the "cost of the petroleum fractions" to him. Where more than one such "cost" is applicable to the petroleum fractions used in preparing a blend of carbon tetrachloride and petroleum fractions, the "cost" shall be determined by using the first in-first out method of valuation of inventory.

(ii) Sales in other quantities and containers. Maximum prices for sales of such blends in a quantity other than carload lots and in a container other than a 50–55 gallon container shall be determined by applying to the maximum price per gallon for sales in 50–55 gallon containers in carload lots, established in subdivision (i) above, the per gallon differential, established in paragraph (a) above, between the maximum price for sales of carbon tetrachloride in a like quantity and container and the maximum price for sales of carbon tetrachloride in 50–55 gallon containers in carload lots.

(2) All invoices for blends of carbon tetrachloride and petroleum fractions covered by this regulation shall state the percentage by volume of carbon tetrachloride contained in such blends and the maximum price per gallon established under this regulation. Such an invoice shall be furnished to the buyer prior to payment.

(d) Transportation charges. (1) The prices specified in paragraphs (a), (b), and (c) above for Zones 1, 2, and 3 are delivered prices, except that in the case of sales by resellers in 50–55 gallon containers, the buyer may be required to pay transportation charges in excess of $3.00 per container, unless, during the three-month period ending February 2, 1942, it was the seller's custom to pay the entire cost of transportation on sales in containers of 50–55 gallons to buyers in the same locality. Where the buyer is required to pay any part of the transportation charges, such part shall be separately stated by the seller on an invoice which he shall furnish to the buyer prior to payment.

(2) The prices specified in paragraphs (a), (b), and (c) above for Zone 4 are delivered prices where the shipment is made by a manufacturer.

(3) Prices specified in paragraphs (a), (b), and (c) above for Zone 4 are f. o. b. seller's shipping point, where the shipment is made:

(i) by a reseller located in one of the four terminal cities:

Los Angeles, Calif.
San Francisco, Calif.
Portland, Ore.
Seattle, Wash.

(ii) or by a reseller located elsewhere selling from stock received directly from a manufacturer.

(4) In the case of a reseller not located in a terminal city, selling from stock not received directly from a manufacturer, the maximum prices for Zone 4 shall be the maximum prices established in paragraphs (a), (b), and (c), f. o. b. seller's shipping point, plus the transportation cost per gallon, paid by him, which may not, however, exceed the transportation cost per gallon he would have paid if the material had been shipped to him by the shortest rail route from that terminal city to which rail freight rates are lowest. Where more than one transportation rate is applicable to stocks of the seller, the transportation costs per gallon included in the price charged shall be computed on a first in-first out basis. Added transportation costs shall be separately stated by the seller on an invoice which he shall furnish the buyer prior to payment.

(e) Containers. No charges may be made for containers except as specified in paragraphs (a), (b), or (c) above. The seller may require a reasonable deposit for the purpose of assuring the return of containers of 5 gallons capacity or more, or may require the buyer to supply in advance of shipment containers necessary for the packaging of the carbon tetrachloride or blends thereof ordered. If the seller requires a deposit on containers for the purpose of assuring their return, such deposit must be repaid to the buyer upon the return within a reasonable time of the container in good condition, reasonable wear and tear excepted. Costs with respect to the transportation of empty containers to the seller shall, in all cases, be borne by the seller. On any shipment of carbon tetrachloride or blends thereof as to which the seller requires the return or furnishing of containers, the maximum price for the carbon tetrachloride or blend thereof in the shipment as established in paragraphs (a), (b), or (c) above shall be reduced by the "reasonable value of the containers."

Where containers are furnished by the buyer, or where a deposit is required to assure the return of containers, the amount deducted for the "reasonable value of the containers" from the maximum prices established by paragraphs (a), (b), or (c) shall be separately stated by the seller on an invoice which he shall furnish to the buyer prior to payment.

The "reasonable value of a container" shall be:

(1) The specific dollar-and-cents maximum price, if any, established by any applicable regulation of the Office of Price Administration for an emptied container of the same kind which has not been reconditioned for reuse, f. o. b. the buyer's plant or,

(2) If no such specific dollar-and-cents maximum price has been established, the amount per container by which the replacement costs of the same kind of new container delivered to the plant of the seller who packaged the carbon tetrachloride or blend thereof exceeds the sum of the following:

(i) The average cost of reconditioning like used containers for reuse, and

(ii) The average cost of transporting such used containers to his plant.

[4] 7 F.R. 8961; 8 F.R. 3313, 3533, 6173.

Until the end of the first full calendar month following August 5, 1943, the average cost of transportation and of reconditioning may be estimated if no actual costs are available for the preceding month. For the next calendar three-month period the average cost of transportation and reconditioning shall be computed as equal to the actual average cost of these items during such first full calendar month. For every calendar three-month period thereafter, the average cost of transportation and of reconditioning shall be computed as equal to the actual average cost of these items during the calendar three-month period immediately preceding.

Effective Date

This regulation shall become effective August 5, 1943.

NOTE: All reporting and record keeping requirements of this regulation have been approved by the Bureau of the Budget in accordance with the Federal Reports Act of 1942.

PART 1394—RATIONING OF FUEL AND FUEL PRODUCTS

[RO 5F]

MILEAGE RATIONING: GASOLINE REGULATIONS FOR THE TERRITORY OF HAWAII

Preamble: Hawaii was the first section of the United States to institute gasoline rationing. One day after the beginning of war, the motorists of Hawaii learned the effects that a sudden curtailment of transportation by the private automobile can have. The speed with which rationing was instituted necessarily meant that subsequent changes based on wider experience would have to be made, since it was more important at that time to cut the over-all consumption of gasoline than to provide for equitable distribution through detailed regulations. From that date to July 1, 1943, the regulations of the Military Governor first, and after March 10, 1943, those of the Office of Price Administration have approached the mainland system of rationing. The final step of adopting a Territory-wide modified form of mileage rationing is, therefore, only the logical culmination of the various rationing systems in effect on each island.

§ 1394.9205 Rationing of gasoline in the Territory of Hawaii. Under the authority vested in the Office of Price Administration and the Price Administrator of Executive Order 9125 issued by the President on April 7, 1942, by Directive 1 and Supplementary Directive 1-Q of the War Production Board, issued January 24 and November 6, 1942, respectively, and under the authority vested in me by General Order No. 48 of the Price Administrator, issued March 5, 1943, this Ration Order 5F (Mileage Rationing: Gasoline Regulations for the Territory of Hawaii), which is annexed hereto and made a part hereof, is hereby issued.

AUTHORITY: § 1394.9205 issued under Pub. Law 671, 76th Cong. as amended by Pub. Laws 89, 421 and 507, 77th Cong.; E.O. 9125, 7 F.R. 2719; W.P.B. Dir. 1, 7 F.R. 562, Supp Dir. 1-Q, 7 F.R. 9121, General Order No. 48, 8 F.R. 2898.

Article III—Administration, Personnel and Jurisdiction

SEC. 3.1 Personnel. (a) Ration Order No. 5F shall be administered by the Office of Price Administration through its Boards and other administrative personnel as it may select. The persons appointed to administer this order shall have the powers and duties set out herein, and as the Office of Price Administration may from time to time delegate.

(b) The persons referred to in paragraph (a) may be assisted in the issuance of rations by persons appointed to act as registrars and issuing agents.

SEC. 3.2. Jurisdiction of Boards over issuance of rations. (a) For purposes of Ration Order No. 5F, a Board, other than a plant area board or a commercial board, shall have jurisdiction over:

(1) The issuance of rations for all motor vehicles normally stationed or garaged in the area which the Board is designated to serve. Rations for fleet or official passenger automobiles may, at the option of the applicant, be issued by the Board having jurisdiction of the area in which an office is maintained for directing the operations of the vehicles.

(2) The issuance of non-highway rations for all uses performed in the Board's area.

(b) A plant area board shall have jurisdiction over the issuance of rations for the vehicles of workers employed in the establishment which the board serves.

(c) A commercial board shall have jurisdiction over the issuance of rations for operators of fleets of commercial motor vehicles in the county or island which it has been designated to serve.

(d) A Board may not issue a ration for a vehicle to an applicant who has already received a ration for the same vehicle from another Board, unless he has changed his residence or employment and has thereby left the area or the plant served by the Board which issued him a ration. No person may receive or use a ration issued by a Board which does not have jurisdiction over its issuance.

(e) The Director may use issuing agents for granting temporary or emergency rations and for the first issuance of all rations under this order. Rations granted by an issuing agent may be reviewed, revoked in whole or in part, or increased by the Board having jurisdiction over the vehicle.

Article IV—Basic Rations

SEC. 4.1. Basic rations. A basic ration may be obtained for use with a registered passenger automobile or a registered motorcycle for the period beginning with the effective date of this order, or the date of issuance of the ration, whichever is later, and ending with the last day of the eighth calendar month (in the case of passenger automobiles) or the twelfth calendar month (in the case of motorcycles) from the effective date of this order. No basic ration, however, shall be issued for use with a passenger automobile or motorcycle which is:

(a) Owned or leased by a Federal, Territorial, local or foreign government or government agency; or

(b) Part of a fleet of passenger automobiles or motorcycles; or

(c) Held by a motor vehicle dealer for sale; or

(d) A passenger automobile available for public rental.

SEC. 4.2. Basic ration books. Class A and Class D books marked "basic", shall be issued as basic rations. Class A books are issued for passenger automobiles and Class D books for motorcycles. Each book will originally contain thirty-two (32) coupons. Each coupon in a basic ration book has a value of one unit. Coupons in Class A books shall be valid for the transferring of gasoline to a consumer during the periods indicated below.

Coupons numbered:	Valid period
3--	July 1 through August 31, 1943
4--	September 1 through October 31, 1943
5--	November 1 through December 31, 1943
6--	January 1 through February 29, 1944

For any island on which the effective date of this order is later than July 1, 1943, the valid period for each numbered coupon shall be postponed for the number of months by which the effective date is later than July 1, 1943. Coupons in basic Class D books shall be valid for the transfer of gasoline to a consumer for a period of twelve calendar months after the date upon which this order becomes effective on each island.

SEC. 4.3 Application for and issuance of basic rations. (a) Application for a basic ration book shall be made on OPA Form R–534. The period of time during which basic rations may be issued by issuing agents may be extended by the Office of Price Administration, its Boards or such other administrative personnel as it may select. Thereafter, applications shall be made to a Board. A separate application shall be made for each passenger automobile or motorcycle for which a basic ration is sought.

(b) The application must be personally signed by the registered owner of the vehicle for which the ration is sought. If he is physically unable to sign, or is outside the Board's jurisdiction, the Board may accept an application signed by his authorized agent.

(c) Each applicant for a basic ration shall state on his application:

(1) The serial numbers of all tires mounted (including one spare) on the vehicle for which application is made;

(2) The number and serial numbers of passenger-type tires (excluding motorcycle tires but including scrap tires) which are owned by the registered owner of the vehicle or by any person related to him and living in his household, in excess of those mounted on motor vehicles or equipment (including one spare per motor vehicle) which are capable of being used.

(i) The applicant should not list tires which he holds for resale or as a scrap dealer for the purpose of reclaiming or otherwise processing them.

(3) The speedometer reading of his vehicle as of the date of application.

(d) A basic ration shall not be issued to an applicant unless he agrees in writing to sell his excess passenger-type tires to any government agency, to any dealer or to any person whenever required to do so by the Office of Price Administration. He shall be required to sell, however, only if the purchaser offers to pay him the maximum price established by the Office of Price Administration for the tire.

(e) A Board or issuing agent shall remove from any Class A book which it issues all expired coupons and one currently valid coupon for each full eight days which have elapsed in the valid period during which the book is issued. A Board or issuing agent shall remove one coupon from a basic D Book for each full eight days which have elapsed since the effective date of this order.

Article V—Supplemental Rations

SEC. 5.1. Supplemental rations. (a) The following coupon books may be issued by a Board as supplemental rations to the owner or person entitled to the use of a registered passenger automobile or registered motorcycle (other than those specified in section 5.2), to provide for occupational mileage driven in such vehicle by anyone.

(1) Class B or Class C coupon books for use with passenger automobiles.

(2) Class D coupon books marked "supplemental" for use with motorcycles.

(b) When issued as a supplemental ration, Class B books shall contain 16 coupons, and Class C and D books shall contain the number of coupons specified in the tables set forth in section 5.5, necessary to provide the mileage allowed by the Board.

(c) Applicants for supplemental rations are deemed to have 75 miles per month of occupational driving available by using their basic rations; and supplemental rations may only be issued to provide occupational mileage allowed by a board in excess of 75 miles per month. The applicant may not deduct the 75 miles in stating his required occupational mileage since the deduction is automatically made when the Board applies the tables set forth in section 5.5, under which supplemental rations are issued.

SEC. 5.2. Passenger automobiles or motorcycles for which supplemental rations may not be issued. Supplemental rations may not be issued for use with a passenger automobile or motorcycle for which no basic ration has been issued.

SEC. 5.3. Application for supplemental ration. (a) Application for a supplemental ration may be made on OPA Form R–535. The application must be signed by the owner or a person entitled to the use of a registered passenger automobile or registered motorcycle. An individual's application may not be signed by an agent. A separate application must be made for each vehicle.

(b) An applicant shall establish the average monthly occupational mileage driven within the Territory and required for each of the following purposes, for the three-month period beginning with the date on which such ration is required:

(1) Driving between home and a fixed place of work in connection with the principal occupation of the applicant or principal user of the vehicle;

(2) Driving in the course of such principal occupation;

(3) Driving to and from or in the course of any other occupation or occupations for which the vehicle is used.

(c) When two or more passenger automobiles are owned by relatives living in the same household, all applications for supplemental rations for the vehicles shall be submitted at the same time. When two or more vehicles are used in a ride-sharing arrangement, separate applications shall be made for each vehicle. Each application shall include only the mileage driven in that vehicle and, if the vehicles are all in one Board's jurisdiction, they must all be submitted to it at the same time. If the vehicles are within the jurisdiction of different Boards, each application must be accompanied by duplicate copies of the applications of the other vehicles used in the ride-sharing arrangement.

SEC. 5.4. Allowance of mileage. (a) Occupational mileage shall be allowed by a Board for an allowed occupational purpose if the applicant establishes, either:

(1) That a bona fide ride-sharing arrangement has been made by which at least four persons (including the operator) will regularly be carried in the vehicle for the purpose of going to and from, or carrying on their occupations and that transportation is needed for such purpose; Provided, That each person must certify to his participation in the ride-sharing arrangement by signing the application; or

(2) That no such ride-sharing arrangement could reasonably be made, but that the vehicle carries as many persons as could be expected in the light of the circumstances in which it is used; that transportation is needed for such purpose; and that no alternative means of transportation are available which would be reasonably adequate for such purpose.

(i) An applicant may establish that four or more persons cannot regularly be carried in the vehicle for which application is made by showing: the limited capacity of the vehicle; the necessity of traveling at unusual or irregular hours; the necessity of traveling over routes not feasible for other persons who might be carried; or such other reasons as the Board may find sufficient.

(ii) An applicant may establish the lack of reasonably adequate alternative means of transportation by showing the unavailability of other public or private means of transportation; or by showing that such alternative means, if available, are inadequate by reason of location, schedules or over-crowded conditions, by reason of the physical disability of the person needing transportation, by reason of the nature of the work for which transportation is needed, or for such other reason as the Board may find sufficient.

(iii) If the applicant or principal user is employed at a power generation or transmission facility, public utility, transportation or communication facility, or agricultural, construction, industrial, military or naval establishment at which more than 100 persons are employed, an application for a ration to be used for transporting the applicant to and from such place of employment must be certified to by an official in charge of an organized transportation plan at such establishment. The Office of Price Administration may postpone the requirements of this paragraph until such establishments have had an opportunity to set up their organized transportation committees.

(iv) An application for a supplemental ration for a vehicle used in connection with a non-gainful occupation must be certified to by a responsible official of the organization, for which the work is being performed.

(b) Upon the basis of the application and other facts that the Board may require, the Board shall allow mileage for any of the allowed occupational purposes, with respect to which the applicant has established the facts required by paragraph (a). The Board shall allow only that portion of the claimed mileage (in the absence of a ride-sharing arrangement) for which the applicant has established the inadequacy of alternative means of transportation. The Board shall then determine the total occupational mileage per month required by the applicant and allowed by it for a three-months period and shall issue a supplemental ration to provide such mileage. The Board may not allow an average of more than 395 miles per month, for any occupational mileage other than for "preferred mileage" as defined in section 5.6 or for additional mileage allowed under section 5.7.

(c) A Board having jurisdiction over an area which has been determined by the Director to be adequately served by public transportation, shall allow mileage claimed with respect to which a ride-sharing arrangement has been made, only if the applicant establishes that the available public transportation would not be reasonably adequate for the purpose for which the mileage is claimed.

(d) The Board shall deduct from the mileage it allows for a passenger automobile 75 miles per month for each additional passenger automobile (other than a fleet passenger automobile) owned by the applicant or by any relative living in his household, if the Board finds that such automobile is available to and adequate for the use of the applicant. An automobile is not available to the applicant if it is used, to a substantial extent, for an occupational purpose of another person; nor is it available to the applicant during the effective period of a supplemental ration issued to another person whose mileage allowance has been reduced on account of such automobile.

SEC. 5.5 Issuance of supplemental rations. (a) Supplemental rations shall be issued to provide the total mileage allowed by the Board in accordance with sections 5.4 or 5.7.

(1) For a passenger automobile:

(i) For mileage of 395 miles per month or less; one Class B book having the valid period specified in Table I for the mileage allowed;

(ii) For mileage exceeding 395 miles per month; one or more Class C books bearing expiration dates three months from the date of issuance and containing the number of coupons specified in Table II for the mileage allowed.

(2) For a motorcycle: One or more Class D books marked "Supplemental," bearing expiration dates three months from the date of issuance and containing the number of coupons specified in Tables 1 or 2 to provide the mileage allowed by the Board.

(b) The Board shall remove and cancel all coupons in Class C or D books in excess of the number to be issued.

(c) For the purposes of paragraph (a), a passenger automobile is conclusively presumed to operate 15 miles, and a motorcycle 40 miles, per gallon of gasoline.

The applicant must present a statement from the circulation manager of the newspaper by which he is employed, setting forth:

(1) The area in which the applicant is engaged in maintaining such distribution system;

SEC. 6.1 Official and fleet rations for passenger automobiles and motorcycles. (a) The following coupon books and coupons, for use with registered passenger automobiles and registered motorcycles which are owned or leased by a Federal, Territorial, local or foreign government or government agency (other than by the armed forces of the United States) or which are part of a fleet shall be issued by a Board as rations to persons entitled to receive them under the provisions of section 6.2 to the extent that such mileage is allowed in accordance with section 6.4:

(1) Class B or Class C coupon books for use with passenger automobiles;

(2) Class D coupon books marked "official" or "fleet" for use with motorcycles;

(3) Bulk coupons issued pursuant to section 10.7 (a);

(4) A gasoline certificate issued pursuant to section 10.7 (b).

(b) When issued as an official or fleet ration, Class B books shall contain 16 (sixteen) coupons, and Class C and D books shall contain the number of coupons specified in the tables set forth in section 6.5, necessary to provide the mileage allowed by the Board. Coupons contained in the books shall authorize the transfer of gasoline to consumers only during the valid period of the book as noted thereon. Class B rations and books shall be valid only during the period ascertained under section 6.5. Class C and official or fleet Class D rations and books shall be valid during a period of three months commencing on the date of issuance.

SEC. 6.2 Persons entitled to official or fleet rations. (a) The owner or the person entitled to the use of an official motor vehicle may obtain an "official" ration and the owner or the person entitled to the use of a passenger automobile or motorcycle which is part of a fleet may obtain a "fleet" ration providing for occupational mileage to the extent allowed by a Board.

(b) Official or fleet rations shall not be issued for a passenger automobile or motorcycle held for sale by a motor vehicle dealer. Fleet rations shall not be issued for use with a passenger automobile available for public rental for seven consecutive days or less.

SEC. 6.3. Application for official and fleet rations. (a) Applications fo official and fleet rations shall be made to a Board on OPA Form R-551. An application may cover one or more vehicles and may be signed by an agent. An applicant shall establish the average monthly occupational mileage within the Territory required for each vehicle covered in the application, or required for each of a group of vehicles used interchangeably for carrying on the same or related occupations during the three-month period for which the ration is required.

(b) Each applicant for a fleet ration shall state:

(1) The serial numbers of all tires mounted (including one spare) on the vehicle for which application is made;

(2) The number and serial numbers of passenger-type tires (excluding motorcycle tires but including scrap tires) which are owned by the registered owner of the vehicle, in excess of those mounted on motor vehicles or equipment (including one spare per motor vehicle) which are capable of being used.

(i) The applicant should not list tires which he holds for resale or as a scrap dealer for the purpose of reclaiming or otherwise processing them.

(c) No fleet ration shall be issued to an applicant unless he agrees in writing to sell his excess passenger-type tires to any agency of the government, to any tire dealer, or to any other person whenever requested to do so by the Office of Price Administration. He shall be required to sell, however, only if the purchaser offers to pay him the maximum price for the tire as established in price schedules of the Office of Price Administration.

SEC. 6.4. Allowance of mileage. (a) No occupational mileage shall be allowed by a Board unless the applicant establishes either:

(1) That transportation is needed for such occupational purposes, and that no alternative means of transportation are available which would be reasonably adequate within the meaning of section 5.4; or

(2) That a bona fide ride-sharing arrangement has been made in connection with the use of the vehicle or vehicles for such purposes, pursuant to which at least four persons (including the driver) will regularly be carried in the vehicle in connection with their occupations, and that transportation is required for such purposes. The names and addresses of all persons (other than the drivers of the vehicles) who are participating in the ride-sharing arrangement shall be set forth on separate sheets and attached to the application.

(b) Subject to the provisions of paragraph (a), the Board shall allow the total average occupational mileage per month determined by it to be required for driving during the three-month period beginning with the date on which the ration is required, and shall issue a ration in accordance with the provisions of section 6.5, to provide such mileage. No Board may allow an average of more than 395 miles per month for any vehicle nor any average of more than 395 miles per month per vehicle for any group of vehicles for any occupational mileage other than "preferred" mileage.

SEC. 6.5. Issuance of fleet and official rations. (a) Official and fleet rations shall be issued to provide the total mileage allowed by the Board.

In the event allowed mileage exceeds 960 miles, one additional coupon shall be issued for each 20 miles, or fraction thereof, of allowed mileage in excess of 960 miles. Additional books may be issued if necessary to provide additional coupons.

(1) For a passenger automobile:

(i) For mileage of 395 miles per month or less: Class B Books having the valid period specified in Table III for the mileage allowed;

(ii) For mileage exceeding 395 miles per month: Class C books bearing expiration dates three months from the date of issuance, and containing the number of coupons specified in Table IV for the mileage allowed.

(2) For a motorcycle: Class D books marked "fleet" or "official", bearing expiration dates three months from the date of issuance and containing the number of coupons specified in Tables III or IV to provide the mileage allowed by the Board.

(b) The Board shall remove and cancel all coupons in Class C or Class D books in excess of the number to be issued.

(c) For the purposes of paragraph (a), a passenger automobile is conclusively presumed to operate 15 miles and a motorcycle 40 miles, per gallon of gasoline.

(d) No fleet ration shall be issued by a Board unless the registered owner of the vehicle or vehicles for which such ration is required or his responsible agent has made the certification as to the ownership of excess tires required by section 6.3.

SEC. 6.6. Interchangeable official or fleet ration books. An applicant for an official or a fleet ration may request the Board to note on the ration books issued, the name or other identification of the official vehicles or the fleet, in lieu of the registration number of a particular vehicle. The Board may grant such request with respect to any official or fleet vehicles which are used interchangeably and which bear a clearly discernible official or fleet name, identification or designation. Any book on which such an identification is noted may be used interchangeably for all official or fleet vehicles bearing the same identification.

SEC. 6.7. Issuance of rations to lessees of passenger automobiles or motorcycles available for public rental. (a) The lessee of a passenger automobile or motorcycle available for public rental who has leased the vehicle for more than seven consecutive days may apply for a ration for use with such vehicle, to provide solely for the occupational mileage to be driven during the term of the lease.

(b) The applicant shall establish the average monthly occupational mileage required for the vehicle, or required for each group of such vehicles used interchangeably for carrying on the same or related occupations, during the three-month period beginning with the date on which the ration is required, or during the remaining term of the lease, whichever is less. The application shall be made on OPA Form No. R-551.

(c) If the Board finds the facts stated on the application to be true, it shall determine the allowed mileage for the vehicle in the manner provided in section 6.4. The Board shall note on the cover of the book the name and address of the person to whom the ration is issued, and shall note both on the book and the application the date on which it expires. If the time of the lease remaining from the date of issuance of the ration is less than the valid period of the ration as determined in accordance with the provisions of section 6.5 (a), the Board shall issue a ration containing sufficient coupons for allowed mileage for the remainder of the lease, and shall remove all excess coupons from the ration book issued. In such case the expiration date of the ration shall be the date on which the lease terminates.

SEC. 6.8. Rations for official mileage of policemen. (a) Notwithstanding any other provisions of this order, any County Police Department which maintains its own gasoline storage facilities and which permitted its policemen (both regular or reserve) to draw gasoline from such facilities for their own passenger automobiles or motorcycles for official mileage prior to July 1, 1943, may include in its application for an official ration all mileage driven in the course of its business, if it meets these requirements:

(1) The Police Department shall substantiate the claimed official travel of its policemen by odometer readings taken at the beginning and end of each daily period of driving in the course of official business. Driving from home to official station shall not be considered as official travel.

(2) The Police Department shall keep records showing the number of miles driven by each policeman monthly and the number of gallons he received from its storage facilities. These records shall be available for inspection by personnel of the Office of Price Administration at any time.

(b) A County Police Department which meets the requirements of paragraph (a) may continue to transfer gasoline from its storage tanks to policemen's automobiles for official mileage.

(c) Policemen who use their own passenger automobiles or motorcycles for driving on official business for a County Police Department which has met the requirements of paragraph (a), shall not include any mileage so driven when making their own applications for supplemental rations.

Article VII—Transport Rations

SEC. 7.1. Transport rations. Transport rations shall be issued by a Board to permit the acquisition of gasoline required for the propulsion of registered and unregistered commercial motor vehicles. Transport rations shall be issued for use during fixed three-month periods, the first of which shall begin on the effective date of this order.

SEC. 7.2. Persons entitled to transport rations. The owner or the person entitled to the use of a commercial motor vehicle may obtain a transport ration for the number of gallons of gasoline required for the operation of the vehicle in the most efficient and economical manner, during the three-month period in which the ration is to be used.

SEC. 7.3. Transport ration books. (a) Except as provided in paragraphs (b) and (c), Class T–1 and T–2 coupon books shall be issued as transport rations. Coupons in these books shall each have a value of one unit. The coupons in a transport ration book authorize the transfer of gasoline to a consumer only during the periods noted thereon.

(b) Gasoline certificates on OPA Form TH R–568 shall be issued as transport rations to commercial accounts.

(c) The Director may authorize Boards to issue other types of coupons or tickets for the first three-month period in which transport rations are issued.

SEC. 7.4. Application for transport rations. Application for a transport ration shall be made on OPA Form THR–536. Application may be made by the owner or person entitled to the use of the vehicle, or by the authorized agent of either. A single application may be used for all vehicles for which the applicant seeks a transport ration.

SEC. 7.5. Issuance of transport rations. (a) The Board shall issue Class T–1 or T–2 books, gasoline certificates, or when authorized to do so, other types of gasoline coupons or tickets as a temporary transport ration, in sufficient numbers to provide the number of gallons of gasoline allowed.

(b) The Board shall, when issuing T–1 or T–2 books, remove and cancel all coupons in excess of the number required to supply the gallonage allowed, and coupons representing the amount of gasoline which may have been issued as a temporary transport ration during the applicable three-month period.

(c) The applicant may be issued bulk coupons at his request, for all or part of the gallonage allowed him if he can meet the requirements of section 10.7 (Authorization for bulk purchase).

SEC. 7.6. Transportation for equipment mounted on commercial motor vehicles. An applicant for a ration for use with a commercial motor vehicle upon which machinery or equipment is permanently attached which is operated by gasoline supplied from a fuel tank other than the fuel supply tank of the motor vehicle may set forth in his application for a transport ration the amount of gasoline needed for the operation of the machinery or equipment during the same period. The Board shall include in the transport ration issued for such vehicle a sufficient number of coupons to provide gasoline to operate the machinery or equipment during such period.

SEC. 7.7. Interchangeable transport ration books. An applicant for a transport ration for use with fleet vehicles may request the Board to note on the books issued, a name or other identifying mark in lieu of the registration number of a particular vehicle. The Board may grant the request for all vehicles which are used interchangeably if the name or other identifying mark is clearly discernable on each of the vehicles. Any book on which a fleet identification is noted may be used interchangeably for all vehicles in the fleet bearing the same identification.

Article VIII—Special Rations

SEC. 8.1. Application for special ration. (a) The owner or person entitled to the use of a motor vehicle or motorboat who needs transportation for one of the purposes specified in paragraphs (b) or (c), and whose rations issued for such vehicle or boat are not already sufficient for that purpose, may apply for a special ration. An application on behalf of an individual may not be signed by an agent. A special ration may be issued for any period up to six months from the date of application.

(b) Special rations for use with a passenger automobile or motorcycle may be issued for one or more of the following purposes:

(1) To obtain necessary medical attention or therapeutic treatment or to procure necessary food or supplies;

(2) To transport a person who is called or is serving as a juror, between his home and the place where he is required to be present for jury service;

(3) To carry persons to and from the polls for the purpose of voting at elections; to act as duly appointed election officials or poll watchers; or by a bona fide candidate for public office for purposes necessary to the prosecution of his candidacy;

(4) To carry a person delivering telephone directories. The applicant must present a statement from the telephone company or from the delivery contractor if one is employed, setting forth:

(i) That there is no practicable means of delivery except by use of passenger automobiles or motorcycles;

(ii) The minimum mileage necessary to be driven by the applicant for making such delivery.

(c) Special rations for use with any motor vehicle or motorboat may be issued for one or more of the following purposes:

(1) To operate a vehicle or boat held by a dealer, for demonstrating it to prospective purchasers. The maximum ration that may be granted for this purpose is five gallons per month for each vehicle or boat.

(2) To move a vehicle or boat to a place of storage on repossession, or on seizure by a government authority;

(3) To deliver a vehicle or boat after a bona fide sale or pursuant to a bona fide lease of three months or longer;

(4) To move a vehicle or boat between sales establishments or places of storage. The maximum ration that may be granted for this purpose is five gallons per month for each vehicle or boat.

(d) Applications shall be made on OPA Form R–552 and the application shall state, in addition to such other information as may be required:

(1) The purpose for which a special ration is sought and the period (not exceeding six months) during which the ration will be needed;

(2) The type and number of ration books already issued for the vehicle, boat or outboard motor, for which the application is made;

(3) The facts supporting the claim that transportation is necessary for the purpose;

(4) If application is made pursuant to paragraph (b) (1), the alternative means of transportation which are available and the reasons, if any, why such alternative means are not reasonably adequate for the purpose;

(5) The number of miles of driving or, in the case of a boat, the amount of gasoline claimed to be essential to the accomplishment of the purposes stated, during the period for which the special ration is needed.

SEC. 8.2. Form and issuance of special rations. If the board grants the application, it shall determine the quantity of gasoline which is essential to the applicant for acomplishment of the purpose stated, from the date of its decision to the end of the period (not exceeding six months) for which such ration is sought, and shall issue to the applicant a coupon book or books of any appropriate class, except Class A books, containing coupons in sufficient number to allow to the applicant the quantity of gasoline determined by it to be essential on the basis of the current gallonage value of a unit in such book. It shall mark "special" any book which is so issued. It shall remove from the book and cancel any coupons in excess of the number representing the gallonage which it determines should be granted in accordance with the provisions of this paragraph.

Article IX—Non-highway Rations

SEC. 9.1. Person entitled to non-highway rations. Any person who requires gasoline for a non-highway purpose may obtain a ration for the amount of gasoline needed for such purpose, except as provided in section 9.4. Non-highway rations shall be issued for any period up to six months from the date of application.

SEC. 9.2. Non-highway ration books. Class E and Class R coupon books shall be issued as non-highway rations. The coupons in these books shall each have a value of one unit, and shall be valid for the transfer of gasoline to a non-highway consumer during the period noted on such books by the Board.

SEC. 9.3. Application for non-highway ration. Application for a non-highway ration shall be made on OPA Form R–537, except that an operator of commercial motor vehicles shall apply for all his non-highway (except marine) requirements on OPA Form TH R–536. Application may be signed by an agent.

SEC. 9.4. Issuance of non-highway rations. (a) The Board shall determine the amount of gasoline required for the three-month period for which application is made and shall issue one or more Class E or Class R books, or any combination of them, containing a sufficient number of coupons to enable the applicant to acquire the amount of gasoline determined to be necessary for such period. The Board shall remove from the book and cancel any coupons in excess of the number allotted.

(b) A Board may refuse to issue a ration for the operation of machinery or equipment (other than boats or airplanes) used for athletics, recreational or amusement purposes, if in its opinion, taking into consideration the gasoline supply available, the use of gasoline for such purposes is not important to the welfare of the Territory.

(c) If the application is made for a non-highway ration for use with an inboard motorboat or outboard motor operated wholly or in part for a non-occupational purpose, the Board shall not allow for the non-occupational purpose an amount of gasoline in excess of the number of gallons determined by the following formulae:

(1) For an inboard motorboat, the number of gallons equal to two times the manufacturer's rated horsepower of the motor or motors, but in any event not more than one hundred twenty-five (125) gallons for the three-month period of the ration;

(2) For an outboard motor, the number of gallons equal to two and one-half times the manufacturer's rated horsepower of such motor, but not in excess of twenty (20) gallons for the three-month period of the ration.

The Board shall, in such case, issue a separate book for the non-occupational purpose, containing coupons in sufficient number to allow the quantity of gasoline so determined, and shall note on the book that it is issued for a non-occupational purpose. Non-occupational uses shall include the use of a motorboat or outboard motor for sightseeing, guiding pleasure parties or conducting or chartering boats for fishing parties other than commercial fishing.

(d) If application is made for a non-highway ration for operation of a gasoline engine (other than an outboard motor or an engine used to operate an airplane or an inboard motorboat) the board shall not allow more than one-tenth of one gallon of gasoline for each horsepower hour of operation set forth in the application.

Article X—General Provisions with Respect to Issuance of Rations

SEC. 10.1. Issuance of ration books by the Office of Price Administration. (a) Coupon books of all types designated in this order may be issued by the Director, in his discretion, to the Army, Navy, Marine Corps, Coast Guard and the law enforcement agencies of the United States, solely for the use of these agencies and for distribution to and use by their officers, agents, or employees in the performance of official duties which depend upon secrecy.

(b) Any agency enumerated in paragraph (a) which requires coupon books for use by its officers, agents or employees, shall make written application therefor to the Director at Honolulu, T. H., and shall state the number and type of books required, and the use for which the books are intended.

SEC. 10.2. Appearance before boards. The Board may require any applicant for a ration to appear before it for examination and to produce such witnesses or evidence as it may deem material.

SEC. 10.3. Presentation of registration certificate. No basic or special ration shall be issued for any motor vehicle unless a registration certificate authorizing the operation of the vehicle during all or part of the period for which the ration is to be issued, is presented to the issuing agent or the Board.

SEC. 10.4. Notation on registration certificates. The person issuing a basic or special ration shall make a clear notation on the back of the motor vehicle registration certificate presented by the applicant, showing the date of issuance, the class of ration and the serial number of the ration book (if any) issued.

SEC. 10.5. Notation on ration books, applications and coupons. (a) The person issuing any ration book for a registered or a commercial motor vehicle shall, unless an official or a fleet identification is used, note the registration number, if any, of the vehicle for which it is issued, and the name and address of the owner of the vehicle. The Board shall make a notation on the cover of the book (other than the basic ration) and on the application therefor, of the date on which it becomes valid and of its expiration date.

(b) At the time of issuance of a non-highway ration book, the Board shall note on the book the name and address of the applicant and the period during which the book will be valid. The valid period shall also be noted on the application.

(c) The person to whom a ration book is issued for use with a motor vehicle (other than an interchangeable book issued for an official or a fleet vehicle) shall note on the face of the book in the space provided therefor, the serial number of the Use Tax Stamp, if any, issued for such vehicle.

SEC. 10.6. Change in motor vehicle registration number. (a) The holder of a ration book issued for a registered motor vehicle (other than a ration book bearing an official or a fleet identification) shall, upon any change in the registration number of the vehicle, submit his ration book to a Board for the purpose of having the notation changed to correspond to the new registration number. The book shall be submitted to the Board within five days after the change in the registration number; the registration card showing the new number shall be presented with the book. The Board shall obliterate the registration number appearing on the book and note thereon the new registration number issued for the vehicle. Notation of the new registration card shall also be made as prescribed in section 10.4. The notation shall be countersigned or initialed by the person making the change.

(b) The holder of any book bearing an official or fleet-identification shall, upon any change in the name, identification or designation of the vehicles, submit the book to the Board which issued it for appropriate modification. The Board shall change the designation on the book to correspond with the new name, identification or designation of the vehicles.

(c) Nothing in this section shall be construed to authorize the continued use of a ration book after a change in ownership of the vehicle for which it was issued.

SEC. 10.7. Authorization of bulk purchase. (a) Any person who establishes to the satisfaction of the Board that he maintains gasoline storage facilities may request the Board to issue his rations in bulk coupons or partly in bulk coupons and partly in coupon books. He may request the Board to note on any coupon books issued to him that they may be used for bulk transfers.

(b) The Board may issue gasoline certificates to a commercial account to the extent of the gallonage it has allowed.

(c) Before issuing any bulk coupons or gasoline certificates, the Board shall first determine the type, number and expiration dates of the rations to which the applicant is entitled. It shall then issue bulk coupons or gasoline certificates (depending on what the applicant is entitled to) having a gallonage value equal to the value of the coupons to which the applicant is entitled and in lieu of which the evidences for bulk transfer are being issued. Bulk coupons and gasoline certificates shall expire on, and may not be used for the transfer of gasoline to a consumer, after the date on which the coupon books would expire. Transfers on bulk coupons may be made either by a dealer or a distributor; transfers on a gasoline certificate may be made only by a distributor.

(d) At the time of issuance of any 100 gallon bulk coupons (Form OPA R–553A) the person issuing the coupons or the applicant in the presence of the issuing officer shall write or stamp on the back of each coupon the name and address of the applicant and the date upon which the ration expires.

(e) Any person to whom coupon books authorized for bulk transfer, bulk coupons or a gasoline certificate has been issued shall keep a monthly mileage and gallonage record for each highway motor vehicle and a gallonage record for non-highway vehicles included in an application upon which the issuance of the ration was based. Reports as to the information contained in these records shall be submitted at such periods as the Director or District Manager may require.

SEC. 10.8. Lost or stolen coupon books or bulk coupons. In the event of loss, theft, destruction, or mutilation of any coupon book or bulk coupons or the wrongful withholding of the coupons from the rightful holder, the person entitled to their possession shall make application for the replacement of the book or coupons pursuant to the provisions of Procedural Regulation No. 12.[1] Where application is made for replacement of a coupon book or bulk coupons which have been lost or stolen, the Board shall waive all waiting periods provided for in paragraphs (a) and (b) of § 1300.954 of Procedural Regulation No. 12 where such requirement will result in extreme hardship upon the individual, impede essential transportation or is contrary to the public interest. Where application is made to a Board other than the one which originally issued the coupon book or bulk coupons, an additional copy shall be made to be forwarded to the Board of original issuance.

SEC. 10.9. Disposition of lost coupon books. Any person who finds a coupon book, coupon or other evidence shall surrender it to a Board within five days.

SEC. 10.10. Denial of rations. (a) No person who has refused to surrender a ration card, book, or coupon upon direction of the Board or who has refused, without good cause shown, to appear before a Board for examination, shall be entitled to obtain a ration of any type under this order.

(b) Any Board which has reason to believe that any applicant for a ration has used any other ration issued under this order or any ration order relating to gasoline which has been issued in the Territory, for a purpose other than the one for which the ration was obtained, or who has abused or neglected his tires or made a false statement in connection with an application required under this order, may refuse to issue a ration or to renew one for any such applicant and may declare that he shall not be eligible to receive a ration for such period as it shall deem appropriate in the public interest. If the Board refuses to issue or renew a ration it shall serve upon such person a written statement of the ground upon which the ration was denied, and shall state the effective period of the denial.

SEC. 10.11. Consumer declaration of gasoline on hand. A Board may require any applicant for a supplemental, fleet, official, transport or nonhighway ration to set forth on his application the amount of gasoline held by him other than gasoline in the fuel supply tank of a motor vehicle, motor boat or equipment. The Board may deduct the amount so held when issuing a ration.

Article XI—Renewal, Expiration and Redetermination of Rations

SEC. 11.1. Renewal of rations. (a) Any time within thirty days prior to the expiration of any ration, or at any time thereafter, application may be made for a renewal of a ration. It shall be made in the same manner as the original application, except as provided in paragraph (b).

(b) Application for renewal of a supplemental ration for a passenger automobile or motorcycle may be made by executing OPA Form R–543. The applicant shall show any changes in the nature or amount of his use since the date of his original application. If the applicant or principal user is employed at an establishment or facility described in section 5.4 (a) (2) (iii) such form must be certified as indicated thereon by an official in charge of an organized transportation plan at the place of employment. If the Board is satisfied that there have been no substantial changes in the applicant's gasoline needs, or in the nature, conditions and use of the motor vehicle for which the original ration was issued, it may issue a renewal without requiring execution by the applicant of a new original application.

(c) Except as provided in sections 11.2 and 11.3 no ration of any class may be renewed for use prior to (or may be used prior to) the expiration of the current ration of the same class.

SEC. 11.2. Issuance of further rations for use prior to expiration of current rations. (a) Any person who finds that a ration of any class (other than a basic ration) issued to him, fails to meet his requirements for one of the following reasons, may apply for a further ration:

(1) There has been a change in his circumstances, such as a change in his occupation or in the location of his place of work or residence;

(2) There is a seasonal variation in the amount of occupational mileage needed;

(3) The applicant miscalculated his needs when making his original application for the ration; or

(4) There has been a reduction in the unit value of a ration that he holds.

(b) The application shall be made in the same manner as the one for the current ration. The applicant shall append to his application a statement showing:

(1) That the current ration is insufficient to meet his needs for more than thirty days from the date of the application;

(2) The reason why a further ration will be needed for use prior to the expiration date of the current ration.

(c) If the Board determines that, for one or more of the reasons specified in paragraph (a), more mileage is needed or, in the case of a non-highway ration, more gasoline is required, than that stated in the application on the basis of which the current ration was issued, it may issue a new and further ration upon receiving the surrender of the former ration.

(d) No further supplemental, official or fleet ration or non-highway ration shall be granted, which would permit the applicant to exceed the maximum mileage or gallonage to which he would otherwise be entitled.

SEC. 11.3. Special cases. (a) Any person who has been issued a supplemental ration based on an allowed mileage in excess of 395 miles per month, who finds that his vehicle cannot be operated for fifteen miles (or in the case of a motorcycle, for forty miles) on a gallon of gasoline, may apply for a further ration for use prior to the expiration of his current ration.

(b) The applicant shall append to his application a statement showing:

(1) That his current ration is insufficient to meet his needs for more than thirty days from the date of the application;

(2) The nature of the use of the vehicle for which the further ration is sought and the driving conditions under which the vehicle is operated;

(3) The reason why a further ration is sought for use prior to the expiration of the current ration;

(4) That the vehicle for which the application is made is in sound mechanical condition and is being operated in such manner as to secure a maximum economy of gasoline.

(5) The Board may require the applicant to submit a statement from an auto mechanic as to the greatest efficiency which the engine is capable of.

(c) The Board may, upon receiving the surrender of the former ration, issue a new and further ration.

SEC. 11.4. Surrender of expired coupons. (a) No ration may be used and no coupon book or certificate shall be valid for the transfer of gasoline to a consumer after its expiration.

(b) The person to whom a ration has been issued shall, within five days after the expiration of the ration, surrender all unused coupons to the issuing Board.

SEC. 11.5. Expiration of rations. (a) All Class A and basic Class D coupons expire at the end of the respective valid periods provided in section 4.2. Other rations expire as noted on the books or applications.

SEC. 11.6. Expiration of rations upon cessation of use or change in ownership. (a) Upon cessation of use or change of ownership of any vehicle, boat, or equipment, any ration issued for it shall expire and all unused coupons and books must be surrendered to the issuing Board by the person to whom the ration was issued within five days after the cessation or change. The transferee of the vehicle, boat, or equipment may apply for a ration on his own behalf, in accordance with the applicable provisions of this order: Provided, That the transferee may not obtain a ration unless a bona fide transfer is involved.

(b) A person who is no longer using a ration for the purpose for which it was obtained shall surrender all unused coupons and books to the issuing Board within five days after his cessation of use.

SEC. 11.7. Coupon books property of Office of Price Administration. (a) All coupon books, bulk coupons, inventory coupons and other evidences remain the property of the Office of Price Administration. The Office of Price Administration may refuse to issue, and may suspend, cancel, revoke or recall any ration and may require the surrender and return of any coupon books, bulk coupons, inventory coupons and other evidences during suspension or pursuant to revocation or cancellation, whenever it deems it to be in the public interest to do so.

(b) In the event that any person to whom a ration has been issued is convicted by a court of competent jurisdiction of driving a motor vehicle at a speed in excess of thirty-five miles per hour, the issuing Board, upon receipt of a certified copy of the judgment of conviction may revoke the ration of such person and order him to surrender to it all his coupons or coupon books.

(c) Any ration issued to a person not entitled thereto on the basis of the facts stated in the application may be revoked by the issuing Board, and the Board may order that any coupons or coupon books issued therefor be surrendered. If the Board finds that the holder is entitled to a ration of a different class or quantity than that issued, it shall issue the ration in lieu of the one revoked.

(d) A Board may revoke all the rations of any person who refuses to sell his excess passenger-type tires in accordance with the agreement he made at the time he first received his rations.

SEC. 11.8. Revocation of ration after hearing. (a) When a Board has reason to believe that any holder of a ration has used it for a purpose other than that for which it was issued, has violated the thirty-five mile per hour speed limitation, has abused his tires, or made a false statement in any application, it or any other Board at its request may serve a written notice of hearing upon him. The notice shall be served at least three days prior to the date fixed for the hearing, and shall state the time and place of the hearing, the charges and the purpose of the hearing. If the holder of the ration admits the charges or fails to appear at the hearing, or if the Board determines on the basis of the evidence presented before it that he has committed any of the acts specified above, the Board shall by order revoke, for a period which shall be stated therein, the rations issued to him in whole or in part, and direct him to surrender to it the coupons or certificates issued to him to the extent required to make the revocation effective. If any person whose ration was revoked for failure to appear at a hearing shows good cause for such failure, within five days of the Board's order, the revocation of his ration shall be cancelled and the Board shall grant him a full hearing on the charges.

(b) The order of revocation shall promptly be served on the holder of a ration personally or by mail to his last known address. The order shall, if personally served, become effective twenty-four hours after the service, and if served by mail, three days after the date of mailing. The Board may designate one or more of its members to perform the functions described in this section.

(c) Any person against whom an order of revocation has been issued may, within fifteen days after its effective date, appeal by filing a statement of objections to the order with the Board which issued it. Within three days after the receipt of the statement the Board shall forward it, together with a copy of the notice instituting the proceedings, a copy of the record, if any, and a copy of the Board's order to the Hearing Commissioner having jurisdiction over the Board's area. Within five days after the receipt of the statement the Hearing Commissioner shall notify the respondent and the Regional Attorney of the time and place set for the hearing. The appeal shall be heard and determined pursuant to the provisions of § 1300.169 of Procedural Regulation No. 4[2] and amendments thereto.

(d) Whenever a Board's order of revocation is rescinded or modified, the Board shall take whatever action is necessary to put the decision into effect.

SEC. 11.9. Effective period of order revoking ration. Whenever a Board has revoked the ration of a ration holder in whole or in part, no ration shall be issued to him or to any other person for his use, and no ration already issued to him or to any other person for his use shall be renewed during the period of revocation, except in accordance with the provisions of the order.

SEC. 11.10. Notations on revocations of rations. Whenever a ration is revoked in whole or in part and the ration holder has been directed to surrender any coupons or certificates, he shall, if the ration was issued for the operation of a motor vehicle, present its registration certificate to the Board. The Board shall note on the back of the registration certificate that the ration has been revoked, or if it has been revoked in part, the extent of its action.

Article XII—Restrictions on Transfers

SEC. 12.1. Restriction on transfer to consumers. Notwithstanding the terms of any contract, agreement or commitment, regardless of when made, no person other than a dealer or distributor shall transfer gasoline to a consumer, and no consumer shall accept a transfer of gasoline from a person other than a dealer or a distributor, except as may be specifically provided in other sections of this order.

SEC. 12.2. Transfers to consumers. Notwithstanding the terms of any contract, agreement or commitment, regardless of when made, a dealer or distributor may transfer gasoline to a consumer, and a consumer may accept such transfer of gasoline only in exchange for valid evidences.

SEC. 12.3. Transfers to consumers in exchange for coupons. (a) Coupons in books issued for registered and commercial motor vehicles. Transfers may be made and accepted in exchange for coupons contained in Class A, B, C, D, T–1 or T–2 books, only under the following conditions:

(1) At the time of transfer, the transferor must require presentation of the coupon book and must detach from it coupons having an aggregate unit value equal to the amount of gasoline transferred. The transferor shall detach an entire coupon even if the transferee is able to accept only part of the amount of gasoline represented by the unit value of a coupon. No transfer may be made under this paragraph in exchange for a coupon detached prior to the presentation of the book to the transferor.

(2) Transfer may be made only into the fuel tank of a motor vehicle identified on the coupon book presented and only if the sticker corresponding to the class of book represented is displayed on the right hand side of the vehicle's windshield, except that on presentation of a Class A book, transfer may be made into the fuel tank of a motor vehicle on which a Class B or C sticker is displayed. A bulk transfer may be made in exchange for a coupon in a book only if there is a notation on the book that a bulk transfer is authorized. A bulk transfer of gasoline not in excess of one unit may also be made to enable a vehicle stranded for lack of fuel to reach a source of supply, but the transferor shall retain the ration book until the vehicle is brought to him for identification.

(3) Transfer may be made only during the valid period on the cover of the book presented, or in the case of a Class A book, only during the period of validity of the coupon in exchange for which the transfer is to be made.

(b) Coupons in non-highway books. Bulk transfer may be made in exchange for coupons contained in Class E and R books, under the following conditions:

(1) At the time of transfer, the transferor must require presentation of the coupon book and must detach coupons having an aggregate unit value equal to the number of gallons of gasoline transferred. No transfer may be made in exchange for a coupon detached prior to the presentation of a coupon book to the transferor.

(2) No transfer in exchange for coupons in a Class E or R book may be knowingly made for use in a registered motor vehicle, commercial motor vehicle or the fuel supply tank of machinery or equipment mounted on a commercial motor vehicle.

(c) Bulk coupons. Transfer may be made in exchange for bulk coupons as follows:

(1) The transferor must require surrender, at the time of transfer, of bulk coupons having a value in gallons equal to the number of gallons of gasoline transferred.

(i) When any delivery of gasoline is made in the absence of the transferor or his agent, by barge or tank car, or in the absence of the transferee or his agent coupons need not be surrendered simultaneously with delivery, but must be forwarded to the transferor within seven days after delivery.

(2) Transfer may be made only in exchange for bulk coupons which are issued on OPA Form R–553a or OPA Form R–554a. No dealer may transfer gasoline in exchange for 100 gallon bulk coupons, and no dealer shall have any such coupons in his possession (except those which have been issued to him by a Board as his own ration), unless he regularly engages in bulk sales of gasoline in units of 100 gallons or more.

[2] 8 F.R. 1744, 2035.

(d) Gasoline certificates. Transfer may be made by a distributor pursuant to a valid gasoline certificate only into the storage tanks of the commercial account to whom the certificate was issued.

SEC. 12.4. Transfer of vehicle, boat or equipment. Nothing in this order shall be deemed to forbid the transfer of gasoline in the fuel supply tank of a vehicle, boat or equipment, in conjunction with a lawful and bona fide transfer of the vehicle, boat or equipment.

SEC. 12.5 Transfer of consumer establishments: transfer by operation of law. (a) Nothing in this order shall be deemed to forbid the transfer of gasoline actually in a storage tank maintained by a consumer as part of an enterprise, in conjunction with a lawful and bona fide transfer of the enterprise itself, or a transfer of gasoline by operation of law.

(b) Any person to whom a transfer of the character described above is made, shall report the amount of gasoline involved to the Board serving the area in which the gasoline is located. The transferee may either:

(1) Transfer all or any part of the gasoline in exchange for coupons or other evidences having a value equal to the number of gallons of gasoline so transferred. He must thereupon surrender the coupons or other evidences to the Board for cancellation; or

(2) He may consume the gasoline to the extent of any rations which have been issued to him. He may use it only for the purpose for which the ration was issued and shall surrender to the Board for cancellation, coupons equal in value to the amount of gasoline consumed.

SEC. 12.6. Signature on coupon book. No coupon book may be used until the person to whom it is issued has signed the certification provided for therein.

SEC. 12.7. Change of occupation of ration holder. The holder of a ration which is based on allowed mileage in excess of 395 miles per month shall report to the issuing Board any change in the principal occupation for which the ration was issued. The holder shall submit his report to the Board within five days after the change, describing fully the nature of his new occupation, the exact type of work performed, the business or industry in which it is performed and the purpose, if any, for which the vehicle will be used in his new occupation. If the Board believes that the motor vehicle will no longer be used for a preferred purpose listed in section 5.6, it shall notify the holder in writing that his right to the ration is to be re-examined. The notice shall require him to file a new application within ten days. If no new application is filed within that time, the Board shall revoke the ration and shall recall all Class C books or coupons (or Class D books or coupons based on an allowed mileage in excess of 395 miles per month) issued in connection therewith. If a new application is filed, the Board shall determine the eligibility for a preferred purpose listed in section 5.6 and if it finds that the vehicle will no longer be eligible, it shall revoke the ration and recall the coupons or coupon book originally issued. It shall then issue the rations that the holder is entitled to receive on the basis of his new application.

SEC. 13.1. Registration of inventory and capacity. (a) Every dealer shall take a physical inventory of his total gasoline supplies on hand as of the close of business on the day preceding the effective date of this Order and shall, within the next two days register on OPA Form R–545 with the Board serving the area in which his place of business is located.

(b) Separate registration shall be made by the dealer for each place of business operated by him at which gasoline is transferred, and shall be made at each respective Board having jurisdiction over the place of business.

SEC. 13.2. What constitutes gasoline on hand. The registrant shall register all gasoline on hand, whether in storage tanks, tank trucks, tank cars, drums or other containers, except gasoline in the fuel tank of a motor vehicle.

SEC. 13.3. What constitutes gasoline storage capacity. The registrant shall register the total capacity of all immobile gasoline storage facilities, but not the capacity of tank trucks, tank wagons, drums or other movable containers. However, a dealer who maintains no stationary gasoline storage tanks shall register the total capacity of all his delivery facilities.

[1] 8 F.R. 3783, 5677.

SEC. 13.4. Issuance of registration certificates. The Board upon being satisfied that the information submitted by the registrant is correct, shall by authorized signature approve the certificate, file Part B and return Part A to the registrant who shall retain it as a certificate of registration at the place of business to which it applies.

SEC. 13.5. Issuance of inventory coupons. (a) The Board shall issue to the registrant inventory coupons in an amount equal to the number of gallons, if any, by which the total gasoline storage capacity for each place of business exceeds the total inventory of gasoline on hand. A one hundred gallon inventory coupon or a quantity of Class A coupons may at any time subsequent to registration be exchanged at any Board by a dealer for an equivalent amount of one gallon inventory coupons.

SEC. 13.6. Restriction on use of inventory coupons. (a) Every dealer shall retain all inventory coupons issued to him at the place of business for which they were issued, and shall not exchange his inventory coupons except to the extent that any delivery exceeds the amount of consumer coupons or other evidences available for exchange. One gallon inventory coupons, however, may be used to make up the difference between the number of gallons in any delivery and the number of gallons represented by the sum of the values of consumer coupons or other evidences.

(b) Every dealer shall clearly write or stamp on the reverse side of each inventory coupon issued to him, the name and address of his establishment as shown on the certificate of registration, and no inventory coupons shall be used in exchange for gasoline unless these notations appear on the coupon.

SEC. 13.7. Restrictions on transfers. Except as provided in section 13.8, no dealer shall transfer or shall receive a transfer of gasoline from any other dealer or distributor except in exchange for a quantity of coupons or other evidences, at or before the time of the actual delivery of the gasoline, which is exactly equal in gallonage value to the amount of the gasoline transferred. Evidences shall not be exchanged for transfers of gasoline between distributors.

SEC. 13.8. Absentee and third party deliveries. (a) Where a distributor delivers gasoline during hours when the transferee is not open for business, the transferee shall, where the exact amount to be delivered is known in advance, mail or deliver evidences to the distributor in advance, or at the discretion of the distributor, within twenty-four hours of delivery, equal in gallonage value to the amount, or adjusted amount of the delivery.

(b) Where gasoline is delivered to a dealer by common or contract carrier, or where the billing for gasoline transferred is not received by the transferee at the same time as, or prior to receipt of the gasoline, the transferee shall, where the exact amount of the delivery is known in advance, mail or deliver evidences to his distributor equal in gallonage value to the amount of the delivery, or he may, at the transferor's discretion, forward the evidences to the transferor within five days after receipt of the delivery.

SEC. 13.9. Upstream transfers. (a) Any distributor who receives a transfer or return of gasoline from a dealer, other than in connection with a transfer to him of the place of business of the dealer, shall deliver to the dealer a quantity of his accumulated coupons or other evidences equal in gallonage value to the amount of gasoline so transferred or returned.

(b) Any dealer who receives a transfer or return of gasoline from a consumer, other than in connection with a transfer to him of the consumer's place of business, shall deliver to his board a quantity of evidences equal in gallonage value to the quantity of gasoline so transferred or returned, together with a signed statement in duplicate setting forth the name and address of the consumer from whom the gasoline was acquired and the quantities so acquired.

(c) Any distributor who receives a transfer or return of gasoline from a consumer, other than in connection with a transfer to him of the consumer's place of business, shall submit a signed statement in duplicate to the Board setting forth the name and address of the consumer and the quantity of gasoline acquired, whenever he remits his accumulated evidences in return for an exchange certificate. The Board shall issue an exchange certificate equal to the difference between the gallonage value of the evidences remitted and the gallonage of the returned gasoline.

(d) The Board shall retain the original of such statement in its files, and shall forward the duplicate thereof, through the Director, to the Board having jurisdiction over the area in which such consumer is located, as shown on such statement. Any consumer who transfers or returns gasoline to a dealer or distributor may, if the gasoline so transferred or returned represents all or part of a ration issued to such consumer, apply, on the appropriate form, to the Board for reissuance of such ration or part thereof. Such application shall contain a statement of the nature and quantity of the ration originally issued, the name and address of the dealer or distributor to whom gasoline was transferred or returned, the quantity of gasoline so transferred or returned, and a certification as to the truth of such statements. If the Board finds that the consumer transferred or returned to a dealer or distributor gasoline originally issued to the consumer as a ration, that such ration has not yet expired, and that the consumer still requires such ration, it shall issue to the consumer coupon books or coupons of the same type as the ration originally issued equal in gallonage value to the quantity of gasoline so transferred or returned. The Board, at the time of issuance of such coupon books or coupons shall, in addition to such other notations as may be required, note on the face of the coupon books issued, and on the application, the expiration date of the ration, which shall be the same expiration date as that applicable to the ration originally issued.

SEC. 13.10. Preservation of coupons. Each dealer and distributor shall affix all coupons received by him in exchange for transfers or returns of gasoline to coupon sheets on OPA Form R–120. Only coupons which are of the same class or type and which were received at the same unit value shall be affixed to a single sheet.

SEC. 13.11. Summary of coupons. Each dealer shall, prior to every delivery by him of coupons or other evidences to a transferor of gasoline prepare OPA Form R–541, Summary of Coupons, in duplicate, certifying the number of each type of coupon and the number of evidences to be delivered. He shall turn over to the transferor the original of this summary attached to his coupons and other evidences, and shall retain the copy at his place of business for a period of not less than one year. All summaries received by a distributor shall be recapitulated in his own summary, equalling the total gallonage represented by all coupons and other evidences (less the gallonage represented by exchange certificates) forwarded by him. The summaries received from dealers shall be included with the attached coupons and other evidences when forwarded by the distributor.

SEC. 13.12. Exchange of coupons for certificates. A distributor may at any time deliver to a Board coupons or other evidences and obtain in return exchange certificates equal to the gallonage value of the valid coupons or other evidences remitted. The remitter shall attach a Summary of Coupons on OPA Form R–541, in addition to the summaries already attached by the dealer from whom the coupons or other evidences were received.

SEC. 13.13. Surrender of expired coupons. The Director may require any dealer to exchange all coupons of any class or classes held by the dealer for exchange certificates, inventory coupons or other evidences of gallonage value within twenty-four hours after announcement of an alteration in the unit value of coupons.

SEC. 13.14. Certification of shortage. Dealers shall be permitted from time to time to apply by certification on OPA Form R–549 for replenishment for losses of gasoline through evaporation, handling, accident or other extraordinary circumstances, and for unavoidable loss of coupons or other evidences. The certification of shortage shall be submitted to the Board having jurisdiction over the dealer's establishment to which the shortage is to be attributed, and shall give a full explanation of the reasons therefor. If the Board finds that the applicant has incurred the shortages claimed, that they were not incurred as a result of any acts performed in violation of this order and that any claimed shortage of gasoline is reasonable, it shall file the certification and issue to the dealer a quantity of inventory coupons equal to the amount of the proven shortage. A copy of the certification may be retained by the dealer for his records.

Article XIV—Records and Audits

SEC. 14.1. Accountability of dealers. (a) Every dealer shall be accountable for all gasoline, coupons and other evidences received by him and shall at all times have in his possession or control coupons or other evidences having an aggregate gallonage value which, when added to the number of gallons of gasoline on hand, is equivalent in gallonage to his total gasoline storage capacity as stated in his registration filed with the Board.

(b) Every distributor shall give to a dealer to whom he is making a delivery of gasoline, an invoice, delivery ticket or other customary evidence of transfer, showing the name and address of the purchaser and the date and quantity of the purchase. The dealer shall retain the evidence so furnished him at his place of business for at least a year.

SEC. 14.2. Reports by distributors. (a) Every distributor shall prepare an additional copy of each of his monthly motor fuel tax reports (and supporting schedules) which he shall submit to the Territorial Tax Commissioner together with his usual monthly report. He shall attach to the extra copy of his report a certified statement as to the amount of gasoline delivered to each of his commercial accounts during the period covered by the report, and other evidences, which together shall represent a gallonage value equal to the total gallonage value for which he is required to account.

(b) The distributor shall also prepare in triplicate a reconciliation statement on OPA Form R–550, reconciling the difference between the gallonage value of the evidences and the statement so submitted, and the total gallonage disposed of by him as reported by the tax return. He shall attach the original and one copy of the reconciliation form to the additional copy of his tax report, and shall retain the other copy at his place of business for a period of not less than one year.

(c) Every distributor shall report his total deliveries of gasoline to dealers and consumers. The report shall be filed weekly except that the Director may require daily reports whenever he considers such information necessary to determine the status of the civilian quota for gasoline set by the Office of the Military Governor. Reports of deliveries on Oahu and Lanai shall be made to the Director; reports of deliveries on each of the other islands shall be made to the Board serving that island.

(d) Every distributor shall be accountable for all gasoline, coupons and other evidences received by him. He shall at all times have in his control evidences in a gallonage value which, when added to the gallonage represented by evidences transmitted through the Hawaii Tax Commissioner and expired gasoline certificates, shall be equivalent in gallonage value to the number of gallons of gasoline which he has transferred on or after July 1, 1943, and for which the receipt by him of coupons or other evidences is required by this order, except as theft or unavoidable loss of evidences may prevent it.

SEC. 14.3. Audit by Tax Commissioner. On completion of its usual office audit of a distributor's monthly motor fuel tax report, the Tax Commissioner's office will by authorized signature either verify or note errors on the additional copy of the tax report received by it, will inspect the reconciliation form and attached evidences in order to determine whether there are any apparent irregularities, and will retain the copy of the reconciliation form for its own files. It will then forward the additional copy of the tax return, the attached evidences and the original of the reconciliation form and supporting statements to the Director. In the event the Tax Commissioner's office discovers any error or other irregularity in the monthly report by later inspection or audits, it will notify the Director of all the facts relating to the irregularity.

Article XV—New Registrations

SEC. 15.1. Registration of new or reopened place of business. Any dealer who opens or reopens a place of business not currently registered shall, prior to receipt or transfer of any gasoline, register the place of business in the manner provided for in section 13.1, and shall be issued inventory coupons equal in gallonage value to the total capacity of his unfilled gasoline storage facilities as of the time of registration.

SEC. 15.2. Cessation of business. Any dealer who ceases to operate as such, disposes of his stocks of gasoline, and closes his place of business without transferring it to another for continued operation, shall at the time of final closing, deliver to the Board having jurisdiction over his place of business, the certificate of registration and a quantity of coupons or other evidences equal in gallonage value to the total capacity of the gasoline storage facilities of the place of business except those issued to him as a ration by the Board.

SEC. 15.3. Acquisition of dealer's place of business. Any person who acquires for continued operation for the transfer of gasoline a place of business from a dealer may accept a transfer of all gasoline on hand at the place of business. The transferee shall, at the time of acquisition, obtain from the dealer the certificate of registration for the place of business and coupons or other evidences equal in gallonage value to the unfilled gasoline storage capacity as of the time of transfer. The transferee shall immediately deliver to the Board having jurisdiction over the place of business, the certificate of registration received by him from the dealer and shall endorse his name and address on the certificate of registration and the duplicate on file with the Board. The endorsement shall constitute a certification by the transferee that he has acquired from the transferor the place of business described in the certificate, the total quantity of gasoline on hand at the place of business, and coupons or other evidences equal in gallonage value to the unfilled gasoline storage capacity of the place of business as of the time of transfer. The place of business so acquired shall be registered by the transferee in accordance with the provisions of sections 13.1 to 13.5 inclusive.

SEC. 15.4. Change of storage capacity. Any dealer who alters the total gasoline storage capacity of his place of business shall deliver for cancellation to the Board having jurisdiction over the place of business, his currently valid certificate of registration, and shall register for and obtain a new certificate. The Board shall attach to its copy of the new certificate the original and copy of the cancelled one. If the total gasoline storage capacity of the place of business is decreased, the dealer shall surrender to the Board a quantity of coupons or other evidences equal in gallonage value to the amount of the decrease. If the total gasoline storage capacity is increased, the Board shall issue to the dealer a quantity of inventory coupons equal in gallonage value to the amount of the increase.

FLAXSEED

A statement of the considerations involved in the issuance of this amendment, issued simultaneously herewith, has been filed with the Division of the Federal Register.*

Maximum Price Regulation 397 is amended in the following respects:

1. Section 3 is amended to read as follows:

SEC. 3. Applicability. (a) Except as provided for in paragraph (b) of this section, this regulation shall apply to all sales, whether for immediate or future delivery, within the 48 states and the District of Columbia of the United States of imported and domestic flaxseed.

(b) This regulation shall have no application to sales of flaxseed to be used as seed for planting or for medicinal or food purposes.

2. Section 4 (a) (4), (5), (6), (7), (8), (9), (10) and (11) are added to read as follows:

(4) "Area A" includes all territory within the Continental United States exclusive of Alaska east and south of a line described as follows: commencing at the mouth of the Mississippi River thence up said river to its confluence with the Ohio River, thence up said Ohio River to the Indiana-Ohio State boundary line, thence north along said state boundary line to Michigan, thence east along the Michigan-Ohio State boundary line to Lake Erie.

(5) "Area B" includes the states of Montana, Wyoming, North Dakota, South Dakota, Nebraska, Minnesota, Iowa, Wisconsin, Michigan, Illinois, and Indiana.

(6) "Area C" includes all territory within the Continental United States exclusive of Alaska not embraced in Area A or Area B.

(7) "Bushel" as a unit of measurement of flaxseed means 56 pounds net weight.

(8) "Interior point" is any point outside the corporate and railroad switching limits of the cities listed as terminal basing points.

(9) "Interior rail point" is any interior point located on a railroad.

(10) "Interior non-rail point" is any interior point not located on a railroad.

(11) "Net weight" excludes the weight of all sacks or other containers irrespective of any state law providing for an inclusion of the weight of such sacks or other containers in sales of flaxseed which state laws are hereby superseded.

3. Section 4 (b) is added to read as follows:

(b) This regulation in speaking of sales or purchases at a specified point (interior point, terminal basing point or other point) means that the purchaser shall receive manual delivery of the flaxseed in question at said point. If the flaxseed in question is physically located at said point at the time of the sale, and there delivered to said purchaser (sometimes referred to as a sale f. o. b. said point), the purchaser may thereafter arrange and pay (in addition to the maximum price for the flaxseed at said point) for its transportation elsewhere; and the purchaser may engage the seller as his agent to procure such transportation. If the flaxseed in question is not physically located at said point at the time of the sale, then:

(1) If the buyer pays the seller the full maximum price, the seller must secure and pay all said transportation charges required to effectuate such a delivery to said purchaser at said point; and if he does not, there has been a violation of this regulation; and

(2) If the buyer pays any part of said transportation charges required to effectuate such a delivery as aforesaid, all said transportation charges so paid by the buyer must be deducted from the said maximum price to determine the amount the seller may actually receive in such a case; and if such deduction is not made, there has been a violation of this regulation.

4. Section 5 is amended to read as follows:

SEC. 5 Maximum prices for flaxseed. (a) The maximum price of flaxseed (excluding dockage), per bushel, bulk (or if in bags or other containers "net weight" as herein defined), subject to moisture and test weight differentials as hereinafter set forth, shall be as follows:

(1) At the following terminal basing points where the lot sold is not delivered by truck:

	Per bushel
Minneapolis, Duluth and Red Wing, Minnesota	$3.05
Milwaukee, Wisconsin	3.05
Chicago, Illinois	3.05
Portland, Oregon	3.05
Emporia and Fredonia, Kansas	2.95
Corpus Christi, Harlingen and Houston, Texas	2.90

(2) At the terminal basing points above specified other than Portland, Oregon, where the lot sold is delivered by truck the respective maximum prices specified in subdivision (1) less 8 cents per bushel.

(2a) At the terminal basing point of Portland, Oregon, where the lot sold is delivered other than by rail the maximum price at Portland, Oregon, as specified in subdivision (1) less 5 cents per bushel.

(3) At the following terminal basing points whether the lot is or is not delivered by truck:

Los Angeles, Long Beach, Wilmington, Buena Park and Fresno, California	$3.30
San Francisco, Oakland and Berkeley, California	3.30

(4) At any point in Area A, $3.05 per bushel plus the lowest domestic carload proportional all-rail rate (or, if none, the lowest carload local all-rail rate) per bushel from Minneapolis to the point in Area A in question: Provided, That whenever flaxseed purchased under this subdivision (4) has moved from producer to any buyer in whole or in part by water the foregoing maximum price shall be reduced by an amount equal to the difference between the actual water rate and said rail rate for the distance so moved by water.

(5) At interior rail points in Area B, on track, in carload quantities, the maximum price at that terminal basing point in Area B which less the lowest carload local all-rail rate per bushel from said interior rail point to said terminal basing point and less 3 cents per bushel handling charges at said terminal basing point will give the highest maximum price at said interior rail point; and, where the flaxseed is sold at such an interior point accompanied by transit billing useable beyond said point, plus the value of said transit billing.

(6) At interior rail points in Area B, not on track, in any quantity, the maximum price specified in subdivision (5) less 5 cents per bushel for handling charges through a country elevator.

(7) At any interior non-rail point in Area B, in any quantity, the maximum price specified in subdivision (6) for that interior rail point in Area B nearest (by the most usually traveled route) to said interior non-rail point less transportation charges from said interior non-rail point to said interior rail point by said route.

(8) At any point in Area C (other than a terminal basing point in Area C) the maximum price at the terminal basing point in Area C nearest thereto (by the most usually traveled route) less the lowest carload local all-rail rate per bushel from said terminal basing point to the rail point in Area C constituting or nearest (by the most usually traveled route) to the point in Area C in question; and, where the flaxseed is sold at such an interior point accompanied by transit billing useable beyond said point, plus the value of said transit billing.

(b) The foregoing maximum prices shall be increased for the sale or delivery of flaxseed in sacks furnished by the seller by the reasonable value (not exceeding any maximum price thereon) of such sacks.

(c) When flaxseed is handled through a terminal elevator by any seller, such seller may add to the maximum price hereinbefore established for the sale in question, elevation charges not exceeding the charges prescribed by law for such service, but the total elevation charges, irrespective of the number of elevations, that may be added to the maximum price to any purchaser, shall not exceed 3 cents per bushel.

(d) When a crusher engages as his agent an independent buyer the crusher may pay said independent buyer, notwithstanding the provisions of any other regulation, a maximum service charge not exceeding 1½ cents per bushel, which shall not be considered as a part of the maximum price hereinbefore established for the purchase of the flaxseed. Any independent buyer receiving a portion of the handling charges mentioned in paragraph (a) (5) of this section is not eligible for any service charge.

(e) For flaxseed containing more than 11 percent moisture, the foregoing maximum prices shall be reduced 1½ cents per bushel for each ½ per cent of moisture or fraction thereof in excess of 11 per cent.

(f) For flaxseed testing less than 49 pounds per bushel, the foregoing maximum prices shall be reduced 1 cent per bushel for each ½ pound under 49 pounds.

This amendment shall become effective July 31, 1943.

Chapter II—Office of Defense Transportation

[General Permit ODT 17-27]

PART 521—CONSERVATION OF MOTOR EQUIPMENT—EXCEPTIONS, PERMITS, AND EXEMPTIONS

SUBPART K—MOTOR CARRIERS OF PROPERTY

WHOLESALE DELIVERIES OF MEAT

General outline. Except as otherwise provided therein, General Order ODT 17, as amended, prohibits any motor carrier from making more than five (5) wholesale deliveries of fresh or frozen meat, poultry, or eggs, or more than two (2) wholesale deliveries of cured, smoked, cooked, or processed meat, from one point of origin to one point of destination in any calendar week. Similarly, except as otherwise provided, the order, as amended, directs every motor carrier to establish delivery areas or delivery routes, and further directs that no motor carrier shall perform wholesale delivery service in any such area or on any such route on any greater number of days in any calendar week than the maximum number of wholesale deliveries specified in Appendix No. 2 to the order for any commodity delivered by the carrier in any such area or over any such route during such calendar week. Thus, a motor carrier delivering both fresh and cured meats is limited to five (5) such weekly wholesale deliveries of fresh meats, and two (2) such weekly wholesale deliveries of cured meats, from one point of origin to one point of destination. Such carrier may not operate in wholesale delivery service in any established delivery area or over any established delivery route on more than five (5) days in any calendar week.

This general permit gives the motor carrier engaged in the transportation of fresh and cured meats the option of complying with the restrictions contained in paragraph (b) of § 501.75 and paragraph (a) of § 501.76 of the order, or of combining his deliveries so that as many as four (4) such weekly wholesale deliveries may be made of cured meat when such deliveries are made in combination with wholesale deliveries of fresh meat. In other words, if three (3) or four (4) such combination deliveries are made, the total number of weekly wholesale deliveries of fresh meats, as now permitted by Appendix No. 2, is reduced to four (4). Under paragraph (a) of § 501.76 of the order, a motor carrier may make two such combination wholesale deliveries and three (3) separate wholesale deliveries of fresh meat in a calendar week, but no additional wholesale deliveries of cured meat. On the other hand, if the motor carrier elects to make three (3) such combination wholesale deliveries in any calendar week, this general permit will limit him to one more wholesale delivery of fresh meat, but allows no further deliveries in such week. Furthermore, if the motor carrier elects to make four (4) such combination wholesale deliveries in any calendar week, this general permit provides that he may make no further wholesale deliveries of either cured or fresh meat in such week.

If the carrier elects to make either three (3) or four (4) such combination wholesale deliveries he may not operate in wholesale delivery service in any established delivery area or over any established route on more than four (4) days in any calendar week.

In accordance with the provisions of § 501.71 of General Order ODT 17, as amended, it is hereby authorized that:

§ 521.2903 Wholesale deliveries of meat. (a) Any motor carrier, when making wholesale deliveries of cured, smoked, cooked, or processed meat (excluding meat packed in glass or metal containers), in combination with wholesale deliveries of fresh or frozen meat, poultry, or eggs, may make four (4) such combination wholesale deliveries from one point of origin to one point of destination during any calendar week: Provided, That the motor carrier electing to make more than two (2) such combination wholesale deliveries in any one week:

(1) Shall not make more than four (4) wholesale deliveries of fresh or frozen meat, poultry, or eggs, either separately or in combination, from one point of origin to one point of destination during such calendar week;

(2) Shall not operate any motor truck in making wholesale deliveries of fresh or frozen meat, poultry, or eggs, either separately or in combination, on any delivery route or in any delivery area established pursuant to the provisions of paragraph (a) of § 501.75 of General Order ODT 17, as amended, on more than four (4) days in such calendar week.

(b) Any motor carrier, while making deliveries in the manner provided in paragraph (a) of this general permit, and while complying with the conditions prescribed in such paragraph, shall be relieved, to the extent therein provided, from compliance with the provisions of paragraph (b) of § 501.75 (limiting the number of motor truck operations), and subparagraph (1) of paragraph (a) of § 501.76 and Appendix No. 2 (limiting the frequency of deliveries weekly), of General Order ODT 17, as amended.

(E.O. 8989, 9156; 6 F.R. 6725, 7 F.R. 3349; General Order ODT 17, as amended, 7 F.R. 5678, 7694, 9623, 8 F.R. 8278, 8377)

This General Permit ODT 17–27 shall become effective on July 29, 1943.

Issued at Washington, D. C., this 29th day of July 1943.

[General Permit ODT 17–28]

PART 521—CONSERVATION OF MOTOR EQUIPMENT—EXCEPTIONS, PERMITS, AND EXEMPTIONS

RETAIL DELIVERIES OF BREAD AND PERISHABLE BAKERY PRODUCTS

General outline. Except as otherwise provided therein, General Order ODT 17, as amended, prohibits any motor carrier from making more than 3 retail deliveries of bread and perishable bakery products (excluding dry biscuits, crackers, pretzels, and similar bakery products in packages designed to retain their palatability for an extended period) from one point of origin to one point of destination during any calendar week, and likewise prohibits any such delivery on Sunday. Similarly, except as otherwise provided, the order, as amended, directs every motor carrier to establish delivery areas or delivery routes, and further directs that no motor carrier shall perform retail delivery service in any such area or on any such route on any greater number of days in any calendar week than the maximum number of retail deliveries specified in Appendix No. 2 to the order, for any commodity delivered by the carrier in any such area or over any such route during such calendar week.

This general permit gives the motor carrier engaged in the transportation of bread and perishable bakery products the option of complying with the restrictions contained in paragraph (b) of § 501.75 and paragraph (a) of § 501.76 of the order, or of making 4 retail deliveries of bread and perishable bakery products between one point of origin and one point of destination in any calendar week. However, if the carrier elects to make 4 weekly retail deliveries as permitted in this general permit, he may not make such retail deliveries on more than 2 consecutive days, nor may he operate on a given route or in a given area on more than 2 consecutive days. For example, this permit would allow a motor carrier to operate such a retail delivery route on Monday, Wednesday, Friday, and Saturday, but not on Monday, Tuesday, Wednesday, and Thursday. This general permit does not allow any retail deliveries to be made on Sunday.

In accordance with the provisions of § 501.71 of General Order ODT 17, as amended, it is hereby authorized that:

§ 521.2904 (a) Retail deliveries of bread and perishable bakery products. Any motor carrier, while operating a motor truck for the purpose of making retail deliveries exclusively of bread and perishable bakery products (excluding dry biscuits, crackers, pretzels, and similar bakery products in packages designed to retain their palatability for an extended period), (1) may make 4 retail deliveries of such commodities from any one point of origin to any one point of destination in any calendar week, and (2) may operate a motor truck over any given route or within any given delivery area established pursuant to the provisions of paragraph (a) of § 501.75 of General Order ODT 17, as amended, on 4 days of any calendar week: Provided, That such retail deliveries shall not be made, nor shall such motor truck operations be conducted over any given route or within any given delivery area, on more than 2 consecutive days in any calendar week.

(b) Relief from certain provisions of General Order ODT 17, as amended. Any motor carrier, while operating a motor truck for the purpose described, and while complying with the conditions prescribed, in paragraph (a) above, shall be relieved to the extent therein provided from the provisions of paragraph (b) of § 501.75 (limiting the number of motor truck operations), and subparagraph (1) of paragraph (a) of § 501.76 and Appendix No. 2 (limiting the frequency of deliveries weekly), of General Order ODT 17, as amended.

This General Permit ODT 17–28 shall become effective on July 29, 1943.

Issued at Washington, D. C., this 29th day of July 1943.

In the matter of the petition of the Bennett and Brassart Coal Co., code member in District 15 for a reduction in the effective minimum price for ½" x 0 slack coals produced from the B & B Mine, Mine Index No. 1387, in District 15.

On June 5, 1943, after notice and hearing, Edward J. Hayes, a duly designated Examiner of the Bituminous Coal Division, filed a report in which he found that Bennett and Brassart Coal Co.,[1] petitioner, a code member in District 15 had made no adequate showing that the establishment of a ½" x 0 size, produced by its B & B Mine (Mine Index No. 1387) between the present 1¼" x 0 and the ¼" x 0 sizes established for this mine and the proposed applicable price therefor of 70 cents per ton f. o. b. the mine complies with the standards set forth in section 4 II (a) and (b) of the Bituminous Coal Act of 1937 or is necessary to effectuate the purposes thereof. The Examiner recommended that an order be entered denying the petition herein.

An opportunity to file exceptions to the report of the examiner was afforded all interested parties. As of the date hereof no such exceptions have been filed.

I have considered the entire record in this proceeding, including the report of the examiner, and I find that the examiner's proposed findings and conclusions are adequate and accurate and that his recommendation should be followed. Accordingly, I have concluded to approve and adopt the proposed findings of fact and conclusions of law of the examiner as the findings of fact and conclusions of law of the Director.

Upon the basis of the entire record in this proceeding, and pursuant to section 4 II (d) and other provisions of the Bituminous Coal Act of 1937,

FORD COLLIERIES CO.

MEMORANDUM OPINION AND ORDER OF THE DIRECTOR

In the matter of the application of the Ford Collieries Company for permission to receive distributors' discounts on coal purchased and resold by it to the Michigan Alkali Company.

On December 3, 1942, after notice and hearing, Joseph A. Huston, a duly designated examiner of the Division submitted a report in which he found that the ownership and control of Ford Collieries Company, a registered distributor (Registration No. 3085), petitioner, by Michigan Alkali Company, a consumer of coal, is within the prohibition of paragraphs 11 and 12 of section 4, part II (i) of the Bituminous Coal Act of 1937, and that Ford Collieries Company, is not entitled to accept and retain a distributor's discount on coals purchased by it for resale and resold to Michigan Alkali Company or any of its affiliates, pursuant to § 317.12 (b) (8) [1] (§ 304.12 (b) (8)) of the rules and regulations for the registration of distributors, applicable provisions of the Act, and other rules and regulations thereunder. The examiner recommended that an order be entered denying the relief prayed for in the petition herein. On January 7, 1943, at the request of petitioner, an order was entered extending the time for the filing of exceptions to the report of the examiner until January 15, 1943. On January 20, 1943, the Director granted a further request of petitioner for extension of time to file exceptions until January 30, 1943. Although opportunity has been afforded petitioner to file exceptions, as of the date hereof no exceptions have been filed by petitioner.

I have considered the entire record in this proceeding, petitions, briefs before the examiner, and the examiner's report and I find that the report adequately and accurately reflects the facts disclosed in the record. I believe that the proposed findings of fact and proposed conclusions of law should be approved.

It is hereby ordered, That the proposed findings of fact and the proposed conclusions of law of the Examiner are approved and adopted as the findings of fact and conclusions of law of the Director.

It is further ordered, That the relief prayed in the petition is denied.

FEDERAL COMMUNICATIONS COMMISSION.

[Docket No. 6530]

INTERSTATE TELEGRAPH CO.

ORDER FOR HEARING AND FOR SUSPENSION OF TARIFF SCHEDULE

In the matter of Interstate Telegraph Company, increased charges for telegraph communications between points in California and Nevada.

At a session of the Federal Communications Commission held at its offices in Washington, D. C., on the 27th day of July, 1943;

It appearing that the Interstate Telegraph Company, Bishop, California has filed with the Commission tariff schedules to become effective July 30, 1943 stating increased charges for telegraph messages between certain points in California and certain points in Nevada, said tariff schedules being designated as follows:

Interstate Telegraph Company, F. C. C. No. 8, 13th Revised Page 11; Interstate Telegraph Company, F. C. C. No. 8, 10th Revised Page 12.

It further appearing that said tariff schedules state increased charges for telegraph communications in interstate commerce; that the rights and interests of the public may be injuriously affected thereby; and it being the opinion of the Commission that the effective date of said schedules, in so far as they relate to increased charges for telegraph communications between points in California and points in Nevada, should be postponed pending hearing and decision on the lawfulness of such increased charges;

It is ordered, That the Commission, upon its own motion, without formal pleading, enter upon a hearing concerning the lawfulness of the charges contained in the above-cited tariff schedules insofar as they relate to telegraph communications between points in California and points in Nevada;

It is further ordered, That the operation of the above-cited tariff schedules, insofar as they provide for increased charges for and in connection with telegraph communications between points in California and points in Nevada, be suspended; that the use of the charges

therein stated as applicable to such communications be deferred until October 30, 1943, unless otherwise ordered by the Commission; and that during said period of suspension, no changes shall be made in such charges or in the charges sought to be altered unless authorized by special permission of the Commission;

It is further ordered, That an investigation be, and the same is hereby instituted into the lawfulness of the rates, charges, classifications, regulations, practices and services of the Interstate Telegraph Company for and in connection with telegraph communication service between points in California and points in Nevada;

It is further ordered, That in the event a decision as to the lawfulness of the charges herein suspended has not been made during the suspension period, and said charges shall go into effect, the Interstate Telegraph Company and all other carriers subject to the Commission's jurisdiction participating in the service provided under the tariff provisions herein suspended shall, until further order of the Commission, each keep accurate account of all amounts charged, collected or received by reason of any increase in charges effected thereby; that each such carrier shall specify in such accounts by whom and in whose behalf such amounts are paid; and the Interstate Telegraph Company and each such participating carrier shall file with this Commission a report under oath on or before the 10th day of each calendar month, commencing November 10, 1943, showing the amounts accounted for as aforesaid during the previous calendar month;

It is further ordered, That a copy of this order be filed in the office of the Federal Communications Commission with said tariff schedules herein suspended in part; that the Interstate Telegraph Company and the said carrier parties to such tariff schedules be and they are hereby each made a party respondent to this proceeding; and that copies hereof be served upon each such party respondent and on the Director of the Office of Economic Stabilization and upon the Administrator of the Office of Price Administration;

It is further ordered, That this proceeding be, and the same is hereby assigned for hearing, beginning at 10:00 a. m. on the 15th day of September, 1943, at the offices of the Federal Communications Commission in Washington, D. C.

FEDERAL SECURITY AGENCY.

Food and Drug Administration.

[Dockets Nos. FDC-31 and FDC-31 (a)]

VARIOUS KINDS OF BREAD

DEFINITIONS AND STANDARDS OF IDENTITY

In the matter of fixing and establishing a definition and standard of identity for each of various kinds of bread and rolls or buns.

Proposed Order

It is proposed that, by virtue of the authority vested in the Federal Security Administrator by provisions of the Federal Food, Drug, and Cosmetic Act (secs. 401, 701; 52 Stat. 1046, 1055; 21 U.S.C. 341, 371, 1940 ed.); the Reorganization Act of 1939 (53 Stat. 561 ff.; 5 U. S. C. 133-133v (Supp. V. 1939)); and Reorganization Plans No. I (53 Stat. 1423) and No. IV (54 Stat. 1234); and upon the basis of evidence of record herein, the following order be made:

Findings of Fact[1]

1. The food commonly and usually known as "bread" or "white bread", and that commonly and usually known as "rolls", "white rolls", "buns" or "white buns", are each prepared by baking a kneaded yeast-leavened dough made by moistening flour with water (or with certain other liquid ingredients hereinafter specified, alone or in combination with water), with the addition of salt, and usually with the addition of certain other ingredients, as hereafter set forth. Bread and rolls are sometimes prepared from bromated flour or phosphated flour or both, with or without admixture with plain flour. (R. pp. 30, 49, 57, 59-62, 69, 70, 71, Ex. A)

2. Rolls differ from bread in the size of the units baked, and usually in their shape. A reasonable and satisfactory differentiation is that a loaf of bread weighs after cooling one-half pound or more, whereas a roll after cooling weighs less than one-half pound. (R. pp. 60-62, 69, Ex. A)

3. All bread and rolls contain moisture. Excessive moisture content tends to defraud consumers. A reasonable maximum limitation upon the moisture, which is somewhat in excess of the usual content, is 38 percent by weight, the solids being not less than 62 percent. A satisfactory and reliable method for determining the total solids contained in bread and rolls is the method prescribed in "Official and Tentative Methods of Analysis of the Association of Official Agricultural Chemists", Fifth Edition, 1940, page 229, under "Total Solids in an Entire Loaf of Bread—Official", except that if the baked unit weighs one pound or more one entire unit is used for the determination, and if the baked unit weighs less than one pound such number of entire units as weigh one pound or more are used for the determination. (R. pp. 64, 68, 85-87, 138-142, Ex. A. Ex. 2)

4. Shortening is commonly, but not always, added to bread dough. Any food fat or food oil, including butter, oleomargarine, and cream, or any mixture of two or more of these, is suitable for this purpose. For the purpose of furthering the shortening action of these fats and oils, soybean lacithin (which with its associated phosphatides is commercially known as "lecithin") and monoglycerides and diglycerides of fat-forming fatty acids are sometimes used and are suitable for use in such shortening. (R. pp. 71-73, 194, 198, 209-213, 228-229, 243-244, 269-270, 295, 307, 327, 464-466, 496-497)

5. The quantity of shortening used in bread dough varies rather widely. Although the evidence is not sufficiently definite to establish a maximum limit for shortening, the usual quantities are between 2 to 6 parts by weight for each 100 parts by weight of flour used, and seldom exceed 12 parts except in the cases of "sweet goods" and "specialty goods", products so distinctively different from bread and rolls as to be unlikely to be confused by consumers with bread or rolls. Such products usually contain from 12 to 30 parts of shortening. (R. pp. 368, 2543-2544, 2549, 2594, 2597, Ex. D)

6. Milk and various milk products are widely used in making bread and rolls, and serve to improve their nutritional value and to lend other desirable characteristics. In addition to fluid milk there have been used for these purposes, singly or in combination, concentrated milk, evaporated milk, sweetened condensed milk, dried milk, skim milk, concentrated skim milk, evaporated skim milk, sweetened condensed skim milk, and dried skim milk (including products from which part but not all of the milk fat has been separated). (R. pp. 73-75, 128-130, 438-440, 449, Ex. A)

7. In order to set bread made with any of the dairy ingredients specified in finding 6 apart from milk bread, it is reasonable that such ingredients (together with any butter and cream used) in bread be so limited in quantity or composition as not to meet the requirements prescribed in findings 42 to 45, inclusive, for the quantity and composition of such ingredients in milk bread. (R. pp. 74, 129)

8. Buttermilk, concentrated buttermilk, dried buttermilk, sweet cream buttermilk, concentrated sweet cream buttermilk, and dried sweet cream buttermilk, singly or in combination, are sometimes used in making bread or rolls for purposes similar to those stated for the dairy ingredients specified in finding 6. (R. pp. 75-76, 128, 1627-1629, 1638-1639)

9. Liquid eggs, frozen eggs, dried eggs, egg yolks, frozen yolks, dried yolks, egg white, frozen egg white, and dried egg white, singly or in combinations with each other, are sometimes used in making bread or rolls for the purpose of improving the nutritional value and imparting other desirable characteristics. (R. pp. 76, 130, Ex. A)

10. As the quantity of egg solids or egg yolk solids in the dough is increased the characteristics imparted to the baked product by such solids become more noticeable. The evidence does not establish the point at which the quantity of such solids results in products of different identities from white bread and white rolls, although the evidence indicates that such point lies between 2 parts and 5 parts for each 100 parts of flour. (R. pp. 131, 2669-2672)

11. Certain saccharine products are commonly used in making bread or rolls to furnish fermentable carbohydrates, to control the color of the crust, and to alter the taste, frequently to the extent of imparting some sweetness to the finished product. These include sugar, invert sugar (in sirup or congealed form), light-colored molasses, light-colored brown sugar, refiners sirup, dextrose, honey, corn sirup, dried corn sirup, nondiastatic malt sirup, and nondiastatic dried malt sirup. All of these products, used either singly or in combinations with each other, are satisfactory for the purposes stated. (R. pp. 76-77, 131, 712, 714-715, 740-741, 781, 785, 788, 795-797, Ex. A)

12. So-called "blackstrap molasses" and dark-colored brown sugar, by reason of their color and other properties, are unsuitable for use in bread or rolls. Concentrated water extract of raisins and concentrated water extract of prunes have been proposed as saccharine ingredients in bread or rolls, but are not shown to be suitable for this purpose, especially because of their color and taste. (R. pp. 670-672, 691, 743-744, 754-755, 1759-1761)

13. If carbohydrates are desired only for yeast fermentation, the quantity of saccharine substances added generally does not exceed 3 parts by weight (on a dry basis) for each 100 parts by weight of flour. When the baker wishes to produce some minor change in taste or in the appearance of the crumb or crust, increased quantities are used. Such baked products are considered by consumers as ordinary white bread or rolls unless they are definitely sweet or have acquired other definite characteristics from such ingredients. (R. pp. 327, 359, 791, 1046-1047, Ex. D)

14. It is impracticable to prescribe a maximum limit for saccharine ingredients generally in white bread or rolls because of the wide differences in the respective sweetness and other characteristics of such ingredients and because even where sugar alone is used the evidence is not definite as to the quantity above which an article ceases to be ordinary bread or becomes "sweet goods", although 16 parts by weight of sugar to each 100 parts by weight of flour appears to be about the average for sweet goods. (R. pp. 2744, 2947, 2979, 2983, 2990, Ex. D)

15. Malt sirup, dried malt sirup, malted barley flour, and malted wheat flour, each of which is diastatically active, are frequently used, singly or in combinations with each other, in making bread or rolls. Generally the use of these substances is for the purpose of compensating for a deficiency of natural enzymes in the flour used, and when used for this purpose alone is limited to quantities about 0.25 percent of the weight of the flour. In certain kinds of hearth bread, however, quantities of malt sirup or dried malt sirup as high as 4 percent, or even higher, are used to improve the crust characteristics, especially the color of crust. (R. pp. 505-509, 517-519, 522-523, 527-530)

16. Consumers normally expect white bread and rolls to be essentially products of wheat flour. At various times in the past, however, when there has been a scarcity of wheat flour, other similar grain products, especially corn flour, have been extensively used to replace part of the flour in making bread and rolls. Potato mash was sometimes used to develop a preliminary yeast growth, and was incorporated in the dough. So-called "dusting flour", often consisting in whole or in part of products other than wheat flour, has long been in common use to prevent the dough from sticking to the receptacles or to molding or other machinery; a considerable proportion of such dusting flour becomes incorporated in the dough. Dextrinized starch is believed by many to have the property of retaining moisture in bread after baking. The advisory standards issued by the Secretary of Agriculture for white bread, beginning with the first such standard in 1923, have all recognized the propriety of such practices to the extent of the replacement of not more than 3 percent of the wheat flour by some "other edible farinaceous substance". (R. pp. 27, 30, 34, 77-78, 111-112, 1762-1764)

17. Products which have been used and are suitable for one or more of the purposes stated in finding 16 are corn flour (or finely ground corn meal), potato flour, rice flour, cornstarch, potato starch, sweet potato starch, and wheat starch. Sometimes these products are wholly or in part dextrinized. Dextrinized wheat flour is also suitable for such use. (R. pp. 77-78, 105, 111-115, 132-133, 567-568, Exs. M and O)

18. Use in making white bread or rolls of any one or more of the products specified in finding 17, in a total quantity not greater than 3 parts by weight for each 100 parts by weight of wheat flour used, does not run counter to the normal expectation of present-day consumers. (R. pp. 34, 49, 78, 133, Ex. A)

19. Products referred to as "soybean flour," "peanut flour," and "cottonseed flour" were proposed for use, in quantities up to 3 parts per 100 parts of flour, as optional ingredients in bread and rolls. These products were claimed to serve the same purposes as the products specified in finding 17, and to contribute substantial nutritive values. (The proposal of "cottonseed flour" as an ingredient in white bread and rolls was subsequently withdrawn.) The evidence does not show that any of these products (except the soybean product referred to in finding 23) has been used to any material extent in making bread or rolls. These products contain far more protein and less starch than wheat flour, differ widely from the products specified in finding 17, and do not perform the same functions. (R. pp. 538, 540, 613–630, 640, 1765, 1772, 3897–3908, 3910)

20. Rolled oats, ground oatmeal, and oat flour were proposed as optional ingredients for inclusion with the products specified in finding 17, on the ground that such oat products are economical and nutritious foods and furnish a distinctive and desirable flavor. The evidence does not establish that any of these products has been used in making white bread or rolls, or their suitability for such use. (R. pp. 1768–1769, Ex. P)

21. The evidence does not establish that the use of the products listed in findings 19 and 20 results in any significant improvement when the quantities used are not more than 3 parts to each 100 parts of flour; it does indicate that the inclusion of such products in white bread would run counter to the normal expectation of consumers. The evidence furnishes no basis for a determination as to what quantities of such products should be used with flour to produce such differences from white bread as would result in different identities recognizable as such by consumers. (R. pp. 624–627, 633–643, 1769–1772, 3914–3915, 3937–3938, 3942–3945)

22. Wheat germ processed in various ways to modify its enzymatic activity and to prevent rancidity has been used as an ingredient in some white bread. The processing may consist of heating it, treating it with potassium bromate, removing part of the wheat germ oil, and possibly of treating it in other ways suggested but not described in the record. Such processed wheat germ was proposed as an optional ingredient for the purpose of imparting flavor and improving other characteristics of white bread. No proposal was advanced for recognition of use of unprocessed wheat germ such as that naturally present in small amounts in flour. The testimony as to these benefits from the use of small amounts of wheat germ in white bread (1½ to 2 parts by weight of processed wheat germ per 100 parts by weight of flour) is not convincing. On the other hand, there was evidence establishing that the use of processed wheat germ in white bread has led to labeling and advertising claims based on its vitamin and mineral content, such as would likely confuse consumers with respect to identity and relative nutritive properties of bread and enriched bread. (Cf. findings 36, 37, 38, and 44 on enriched flour, 6 F.R. 2576–7) (R. pp. 116–118, 559–572, 576–577, 579–580, 584–585, 589–591. 593–605, 1765–1767, 3292–3293, 3298, 3367–3368, Ex. ZZ)

23. Ground dehulled soybeans, with or without heat treatment and with or without removal of oil, but which retain their enzymatic activity, exert a bleaching action upon flour in bread dough. The use of these products in dough permits the production of light-colored bread or rolls from unbleached or slightly bleached flour. For this purpose it is not necessary to use these products in a quantity greater than 0.5 part by weight to each 100 parts by weight of flour used. Ground dehulled soybeans have been used for this purpose in substantial amounts for more than 10 years. (R. pp. 111–113, 165–166, 539–540, 545, 552–555, 3926–3933)

24. In making bread and rolls it has become a widespread practice to add to the dough small quantities of certain mineral salts, commonly known by such designations as "yeast foods", "dough conditioners", "bread improvers". Calcium and ammonium salts are used to stimulate the growth of yeast during fermentation. Other salts, which act as oxidizing agents, are used to regulate the process of fermentation though the evidence establishes no satisfactory scientific explanation of the mechanism of their action. The evidence indicates that the addition of so-called dough conditioners tends to lessen the variability in the qualities of the dough resulting from differences in characteristics of the flour used, differences in water supply, and other factors, and thereby to facilitate the handling of the dough in mechanized bakeries. (R. pp. 78–82, 133–135, 838–858, 875–876, 892–900, 904–905, 995–999, 1014, 1034–1035, 1065, 1071–1074, 1080)

25. Calcium salts used for the purpose described in finding 24 are monocalcium phosphate, dicalcium phosphate, calcium sulfate, and calcium lactate. Ammonium salts used for this purpose are mono-ammonium phosphate, di-ammonium phosphate, ammonium sulfate, ammonium chloride, ammonium carbonate and ammonium lactate. It is not necessary to use any of these salts or any combination of them in a quantity greater than 0.25 part by weight for each 100 parts by weight of flour used. (R. pp. 78–81, 104, 133–135, 831, 838–840, 870, 883–884, 887–888, 990, 992–993)

26. Oxidizing agents used for the purposes described in finding 24 are potassium bromate, potassium iodate, calcium peroxide, ammonium persulfate, potassium persulfate, and sodium chlorite. It is not necessary to use any of these oxidizing agents or any combination of them (including the potassium bromate contained in any bromated flour used) in a quantity greater than 0.0075 part by weight for each 100 parts by weight of flour used. (R. pp. 78–81, 135–136, 840–841, 895–900, 933–935, 990–994)

27. A product described as "grain infusion" was proposed for use as a yeast food and bread improver. It is a mixture of concentrated corn steepwater, neutralized with calcium carbonate, and dextrinized cornstarch with added ammonium chloride, salt, and potassium bromate. The concentrated steepwater, a byproduct of the starch industry now generally used for cattle feed, is made by concentrating the liquid obtained by steeping corn in water containing 0.15 percent of sulfur dioxide. The so-called "grain infusion" as sold to the baker contains approximately 0.002 percent of sulfur dioxide, which is oxidized during fermentation and baking. The evidence does not establish that this so-called "grain infusion" is suitable for use in bread or that it improves the quality of bread otherwise than through the action of the calcium and ammonium salts and the potassium bromate contained in it. (R. pp. 946–981, 1776, 2146–2175, 4106–4112, 4129–4130, 4134)

28. Amino acids, especially cystine, were proposed for use as oxidizing agents. The evidence does not establish the suitability of such acids for use in bread or rolls. (R. pp. 1773–1775 Ex. W)

29. Spice is something added to bread or rolls, usually on the surface but occasionally by incorporation in the dough. Spice oil and spice extracts have been used to a slight extent Such additions materially affect the flavor of the bread or rolls. Consumers do not ordinarily expect such additions unless announced by appropriate label statement. Such statements which are accurate and informative are "Spiced", "Spice Added", "With Added Spice", or such statements in which the common or usual name of the spice used is substituted for the word "spice". (R. pp. 84, 1817–1820)

30. Bread is subject to deterioration and spoilage. The most common form of deterioration is staling. Old bread or stale bread is almost universally regarded as less desirable than fresh bread. Staling in bread may be retarded by various devices. The length of time for staleness to develop varies, depending on several factors, but it is the common practice of many bakers to withdraw bread from sale two days after baking. Some bakers make a price concession on bread over one day old. (R. pp. 435, 1162, 1407–1408, 1438–1440, 2365, Exs. FF, GG)

31. In addition to staling, bread is subject to spoilage from the growth of mold. If the surface of bread is moist, it is a good medium for the growth of mold spores. The temperature of baking effectively destroys any mold spores in the dough, but such spores may be present in the bakery and bread not suitably protected during and after cooling may become contaminated with such spores. When bread is sliced and wrapped, as is the common practice among large bakeries, the moisture remaining in the bread is held inside the wrapper, keeping the surface of bread moist and so creating a favorable environment for the growth of mold spores which may have accumulated on the surface of the loaf or of the slices prior to wrapping. Unwrapped bread from which moisture can evaporate readily is less likely to become moldy. Mold development on bread is most rapid in warm weather, especially when the humidity is high. (R. pp. 1124–1137, 1140, 1143, 1270, 1481, 1500, Ex. AA)

32. The time necessary for the development of visible mold varies greatly, depending on a number of conditions. Under conditions most favorable to mold growth, a visible speck of mold may develop within one or two days after exposure of the bread to the spores. Under normal summer conditions, however, several days will elapse between the time of contamination and the appearance of a mold spot sufficiently large to be noticed. (R. pp. 1143, 1409, 1413, 1473, 1490–1491)

33. A considerable number of bakers take no steps to protect their bread from mold other than controls within the bakery which tend to prevent contamination of the bread with mold spores. A few bakers have installed special precautionary devices for this purpose which are elaborate and beyond the means of bakers generally. Methods available to most bakers do not wholly prevent contamination, and where this occurs in sufficient degree and conditions are favorable to mold growth losses of bread may follow. Many bakers, and probably a majority of wholesale bakers, have adopted the practice of adding to the dough, at least during summer months, some substance which will retard the growth of mold on the bread. Proposals were made to recognize as optional ingredients for this purpose sodium and calcium propionates and sodium diacetate. (R. pp. 1138–1139, 1151, 1154, 1476–1479, 1673–1674, 3879–3880, 3986, 4046–4047, Exs. X, QQ)

34. In addition to spoilage from mold, decomposition and spoilage in bread are caused on rare occasions by the growth inside the loaf of a type of bacterium which, in spore form, can survive the temperature of baking. This bacterium, Bacillus mesentericus, causes spoilage which in advanced stages is characterized by an unpleasant odor and a pasty consistency of the center of the loaf. This pasty material will pull out into fine threads, and such bread is said to be "ropy". B. mesentericus is known as the rope-forming organism. (R. pp. 1163–1164, 1166, 1231, 1425, 2658, 2993–2994, 3001, 3820–3822, 4045)

35. Technical experts in the baking industry are not entirely in agreement as to how the rope organism enters bread dough but they generally agree that the most probable means is through use in preparing the dough of raw materials contaminated with numerous spores of the organism. There is some possibility that spores may be air-borne and enter the dough from the air circulating in the bakery. In order for spoilage from rope organisms to develop in bread there must be a combination of circumstances, where a considerable number of spores enter the dough and where the bread is held for some time after baking at a high temperature under conditions whereby the moisture in the bread is retained. Where such a combination of circumstances occurs, large losses may occur from such spoilage. (R. pp. 1165–1167, 1169, 1353–1354, 1495, 2190, 3813, 3819, 3824, Exs. HH, II)

36. A considerable number of bakers take no steps for the protection of bread from rope other than by the use of ingredients sufficiently low in spore content. The ordinary baker, however, has no means of quickly testing ingredients to determine if they are contaminated with rope-forming organisms and must rely upon suppliers to furnish ingredients which are safe to use. Much progress has been made by suppliers in safeguarding their product. Many bakers, however, probably including a majority of wholesale bakers, at some time during the year add some type of ingredient to dough as additional assurance against rope development. (R. pp. 1174, 1294–1298, 1502, 3826, 3832, 3870–3871, 4042, 4044, Exs. HH, WWWW)

37. It was found several years ago that materials which render the dough slightly more acid than normal are effective in preventing the development of the rope organism. The acidity of the finished bread need not be greater than pH 5.0. The necessary increase in acidity is frequently effected by adding about a pint of 100-grain vinegar for each 100 pounds of flour used in the dough. Another product used by bakers for increasing acidity is monocalcium phosphate, which is the acidifying ingredient in phosphated flour. About ½ pound or less of monocalcium phosphate per 100 pounds of flour usually increases acidity sufficiently for this purpose, or phosphated flour may be used. Other acids which are said not to interfere with yeast growth have also been tried to a limited extent but have no advantage over vinegar or monocalcium phosphate and, so far as the record shows, such other acids are not now in use. In more recent years it has been found that sodium and calcium propionates are effective in retarding the growth of rope organism without a significant change in acidity. Even more recently sodium diacetate, which liberates acetic acid in the dough, has been used in lieu of vinegar and monocalcium phosphate as insurance against possibility of rope. (R. pp. 137, 1040, 1170, 1174, 1183–1184, 1644, 1674–1679, 3818, 3968–3969, 3976–3977, Exs. JJ, KK)

38. The quantity of calcium propionate or sodium propionate or both, used in white bread for the purposes indicated in findings 33 and 37 need not exceed 0.32 part by weight for each 100 parts by weight of flour used. The quantity of sodium diacetate used for such purposes need not exceed 0.4 part by weight. The quantity of any vinegar used for the purposes indicated in finding 37 need not exceed 1 pint of any vinegar of 100-grain strength for each 100 pounds of flour used, or corresponding amounts of vinegar of less strength to furnish an equivalent amount of acetic acid. The quantity of monocalcium phosphate used for the purposes indicated in finding 37 exceeds the amount used as a yeast food (for which purpose the maximum amount used is 0.25 part for each 100 parts by weight of flour used) but does not exceed 0.75 part for each 100 parts by weight of flour. (R. pp. 1322–1323, 1413, 1486, 1649, 1680, 1687, 3964, 3969, 3976, 3977, Ex. X)

39. The evidence shows that a substantial proportion of the bakers do not consider that they have a mold or rope problem and that they use none of the substances referred to in finding 37. Most bakers consider that they do have a mold or rope problem during the months of relatively high temperature, particularly when the humidity is high, and these bakers use such substances during those months. Some bakers consider that they have a mold and rope problem throughout the entire year and use such substances continuously. The evidence points to possibilities that the use of such substances may result in practices contrary to consumer interest but does not establish that such practices exist or are likely to develop to any material extent. (R. pp. 1412, 1428–1429, 1453–1459, 1478–1479, 1495, 1697, 2187–2191, 3003–3005, 3879–3880, 3986, 4046–4047, Ex. QQ)

40. All of the substances used as set forth in finding 38 act as preservatives in bread and rolls in that they delay spoilage by certain microorganisms. All of such substances, except vinegar, are chemicals within the usual meaning of that term. (R. pp. 2046–2048, 2050)

41. The foods commonly and usually known as "milk bread" and "milk rolls" or "milk buns" differ from bread and rolls primarily in that they contain a certain minimum of milk solids. Findings 2 to 5 and 9 to 41, inclusive, are applicable to milk bread and milk rolls. (R. pp. 35, 1830, 1831, 2415, 2527, 2586, Ex. A)

42. Milk bread is prepared in the home and to a considerable extent in commercial bakeries by using milk as the sole ingredient for moistening the flour and other ingredients to make the dough. However, many bakers use, instead of milk, various milk products with or without water, containing essentially the same quantity of milk solids as would be supplied by milk when it is used as the sole wetting agent. Milk products which are used for this purpose and which are suitable for such use are concentrated milk, evaporated milk, sweetened condensed milk, dried milk, and reconstituted milk (see finding 44). (R. pp. 1836–1837, 2527–2528, Exs. A, III)

43. The solids of milk may be divided into two well-recognized components, milk fat and nonfat milk solids. The relative proportion of fat and nonfat milk solids varies somewhat, but in milk of average composition as delivered to consumers the quantity of nonfat milk solids is not more than 2.3 times the quantity of milk fat. In milks of greater richness than average milk the fat content may rise to a point where the nonfat milk solids is about 1.2 times the milk fat. (R. pp. 1838, 2371–2383, 2529, Exs. 4, AAA, LLL)

44. The dairy ingredients used to supply milk constituent solids in the reconstitution of milk for making milk bread are skim milk, concentrated skim milk, evaporated skim milk, sweetened condensed skim milk, dried skim milk, or any two or more of these, combined with butter or cream or both. Unless a maximum limit is set on the proportion of nonfat milk solids to milk fat in reconstituting milk, abuses can easily arise through the use of decreasing quantities of milk fat and increasing quantities of the less expensive nonfat milk solids. It is reasonable to require that when reconstituted milk is used, the proportion of nonfat milk solids to milk fat fall within the range set forth in finding 43. (R. pp. 444–447, 1830, 1833, 1836, 1838, 1846, 2507, 2509, Exs. 2, III)

45. The quantity of water necessary to make flours into dough varies somewhat, but it is generally about 60 pounds to each 100 pounds of flour and in practically no case is less than 58 pounds to 100 pounds of flour. In milk of average composition, 58 pounds of moisture is associated with 8.23 pounds of milk solids; a reasonable minimum requirement for milk solids in milk bread made with dairy ingredients other than fluid milk is 8.2 pounds to each 100 pounds of flour. Because of variation in the total solids content of fluid milk and because of differences in the quantity of moisture absorbed in making the dough it would not be reasonable to prescribe a minimum based on the average composition of milk for the milk solids content of milk bread when fluid milk is used as the sole moistening ingredient. (R. pp. 452–454, 1840, 2445–2446, 2565–2566, 2607)

46. Milk bread is generally considered by consumers to be made from milk and not from buttermilk. Buttermilk and its products, such as those listed in finding 8, are not appropriate ingredients of milk bread. (R. pp. 443, 1840–1842, 2419)

47. In the announcement of the hearing definitions and standards of identity were proposed for—

Cream bread and cream rolls or cream buns, butter bread and butter rolls or butter buns, egg bread and egg rolls or egg buns, butter and egg bread and butter and egg rolls or butter and egg buns,

Honey bread and honey rolls or honey buns, milk and honey bread and milk and honey rolls or milk and honey buns.

In each instance the American Bakers Association proposed other definitions and standards differing from the proposals for hearing chiefly in that they would require substantially lesser amounts of the ingredients indicated by the names of the various kinds of bread and rolls or buns. (R. Ex. 1. Also see page references under finding 48)

48. The quantities of the characterizing ingredients specified in the published proposal and the quantities recommended by the American Bakers Association are shown in the following tabulation ("parts" signify parts by weight for each 100 parts by weight of flour used in preparing dough):

	Published proposals	Proposals by American Bakers' Association
Cream bread, Cream rolls, Cream buns	12 parts of milk fat from cream or combination of milk fat and nonfat milk solids in certain specified proportions.	4 parts milk fat.
Butter bread, Butter rolls, Butter buns	12 parts milk fat from butter	4 parts milk fat.
Egg bread, Egg rolls, Egg buns	5 parts of egg solids	2 parts of egg solids.
Butter and egg bread, Butter and egg rolls, Butter and egg buns	12 parts milk fat from butter, 5 parts egg solids.	4 parts milk fat. 2 parts egg solids.
Honey bread, Honey rolls, Honey buns	16 parts honey solids	4 parts.[1]
Milk and honey bread, Milk and honey rolls, Milk and honey buns	Milk content same as for milk bread. 16 parts honey solids.	Milk content same as for milk bread. 4 parts honey solids.

[1] 3 parts of honey solids was recommended by a witness introduced by the American Bakers' Association (R. pp. 2868, 2870).

(R. pp. 1849–1854, 2423–2425, 2427–2428, 2476–2479, 2552–2555, 2568, 2623–2625, 2638, 2644–2645, 2673, 2703, 2713, 2717, 2739–2746, 2755–2757, 2759–2760, 2795–2796, 2820, 2837–2838, 2846, 2933, 2965, 3046–3047, 3049–3051, 3061, 3068)

49. There have been sold at times under the names of the products listed in finding 48, or under similar names, breads containing little or none of the ingredients for which the breads have been named. This practice has not been widespread. The amount of such bread is small in comparison with the total amount of bread sold but this practice has tended to mislead the consumer, giving the impression that these ingredients are used in such substantial amounts as to characterize the breads. (R. pp. 1851, 1854, 2339–2340, 2476, 2478, 2497–2498, 2617–2620, 2625, 2627, 2631, 2640, 2740–2742, 2788, 2910–2911, 3044–3046, 3058–3060, Ex. III)

50. The evidence does not establish that products containing these ingredients in the quantities proposed by the American Bakers Association (see finding 48) are distinguishable by the ordinary consumer from the product commonly known as "bread" or "white bread". It is not shown that benefit to consumers would result from the promulgation of definitions and standards of identity for these products as proposed by the American Bakers Association. (R. pp. 2495, 2552–2553, 2555, 2569, 2621–2624, 2632, 2641, 2672, 2742–2743, 2795–2797, 2807, 2820, 3036–3037, 3039, 3046, 3049, 3051)

51. There is not shown to be, or to be likely to develop, a demand on the part of consumers for bread or rolls containing the quantities of these ingredients in the published proposals which were supported by the Food and Drug Administration (see finding 48). The evidence does not establish that such proposed definitions and standards of identity would be reasonable. (R. pp. 1851, 2427, 2476, 2498, 2553, 2570, 2700, 2713–2715, 2867–2868, 2931–2932, 2965–2966)

52. The foods commonly and usually known as "raisin bread" and "raisin rolls" or "raisin buns" differ from bread and rolls primarily in that raisins are added to the dough before baking. Seedless (or seeded) raisins are suitable for such use. They are usually washed and are often soaked in water before being added to the dough. Except as noted in findings 54 and 55, findings 2 to 6 and 8 to 40, inclusive, are applicable to raisin bread and raisin rolls; finding 7 is inapplicable thereto. (R. pp. 35–36, 3076–3084, 3086–3091, 3092–3097)

53. The quantity of raisins used in making raisin bread varies somewhat. A minimum requirement for raisins based on the weight of raisins in the loaf was contained in the advisory standard for raisin bread promulgated some years ago. A more understandable requirement from the standpoint of the baker is a specification of the weight of raisins (before soaking or washing) used with each 100 parts by weight of flour. The requirement of the advisory standard calculated to this basis is about 35 parts of raisins to each 100 parts of flour. In recent years it has become the practice of most bakers to use substantially more raisins and a minimum requirement of 50 parts of raisins to each 100 parts of flour now conforms more nearly to consumer preference and good bakery practice. (R. pp. 35–36, 3076–3080, 3088–3090, 3093–3097, Exs. 2, III, TTT, UUU, VVV)

54. When making raisin bread some bakers use as a saccharine ingredient a raisin syrup made by concentrating a water extract of raisins (referred to in finding 12). Such an extract is suitable for use in raisin bread but such raisin extractives as are incorporated in this manner do not take the place of raisins used in making the raisin bread. Raisin bread and raisin rolls are sometimes prepared with an "icing" or "frosting". (R. pp. 3080, 3125)

55. The method of determining total solids as described in finding 3 must be modified slightly to be applicable to raisin bread and raisin rolls in order to insure the proper mixing of raisins in the sample. This can be accomplished by passing the sample twice through a food chopper and then taking a portion for solids determination without attempting to pass the ground sample through a 20-mesh sieve. (R. pp. 3086–3087, Ex. 2)

56. The foods commonly and usually known as "whole wheat bread", "graham bread", "entire white bread", and "whole wheat rolls", "graham rolls", "entire wheat rolls", or "whole wheat buns", "graham buns", "entire wheat buns", differ from white bread and white rolls only in that the dough is made with whole wheat flour or bromated whole wheat flour, and no flour, bromated flour, or phosphated flour is used therein. Findings 2 to 6 and 8 to 40, inclusive, are applicable to whole wheat bread and whole wheat rolls, except that the maximum limit for propionates (see finding 38) is 0.38 part by weight to each 100 parts by weight of whole wheat flour used. Finding 7 is inapplicable to whole wheat bread and whole wheat rolls. (R. pp. 34–35, 1323, 1413, 3126–3135, 3160–3161, Exs. 2 and A)

57. Several different kinds of bread and rolls are prepared which differ from white bread and white rolls only in that the dough is made by using various mixtures of two or more of the wheat ingredients flour (including bromated flour and phosphated flour), whole wheat flour, cracked wheat, crushed wheat. In order to obtain in finished bread and rolls of these kinds the definite characteristics of each of the wheat ingredients used, it is necessary that the quantity of each such ingredient be not less than 20 percent by weight of the mixture of wheat ingredients used. Findings 2 to 6 and 8 to 40, inclusive, are applicable to bread and rolls of these kinds, except that the maximum limit for propionates (see finding 8) is 0.38 part by weight to each 100 parts by weight of the mixture of wheat ingredients. Finding 7 is inapplicable to bread and rolls of these kinds. (R. pp. 38, 1323, 1413, 3135–3158, 3160–3161, Exs. 5, 6, 7)

58. Bread and rolls of these kinds are ordinarily labeled with the word "bread" and "rolls", preceded by the name of one of the wheat ingredients (for example, "cracked wheat bread"). Consumers are confused as to the composition of such products by the failure to disclose in the name other wheat ingredients present in characterizing quantities. Names for them which are accurate and informative are the words "bread" and "rolls" or "buns", as the case may be, preceded by words which show the wheat ingredients used in the order of their predominance, if any, by weight in the mixture, as for example, "white and whole wheat bread". R. pp. 3135–3158, Exs. 5, 6, 7)

59. "Enriched bread" and "enriched rolls" or "enriched buns" are the common and usual names of baked products identical with bread and rolls, respectively, except that they contain added nutrients and are not subject to the limitations indicated in finding 7. The reasons for enriching flour and for regulating such enrichment are applicable to enriched bread and enriched rolls; such reasons are set forth in findings 33 to 41, inclusive, of the order prescribing a definition and standard of identity for enriched flour (6 F.R. 2574–82), as modified and supplemented by findings 1 to 11, inclusive, of the order amending that definition and standard of identity (8 F.R. 9115–16). The basis for requiring or permitting the particular enriching ingredients and the particular quantities thereof specified in such findings is also applicable to enriched bread and enriched rolls. Findings 2 to 6, 8 to 21, and 23 to 40, inclusive, of this order, are applicable to enriched bread and enriched rolls. (R. pp. 3241–3255)

60. The quantities of vitamins and minerals in enriched bread and enriched rolls are those which result from the use of enriched flour or enriched bromated flour in lieu of flour, bromated flour, or phosphated flour. These quantities may be contributed by any of the following methods, or by any two or more of them in combination:

(a) Enriched flour or enriched bromated flour is used, in whole or in part.

(b) The substances used for enriching flour (including wheat germ or partly defatted wheat germ in a quantity not more than 5 parts by weight to each 100 parts of flour, bromated flour, and phosphated flour used) are added in making the dough, under the conditions permitted by § 15.010, as amended, for the addition of such substances in preparing enriched flour.

(c) Ingredients of bread which contain such vitamins or minerals (e. g., yeast, dried skim milk, monocalcium phosphate) are used within the limits, if any, for such use in bread. (R. p. 3241; Supp. R. pp. 375, 843, 893, 900, 958, 961)

61. It would not be reasonable to subject enriched bread or enriched rolls to any requirement for or limitation on enrichment that cannot be met in ordinary commercial practice by the use of any enriched flour which conforms to the definition and standard of identity prescribed in § 15.010, as amended. (R. p. 3320)

62. The flour content of enriched bread and enriched rolls varies from a minimum of about 60 percent to a maximum of about 75 percent, depending upon such factors as the quantity of ingredients other than flour used and the moisture content of the finished products. In baking such products there is some loss of vitamins, mostly through destruction in the crust. Such losses of niacin, riboflavin, and vitamin D are negligible, and in the cases of niacin and riboflavin are compensated by some contribution of these vitamins by yeast and other ingredients commonly used. Except as noted for thiamine, riboflavin, and calcium in findings 63, 64, and 65, minima for the vitamins and minerals in enriched bread and enriched rolls of 60 percent of the minima prescribed for enriched flour, and maxima of 75 percent of the maxima for enriched flour, are, when rounded off to the nearest significant decimal point, reasonable limitations when enriched flour is used to make enriched bread and enriched rolls. On this basis each pound of enriched bread or enriched rolls contains not less than 10 milligrams nor more than 15 milligrams of niacin; not less than 8 milligrams nor more than 12.5 milligrams of iron; and when the optional ingredient vitamin D is used, not less than 150 U. S. P. Units nor more than 750 U. S. P. Units of such vitamin. It would not be reasonable to prescribe minima and maxima for vitamins and minerals, when they are added in making the dough, different from the minima and maxima prescribed when enriched flour is used. An unnecessarily wide spread between minima and maxima would likely lead to competitive increases between manufacturers, accompanied by such advertising claims as would confuse consumers as to their nutritional needs and the value of enriched bread in supplying those needs. Consumer understanding of the value of enriched bread will be promoted by requiring its composition to be as nearly uniform as practicable as to both quantities and kinds of nutritional factors present. (R. pp. 3241–3252, 3306, 3466–3472, 3474–3488, 3692–3696, 3770–3782, 3786–3800; Supp. R. pp. 287, 362–364, 645, 648, 649, 844–854)

63. In baking enriched bread and enriched rolls losses of thiamine are appreciable. However, if flour enriched to the minimum of 2 milligrams of thiamine per pound is used there is sufficient contribution of thiamine from the yeast and other ingredients customarily added that in common commercial practice the finished products contain not less than 1.1 milligrams of thiamine per pound. If flour enriched to the maximum of 2.5 milligrams per pound is used, the thiamine content of the finished products, after due allowances are made for contributions from such ingredients and for baking losses, will not exceed 1.8 milligrams per pound. (R. pp. 3242–3251, 3466–3472, 3474–3488, 3770–3782; Supp. R. pp. 363–368, 372, 647, 844–854)

64. Yeast and milk or its products used in making enriched bread and rolls may contribute as much as 0.48 milligram of riboflavin per pound of bread or rolls. When these are used with enriched flour containing 1.5 milligrams riboflavin per pound the riboflavin content of the enriched bread or enriched rolls may approach 1.6 milligrams per pound. When milk and its products are not used and the enriched flour contains the minimum of 1.2 milligrams riboflavin per pound the riboflavin content of the enriched bread or enriched rolls may fall to nearly 0.7 milligram per pound. (Supp. R. pp. 844, 848)

65. Dried skim milk, so-called "bread improvers", rope inhibitors, and other optional ingredients used in making bread and rolls may contribute nearly 300 milligrams of calcium per pound of bread or rolls. When these are used with enriched flour containing 625 milligrams calcium per pound the calcium content of the enriched bread or enriched rolls may approach 800 milligrams per pound, particularly if water used in making the dough is high in calcium. When these are not used and the enriched flour contains the minimum of 500 milligrams calcium per pound the calcium content of the enriched bread or enriched rolls may fall to about 300 milligrams per pound. (Supp. R. pp. 849, 858)

66. The following are reasonable limits for the specified vitamins and minerals in enriched bread and enriched rolls or enriched buns:

	Minimum	Maximum
Required ingredients:	Mg. per lb.	Mg. per lb.
Thiamine	1.1	1.8
Niacin	10.0	15.0
Riboflavin	.7	1.6
Iron	8.0	12.5
Optional ingredients:

Conclusions

On the basis of the foregoing findings of fact it is concluded that:

(a) The evidence does not establish a basis for definitions and standards of identity, which would be reasonable and would promote honesty and fair dealing in the interest of consumers, for—

Cream bread and cream rolls or cream buns.
Butter bread and butter rolls or butter buns.
Egg bread and egg rolls or egg buns.
Butter and egg bread and butter and egg rolls or butter and egg buns.
Honey bread and honey rolls or honey buns.
Milk and honey bread and milk and honey rolls or milk and honey buns.

(b) It would not promote honesty and fair dealing in the interest of consumers to prescribe definitions and standards of identity for white bread and white rolls permitting the use as optional ingredients of soybean flour (except the soybean product referred to in finding 23 and within the limit set forth in such finding), peanut flour, cottonseed flour, rolled oats, ground oatmeal, or oat flour in quantities insufficient to differentiate the baked products from bread and rolls. The evidence does not establish a basis for a determination as to what provisions should be included in definitions and standards of identity, which will promote honesty and fair dealing in the interest of consumers, for baked products containing such ingredients in quantities sufficient to differentiate such products from white bread and white rolls.

(c) It would not promote honesty and fair dealing in the interest of consumers to prescribe a definition and standard of identity for any kind of bread or rolls, except enriched bread and enriched rolls, providing for the use of processed wheat germ.

(d) It would not promote honesty and fair dealing in the interest of consumers to prescribe a definition and standard of identity for any kind of bread or rolls, except raisin bread and raisin rolls, providing for the use of concentrated water extract of raisins or raisin sirup.

(e) It would not promote honesty and fair dealing in the interest of consumers to prescribe a definition and standard of identity for any kind of bread or rolls providing for the use of blackstrap molasses, dark-colored brown sugar, or concentrated water extract of prunes.

(f) The evidence does not establish a basis for a determination that it would promote honesty and fair dealing in the interest of consumers to prescribe a definition and standard of identity for any kind of bread or rolls providing for the use of amino acids or of so-called "grain infusion", or a definition and standard of identity for raisin bread or raisin rolls providing for the use of raisins in any quantity less than 50 parts by weight to each 100 parts by weight of any kind of flour ingredient used.

(g) It would not promote honesty and fair dealing in the interest of consumers to prescribe a definition and standard of identity for any kind of bread or rolls made from two or more of the wheat ingredients flour (including bromated flour and phosphated flour), whole wheat flour, cracked wheat, and crushed wheat under the name of one of such ingredients, or which provides for the use of any such ingredient in any quantity less than 20 percent by weight of the total of such ingredients.

(h) The record contains no evidence on the interest of consumers in label declaration of the presence of the preservatives calcium propionate, sodium propionate, sodium diacetate, monocalcium phosphate, and vinegar. However, section 403 (k) of the Act requires a statement in the labeling of bread and rolls in which calcium propionate, sodium propionate, sodium diacetate, or monocalcium phosphate is used, disclosing the fact that such chemical preservative is present. An informative and accurate statement of that fact is "------ added to retard spoilage", the blank being filled in with the name whereby the chemical preservative used is above designated.

(i) Each of the following regulations fixing and establishing definitions and standards of identity for various kinds of bread and rolls or buns will promote honesty and fair dealing in the interest of consumers, and such regulations are hereby promulgated:

Regulations

§ 17.5 Bread and rolls or buns; identity; label statement of optional ingredients. (a) Each of the foods bread, and rolls or buns, is prepared by baking a kneaded yeast-leavened dough made by moistening flour with water, or with one or more of the liquid optional ingredients hereinafter specified, or with any mixture of water and one or more of such ingredients. (The term "flour", unqualified, as used in this section includes flour, bromated flour, and phosphated flour. The potassium bromate in any bromated flour used and the monocalcium phosphate in any phosphated flour used shall be deemed to be optional ingredients in the bread or rolls.) Each of such foods contains not less than 62 percent of total solids as determined by the method prescribed in "Official and Tentative Methods of Analysis of the Association of Official Agricultural Chemists", Fifth Edition, 1940, page 229, under "Total Solids in an Entire Loaf of Bread—Official", except that if the baked unit weighs 1 pound or more 1 entire unit is used for the determination, and if the baked unit weighs less than 1 pound, such number of entire units as weigh 1 pound or more are used for the determination.

(b) Bread is baked in units each of which weighs one-half pound or more after cooling. Rolls or buns are baked in units each of which weighs less than one-half pound after cooling.

(c) (1) When any optional ingredient, except a vinegar, permitted by paragraph (a) (11) is used, the label shall bear the statement "------ added to retard spoilage", the blank being filled in with the name whereby the ingredient used is designated in such paragraph.

(3) Wherever the name of the food appears on the label so conspicuously as to be seen under customary conditions of purchase, the words and statements hereinbefore specified in this paragraph shall immediately and conspicuously precede or follow such name, without intervening written, printed, or graphic matter.

[Order 37 Under Rev. MPR 148]

DESIGNATION AS CRITICAL MEAT SHORTAGE AREA

Order No. 37, Under Revised Maximum Price Regulation No. 148—Dressed Hogs and Wholesale Pork Cuts.

Pursuant to § 1364.23 (b) of Revised Maximum Price Regulation No. 148, I find that a critical shortage of meat has occurred in Key West and the Florida Keys because of the unavailability of customary sources of supply and because the established maximum prices do not contain a sufficient allowance to cover the cost of transporting meat to that area from other sources of supply. Key West and the Florida Keys are hereby designated critical areas, and the Regional Administrator for the Fourth Region, or any district manager authorized by him, may in writing authorize sellers to charge and receive, for dressed hogs and wholesale pork cuts and processed products sold to buyers in Key West and the Florida Keys, the actual added cost of transportation in addition to the applicable maximum price. Before giving such written authorization to any seller, the Regional Administrator or the District Manager, authorized by him, shall determine the actual added cost of transportation as follows. He shall ascertain the method of transportation which the seller proposes to use in transporting meat to Key West and the Florida Keys and the costs of such transportation. To the extent that these costs exceed the difference between the maximum f. o. b. shipping point prices at the point where the shipment originates and the maximum delivered prices in Key West and the Florida Keys, there is an actual added cost of transportation which may be charged in addition to the applicable maximum delivered price at Key West and the Florida Keys.

This designation shall remain in effect to and including October 1, 1943, unless sooner terminated or unless extended by an amendment to this order.

This order may be revoked or amended at any time.

Order No. 36 under Revised Maximum Price Regulation No. 169—Beef and Veal Carcasses and Wholesale Cuts.

Pursuant to § 1364.405 (b) of Revised Maximum Price Regulation No. 169, I find that a critical shortage of meat has occurred in Key West and the Florida Keys because of the unavailability of customary sources of supply and because the established maximum prices do not contain a sufficient allowance to cover the cost of transporting meat to that area from other sources of supply. Key West and the Florida Keys are hereby designated as critical areas, and the Regional Administrator for the Fourth Region, or any district manager authorized by him may in writing authorize sellers to charge and receive, for beef or veal carcasses and wholesale cuts and processed products sold to buyers in Key West and the Florida Keys, the actual added cost of transportation in addition to the applicable maximum prices. Before giving such written authorization to any seller, the Regional Administrator or the District Manager, authorized by him, shall determine the actual added cost of transportation as follows: He shall ascertain the method of transportation which the seller proposes to use in transporting meat to Key West and the Florida Keys and the costs of such transportation. To the extent that these costs exceed the difference between the maximum f. o. b. shipping point prices at the point where the shipment originates and the maximum delivered prices in Key West and the Florida Keys, there is an actual added cost of transportation which may be charged in addition to the applicable maximum delivered price at Key West and the Florida Keys.

This designation shall remain in effect to and including October 1, 1943, unless sooner terminated or unless extended by an amendment to this order.

This order may be revoked or amended at any time.

This order shall become effective July 31, 1943.

Regional, State and District Office Orders.

[Region II Order G-8, Under Rev. MPR 122]

PENNSYLVANIA ANTHRACITE IN BURLINGTON, CAMDEN, AND GLOUCESTER COUNTIES, N. J.

Order No. G-8 under §§ 1340.260 and 1340.259 (a) (1) of Revised Maximum Price Regulation No. 122—Solid Fuels Sold and Delivered by Dealers. Pennsylvania anthracite delivered by dealers in Burlington County, Camden County, and Gloucester County, State of New Jersey—Coal Area I.

For the reasons set forth in an opinion issued simultaneously herewith and under the authority vested in the Regional Administrator of the Office of Price Administration by §§ 1340.260 and 1340.259 (a) (1) of Revised Maximum Price Regulation No. 122, It is hereby ordered:

(a) What this order does—(1) Dealers' maximum prices: area covered. If you are a dealer in "Pennsylvania anthracite", this order fixes the maximum prices which you may charge, and if you are a purchaser in the course of trade or business, this order fixes the maximum prices which you may pay, for certain sizes and quantities of "Pennsylvania anthracite" (hereinafter called simply "anthracite") delivered to or at any point in the zones comprising State of New Jersey—Coal Area I. That area consists of four zones, as follows:

Zone 1. Zone 1 includes the following portions of the State of New Jersey: All of Camden County north of Evesham Road; the City of Beverly, the Boroughs of Medford Lakes, Palmyra, Riverton, and the Townships of Cinnaminson, Chester, Mount Laurel, Evesham, Medford, Moorestown, Delran, Riverside, Delanco, Edgewater Park, Willingboro in Burlington County; the City of Woodbury, the Boroughs of Westville, Woodbury Heights, Wenonah, Paulsboro, and the Townships of West Deptford, Deptford, Greenwich and East Greenwich in Gloucester County.

Zone 2. Zone 2 includes the following portions of the State of New Jersey: The City of Bordentown, the Borough of Fieldsboro and the Townships of Bordentown and Chesterfield in Burlington County.

Zone 3. Zone 3 includes the following portions of the State of New Jersey: The City of Burlington, the Boroughs of Pemberton and Wrightstown and the Townships of Florence, Mansfield, Burlington, Westampton, Hainesport, Lumberton, Mount Holly, Southampton, Eastampton, Pemberton, Springfield, North Hanover, and New Hanover in Burlington County.

Zone 4. Zone 4 includes the following portions of the State of New Jersey: All of Camden County and all of Gloucester County not included in Zone 1, and all of Burlington County not included in Zones 1, 2 and 3. Geographically, Zone 4 covers all of Camden County south of Evesham Road; the Boroughs of Swedesboro, Pitman, Glassboro, Clayton, Newfield, National Park, and the Townships of Logan, Woolwich, South Harrison, Harrison, Mantua, Washington, Monroe, Elk, and Franklin in Gloucester County; and the Townships of Shamong, Tabernacle, Woodland, Bass River and Washington in Burlington County.

(2) Schedules of prices, charges and discounts. The applicable prices, authorized charges, and required discounts, from which you shall determine the maximum prices for designated sizes and quantities of anthracite delivered within Zones 1, 2, 3 and 4 are set forth in Schedules I, II, III and IV, respectively.

(3) To what sales this order applies. If you are a dealer in anthracite you are bound by the prices, charges and discounts, and by all other provisions of this order for all deliveries within Zones 1, 2, 3 and 4.

You shall determine the maximum price for "Direct-Delivery" sales, as hereinafter defined, by reference to the appropriate Schedule of this order covering the zone to which delivery is made, whether or not you are located in one of the four zones.

You shall determine your maximum price for a "yard" sale, as hereinafter defined, by reference to the appropriate Schedule of this order covering the zone in which the purchaser takes physical possession or custody of the anthracite.

(b) What this order prohibits. Regardless of any contract or other obligations, you shall not—(1) Sell or, in the course of trade or business, buy anthracite of the sizes and in the quantities set forth in the Schedules herein, at prices higher than the maximum prices computed as set forth in paragraph (c) of this order, although you may charge, pay, or offer less than maximum prices.

(2) Obtain any price higher than the applicable maximum price by—

(i) Changing the discounts authorized herein, or

(ii) Charging for any service which is not expressly requested by the buyer, or

(iii) Charging for any service for which a charge is not specifically authorized by this order, or

(iv) Charging a price for any service higher than the Schedule price for such service, or

(v) Using any tying agreement or requiring that the buyer purchase anything in addition to the fuel requested by him, except that a dealer may comply with requirements or standards with respect to deliveries which have been or may be issued by an agency of the United States Government.

(vi) Using any other device by which a higher price than the applicable maximum price is obtained, directly or indirectly.

(c) How to compute maximum prices. You must figure your maximum price as follows:

(1) Use the schedule which covers your sale. (Schedule I applies to sales on a "Direct-Delivery" Basis, "Yard Sales", and "Sales in 18 lb. Paper Bags" within Zone 1. You will find Schedule I in paragraph (d). In like manner, Schedules II, III and IV apply to similar sales in Zones 2, 3 and 4, respectively. You will find Schedule II in paragraph (e), Schedule III in paragraph (f) and Schedule IV in paragraph (g).)

(2) For "direct-delivery" sales in each zone. (i) Take the dollars-and-cents figure set forth in paragraph (1) (i) of the applicable Schedule, for the sizes and quantity you are selling.

(ii) Deduct from that figure the amount of the discount which you are required to give, as specified in paragraph (1) (ii) of each Schedule.

(iii) If, at your purchasers' request, you actually render him a service for which this order authorizes a charge, you may add to the figure derived from the preceding sub-paragraphs no more than the maximum authorized service charge. You must state that charge separately on your invoice. The only authorized service charges are those provided for in paragraph (1) (iii) of each Schedule.

(iv) If you deliver a fraction of a net ton, even if less than one-half ton, and the applicable Schedule provides a discount on the basis of one ton or one-half ton, you shall allow a proportionate discount, making your calculation to the nearest full cent. For example, if you are required to deduct 50¢ per ton for cash payment, you shall deduct 38¢ for three-quarters of a ton and 13¢ for one-quarter of a ton.

(v) If you deliver a fraction of a net ton, but not less than one-half ton, and the applicable Schedule provides a service charge on the basis of one ton, you shall add no more than a proportionate service charge, making your calculation to the nearest full cent. For example, if the transaction permits a service charge of 50¢ per ton, you shall not add more than 38¢ for performance of that service in connection with the delivery of three-quarters of a ton.

(3) For "yard sales" in each zone. (i) Take the dollars-and-cents figure set forth in paragraph (2) (i) of the applicable schedule, for the sizes and quantity you are selling, and deduct from that figure the amount of the discount which you are required to give, as specified in paragraph (2) (ii) of each schedule. You shall not impose any charges in connection with such sales.

(ii) If you deliver a fraction of a net ton, even if less than one-half ton, and the applicable Schedule provides a discount on the basis of one ton or one-half ton, you shall allow a proportionate discount, making your calculation to the nearest full cent. For example, if you are required to deduct 50¢ per ton for cash payment, you shall deduct 38¢ for three-quarters of a ton and 13¢ for one-quarter of a ton.

(4) For "Sales in 18 lb. paper bags" in each zone. (i) The dollars-and-cents figure set forth in paragraph (3) of the applicable Schedule for the size of anthracite and type of sale there specified, shall be the maximum zone price. You shall not impose any charges, and you are required to give no discounts, in connection with such sales.

(d) Schedule I. Schedule I establishes specific maximum prices for certain sizes of anthracite, in certain specific quantities, delivered to or at any point within Zone 1.

(1) Sales on a "direct-delivery" basis. (i) For sales of anthracite of the sizes and in the quantities specified:

Nothing in this subparagraph requires you to sell on other than a cash basis.

You must grant this discount whether the purchaser has received 50 tons or more pursuant to a single purchase order, or several purchase orders, and whether there was delivery at one time or at intervals of time, the sole basis of the discount being the annual purchase of 50 tons or more for delivery at one point.

You must deduct this discount at or before the delivery of the 50th ton, and continue to grant the discount on every subsequent delivery during the same twelve-month period.

(4) Commingling. If you sell one size of anthracite, commingled with another size of anthracite, your maximum price for the combination shall be the maximum price established in this order for the smallest of the sizes so commingled, whether the sale be a "direct-delivery" sale, "yard sale" or "sale in 18-lb. paper bags", except in the following situation. Where a purchaser requests that two or more sizes of anthracite be commingled in one delivery, then, and in that event, if those sizes are separately weighed at the point of loading, the dealer may commingle those sizes in the truck or other vehicle in which the delivery is made. The price for anthracite so commingled shall be calculated on the basis of the applicable per net ton price for each size in the combination, and the invoice shall separately state the price, so determined, for the quantity of each size in the combination.

The price for anthracite so commingled shall be calculated on the basis of the applicable per net ton price for each size in the combination, and the invoice shall separately state the price, so determined, for the quantity of each size in the combination.

(h) Ex Parte 148—freight rate increase. Since the ex parte 148 freight rate increase has been rescinded by the Interstate Commerce Commission, dealers' freight rates are the same as those of December 1941. Therefore, you may not increase any schedule price on account of freight rates.

(i) Addition of increase in suppliers' maximum prices prohibited. You may not increase the specific maximum prices established by this order to reflect, in whole or in part, any subsequent increase to you in your supplier's maximum price for the same fuel. The specific maximum prices already reflect increases to you in your supplier's maximum prices occurring up to the effective date of this order. If increases in your supplier's maximum prices should occur after such date, as the result of any amendment to or revision of a maximum price regulation issued by the Office of Price Administration governing sales and deliveries made by such suppliers, the Regional Administrator will, if he then deems it to be warranted, take appropriate action to amend this order to reflect such increases.

(j) Taxes. If you are a dealer subject to this order you may collect, in addition to the specific maximum prices established herein, provided you state it separately, the amount of the Federal tax upon the transportation of property imposed by Section 620 of the Revenue Act of 1942 actually paid or incurred by you, or an amount equal to the amount of such tax paid by any of your prior suppliers and separately stated and collected from you by the supplier from whom you purchased.

(k) Adjustable pricing. You may not make a price adjustable to a maximum price which will be in effect at some time after delivery of the anthracite has been completed; but the price may be adjustable to the maximum price in effect at the time of delivery.

(l) Petitions for amendment. Any person seeking an amendment of any provision of this order may file a petition for amendment in accordance with the provisions of Revised Procedural Regulation No. 1, except that the petition shall be filed with the Regional Administrator and acted upon by him.

(m) Right of amendment or revocation. The Regional Administrator or the Price Administrator may amend, revoke or rescind this order, or any provision thereof, at any time.

(n) Applicability of other regulations. If you are a dealer subject to this order, you are governed by the licensing and registration provisions of sections 15 and 16 of the General Maximum Price Regulation. Sections 15 and 16 provide, in brief, that a license is required of all persons selling at retail commodities for which maximum prices are established. A license is automatically granted. It is not necessary to apply for the license, but you may later be required to register. The license may be suspended for violations in connection with the sale of any commodity for which maximum prices are established. If your license is suspended, you may not sell any such commodity during the period of suspension.

(o) Records. If you are a dealer subject to this order, you shall preserve, keep, and make available for examination by the Office of Price Administration, the same records you were required to preserve and keep under § 1340.262 (a) and (b) of Revised Maximum Price Regulation No. 122.

(p) Posting of maximum prices: sales slips and receipts. (1) If you are a dealer subject to this order, you shall post all your maximum prices (as set forth in the applicable schedule or schedules of this order) in your place of business in a manner plainly visible to and understandable by the purchasing public.

(2) If you are a dealer subject to this order, you shall, except for a sale of less than one-half ton, give each purchaser a sales slip or receipt showing your name and address, the kind, size, and quantity of the anthracite sold to him, the date of the sale or delivery and the price charged, separately stating the amount, if any, of the required discounts which must be deducted from, and the authorized service charges and the taxes, which may be added to, the specific maximum prices prescribed herein.

In the case of all other sales, you shall give each purchaser a sales slip or receipt containing the information described in the foregoing paragraph, if requested by such purchaser or if, during December 1941, you customarily gave purchasers such sales slips or receipts.

(q) Enforcement. (1) Persons violating any provision of this order are subject to civil and criminal penalties, including suits for treble damages, provided for by the Emergency Price Control Act of 1942, as amended.

(2) Persons who have any evidence of any violation of this order are urged to communicate with the Camden District Office of the Office of Price Administration.

(r) Definitions and explanations. When used in this Order No. G–8, the term

FLUID MILK IN CHAMBERLAIN, S. DAK.

Order No. G-1 under § 1499.75 (a) (2) of Supplementary Regulation No. 15 to the General Maximum Price Regulation. Adjustment of fluid milk prices in Chamberlain, South Dakota. (Formerly Order No. 12.)

The Regional Administrator has determined on his own motion after investigation that (1) the price paid to producers by manufacturers of butter, cheese, condensed and evaporated milk, or milk powder for milk produced within the milk shed on which Chamberlain, South Dakota, depends for its supply of fluid milk has increased 41¢ or more per cwt. since March 1942; (2) distributors of fluid milk in said locality, which has a population of less than 100,000, in order to obtain the supply of milk for fluid use necessary to satisfy the normal requirements of the locality, are paying producers of such milk at least 41¢ more per cwt. than they paid in March 1942, and (3) notwithstanding the savings that have been effected or which may be effected as the result of the adoption of all practicable measures designed to reduce distribution costs, such distributors cannot fairly be expected to continue to distribute fluid milk in the locality hereinafter designated at the maximum prices established for them under § 1499.2 of the General Maximum Price Regulation.

Accordingly, for the reasons more fully set forth in the accompanying opinion and pursuant to the Emergency Price Control Act of 1942, and sub-paragraph (2) (ii) of § 1499.75 (a) of Supplementary Regulation No. 15 to the General Maximum Price Regulation; It is ordered:

1. Subject to the limitations in paragraph 3 hereof the maximum prices established for sellers of milk at wholesale and retail by § 1499.2 of the General Maximum Price Regulation are herein increased as follows:

	Gallon	Quart	Pint	Half Pint
Wholesale (cents)	4.0	1.0	0.5	0.25
Retail (cents)	4.0	1.0	.5	.25

2. Where the adjusted maximum price is a unit figure containing a fraction of a cent, the seller at wholesale must multiply such fractional per unit figure by the number of units in each sale. The seller at retail, however, will adjust unit figures containing a fraction of a cent to the next highest half cent; for example, a maximum price of 12½¢ for one unit would be adjusted to 13¢ for one unit, 25¢ for two units, etc.

3. No seller at retail purchasing milk from a distributor at wholesale shall sell milk at the increased prices provided by paragraph 1 hereof until and unless he shall have purchased or contracted to purchase milk at an increased price.

4. Every person selling milk in bottles or paper containers at the increased prices herein permitted to a seller at retail shall furnish each such purchaser of milk with a statement which may be substantially in the following form:

The prices for milk have been increased in the amounts indicated below pursuant to permission of the Office of Price Administration. You are permitted to increase your prices by the same amount.

	Price increase
Gallon
Pint

5. This order shall apply to sales and deliveries within the city of Chamberlain, South Dakota and within an area of one mile from the city limits thereof. It shall also apply to sales and deliveries to the Crow Creek Indian Agency at Fort Thompson, South Dakota.

6. Milk shall mean cow's milk produced, processed, distributed and sold for consumption in fluid form as whole milk. Sales at wholesale or retail shall include all sales whether by producer, distributor or other person of milk in bottles or paper containers.

7. All sellers of milk who purchase milk directly from the producers thereof shall file with the South Dakota State Office of the Office of Price Administration a statement on the 20th day of each month beginning with December 1942 of the prices paid by them to producers of milk for all milk purchased during the preceding month.

8. Every seller of milk at retail shall make the necessary changes in its posting of maximum prices for cost-of-living commodities required by section 13 of the General Maximum Price Regulation, to reflect the increase in maximum prices for fluid milk in accordance with the permission granted hereby.

9. A copy of this order shall be sent to all known distributors of fluid milk and to the appropriate War Price & Rationing Board, and insofar as practicable the information contained herein shall be made available to the press serving Chamberlain, South Dakota.

10. This order shall be effective from the date hereof. It is subject to revocation or amendment by the Regional Administrator at any time hereafter upon a finding that butterfat prices have decreased to the point where no diversion is threatened or for other reasons. This order is further subject to revocation by any price regulation issued hereafter, or by any supplement or amendment hereafter issued as to any price regulation the provisions of which may be contrary hereto.

Regional Administrator.

FLUID MILK IN POCAHONTAS, IOWA

Order No. G-7 under Supplementary Regulation No. 14 to the General Maximum Price Regulation. Adjustment of fluid milk prices in Pocahontas, Iowa. (Formerly Order No. 7).

The Regional Administrator has determined on his own motion after investigation that (1) the use of March 1942 as the base period for the establishment of maximum prices for fluid milk in Pocahontas, Iowa, a city of less than 100,000 population, has established an abnormal differential between the prices charged for fluid milk in Pocahontas, Iowa and adjoining cities of approximately the same population; (2) this abnormal differential threatens to cause a diversion of a material portion of the normal milk supply of Pocahontas, Iowa, from Pocahontas to other adjoining cities; and (3) as a result of such threatened diversion, a shortage of fluid milk in Pocahontas, Iowa exists or is imminent.

Accordingly, for the reasons more fully set forth in the accompanying opinion, and pursuant to the Emergency Price Control Act of 1942 and § 1499.73 (a) (1) (vi) of Supplementary Regulation No. 14 of the General Maximum Price Regulation, It is ordered:

1. The maximum prices established for sellers of milk at wholesale and retail by § 1499.2 of the General Maximum Price Regulation are hereby increased as follows:

	Quart	Pint	Halfpint
Wholesale (cents)	2.0	1.0	0.50
Retail (cents)	2.0	1.0	None

2. The foregoing order shall apply to all sales and deliveries of fluid milk at wholesale and retail within the city limits of Pocahontas, Iowa and at the H. G. Gibson Grocery and the Coyle Grocery at Havelock, Iowa and at the Tuttle Grocery at Ware, Iowa.

3. Every person selling milk in bottles or paper containers to a seller at retail shall furnish to each such purchaser a statement substantially in the following form:

The prices for milk have been increased by two cents a quart and one cent a pint by permission of the Office of Price Administration. You are permitted to increase your prices by the same amount.

4. For the purposes of this order, the sale of milk at retail shall refer to any sale of fluid milk to an ultimate consumer of such milk other than an industrial or commercial user. A sale at wholesale shall refer to any sale of fluid milk in bottles or paper containers, whether by a producer, pasteurizer or other person, to any person, including a commercial and industrial user, other than an ultimate consumer.

5. Milk shall mean cow's milk produced, processed, distributed, and sold for consumption in fluid milk form.

6. This order shall be effective from the date hereof. It is subject to revocation or amendment by the Regional Administrator at any time hereafter upon a finding that the prevailing prices for fluid milk in cities adjoining Pocahontas, Iowa shall be decreased or for other reasons. This order is further subject to revocation by any price regulation issued hereafter, or by any supplement or amendment hereafter issued as to any price regulation, the provisions of which may be contrary hereto.

7. This order shall apply to all sales and deliveries of fluid milk at wholesale and retail within the city of Pocahontas, Iowa, and within a distance of one mile from the city limits thereof.

Regional Administrator.

FLUID MILK IN HOT SPRINGS, S. DAK.

[Region VI Order G-8 Under SR 14 to GMPR]

Order No. G-8 under Supplementary Regulation No. 14 to the General Maximum Price Regulation. Adjustment of fluid milk prices in Hot Springs, South Dakota. (Formerly Order No. 8.)

The Regional Administrator has determined on his own motion after investigation that (1) the price paid to producers by manufacturers of butter, cheese, condensed and evaporated milk, or milk powder for milk produced within the milk shed on which Hot Springs, South Dakota, depends for its supply for fluid milk has increased 23 cents or more per cwt. since March 1942; (2) distributors of fluid milk in said locality, which has a population of less than 100,000, in order to obtain the supply of milk for fluid use necessary to satisfy the normal requirements of the locality, are paying producers of such milk at least 23¢ more per cwt. than they paid in March 1942, and (3) notwithstanding the savings that have been effected or which may be effected as the result of the adoption of all practicable measures designed to reduce distribution costs, such distributors cannot fairly be expected to continue to distribute fluid milk in the locality hereinafter designated at the maximum prices established for them under § 1499.2 of the General Maximum Price Regulation.

Accordingly, for the reasons more fully set forth in the accompanying opinion and pursuant to Emergency Price Control Act of 1942, § 1499.73 (a) (1) (vi) of Supplementary Regulation No. 14 to the General Maximum Price Regulation, It is ordered:

1. Subject to the limitations in paragraph two hereof, the maximum prices established for sellers of milk at wholesale and retail by § 1499.2 of the General Maximum Price Regulation are herein increased as follows:

	Quart	Pint	Half pint
Wholesale	$0.01	$0.005	$0.0025
Retail	.01	.005	None

2. Where the adjusted maximum price is a unit figure containing a fraction of a cent, the seller at wholesale must multiply such fractional per unit figure by the number of units in each sale. The seller at retail, however, will adjust unit figures containing a fraction of a cent to the next highest half cent; for example, a maximum price of 12½¢ for one unit would be adjusted to 13¢ for one unit, 25¢ for two units, etc.

3. No distributor shall sell or deliver any milk at the increased prices provided for under section 1 hereof until and unless the following requirements have been met:

(a) With respect to a distributor who buys directly from a producer, until and unless he shall have purchased or contracted to purchase fluid milk from a producer at a price of 41¢ or more per cwt. in excess of the highest price paid in March 1942, and shall have reported such fact to the South Dakota State Office of the Office of Price Administration, or a duly authorized representative thereof.

(b) With respect to a seller at retail purchasing milk from a distributor at wholesale until and unless he shall have purchased or contracted to purchase milk at a price increase. In no event shall the maximum price of such seller at retail be increased by more than the highest increase in cost to himself.

4. Every person selling milk in bottles or paper containers at the increased prices herein permitted to a seller at retail shall furnish to each such purchaser of milk a statement which may be substantially in the following form:

The prices for milk have been increased in the amounts indicated below pursuant to permission of the Office of Price Administration. You are permitted to increase your prices by the same amount.

5. This order shall apply to all sales and deliveries of fluid milk at wholesale and retail within the city limits of Hot Springs, South Dakota, and within a distance of five miles from the city limits thereof and also within the limits of the Provo Ordnance Depot, Provo, South Dakota, as defined by the United States Army.

6. Milk shall mean cow's milk produced, processed, distributed and sold for consumption in fluid form. Sales at wholesale or retail shall include all sales whether by producer, distributor, or other person of milk in bottles or paper containers.

7. All sellers of milk who purchase directly from the producers thereof shall in addition to the statement provided for in section 2 (a) above, file with the South Dakota State Office of the Office of Price Administration a statement on the 10th day of each month beginning with December 1942 of the prices paid by them to producers of milk for milk purchased during the preceding month.

8. Every person selling milk at retail shall prepare and preserve a statement for examination as required by § 1499.11 (b) of the General Maximum Price Regulation, showing its adjusted prices for the sale of fluid milk in accordance with the permission granted hereby.

9. Every seller of milk at retail shall make the necessary changes in its posting of maximum prices for cost-of-living commodities, required by § 1499.13 of the General Maximum Price Regulation, to reflect the increase in maximum prices for fluid milk in accordance with the permission granted hereby.

10. A copy of this order shall be sent to all known distributors of fluid milk and to the appropriate War Price and Rationing Board, and insofar as practicable the information contained herein shall be made available to the press serving Hot Springs, South Dakota.

11. This order shall be effective from the date hereof. This order is further subject to revocation by any price regulation issued hereafter, or by any supplement or amendment hereafter issued as to any price regulation the provisions of which may be contrary hereto.

[Region VI Order G-9 Under SR 14 to GMPR]

FLUID MILK IN HUDSON, S. DAK.

Order No. G-9 under Supplementary Regulation No. 14 to the General Maximum Price Regulation. Adjustment of fluid milk prices in Hudson, South Dakota. (Formerly Order No. 9.)

The Regional Administrator has determined on his own motion after investigation that (1) the use of March as the base period for the establishment of maximum prices for fluid milk in Hudson, South Dakota, a city of less than 100,000 population, has established an abnormal differential between the prices charged for fluid milk in Hudson and adjoining cities of approximately the same population; (2) that this abnormal differential threatens to cause a diversion of a material portion of the normal milk supply of Hudson, South Dakota, from Hudson to other adjoining cities; and, (3) as the result of such diversion and threatened diversion, a shortage of fluid milk in Hudson exists and a further shortage is imminent.

Accordingly, for the reasons more fully set forth in the accompanying opinion, and pursuant to the Emergency Price Control Act of 1942 and § 1499.73 (a) (1) (iv) of Supplementary Regulation No. 14 to the General Maximum Price Regulation, It is ordered:

1. The maximum prices established for sellers of milk at wholesale and retail by § 1499.2 of the General Maximum Price Regulation are hereby established as follows:

	Wholesale	Retail
	Cents	Cents
Gallon	32	40
Quart	8	10
Pint	4	5

2. For the purposes of this order, the sale of milk at retail shall refer to any sale of fluid milk to an ultimate consumer of such milk other than an industrial or commercial user. A sale at wholesale shall refer to any sale of fluid milk in bottles or paper containers, whether by a producer, pasteurizer or other person, to any person, including a commercial and industrial user, other than an ultimate consumer.

3. Milk shall mean cow's milk produced, processed, distributed and sold for consumption in fluid form as whole milk.

4. This order shall be effective from the date hereof. It is subject to revocation or amendment by the Regional Administrator at any time hereafter upon a finding that the prevailing prices for fluid milk in cities adjoining Hudson shall have decreased, or for other reasons. This order is further subject to revocation by any price regulation issued hereafter, or by any supplement or amendment hereafter issued as to any price regulation the provisions of which may be contrary hereto.

5. This order shall apply to all sales and deliveries of fluid milk at wholesale and retail within the city of Hudson, South Dakota, and within a distance of one mile from the city limits thereof.

[Region VI Order G-10 Under SR 14 to GMPR]

FLUID MILK IN MACOMB, ILL.

Order No. G-10 under Supplementary Regulation No. 14 of the General Maximum Price Regulation. Adjustment of fluid milk prices in Macomb, Illinois. (Formerly Order no. 10).

The Regional Administrator has determined on his own motion after investigation that (1) the price paid to producers by manufacturers of butter, cheese, condensed and evaporated milk, or milk powder for milk produced within the milk shed on which Macomb, Illinois depends for its supply of fluid milk has increased 23¢ or more per cwt. since March 1942; (2) distributors of fluid milk in said locality, which has a population of less than 100,000, in order to obtain the supply of milk for fluid use necessary to satisfy the normal requirements of the locality, are paying producers of such milk at least 23¢ more per cwt. than they paid in March 1942, and (3) notwithstanding the savings that have been effected or which may be effected as the result of the adoption of all practicable measures designed to reduce distribution costs, such distributors cannot fairly be expected to continue to distribute fluid milk in the locality hereinafter designated at the maximum prices established for them under § 1499.2 of the General Maximum Price Regulation.

Accordingly, for the reasons more fully set forth in the accompanying opinion and pursuant to the Emergency Price Control Act of 1942, and § 1499.73 (a) (1) (vi) of Supplementary Regulation No. 14 to the General Maximum Price Regulation, It is ordered:

1. Subject to the limitations in paragraph 2 hereof the maximum price established for sellers of milk at wholesale and retail by § 1499.2 of the General Maximum Price Regulation are herein increased as follows:

	Gallon	Quart	Pint	Half pint
Wholesale (cents)	2.0	0.5	0.25	0.125
Retail (cents)	2.0	.5	.25	.125

2. Where the adjusted maximum price is a unit figure containing a fraction of a cent, the seller at wholesale must multiply such fractional per unit figure by the number of units in each sale. The seller at retail, however, will adjust unit figures containing a fraction of a cent to the next highest half cent; for example, a maximum price of 12½¢ for one unit would be adjusted to 13¢ for one unit, 25¢ for two units, etc.

3. No distributor shall sell or deliver any milk at the increased prices provided for under section 1 hereof until and unless the following requirements have been met:

(a) With respect to a distributor who buys directly from a producer, until and unless he shall have purchased or contracted to purchase fluid milk from a producer at a price of 23¢ or more per cwt. in excess of the highest price paid in March 1942, and shall have reported such fact to the Illinois State Office of the Office of Price Administration or a duly authorized representative thereof.

(b) With respect to a seller at retail purchasing milk from a distributor at wholesale until and unless he shall have purchased or contracted to purchase milk at a price increase. In no event shall the maximum price of such a seller at retail be increased by more than the highest increase in cost to himself.

4. Every person selling milk in bottles or paper containers at the increased prices herein permitted to a seller at retail shall furnish to each such purchaser of milk a statement which may be substantially in the following form:

The prices for milk have been increased in the amounts indicated below pursuant to permission of the Office of Price Administration. You are permitted to increase your prices by the same amount.

	Price increase
Gallon
Quart
Pint

5. This order shall apply to all sales and deliveries of fluid milk at wholesale and retail within the city of Macomb, Illinois and within a distance of one mile from the city limits thereof.

6. Milk shall mean cow's milk produced, processed, distributed and sold for consumption in fluid form as whole milk. Sales at wholesale or retail shall include all sales whether by producers, distributor or other person of milk in bottles or paper containers.

7. All sellers of milk who purchase milk directly from the producers thereof shall in addition to the statement provided for in section 2 (a) above, file with the Illinois State Office of the Office of Price Administration a statement on the 10th day of each month beginning with December 1942 of the prices paid by them to producers of milk for all milk purchased during the preceding month.

8. This order shall be effective from the date hereof. It is subject to revocation or amendment by the Regional Administrator at any time hereafter upon a finding that butterfat prices have decreased to the point where no diversion of fluid milk is threatened or for other reasons. This Order is further subject to revocation by any Price Regulation issued hereafter, or by any supplement or amendment hereafter issued as to any Price Regulation the provisions of which may be contrary hereto.

SECURITIES AND EXCHANGE COMMISSION.

[File No. 70-566]

WEST TEXAS UTILITIES COMPANY AND THE MIDDLE WEST CORPORATION

ORDER FURTHER EXTENDING TIME FOR PURCHASE OF SECURITIES

At a regular session of the Securities and Exchange Commission, held at its office in the City of Philadelphia, Pennsylvania, on the 29th day of July 1943.

On January 25, 1943, this Commission after a public hearing, issued its order with respect to a combined application and declaration, as amended, filed by West Texas Utilities Company and The Middle West Corporation regarding a proposed offer by West Texas Utilities Company to purchase all the outstanding securities of Pecos Valley Power & Light Company. Said application was granted and said declaration permitted to become effective subject to certain conditions.

The purchase offer became effective January 30, 1943 for a thirty-day period and, at the option of the company was subsequently extended to and including March 30, 1943. Subsequently West Texas Utilities Company filed Supplemental Applications, numbered 1 and 2, requesting, and the Commission granted, extensions to June 30, 1943 and to July 31, 1943 within which West Texas Utilities Company could make purchases pursuant to such offer. It is represented that at the close of business on July 26, 1943, 97.53% of the outstanding First Mortgage Bonds, 96.94% of the outstanding Income Debentures and 93.66% of the outstanding common stock of Pecos Valley Power & Light Company had been deposited pursuant to the terms of said offer.

The offer as made by the applicant provided that West Texas Utilities Company had the right at its option to purchase all securities offered if at least 90% of the principal amount of the bonds, 90% of the principal amount of the debentures and 80% of the shares of common stock of Pecos Valley Power & Light Company were deposited pursuant to such offer. Such percentages having been deposited, West Texas Utilities Company has elected to purchase all the securities deposited.

West Texas Utilities Company has now filed its amended Supplemental Application No. 3 requesting a further extension of the period within which it may purchase the outstanding securities of Pecos Valley Power & Light Company to August 31, 1943; and

It appearing appropriate to the Commission that such request be granted for the period from July 31, 1943 to August 31, 1943;

It is ordered, That the period within which West Texas Utilities Company may purchase the outstanding securities of Pecos Valley Power & Light Company be and the same is hereby extended to and including August 31, 1943, subject to the same conditions imposed by our order of January 25, 1943.

By the Commission.

Secretary.

IDAHO POWER CO. AND ELECTRIC POWER AND LIGHT CORP.

MEMORANDUM OPINION AND ORDER

At a regular session of the Securities and Exchange Commission, held at its office in the City of Philadelphia, Pennsylvania, on the 29th day of July, A. D. 1943.

In the matters of Idaho Power Company, Electric Power & Light Corporation, File No. 70-753; and Electric Power & Light Corporation, File No. 70-752.

Competitive bidding. Exemption: Application for exemption from competitive bidding requirements of subsections (b) and (c) of Rule U-50 with respect to the sale of 450,000 shares of $20 par value common stock of utility subsidiary of registered holding company, granted, pursuant to subparagraph (a) (5) of Rule U-50, and subject to the terms and conditions prescribed by Rule U-24.

Appearances. Wright, Gordon, Zachry, Parlin & Cahill of New York City by Wallace P. Zachry and Daniel James for Electric Power & Light Corporation. Reid & Priest of New York City by James L. Boone, and A. C. Inman of Boise, Idaho for Idaho Power Company. Sidney Willner and Chas. H. Kinnane for the Public Utilities Division.

Electric Power & Light Corporation ("Electric")[1] has filed a separate declaration and application (File No. 70-752) in these consolidated proceedings, concerning, among other things, a proposed sale of 450,000 shares of $20 par value common stock of its electric utility subsidiary, Idaho Power Company ("Idaho"), after (1) making a capital contribution to Idaho which will consist in part of 60,000 of the presently outstanding 150,000 shares of $100 par value common stock of Idaho, all of which 150,000 shares are held by Electric, and after (2) the remaining 90,000 outstanding shares of such $100 par value common stock have been split five shares for one. Electric by amendment to its declaration and application has applied for an exemption in respect to such proposed sale from the competitive bidding requirements of subsections (b) and (c) of Rule U-50 and has further requested that our order on such requested exemption issue at the earliest possible date and in advance of any other order in these consolidated proceedings.

After appropriate notice, a public hearing was held, and we have considered the record in regard to such requested exemption.

We have always emphasized, in dealing with problems of exemption from competitive bidding, that our decision in any particular case must depend upon an evaluation of all of the relevant factors therein and that these will necessarily differ in balance and weight from those in any other case. One of the most important of these factors is the type of security which is proposed to be sold. While Rule U-50 was drawn advisedly to cover issues and sales of common stock, we of course recognize that the factors affecting the conditions of sale of such a security differ considerably from those involved in the sale of senior securities and that a showing which would be insufficient to support an exemption in the latter situation may be sufficient in the former. We have therefore evaluated the testimony regarding the special problems which affect the sale of the common stock of Idaho from this perspective. These problems relate in part to the general lack of knowledge among investors concerning the Idaho Company, the fact that its common stock has never been available in the market and is thus not "seasoned", and in part to the fact that a cursory study of the company might well result in misunderstanding the prospects of its continuing to hold certain contract rights which are deemed to be valuable to it. Joe H. Gill, the president of Electric, testified that in his opinion the combination of these factors makes it important, in the interest of obtaining an advantageous price for the stock, that a thorough education be given to prospective purchasers. He felt this could best be given in the process of negotiation.

While we are not persuaded that competitive bidding would not be feasible in this situation, in view of all the circumstances herein, including the type of security, the judgment of the seller that a better price can be obtained by negotiation for the reasons already given, the lack of evidence of any affiliation between the seller and any of the prospective purchasers and the representation that the negotiations will be carried on as far as possible on a freely competitive basis,[2] we find that compliance with the competitive bidding requirements of subsections (b) and (c) of Rule U-50 is not necessary in the public interest, to protect investors or consumers, to insure the receipt of adequate consideration or to insure reasonableness of any fees or commissions to be paid in respect to such sale, and that an exemption from Rule U-50 may appropriately be granted. Our action in granting the exemption is not to be taken as an indication of what decision might be necessary if any of the circumstances here present were absent or if additional circumstances not now present existed.

It is therefore ordered, That pursuant to the applicable provisions of the Public Utility Holding Company Act of 1935, the said application for exemption of the sale of the Idaho common stock from the requirements of subsections (b) and (c) of Rule U-50 as to competitive bidding be, and it hereby is granted subject, however, to the terms and conditions prescribed in Rule U-24 of the General Rules and Regulations.

It is further ordered, That jurisdiction be and it hereby is, reserved expressly to pass upon all other matters involved in these consolidated proceedings, and to pass, in case of sale of such shares, upon the price to be received therefor by Electric, the spread between the price to Electric and the offering price to the public, and all other matters relating to terms and conditions of said sale.

By the Commission.

[SEAL] ORVAL L. DUBOIS,
Secretary.

[1] Electric is a registered holding company under the Public Utility Holding Company Act of 1935 and a subsidiary of Electric Bond and Share Company which is also a registered holding company under the Act.

[2] The president of Electric has undertaken to keep a record of all negotiations in regard to said sale and to report all such negotiations to us.

1. Quoting or selling cement at prices calculated or determined pursuant to or in accordance with the multiple basing-point delivered-price system; or quoting or selling cement pursuant to or in accordance with any other plan or system which results in identical price quotations or prices for cement at points of quotation or sale or to particular purchasers by respondents using such plan or system, or which prevents purchasers from finding any advantage in price in dealing with one or more of the respondents against any of the other respondents.

2. In connection with or in aid or support of any plan, system, acts, or practices prohibited in paragraph 1 above

(a) Refusing or declining to quote or sell cement at the location of the producing mill at a price effective at such location.

(c) Quoting or selling cement at f. o. b. mill prices calculated by deducting actual common-carrier transportation charges from delivered-price quotations or delivered prices which are equivalent to the sum of the base price at, plus common-carrier transportation charges from, any point other than the actual shipping point.

(d) Quoting or selling cement ostensibly at f. o. b. mill prices, but which prices, plus common-carrier transportation charges to purchasers' destinations, are systematically equivalent to identical delivered costs to such purchasers from differently located mills.

(e) Quoting or selling cement at delivered prices calculated as or systematically equivalent to the sum of the base price in effect at, plus common-carrier transportation charges from, any point other than the actual shipping point.

(f) Quoting or selling cement at delivered prices which systematically include a common-carrier transportation factor greater or less than the actual cost of such common-carrier transportation from the point of shipment to destination.

(g) Quoting or selling cement at delivered prices which systematically include a freight factor representing transportation by a common carrier having higher rates than the means of transportation actually employed.

(h) Quoting or selling cement at destination-cost figures accompanied by a requirement that for invoicing purposes the f. o. b. mill price shall be determined by making specified deductions from said destination cost figures.

(i) Quoting or selling cement to any instrumentality of the Federal Government in a manner or upon terms which deprive the Government of all or any part of the benefits of land-grant or other special common-carrier rates to which it may be lawfully entitled.

(j) Collecting, compiling, circulating, or exchanging information concerning common-carrier transportation charges for cement used or to be used as a factor in the price of cement, or using, directly or indirectly, any such information so compiled or received as a factor in the price of cement.

(l) Determining upon any basis for the selection or classification of customers, or using any basis so determined for selecting or classifying customers.

(m) Determining upon the projects or types of projects for which, or the purchasers or classes of purchasers to whom, sales of cement will or will not be made directly by respondents.

(n) Collecting, compiling and circulating, or exchanging statistical data which reveal the individual production, stocks, sales, or shipments of cement of any corporate respondent to other corporate respondents.

(o) Maintaining any form of espionage for the purpose of determining whether or not their customers purchase or deal in imported cement; or discontinuing or threatening to discontinue sales of cement to customers because they purchase or deal in imported cement.

(p) Determining upon any discounts, package charges or refunds thereon, or other terms or conditions of sale, or using any discounts, package charges or refunds thereon, or other terms or conditions of sale so determined.

3. Discriminating in price between or among their respective customers by systematically charging and accepting mill net prices which differ by the amounts necessary to produce delivered costs to purchasers identical with delivered costs available to such purchasers through purchases from other respondents.

4. Using any means substantially similar to those specifically set out in this order with the purpose or effect of accomplishing any of the things prohibited by this order.

It is further ordered, That, for the reasons set out in the findings as to the facts in this proceeding, the case growing out of the complaint herein be, and the same hereby is, closed as to respondent Castalia Portland Cement Company without prejudice to the right of the Commission, should future facts so warrant, to reopen the same and resume trial thereof in accordance with its regular procedure.

It is further ordered, That respondents shall, within sixty (60) days after the service upon them of this order, file with the Commission a report in writing setting forth in detail the manner and form in which they have complied with this order.

PART 1010—SUSPENSION ORDERS

[Suspension Order S-382]

NATIONAL BY-PRODUCTS CO., INC.

National By-Products Company, Inc., a corporation, of Des Moines, Iowa, is engaged, among other things, in the manufacture and sale of live stock feeds, in which molasses is customarily used as an ingredient. During the calendar year 1942, the corporation violated General Preference Order M-54 in that, being a "Class 2 Purchaser", as defined in said order, it accepted delivery of 32,189 gallons of molasses in excess of its permitted quota, and used 23,647 gallons of molasses in excess of its permitted consumption. National By-Products Company, Inc. was familiar with the provisions of General Preference Order M-54, and its violations of said order must be considered wilful.

These violations of General Preference Order M-54 have hampered and impeded the war effort of the United States by diverting a scarce and critical commodity to uses unauthorized by the War Production Board. In view of the foregoing, It is hereby ordered, That:

§ 1010.382 Suspension Order No. S-382. (a) During the term of this order, National By-Products Company, Inc., its successors or assigns, shall not purchase, accept delivery of, use or consume any molasses, as defined in General Preference Order M-54.

(b) Nothing contained in this order shall be deemed to relieve National By-Products Company, Inc., its successors or assigns, from any restriction, prohibition or provision contained in any other order or regulation of the War Production Board, except in so far as the same may be inconsistent with the provisions hereof.

(c) This order shall take effect on August 3, 1943, and shall expire on December 3, 1943.

Issued this 27th day of July 1943.

WAR PRODUCTION BOARD,
By J. JOSEPH WHELAN,
Recording Secretary.

Chapter XI—Office of Price Administration

PART 1315—RUBBER AND PRODUCTS AND MATERIALS OF WHICH RUBBER IS A COMPONENT

[MPR 149[1] incl. Amdt. 13]

MECHANICAL RUBBER GOODS

Sections 1315.21a, 1315.37(a) are amended by Amendment 13, effective August 9, 1943, so that Maximum Price Regulation No. 149 shall read as follows:

In the judgment of the Price Administrator the prices of mechanical rubber goods have risen to an extent and in a manner inconsistent with the purposes of the Emergency Price Control Act of 1942. The Price Administrator has ascertained and given due consideration to the prices of mechanical rubber goods prevailing between October 1 and October 15, 1941, and has made adjustments for such relevant factors as he has determined and deemed to be of general applicability. So far as practicable, the Price Administrator has advised and consulted with representative members of the industry which will be affected by this Regulation.

In the judgment of the Price Administrator the maximum prices established by this regulation are and will be generally fair and equitable and will effectuate the purpose of said Act. A statement of the considerations involved in the issuance of this regulation has been issued simultaneously herewith and filed with the Division of the Federal Register.[2]

Therefore, under the authority vested in the Price Administrator by the Emergency Price Control Act of 1942, and in accordance with Procedural Regulation No. 1,[3] issued by the Office of Price Administration, Maximum Price Regulation No. 149 is hereby issued.

[2] Statements of considerations are also issued simultaneously with the issuance of amendments. Copies may be obtained from the Office of Price Administration.

§ 1315.21a Maximum manufacturers' prices for mechanical rubber goods. This section establishes maximum manufacturers' prices for all mechanical rubber goods, except those for which provision is made in Appendix D (§ 1315.37).

[Sentence added by Amendment 4]

(a) Maximum prices for mechanical rubber goods listed in Appendix A. The maximum price for mechanical rubber goods of the types and kinds listed in Appendix A, incorporated as § 1315.34 of this regulation, shall be the price determined as follows, less the deduction required by paragraph (e) of this section, wherever applicable:

(1) List or regularly quoted price. This subparagraph is applicable to any mechanical rubber good listed in Appendix A the price of which was stated in the schedule or price list of the manufacturer in effect on October 1, 1941, or the price of which was regularly quoted by the manufacturer in any other manner on that date. The maximum price of any mechanical rubber good covered by this subparagraph which does not contain any synthetic rubber shall be the base price determined in accordance with subdivision (i). The maximum price for any mechanical rubber good covered by this subparagraph which contains any synthetic rubber shall be determined as follows: The manufacturer shall first determine the base price for the sale of the mechanical rubber good to that class of purchasers to which he sold the largest volume of that type of mechanical rubber good during the calendar year 1942. The base price shall be determined in accordance with subdivision (i). The manufacturer shall then deduct from that base price a differential which reflects the difference between the price of synthetic rubber in effect on October 1, 1941, and the price for that material in effect on August 1, 1943. This differential shall be determined in accordance with subdivision (ii). The price calculated in the manner just set forth is the manufacturer's maximum price to that class of purchasers to which he sold the largest volume of the type of mechanical rubber good being priced during the calendar year 1942. The manufacturer shall determine his maximum price for sales of the mechanical rubber good to other classes of purchasers by adjusting this price to reflect the differentials that the manufacturer had in effect to other classes or purchasers on October 1, 1941. If the price of the synthetic rubber contained in the commodity was the same on October 1, 1941, and August 1, 1943, the base price is the maximum price. If the price the manufacturer regularly quoted for conveyor, transmission or elevator belting on October 1, 1941, was for belting without a skim coat and if the manufacturer produces such belting with a skim coat in addition to the friction coat, the maximum price for the belting with both a skim coat and the friction coat shall be determined by adding 10% of the maximum price of the carcass established by this subparagraph (1) to the maximum price of the belting without a skim coat established by this subparagraph (1).

(i) Base price. The base price is the first applicable of the following prices:

(a) The price stated in the price list of the manufacturer in effect on October 1, 1941, for mechanical rubber goods of the same class, kind, type, condition and grade, less all discounts, allowances, and other deductions from the list price which the manufacturer had in effect for a purchaser of the same class on October 1, 1941.

(b) The price the manufacturer regularly quoted on October 1, 1941, other than through the medium of a price list, for mechanical rubber goods of the same class, kind, type, condition and grade less all discounts, allowances, and other deductions from this price which the manufacturer had in effect for a purchaser of the same class on October 1, 1941.

(ii) Differential. The differential which must be subtracted from the base price shall be determined as follows: The manufacturer shall first determine the amount of each type of synthetic rubber required to produce the commodity. The manufacturer will then multiply this amount by the difference between the price of the synthetic rubber in effect to the manufacturer, or if no price was in effect to the manufacturer, the price in effect to a purchaser of the same class on October 1, 1941, and the price for that material in effect to the manufacturer, or if no price was in effect to the manufacturer, the price in effect to a purchaser of the same class on August 1, 1943. The resulting figure is the differential. If the manufacturer on October 1, 1941, sold several sizes or styles of a mechanical rubber good at the same price to the same class of purchasers, he shall use the same differential for all the sizes or styles that he sold on October 1, 1941, at the same price to the same class of purchasers. This differential shall be calculated by the method set forth in this subdivision except that in applying that method the manufacturer shall use the procedure he customarily used on October 1, 1941, to arrive at a uniform price for the different sizes or styles. If the manufacturer used no such customary procedure on October 1, 1941, he shall use as the basis for calculating the differential the size or style of which he sold the largest quantity during the period January 1, 1943, to June 30, 1943, inclusive.

[Paragraph (1) amended by Amendment 12, 8 F.R. 9751, effective 7-20-43 and Amendment 13, effective 8-9-43]

(2) Formula prices—(i) Applicability. This subparagraph is applicable to any mechanical rubber goods listed in Appendix A for which the manufacturer did not have a price stated in his schedule or price list in effect on October 1, 1941, or for which he did not regularly quote a price in some other manner on that date.

(ii) Mechanical rubber goods which are the same as those dealt in by the manufacturer on October 1, 1941, except for the substitution of Buna-S GR-S or butyl GR-I for natural rubber. This subdivision is applicable to any mechanical rubber good covered by this subparagraph which differs from a mechanical rubber good for which the manufacturer had a price stated in his price list in effect on October 1, 1941, or for which he regularly quoted a price in any other manner on that date, only by reason of the changes made necessary by the substitution of Buna-S GR-S or butyl GR-I for natural rubber. The maximum price of any mechanical rubber good covered by this subdivision shall be the maximum price established by subparagraph (1) for the mechanical rubber good when made of natural rubber.

(iii) Mechanical rubber goods not covered by subdivision (ii). This subdivision is applicable to any mechanical rubber good covered by this subparagraph (2) which is not covered by subdivision (ii). The maximum price of mechanical rubber goods covered by this subdivision shall be the sum total of direct labor and direct materials cost plus a gross margin which the manufacturer would have added to the total direct cost in arriving at a selling price to a purchaser of the same class on October 1, 1941. Direct labor costs shall be determined by multiplying the estimated number of hours of each type of labor required in the manufacture of the commodity by the wage rates in effect to the manufacturer on October 1, 1941. The direct materials cost shall be determined by multiplying the estimated quantity of each type of material required in the manufacture of the commodity by the following material prices: (a) For synthetic rubber, the manufacturer shall use the net price for the material in effect to him, or if no price was in effect to him, the net price for the material in effect to a purchaser of the same class on August 1, 1943. (b) For all other materials, the manufacturer shall use the net materials prices in effect to him, or if no price was in effect to a purchaser of the same class on October 1, 1941. The gross margin shall be calculated by the methods and rates used by the manufacturer on October 1, 1941, which shall be the methods and rates filed in accordance with the provisions of paragraph (a) of § 1315.28. If the manufacture of a mechanical rubber good requires the use of materials, labor or equipment the October 1, 1941, price of which is not ascertainable the cost of such items to be used in determining the maximum price shall be the first ascertainable price after October 1, 1941.

[Paragraph (a) amended by Amendment 9, 8 F.R. 7495, effective 6-17-43 (effective date changed to 7-10-43 by Amendment 11, 8 F.R. 8376, effective 6-17-43) and Amendment 13, effective 8-9-43. Former (a) revoked and former (b) redesignated (a) by Amendment 4]

(b) Maximum prices for mechanical rubber goods listed in Appendix B. The maximum price for all mechanical rubber goods of the types and kinds listed in Appendix B, incorporated herein as § 1315.35, shall be determined in the same manner as that stated in paragraph (a) of this § 1315.21a, except that the date January 5, 1942, shall in every case be substituted for the date October 1, 1941.

[Paragraph (b) as amended by Amendment 3, 7 F.R. 10103, effective 12-8-42, and Amendment 9, 8 F.R. 7495, effective 6-17-43 (effective date changed to 7-10-43 by Amendment 11, 8 F.R. 8376, effective 6-17-43). Formerly paragraph (c); redesignated (b) by Amendment 4]

[Original paragraph (d) redesignated (c) by Amendment 4 and revoked by Amendment 9. Original paragraph (e) added by Amendment 1; redesignated (d) by Amendment 4 and revoked by Amendment 6]

(c) The maximum price for any mechanical rubber goods which cannot be priced under paragraphs (a) or (b) of this section shall be a price determined by the seller after specific authorization from the Office of Price Administration. A seller who seeks an authorization to determine a maximum price under the provisions of this paragraph shall file with the Office of Price Administration in Washington, D. C., an application setting forth (1) a description in detail of the mechanical rubber good for which a maximum price is sought (including the manufacturing process); (2) a statement of the facts which make it impossible for him to use the methods for determining a maximum price set forth in paragraphs (a) and (b) of this section; (3) his proposed pricing method; and (4) a statement of the reasons why he believes that the use of this method will result in prices which are in line with the level of maximum prices established by this Maximum Price Regulation No. 149. Such authorization will be given in the form of an order prescribing a method of determining the maximum price for some or all of the mechanical rubber goods manufactured by the applicant which cannot be priced under paragraphs (a) or (b) of this section.

[Paragraph (c) added by Amendment 8 as Paragraph (f); redesignated by Amendments 4, 6 and 9]

(d) Once the manufacturer has determined his maximum price for the sale of a particular mechanical rubber good to a particular class of purchasers (as defined in paragraph (a) (4) of § 1315.31) that price is his maximum for all future sales of that mechanical rubber good to that class of purchasers. However, if the manufacturer sells that mechanical rubber good to a purchaser of a different class, he must determine his maximum price for that sale in accordance with the applicable provisions of this section. For example, if the manufacturer has determined the maximum price for 100 gaskets and he later receives an order for 10,000 gaskets, and if on October 1, 1941, it was his practice to sell 10,000 gaskets at a lower price per unit than 100 gaskets, the manufacturer must determine his maximum price for the sale of the 10,000 gaskets in accordance with the applicable provisions of this section.

[Paragraph (d) added by Amendment 3 as paragraph (g). Redesignated by Amendments 4, 6 and 9]

(e) Deduction of the amount of the Federal excise tax. If, on October 1, 1941, in the case of the articles listed in Appendix A and on January 5, 1942, for the articles listed in Appendix B, the manufacturer did not bill the Federal excise tax on rubber products separately, he shall deduct the amount of such tax from the price determined in accordance with paragraphs (a) to (c), inclusive, of this § 1315.21a: Provided, That where the manufacturer had a price list in effect for the article on September 30, 1941, this deduction shall not exceed the amount by which the price determined in accordance with paragraphs (a) to (c), inclusive, exceeds the price stated in the manufacturer's price list in effect on September 30, 1941, less all discounts, allowances and other deductions from the list price in effect for a purchaser of the same class on that date.

[Paragraph (e) added by Amendment 6, as paragraph (f), 8 F.R. 1312, effective 2-3-43. Redesignated (e) by Amendment 9]

[Paragraph (a) as amended by Amendment 12, 8 F.R. 9751, effective 7-20-43]

(b) Maximum prices—(1) How the wholesaler calculates the maximum price. The maximum price for a sale by a wholesaler of any mechanical rubber goods covered by this section shall be determined by multiplying the percentage determined in accordance with subparagraph (2) by:

(i) The wholesaler's net invoiced cost of the commodity, if available, not to exceed the applicable maximum price; or

(ii) If actual cost is not available, the net invoiced cost of the commodity as estimated by the wholesaler's supplier: Provided, That the wholesaler has no reason to believe that the price so estimated exceeds the maximum price.

(2) How the wholesaler determines the percentage which must be used in determining the maximum price. The percentage which the wholesaler must use in determining the maximum price shall be determined as follows:

(i) The wholesaler shall first determine what mechanical rubber goods he must use in determining the percentage. That mechanical rubber good shall be the first applicable of the following mechanical rubber goods which he offered for sale on October 1, 1941, in the case of mechanical rubber goods listed in Appendix A and on January 5, 1942, in the case of mechanical rubber goods listed in Appendix B:

(a) The mechanical rubber good which is the same as the mechanical rubber good being priced.

(b) The mechanical rubber good which has the same use as the mechanical rubber good being priced. If there is more than one mechanical rubber good which has the same use as the mechanical rubber good being priced, the wholesaler shall use that one of those mechanical rubber goods whose purchase price is nearest to the purchase price of the mechanical rubber good being priced.

(c) The mechanical rubber good whose purchase price is nearest to the purchase price of the mechanical rubber good being priced.

(ii) The wholesaler shall then determine the price at which on October 1, 1941, in the case of mechanical rubber goods listed in Appendix A, and on January 5, 1942, in the case of mechanical rubber goods listed in Appendix B, he was offering to sell that mechanical rubber good to a purchaser of the same class.

(iii) The wholesaler shall then determine the percentage by dividing this selling price by the price in effect to him on the date on which he established that selling price.

(c) Maximum wholesalers' prices for mechanical rubber goods that cannot be priced in accordance with paragraph (b). The maximum wholesalers' price for any mechanical rubber good covered by this section which cannot be priced in accordance with the provisions of paragraph (b) shall be a price in line with the level of maximum prices established by this regulation, determined by the wholesaler after specific authorization from the Office of Price Administration. A wholesaler seeking such authorization shall file with the Office of Price Administration in Washington, D. C., an application setting forth:

(1) A description of the mechanical rubber good in question;

(2) The price at which he purchased that mechanical rubber good;

(3) His proposed pricing method; and

(4) A statement of the reasons why he believes that the use of this method will result in prices in line with the level of maximum prices established by this regulation.

After receipt of this report the Office of Price Administration will in writing establish a maximum price for some or all of the mechanical rubber goods sold by the wholesaler which cannot be priced in accordance with the automatic pricing provisions of this section.

It shall not be treated under any provision of any price regulation or any interpretation thereof, as a tax for which a charge may be made in addition to the maximum price.]

§ 1315.22 Federal and state taxes. Any tax upon or incident to, the sale, delivery or processing of mechanical rubber goods imposed by any statute of the United States or statute or ordinance of any state or subdivision thereof, shall be treated as follows in determining the seller's maximum price: If the statute or ordinance imposing such tax does not prohibit the seller from stating and collecting the tax separately from the purchase price, and the seller does separately state it, the seller may collect, in addition to the maximum price, the amount of the tax actually paid by him or an amount equal to the amount of tax paid by any prior vendor and separately stated and collected from the seller by the vendor from whom he purchased.

§ 1315.22a Terms and conditions of sale. (a) No seller shall require any purchaser, and no purchaser shall be permitted to pay a larger proportion of the transportation costs incurred in the delivery of mechanical rubber goods, than the seller required purchasers of the same class to pay during October, 1941, in the case of mechanical rubber goods listed in Appendix A, and during January, 1942, in the case of mechanical rubber goods listed in Appendix B, on deliveries of the same or similar types of commodities.

(b) The maximum prices established by this regulation shall not be increased by any charges for the extension of credit, unless (1) during October, 1941, in the case of mechanical rubber goods listed in Appendix A, and during January, 1942, in the case of mechanical rubber goods listed in Appendix B, the seller required payment of a separately stated additional charge for the extension of credit by purchasers of the same class on sales of the same or similar types of commodities, and (2) the amount charged for the extension of credit is not in excess of the charge the seller had in effect for extension of credit involving the same amount and term, during October, 1941, in the case of mechanical rubber goods listed in Appendix A, and during January, 1942, in the case of mechanical rubber goods listed in Appendix B.

[§ 1315.23 as amended by Amendment 3, 7 F.R. 10103, effective 12–8–42]

§ 1315.24 Transfer of business or stock in trade. If the business, assets or stock in trade of any business are sold or otherwise transferred after October 1, 1941, and the transferee carries on the business, or continues to deal in the same type of mechanical rubber goods, in the same competitive area and in an establishment separate from an establishment previously owned or operated by him, the transferee shall be subject to the same maximum prices as those to which his transferor would have been subject under this Maximum Price Regulation No. 149, if no such transfer had taken place, and his obligation to keep records sufficient to verify such prices shall be the same. The transferor in such cases shall either preserve and make available, or turn over, to the transferee all records of transactions prior to the transfer which are necessary to enable the transferee to comply with the provisions of this Maximum Price Regulation No. 149.

§ 1315.25 Less than maximum prices. Lower prices than those established by this Maximum Price Regulation No. 149 may be charged, demanded, paid or offered.

[§ 1315.25a, added by Amendment 8, 8 F.R. 3942, effective 4–1–43; revoked by Amendment 9, 8 F.R. 7495, effective 6–17–43 (effective date changed to 7–10–43 by Amendment 11, 8 F.R. 8376, effective 6–17–43)]

§ 1315.26 Evasion. The price limitations set forth in this Maximum Price Regulation No. 149 shall not be evaded, whether by direct or indirect methods, in connection with an offer, solicitation, agreement, sale, delivery, purchase or receipt of, or relating to, mechanical rubber goods, alone or in conjunction with any other commodity or by way of commission, service, transportation; or other charge, or discount, premium or other privilege, or by tying-agreement or other trade understanding, or otherwise.

§ 1315.27 Records. Persons subject to this Maximum Price Regulation No. 149 shall keep available for inspection by representatives of the Office of Price Administration records of the following:

(a) For each sale or delivery of mechanical rubber goods after May 26, 1942, showing the date thereof, the name and address of the buyer, the price received, and the quantity of each class, kind, type, condition, and grade of mechanical rubber goods sold or delivered.

(b) For all mechanical rubber goods listed in Appendix A, incorporated herein as § 1315.34:

(1) Published and confidential price lists and discount sheets in effect on October 1, 1941, and all prices which the manufacturer regularly quoted in any other manner on that date.

[Paragraph (1) as amended by Amendment 3, 7 F.R. 10103, effective 12–8–42]

(2) Price determining methods—including labor rates, material prices, and rates used in the calculation of gross margin—in effect on October 1, 1941.

(3) Detailed cost estimate sheets and other data showing the calculations of prices of all mechanical rubber goods sold or delivered after May 26, 1942 for which the price lists of the manufacturer in effect on October 1, 1941 did not state a price.

(c) For all mechanical rubber goods listed in Appendix B, the same records as those required by paragraph (b) of this § 1315.27, except that the date January 5, 1942, shall in every case be substituted for the date October 1, 1941.

[Paragraph (c) as amended by Amendment 3, effective 12–8–42]

§ 1315.28 Reports. (a) Every manufacturer subject to the provisions of this Maximum Price Regulation No. 149, who has not already done so, shall file with the Office of Price Administration, Washington, D. C., on or before December 18, 1942:

(1) For all mechanical rubber goods listed in Appendix A:

(i) Published and confidential price lists and discount sheets in effect on October 1, 1941, and all other regularly quoted prices and discounts and all other deductions therefrom in effect on that date.

(ii) Price determining methods and rates used in the determination of the gross margin in effect on October 1, 1941, for those articles, the maximum prices of which are not established by this regulation by reference to a schedule or price list or some other regularly quoted price. If after December 7, 1942, the manufacturer produces any mechanical rubber goods, the gross margin for which is determined by methods and rates other than those he has already filed with the Office of Price Administration, he must file such methods and rates with the Office of Price Administration, Washington, D. C., prior to first offering such article for sale. If as of December 8, 1942 the maximum prices of all of the mechanical rubber goods produced by the manufacturer are established by this regulation by reference to a schedule or price list or by some other regularly quoted prices, the manufacturer shall report that fact to the Office of Price Administration, Washington, D. C., on or before December 18, 1942.

(2) For all mechanical rubber goods listed in Appendix B, the same reports as those required by paragraph (a) (1) of this section, except that the date January 5, 1942, shall in every case be substituted for the date October 1, 1941.

[Paragraph (a) as amended by Amendment 3, effective 12–8–42]

(b) This paragraph (b) is applicable to mechanical rubber goods the maximum price of which cannot be determined by reference to the price stated in the schedule or price list of the manufacturer in effect on the base date (October 1, 1941, for articles listed in Appendix A and January 5, 1942, for articles listed in Appendix B) or by reference to a price regularly quoted in some other manner by the manufacturer on the base date. If any such mechanical rubber good be listed as a new standard list good, the manufacturer shall report to the Office of Price Administration, Washington, D. C., that the article is being so listed and, prior to offering such mechanical rubber good for sale, shall report a detailed description thereof (including the size), the maximum price of each such article, the calculations used in the determination of the maximum price, the proposed selling price, and the terms of sale to each class of purchaser. The manufacturer may not accept payment for the commodity until fifteen days have elapsed after the mailing of the report. Within this fifteen day period the price so reported shall be subject to adjustment by the Office of Price Administration. Subsequent to this fifteen day period, such price shall be subject to adjustment (not to apply retroactively) at any time upon the written order of the Office of Price Administration.

[Paragraph (b) as amended by Amendment 6, 8 F.R. 1312, effective 2–3–43]

(c) Every person subject to this Maximum Price Regulation No. 149 shall keep such other records and submit such other reports, including periodic financial statements, as the Office of Price Administration may from time to time require, either in addition to, or in substitution for, records and reports herein required.

[Former paragraph (c) revoked by Amendment 6, effective 2–3–43. Former (d) redesignated (c)]

§ 1315.29 Enforcement. (a) Persons violating any provisions of this Maximum Price Regulation No. 149 are subject to the criminal penalties, civil enforcement actions, and suits for treble damages provided for by the Emergency Price Control Act of 1942.

(b) Persons who have evidence of any violation of this Maximum Price Regulation No. 149 or any price schedule, regulation, or order issued by the Office of Price Administration or of any acts or practices which constitute such a violation are urged to communicate with the nearest District, State or Regional Office of the Office of Price Administration or its principal office in Washington, D. C.

[NOTE: Supplementary Order No. 7 (7 F.R. 5176) provides that War Procurement Agencies and Governments whose defense is vital to the defense of the United States shall be relieved of liability, civil or criminal, imposed by price regulations issued by the Office of Price Administration.]

§ 1315.30 Petitions for amendment. Persons seeking an amendment of any provision of this Maximum Price Regulation No. 149 may file a petition for amendment in accordance with the provisions of Revised Procedural Regulation No. 1.

[§ 1315.30 as amended by Supplementary Order 26, 7 F.R. 8948, effective 11-4-42]

§ 1315.30a Adjustments—(a) Application by a manufacturer—(1) Who may receive an adjustment. The manufacturer's maximum price for mechanical rubber goods established by this regulation may be adjusted only in the case of an essential producer of an essential mechanical rubber good. An "essential mechanical rubber good" is one which contributes to the effective prosecution of the war. An "essential producer" is one whose output of mechanical rubber goods cannot be reasonably expected to be replaced at prices lower than the proposed adjusted maximum price. In addition, any person who has entered into or proposes to enter into a war contract (as defined in subparagraph (5)) or a subcontract thereunder, is an essential producer of mechanical rubber goods.

(2) When adjustment may be granted—(i) In general. The Office of Price Administration, any regional office, or such other offices as may be authorized by order issued by the appropriate regional office, may adjust the maximum price in the case of an essential producer of an essential mechanical rubber good upon the basis of information submitted by the manufacturer or of other information. It may make that adjustment whenever it finds that the maximum price of a commodity is at such a level that, taking into account the costs thereof, the profits position of the manufacturer and the nature of his business, production of the commodity is impeded or threatened and that the adjustment would not cause an increase in the cost of living.

(ii) Factors which may be considered. (a) The following factors are relevant to consideration of whether production of the commodity is impeded or threatened:

(1) Whether, and by what amount, the maximum price is below or above (i) the current manufacturing costs plus freight out, installation charges, cash discounts and sales and service commissions paid to independent dealers, and (ii) the current total unit costs, of the commodity.

(2) Whether, and by what amount, the manufacturer's current over-all profits, before income and excess profit taxes, are greater or less than his average over-all profits during the normal base period, increased by 7% of the additional capital investment contributed entirely by the manufacturer, or its stockholders, since the normal base period. Capital investment will be construed as including accumulated profits.

(3) Whether the proposed price is higher than the price prevailing in the industry.

(4) Whether the manufacturer's sales of the commodity represent only a very small part of his total sales.

(5) Whether the manufacturer previously sold the commodity at a price which is below its total unit costs.

(b) The following factors are relevant to consideration of whether the adjustment would cause an increase in the cost of living:

(1) Whether the mechanical rubber good or a commodity in the production of which it is used is of a type sold to civilian consumers other than industrial consumers.

(2) If such is the case, whether the increase in price allowed by adjustment would be absorbed prior to sale to a non-industrial consumer.

(3) Whether, if the applicant did not produce the mechanical rubber good, his output would be replaced by the same or a substitute commodity at prices equal to or higher than the proposed adjusted maximum price.

(3) How the manufacturer proceeds in applying for an adjustment—(i) In general. An application for adjustment under this paragraph (a) shall be filed in accordance with Revised Procedural Regulation No. 1 and shall be made on Form OPA 696-167a set out in Appendix E, incorporated as § 1315.38 of this regulation. Copies of this amendment which contains this form and the instructions for completing it may be obtained from any district, State or regional office of the Office of Price Administration. If the manufacturer's total sales in the calendar year 1942, or in the fiscal year ending in 1942, exceeded $500,000, the application shall be filed with the Office of Price Administration in Washington, D. C. If the manufacturer's total sales during that period did not exceed $500,000, the application shall be filed with the regional office of the Office of Price Administration located in the same region that the manufacturer's business is located.

(ii) Application based on proposed wage or salary increase to be authorized by the National War Labor Board. A manufacturer who believes that the conditions for an adjustment set forth in this paragraph (a) would exist if the National War Labor Board should grant a pending application for wage or salary increase may file an application for adjustment under this paragraph. Applications for adjustment of maximum prices based on wage or salary increases requiring the approval of the National War Labor Board must also comply with Supplementary Order No. 28,[5] which requires, among other things, that an application for adjustment in such case be filed within 15 days after an application for a wage or salary adjustment has been filed with the National War Labor Board, or, in a disputed wage proceeding, within 15 days after the employer receives notification that the National War Labor Board has taken jurisdiction of the dispute.

(4) Prices for deliveries made pending disposition of the application. A manufacturer who has filed an application under this paragraph (a) may contract or agree that deliveries made during the pendency of the application shall be at a specific price which is higher than the existing maximum price which the manufacturer wants to have adjusted. But no payment in excess of that existing maximum price may be received until the application is finally disposed of, and at that time the price received may not exceed the maximum price as determined by the Office of Price Administration.

A manufacturer who wishes to enter into such an arrangement must specifically state to the buyer the following:

(i) The maximum price for the commodity;

(ii) The fact that an appropriate application for an adjustment of that maximum price has been filed with the Office of Price Administration;

(iii) The fact that the specific price quoted by the manufacturer is subject to the approval of the Office of Price Administration.

(5) Definitions—(i) Normal base period. The term "normal base period" means the period 1936-1939. If the applicant shall demonstrate to the satisfaction of the Office of Price Administration either (a) that his entire industry was operating during the greater part of such period at an unusually depressed level or (b) that because of unusual conditions prevailing during that period, the manufacturer's plant was operating during that period at an unusually depressed level in comparison to other plants in the industry, and in addition that some other period prior to January 1, 1941, represents a proper "normal base period", such other period may be considered. The mere fact that the rate of production has increased since 1936-1939 will not be deemed evidence that production during that period was at an "unusually depressed level". If the manufacturer was not in business prior to January 1, 1941, he shall state that fact in his application.

(ii) Over-all profits. The term "over-all profits" means net profit resulting from the operation of all divisions of the manufacturer, before the creation of any reserves, except ordinary reserves for depreciation and bad debts, and before income and excess profit taxes. In the case of a subsidiary wholly owned by a parent corporation, the term "over-all profits" means the consolidated net profit before the creation of any reserves, except ordinary reserves for depreciation and bad debts, and before income and excess profit taxes.

(iii) Subcontract. The term "subcontract" means any purchase, order or agreement to perform all or any part of the work, or to make or furnish any commodity, required for the performance of another contract or subcontract.

(iv) Total unit costs. The term "total unit costs" means the direct unit cost of labor, materials, and subcontracted services, plus a proportion of factory overhead, administrative and other expenses, based on actual operating experience, properly allocable to the production of the commodity, but does not include provisions for income or excess profit taxes. In evaluating total unit costs, the Office of Price Administration will determine whether the allocation of factory overhead, administrative and other expenses is based on a representative period of continuous, normal production.

(v) War contract. The term "war contract" means any contract with the United States, or any agency thereof, or with the government, or any agency thereof, of any country whose defense the President deems vital to the defense of the United States, under the terms of the Lend-Lease Act, for the sale of mechanical rubber goods purchased (a) for the ultimate use of the armed forces of the United States or for lend-lease purposes, or (b) by any government (or agency thereof) of any country whose defense the President deems vital to the defense of the United States under the terms of the Lend-Lease Act, or (c) for use in the production or manufacture of any commodity described in (a) or (b).

(b) Application by a manufacturer based upon an appropriate decrease of other prices—(1) Who may receive an adjustment under this paragraph. Adjustments under this paragraph will be granted only in the case of an essential producer of an essential mechanical rubber good. The meaning of these terms is explained in paragraph (a) (1) of this section.

(2) When adjustment may be granted. The Office of Price Administration, any regional office, or such other offices as may be authorized by order issued by the appropriate regional office, may make an adjustment of the maximum price in any case in which the manufacturer agrees to make and (simultaneously with any increase in the maximum price that may be authorized under this paragraph (b)) makes a reduction in the selling price of other commodities which will equal or exceed the total dollar amount of the adjustment granted under this paragraph.

(3) What an application under this paragraph must show. An application for price adjustment under this paragraph (b) shall contain information indicating that the manufacturer is an essential producer of an essential mechanical rubber good, and that if the proposed adjustment is granted, the gross dollar amount of sales of the commodities affected by the adjustment will not be greater than it would have been in the absence of the adjustment. In any case where such an adjustment is granted, the Office of Price Administration will require appropriate reports relating to the commodities affected.

(4) How the manufacturer proceeds in applying for an adjustment. An application for adjustment under this paragraph (b) shall be filed in accordance with Revised Procedural Regulation No. 1. If the manufacturer's total sales for the calendar year 1942, or for the fiscal year ending in 1942, exceeded $500,000, the application shall be filed with the Office of Price Administration in Washington, D. C. If the manufacturer's total sales during that period did not exceed $500,000, the application shall be filed with the regional office of the Office of Price Administration located in the same region that the applicant's business is located.

(c) Application by a manufacturer under a combination of both paragraphs (a) and (b). A manufacturer who desires to apply for an adjustment under paragraph (b) may, at the time he applies under that paragraph, also apply under paragraph (a), if the facts of his case entitle him to do so. In such case, the office considering his application will give the adjustment available under paragraph (a) before applying paragraph (b).

(d) No application for adjustment filed under Procedural Regulation No. 6* by a manufacturer after June 14, 1943, with respect to mechanical rubber goods will be granted.

(e) The maximum price for sales of mechanical rubber goods by persons, other than manufacturers, may be adjusted in an order issued under this section.

[§ 1315.30a added by Amendment 10, 8 F.R. 7818, effective 6–15–43]

§ 1315.30b Adjustable pricing. Any person may agree to sell at a price which can be increased up to the maximum price in effect at the time of delivery; but no person may, except in accordance with § 1315.30a in the case of an application for adjustment and unless authorized by the Office of Price Administration in the case of a petition for amendment, deliver or agree to deliver at prices to be adjusted upward in accordance with action taken by the Office of Price Administration after delivery. Such authorization in the case of a petition for amendment may be given when a request for a change in the applicable maximum price is pending, but only if the authorization is necessary to promote distribution or production and if it will not interfere with the purposes of the Emergency Price Control Act of 1942, as amended. The authorization may be given by the Administrator or by any official of the Office of Price Administration to whom the authority to grant such authorization has been delegated. The authorization will be given by order.

[§ 1315.30b added by Amendment 12, 8 F.R. 9751, effective 7–20–43]

(1) "Gross margin" means the difference, expressed in dollars and cents, between (i) the total direct materials and direct labor cost and (ii) the net selling price which would have been charged to a purchaser of the same class on the base dates established by this Regulation. It includes only items (such as, factory overhead, depreciation, commercial expenses, transportation and warehouse expense, and margin of profit) that would have been used, at the rates that would have been used, in calculating the selling price for the article in question on October 1, 1941 or January 5, 1942, whichever is the applicable date. The rates used shall be those in effect at the volume of production on the base date.

(2) "Manufacturer" means any person engaged in the production of mechanical rubber goods who produces any rubber portion thereof.

This term "regularly quoted price" also refers to the practice of interpolating between the prices of two sizes of a standard list item to obtain the price of an intermediate size.

(8) "Standard list item" means an article which is offered for sale by the seller at the same price to any member of a particular class through the medium of a schedule or price list.

[Paragraphs (7) and (8) added by Amendment 3, 7 F. R. 10103, effective 12–8–42 and amended by Amendment 12, 8 F.R. 9751, effective 7–20–43]

(9) "Synthetic rubber" means a material obtained by chemical synthesis, possessing the approximate physical properties of natural rubber, when compared in either the vulcanized or unvulcanized condition, which can be vulcanized with sulphur or other chemicals with the application of heat, and which, when vulcanized, is capable of rapid elastic recovery after being stretched to at least twice its length at temperatures ranging from 0° F. to 150° F. at any humidity.

[Paragraph (9) added by Amendment 6, 8 F.R. 1312, effective 2-3-43 (effective date changed to 7-10-43 by Amendment 11, 8 F.R. 8376, effective 6-17-43)]

(2) For constructions and sizes not listed in Table I-D. If the construction and size of hose being priced is not listed in Table I-D and the type of hose being priced is listed in Table I-D, the manufacturer shall determine the maximum price for that construction and size of hose as follows:

(i) The manufacturer shall first select that hose listed in Table I-D which is of the most comparable construction to the hose being priced, and he shall then select the hose of that construction which is of the nearest size to the hose being priced.

(ii) The manufacturer shall then divide (a) the consumers' net price that he had in effect on October 1, 1941, for natural rubber hose of the same type, construction and size as the hose being priced by (b) the consumers' net price he had in effect on October 1, 1941, for the most comparable natural rubber hose (selected in the manner set forth in the preceding subdivision (i)). The resultant percentage should then be multiplied by the consumers' net price stated in Table I-D for the most comparable hose in order to obtain the maximum consumers' net price for the sale of the hose being priced in broken package lots.

(iii) The manufacturers shall then deduct from this consumers' net price all discounts, allowances and other deductions from the consumers' net price that he had in effect to a purchaser of the same class on October 1, 1941. These discounts shall include a discount of 10% when the hose is sold in standard package lots, if this was the practice of the manufacturer on October 1, 1941.

[Paragraph (iii) as amended by Amendment 13, effective 8-9-43]

(b) Maximum manufacturers' prices for V-belts and oil resisting conveyor belting made in whole or in part of neoprene—(1) Applicability of this paragraph. This paragraph is applicable to any V-belts and oil resisting conveyor belting made in whole or in part of neoprene for which the manufacturers had a price stated in his price list in effect on October 1, 1941.

(2) How the manufacturer calculates his maximum price. The manufacturer shall calculate the maximum price of the belts and belting covered by this paragraph as follows: The manufacturer shall first deduct from the list price in effect on October 1, 1941, an amount determined by multiplying that list price by the following percentages:

	Percent
Solid neoprene multiple V-belts	8.1
Neoprene cover multiple V-belts	2.9
Solid neoprene FHP V-belts (A and B sections only)	9.4
Neoprene cover FHP V-belts	3.8
Automotive equipment solid neoprene fan belts	12.2
Neoprene conveyor belting	18.6

The manufacturer shall then deduct from the resulting figure all discounts, allowances and other deductions from the list price that he had in effect to a purchaser of the same class on October 1, 1941.
